The Ebell of Los Angeles

The Ebell of Los Angeles was organized October 27, 1894, at the home of the Misses Alice and Emmie H. Parsons, 1026 South Olive Street. It was modelled after the Oakland Ebell Society which was originated by Dr. Adrian Ebell, a noted German scholar. Dr. Ebell conceived the plan of an international academy of sciences, music, art and languages for women, with chapters all over the world.

Mrs. H. W. R. Strong was chosen first president. In the second year, Ebell moved to the lower floor of Ex-Governor Downey's residence and then to a flat at Flower and Eleventh Streets. In 1897, The Ebell of Los Angeles was incorporated and that year moved into the first structure in Los Angeles to be built exclusively for a woman's club, at 724 South Broadway.

At the end of five years, Ebell determined to build its own home and on July 31, 1905, the cornerstone of the club house at 1719 South Figueroa Street was laid and this building opened, January 9, 1906. The club gradually acquired all the building stock and in December, 1911, received the deed which made her owner of her club home. Various pieces of valuable property were purchased with a view of enlarging or building a new home to accommodate the rapidly growing organization. The lot at Wilshire and Lucerne was bought, the present stately group of buildings planned, the cornerstone laid February 28, 1927, and opened in October, 1927.

The distinct activities of The Ebell of Los Angeles are: (1) the general Monday afternoon programs; (2) the study departments; (3) the Social Welfare Work, specific and general, including Ebell Rest Cottage Association, Practical Relief and General Philanthropies; (4) Scholarships; (5) Ebell Juniors.

The Ebell Rest Cottage Association was the outgrowth of the work of the Social Service Committee. Mrs. William Read was the first chairman and the present home, located at 135 North Park View Street, was dedicated in February, 1923.

Scholarships became a definite activity of Ebell in 1920. The Junior Auxiliary, now Ebell Juniors, was organized in 1921 and the Former Officers' Round Table in 1927. The magazine, EBELL, was published during the first years and was revived in 1927. The War Service Memorial was presented June 30, 1930.

The object of The Ebell of Los Angeles is "individual development, a united effort toward harmony, charity and that broad culture which comes through service to others," whence comes the pledge of all its members, "I serve."

MRS. CHARLES F. RATHMAN.

Report of President

One of the requirements of the year's work is a bit difficult and that is again writing the final report. Everyone knows that the individual reports of those heading the departments and the various activities of this wonderful club of ours really paint the picture of the entire organization. Anything that the presiding officer might say is apt to be a mere repetition, not only of this year's achievements but of the preceding years of Ebell as well. However, there are a few highlights and a few deductions that may be drawn for those who are not too familiar with the inner workings of our numerous avenues of service. Then, too, we are grateful that the new members have much to learn yet; so they become an inspiration for the rewriting of the year's history.

That so large a group of citizens have been able to continue as usual in this day of depression, that we are a solvent concern having paid all of our obligations and in addition having paid $15,000 on our mortgage augurs well for us all. We are particularly proud of the manner in which our philanthropies have functioned, because with so many calls on every side, when even the most fortunate have many occasions for worry, when our less fortunate friends are more nervous, more depressed than ever before, the Rest Cottage Association and the Practical Relief have met every human need that could be met. We have only unstinted praise for these patient, untiring, sympathetic workers who have given comfort and assistance to so many aching hearts and ailing bodies.

Our Scholarship has carried on as usual, too. While some of our securities have passed the dividends, by proper budgetting every student has been kept on our lists. Because of the uncertainty for the future, we are not offering any more scholarships but there are fourteen boys and girls promised a scholarship for next year. Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint have added to their endowment fund by contributing more of the stock and bonds of the Western Dairies Company so that in time we are confident our income will be as much as formerly. The Board of Directors sent a special letter in appreciation of this latest gift of these generous friends of youth.

There are several significant things that seem to reflect the tempo of the world around us. Whether our members need their club as an escape, as a means of entertainment or for serious study, whatever may be the reason, the attendance at the departments has increased by over seven thousand more than the previous year and that was then considered the banner year for all time. It is a great compliment to the departments and again we reiterate that the departments are the backbone of the club. Several of our larger departments entirely fill our main auditorium at every meeting. Even the smaller groups have shown a very healthy growth and one hopes the smaller sections will not grow too large for the intimate discussions now possible. We like many departments and we like them all sizes, so that every taste may be accommodated. It is not too much to say that the departments are more than meeting the requirements of our members.

The income from our theatre reflects the upward trend. We have earned almost two thousand more this year than the previous year. The idea of children's matinees that our Mr. Wyatt has been promoting is bringing a desirable type of people to our club for Saturday. In time, we think this may become a very valuable contribution to our community service and bring the neighborhood to appreciate that better entertainment offered to their children develops better citizens. Again we are leading in the effort for better plays for children.

The creative work within the club proper has been worthy of much praise. Many of our members have shown such marked talent as to reflect great honor upon our club. Many of our departments have developed the latent ability of our members themselves. In addition to the regular work, ten members have written pageants in the prize contest depicting the history of Ebell to be used for our fortieth birthday next October.

If only we could find work for everyone and find the kind of work each member likes to do. Our Committee on Committees, composed of Mrs. Samuel H. French and Miss Margaret B. McGrath, have been working for weeks to see that everyone is happily placed and that as many as possible may be used with few repeats. It is a wise policy that suggested the annual turnover. However at best we use many members again each year, because we are aware of their proved ability. At the same time we are hoping to develop the native talent that we know is ready to be developed. A sympathetic audience for the beginners is assured because each of us remembers the first step in leadership.

Our Carnival on June 20 was a heartening experience to all of us. It required weeks and months of preparation, every member of the club contributing something (I firmly believe that every member either gave or bought something) so that the final day was a triumph of friendliness and gaiety commensurate with Ebell's standard. That it was a great financial success as well is approval of the type of entertainment offered.

That last day of the season rather reflects the atmosphere we wish to prevail at our beautiful plant: gaiety, laughter, work, graciousness and above all the merry contribution to helping others less fortunate, for which the greater part of the proceeds is used. It is an amazing thing that so large a group of us have found so many avenues of usefulness. It is an amazing thing that we can become so interested in art discussion so that our "sybil war" has widened art appreciation! No longer are we confined to "kitchen, children and church" and we must see to it that these avenues are kept forever open for American women. These are busy days, alive with serious, heartrending problems and that Ebell has played her part is evident to each of you who reads the detailed reports in this Year Book. As William Hard on a Monday program said, the Ship of State must be kept forever on the high seas; so must our Ebell Club be kept forever alive with questions of interest and of forward looking moment.

As we approach our fortieth birthday, which we hope each member will make a homecoming event, we are again aware of the wise policy for the guidance of Ebell's activities that has developed through these four decades. Your president is happy to have shared in this big responsibility and as the lovely president of our Juniors expressed it: "The gavel is not as heavy as I thought it was."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. SAMUEL CARY DUNLAP, President.

Report of Recording Secretary

The Recording Secretary of The Ebell of Los Angeles has enjoyed many privileges and opportunities during these past two years. One of the greatest of these has been the privilege of serving with our president, Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap, whose every thought is charm and every action, grace.

During the fiscal year 1933-34 your Recording Secretary has attended every Monday afternoon meeting, thirty-eight meetings of the Board of Directors, including regular and adjourned sessions, four called meetings and several Executive Committee meetings. For each of these meetings minutes have been prepared and read at the succeeding meeting.

During this entire year the members of your Board of Directors have served faithfully and well, ever striving to solve each new problem as it has presented itself in the most clean-cut and efficient, and at the same time, satisfactory, way. The fact that they have kept in touch with the national pulse of our country is shown by a letter sent to Mr. Ickes urging the completion of a Federal Government appropriation amounting to $59,750,000.00 for the continuance of the construction of the Colorado River Aqueduct. That they are also civic-minded is shown by the protest made against the closing of the Art Museum at Exposition Park here in Los Angeles.

However, most of the problems confronting your fifteen representatives are ones of immediate import to The Ebell of Los Angeles whose aims and ideals are constantly upheld in the solutions.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET B. MCGRATH, Recording Secretary.

Report of General Curator

What can I tell that has not been told,
And still is worth the telling?

Running true to form, it has been a glorious year—interest and attendance grew apace—and the enthusiasm of the twenty-one curators from start to finish was unbounded.

At the beginning of the year 1933-1934, we were banded together in one aim, one purpose, one fulfillment, to make each department program count for something worth while.

Elbert Hubbard once wrote these words, which were exemplified in the thought of each curator throughout the club year: "I believe in today and the work I am doing, in tomorrow and the work I hope to do and in the sure reward which the future holds. I believe in courtesy, in kindness, in generosity, in good cheer, in friendship and in honest competition. I believe there is something doing, somewhere, for every one ready to do it. I believe I am ready right now!"

A new child was born into the Ebell family, named Creative Writing, which made a total of twenty departments; also a department Editor who adds much to the staff of loyal workers. The attendance increased steadily from 4,805 in October, to 7,405 in May, with a total for the year of 35,978.

On many a ticket you will notice the coupon, "Not good if detached," so we treasure cooperation with our President, the Board of Directors and the membership, believing in unity of purpose there is strength. A helping hand, a bit of guidance and we ourselves become more thoroughly familiar with the goal toward which our club as a whole is striving.

Our motto, in order to hold what we have gained, must ever be found in this word of four letters: GROW.

Report of Ebell Rest Cottage Association

The Association is honored to have Mrs. William Read as Chairman Emeritus. Rest Cottage is a philanthropy fostered by her from its inception.

We are a group of chairmen and committees, working under the spell of the magic word, "Ebell." It has been an open sesame to many doors, which have led into new channels of opportunity. We bear constantly in mind that any presumption or abuse on our part will break the spell, the charm will vanish and our usefulness be curtailed. Mrs. F. E. Lamberton, assistant chairman, tells of a few of the unusual by-paths into which we have ventured. On the advice of a physician and a nerve specialist, we assisted a young woman in starting divorce proceedings at the legal clinic of the University of Southern California; again for another guest, we wrote a letter to an attorney in a neighboring city. She had commenced divorce action two years before, but it was halted for lack of an additional fee of fifty dollars. The letter explained the circumstances and the obligation was cancelled. Again, by the magic word "Ebell" a stretching apparatus at the Orthopaedic Hospital, was engaged for one of our girls. The painful process is now in progress. It will require months, but she is assured that ultimately, she will be able to walk like other girls. While working for her admittance to the Hospital we arranged for her to continue her senior year at the high school for cripples. Mrs. Lamberton reports that two hundred thirty-eight guests have recuperated at Rest Cottage, this year.

Our closing meeting of the club year was held in a park, all arrangements being made by the Hospitality Committee.

Our finance chairman, Mrs. James Andrew Rogers, called our attention to items of interest in the report of our treasurer, Mrs. Frederick Wording Pitcher; that we had received six hundred twelve dollars from social agencies for guests and from contributing guests, which in a way compensates for interest not paid on bonds. Our secretary, Mrs. Justus A. Kirby, sent out four hundred Christmas invitations and wrote one hundred letters.

Mrs. Louise Helen Kramer, our house chairman, must have resorted to magic too, for many lovely and useful gifts have gravitated to the cottage. The Needlework Guild, always our friend, supplied seventy-six articles of bedding and night apparel. Mrs. Kramer reports the strengthening of the foundation of the sun parlor; also a minor amount of painting and tinting in upkeep. The spell under which Mrs. Frank P. Ewins, garden chair-

Mrs. Kramer reports the strengthening of the foundation of the sun parlor; also a minor amount of painting and tinting in upkeep. The spell under which Mrs. Frank P. Ewins, garden chairman, works, is evidenced by the way the lawn, shrubs and flowers flourish without any draft on the treasury this year.

Mrs. J. W. A. Off, membership chairman, despite the financial conditions, has, with her untiring committee, brought twelve hundred dollars into the treasury from five hundred eighty-two contributors. Mrs. John B. Long, investigating chairman, and her committee have reduced investigations to a fine but friendly art. They have recommended, as eligibles, about two-thirds of the applicants for admission to the cottage. Mrs. J. A. McCusker, chairman and the Transportation Committee, have made one hundred five calls, which includes delivery of baskets, Christmas calls and drives.

Mrs. Wilbur S. McCune, follow-up chairman, reports that her committee has made more than one hundred calls and clothes have been supplied when necessary for temporary relief. Mrs. William R. Mail has done admirably in "selling the Cottage to the club" through our magazine. She arranged for the Christmas program, put on by Mrs. Marian Oakley and other members of the Drama Workshop. We have participated monthly, in the Field Survey excursions, usually by listening to the interesting accounts given by Mrs. Samuel E. Faroat, chairman and her committee.

Mrs. Leafie Sloan-Orcutt and Mrs. Charles Ashworth Stavnow, chairmen of Hospitality, introduced the Cottage to the new workers, when they served a delicious luncheon after the October meeting. December sixteenth, the committee arranged the joyous annual Christmas dinner at the club for former guests and present guests. Two hundred forty-five responded to the invitations. A new members' tea was given in February at the Cottage to acquaint the new members of Ebell with this activity. It was sponsored by the membership and hospitality committees.

Mrs. Thomas B. Marshall and Mrs. William J. Wilson and their group of friends presented Rest Cottage with a beautiful quilt which was the motive for a party. Rest Cottage cooperated with Solarium Tea friends in a Valentine tea. It was arranged and carried forward by a special committee, Mrs. Edward Everett Sherrard, chairman.

Rest Cottage Committees work with zeal and confidence, knowing that back of them is an understanding Board of Directors and a sympathetic club and "a help us out sometimes" Practical Relief.

Report of Scholarship Committee

1933-34

Twenty students have been on the Ebell Scholarship roll for this year. Eighteen have received full scholarships and two for one semester. These awards were to fifteen girls and to five boys; with an enrollment of seventeen at U.C.L.A.; one at U.S.C.; two at California Institute of Technology at Pasadena; during one semester a student at the Southwestern School of Law.

Monthly checks of twenty dollars or two hundred dollars for the school year has made it possible for these young people to continue their school work. Income from investments has been reduced making it necessary for the committee to refrain from making any new awards this year.

Income for the work is derived from four sources, namely: 1st, Interest from the Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint Foundation Fund. 2nd, Interest from the Ebell Scholarship Fund. 3rd, Six hundred dollars from the Ebell treasury. 4th, Gifts from individuals.

In June, six of our students graduated and one completed a fifth year at U.C.L.A.; and one student graduated at U.S.C.

The honor of PHI BETA KAPPA and PHI KAPPA PHI was given to our graduate at U.S.C. Miss Gene Nielson, senior, was given for the second time the leading part in the annual Greek Play that is presented at U.C.L.A.

The committee has had the pleasure of entertaining the students twice during the year. These get-acquainted days are always very happy times. Our students have been faithful to the high standard that is required and are most appreciative of the assistance from the Ebell Club. We are proud of them and wish for them the greatest amount of success in their chosen life work.

Report of Practical Relief Committee

While we have not had so many coming to the Practical Relief rooms for aid, we have sent out more packages. This is due, possibly, to the applicants not having car fare. We have given out more layettes and more men's clothing than usual.

From June 1, 1933, to June 1, 1934, garments and articles received, 3,119; given out, 4,626. Garments made and remodelel, 692. As the Ebell station for unemployed women was open last summer, the Practical Relief Committee did not meet through July and August but the members took material home and 40 garments were turned in in September. Comforters made 29, layettes 15, sweaters knitted and material furnished by a club member 10. Material furnished for one graduating dress and two dresses given out which were used for graduating dresses and three new ones were made over. We are indebted to the Needlework Guild for 252 garments. We have given Goodwill 605 garments and articles. 18 High School girls have been assisted and 15 College girls. We have never had so few school girls come to us for aid. Along the first of the year when they came we did not have all they needed and we have never had so few garments sent in suitable for our college girls.

We have assisted 34 Rest Cottage women. Two families from the Montrose flood were aided. We have found more hungry people, more asking for work and have been able to place a few in positions, mostly house work.

We sent out 147 Christmas baskets. Cash donations for Christmas baskets were $447.42 and expenditures for same were $329.42, leaving a balance of $118.00 which was used toward the baskets sent out each week. 276 baskets have been given out the past year, averaging about 5 baskets a week. The Ebell members were so generous, not only in giving money for our Christmas baskets but in large supplies of candy, cookies, meat, nuts, cereals, jam and jelly, that our baskets were very full and added much to the Christmas cheer. We are indebted to Bullocks for 267 articles and garments.

Our average attendance was 14.

Ebell Station for Unemployed Women opened March 16, 1933, under the supervision of the Bureau of Vocational Service and the chairman of Practical Relief, with Mrs. Paul Taylor as secretary. 119 women have been given work. Work orders were received once a month, varying from 24 hours to 112 hours, according to the needs and dependents of the workers. The material was supplied by Red Cross. About 3000 garments were made, including dresses, sleeping garments, suits, underwear and men's shirts. The work room was closed November 29, 1933, and opened again under C. W. S. Mrs. Paul Taylor was made supervisor and the Vocational Bureau said that the reports from the Ebell supervisor were always correct and much praise was given for the Ebell Station. Our quota was 20 women but only 17 were sent at first. Material was supplied by Practical Relief Committee and Ebell Club added to this. 414 garments were made and these were given to Practical Relief to distribute. Material later was supplied by Red Cross; this included pajamas and baby clothes. The room was open 24 hours per week and was closed the last Thursday in March, 1934. All of the women working in the Ebell Section expressed their appreciation of the comfortable and beautiful quarters given them. They enjoyed the view of the Patio and the tea which was served with their lunch. The whole atmosphere was restful and soothing but they did work and worked well. So Ebell has again made many women happy and has given them courage to carry on.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. J. FLETCHER,
Chairman.

Report of Salon of Art

During the club season of 1933-34, the Art Patrons have been occupied with art, happily combined with many social events. We have had nine exhibitions of oils, sculpture, water-colors and prints, loaned to us by eminent artists, groups of artists and galleries.

Each month we have had one and often two social events, at which some phase of Art was considered. We have had several gallery talks as well as a delightful program furnished by the Women Painters of the West with a demonstration of "How to paint a Picture" by its president, Evelyn Nunn Miller.

Many of our members have offered their homes to us and some we have been able to accept. The Art Patrons had the honor of opening the club year with a reception honoring Maxine Albro who painted the frescoes. Mrs. Sydney A. Temple entertained us at her lovely home in Bel-Air, while Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher generously opened her home to us on two Sunday afternoons in December. Mrs. Robert L. Gifford, Mrs. Jessie B. Alexander and Mrs. Willitts J. Hole all entertained us later in the season and in each instance served a delicious tea.

We have not been able to crowd in many out-of-town trips but in the Autumn we had a very enjoyable luncheon at the Flintridge Country Club, later visiting the studios of Nell Walker Warner and other artists in La Crescenta. In January, we lunched at Hotel Huntington and viewed the gem paintings of Frank Moore. In January, we entertained at tea, art school students of the city in our club home. The last meeting was held in the beautiful garden of Mr. Norman Sprague.

At Christmas time, the Art Patrons sponsored their annual Christmas dinner, which was very successful, due to the cooperation of the several committees that have worked together so harmoniously. All of these events have been planned and carried through by the able social chairman, Mrs. James L. Stunston. The membership chairman, Mrs. William Dellamore, has done an outstanding bit of work in securing forty-five new and reinstated members. The membership now numbers one hundred thirty.

Our dinner to the competitive exhibiting artists in May was most successful. It was attended by one hundred thirty-six artists and more than two hundred club members and guests. The beautiful decorations were given by Mrs. William H. Montague and her committee and the music was delightful. We were happy and proud to give $525 in prize money, contributed by Mr. Willitts J. Hole, Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap, Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, Mrs. George Harris Cook, Mrs. William Clark Brown, Mrs. Edwin H. Shields and the Art Patrons. We also had a gift from an anonymous friend.

We have made a creditable number of sales this year and find that many pictures are sold months after they have been exhibited in our galleries.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES V. CRAIG, Chairman.

Report of Ways and Means Committee

The slogan of the Ways and Means Committee for 1933-1934 was, "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?" and though he had nearly everyone in his grasp this last year, we managed to elude him. Several times we felt his hot breath in fast pursuit, but being brave, we gathered our forces and out-distanced him with the following results:

Report of President of Ebell Juniors

The Ebell Juniors have completed another successful year. It has been due to no one member, no one committee, but to each and every Ebell Junior who has so devotedly cooperated with the plans laid out by the Ebell Junior Board.

Of course we feel that the increased spirit of cooperation and friendliness has been due in a great measure to our new Junior Room. To have a place to call your own and to know that you are always welcome, tends to bring the girls more frequently to the club. Besides, to feel that they themselves have redecorated and furnished it and paid for it in full, gives a feeling of ownership and pride which has brought the girls closer together.

Our new Athletic Section this year has helped to get the girls together in an informal way, and under the able chairmanship of Miss Gracia L. Johnson has developed with great strides. We feel that within the next year it will be one of the most popular and regularly attended activities. Under the leadership of Mrs. John Martin Askey, the swimming and tap dancing classes have an average attendance of four or five weekly. Mrs. William R. Maloney, Jr., has directed the golf and riding, and the attendance at these sports has averaged about four per week. The tennis group has varied from two or three to eight or ten, the average for the year being about five or six. As these activities meet every week, the total attendance in the Athletic Section is approximately one hundred per month.

This year it has been essential to raise twice our regular amounts through benefits, and this was accomplished through our very able chairman, Mrs. Wendell C. Cole, Jr., and her indispensible assistants, Miss Albertina M. McGrath, Miss Elizabeth Lloyd and Mrs. Errett L. Cord. Net profit for the year, $692.17. Itemized as follows: September 20th, a play reading and tea at the home of Mrs. Ralph B. Lloyd, $132.00; December 12th, annual supper dance at Biltmore, $36.65; February 2nd, a Soiree at the home of Mrs. Warren F. McGrath, $182.46; March 28th, bridge tea at the home of Mrs. George H. Johnson, $81.10; May 5th, bridge tea and fashion show by Bullock's at the home of Mrs. Warren F. McGrath, $259.96.

The Junior Book Chamber has been carried on with great success this year by its chairman, Miss Sylvia Weaver and her assistants, Miss Katherine D. Hackstaff and Mrs. John W. Spellman. We are proud of the variety and quality of the reviews, which included works of fiction, poems, biographies, political discussions, plays and current events. During the past year the Book Chamber of Ebell Juniors met fourteen times. The average attendance was about thirty, while one meeting broke existing Book Chamber records with sixty-five. A new policy of announcing one book for each meeting several weeks ahead gave Juniors a chance to read the book in advance and thus made an opportunity for discussion.

The Drama Section of Ebell Juniors, under the excellent direction of its chairman, Miss Lorraine Lewis and her assistants, Mrs. Robert McD. Hixson and Mrs. Harold Parkin, Jr., (Miss Virginia H. Nelson) has averaged twenty-five members in attendance, for two meetings each month. The guest speakers were all connected in some way with the world of drama, stage settings, make-up, play writing with an occasional play reading. The section has presented three play programs this year: the November regular meeting program, two one-act plays, The First White Woman, Babette Hughes and They're None of Them Perfect, Sophie Kerr. The second program was in February, at which time our girls were the guest artists of the Drama Department of Ebell. They presented two one-act plays with mixed casts: Romance is a Racket, and Fashion. In May they presented a three-act play for the final meeting of the Juniors, All's Fair, a most successful performance with all the air of professionals due to the able direction of the chairman, Miss Lorraine Lewis.

The Scholarship chairman, Mrs. Paul Robinson Hunter, reports the gratitude of Miss Ruthelma Newberry and Miss Grace Walker, who have been helped through the U.C.L.A. this year with a $10.00 per month gift from September to June.

The Social Welfare Committee, Mrs. Cameron L. Thom, chairman, Miss Alice G. Gridley, Mrs. Eugene F. Holthaus and Mrs. Wellman B. Mills, assistants, point with pride to their achievements. Twenty-four children were outfitted during the club year. Forty-five dresses with bloomers to match were made for little girls between the ages of eight and twelve. Shoes accompanied these outfits. Overalls, corduroys, shirts, underwear and shoes were purchased for the small boys. At Christmas, eight needy families were presented with well-filled baskets of groceries, meat and toys for the children. The average attendance has been fifteen members. Total disbursements were $111.16; receipts, $18.50; total cost of maintenance, $92.66.

The Credentials chairman, Mrs. John B. Seargeant, gives the average attendance for the year as 189. We have taken in forty-two new members, twenty-one resignations, twenty transfers, which leaves a total membership of two hundred eleven.

Our Treasurer, Mrs. James Antrim Hague, gives the following financial report:

Balance on Hand, July 1, 1933		$ 660.20

Amount on Hand		$ 736.08

The balance on hand, $736.08 is $75.88 more than we had on hand July 1, 1933.

Due to our very clever chairman of Bridge Teas, Miss Elizabeth Scattergood and her assistants, Mrs. Kenneth C. Holland and Mrs. Albert D. Shonk, the Ebell Juniors enjoyed not only the seven regular monthly bridge parties, but two bridge tournaments which were held on Monday mornings in our own lovely Junior Room.

The programs for the regular monthly meetings were planned by the chairman, Mrs. Howard Elliot and her assistant, Miss Frances A. Stevens, and were as follows:

OCTOBER—Fashion Show, given through the courtesy of Bullocks and modelled by our own members.

NOVEMBER—Two plays, presented by Ebell Junior Drama Section.

JANUARY—Art Lecture and Exhibition, John Duncan Gleason.

MARCH—Current Events and World Affairs, interpreted by Dr. Frederic Woellner of U.C.L.A.

APRIL—Radio program, presented by KHJ radio artists in person.

MAY—Three-act play, presented by Ebell Junior Drama Section.

It has been a very happy year and a real pleasure to serve the Ebell Juniors, and indeed a privilege to work under our much beloved president of Ebell, Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap. I want to thank Mrs. Charles Howe, chairman of the Junior Advisory Committee and her assistants, Mrs. William Clark Brown and Mrs. Emmet H. Wilson for their splendid help to the Juniors. To the Junior Board and to each member of the Ebell Juniors, I want to give my sincere thanks for their splendid cooperation and helpfulness during this past year.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLOTTE MCGRATH,
President of Ebell Juniors.

Standing Rules

Admission to all meetings shall be by card of current term only.

Regular members may bring three guests to all open Monday afternoon programs by paying fifty cents each.

Junior members shall be privileged to attend one Monday program each month and may bring three guests to such meetings, by paying fifty cents each.

No person eligible to membership shall be admitted as a guest to more than two Monday afternoon meetings in one year.

Auditorium guest tickets are sold by the Guest Ticket Committee at the Lucerne Boulevard and Eighth Street entrances. Regular members will receive ten guest cards for departments; one-half to be issued October first and one-half March first.

Calling cards may be used for guests in the Bible and Public Affairs Departments.

Any member of an out-of-town federated club may, on presentation of credentials, receive a complimentary guest card good for ten days.

Current membership cards will serve as cards of introduction to federated clubs of other cities.

New members notified of their election during February or June shall pay dues from March first and October first, respectively.

Applications for non-resident rates will not be granted after October first for the ensuing year, or after March first for the last half of the year.

Endorsers of temporary membership applicants must state length of time applicants have been in Los Angeles and probable length of stay. All applications must be made in writing each year and the membership must be continuous from the date upon which it is granted.

Canvassing for funds to provide gifts for curators, instructors or officers is definitely against the policy of the Club.

No appeals for financial aid shall be made from the platform or in the club rooms except by permission of the President and Board of Directors; nor shall there be any personal canvass for funds, but a table may be so placed that voluntary contributions may be received.

It is against the policy of Ebell for its members to solicit gifts, commissions or favors from merchants or commercial concerns of any kind.

Curators, committee chairmen and others arranging for called meetings in the club house shall notify the office stating the time and place of meeting.

Ebell seeks information on legislative measures, but does not endorse partisan political measures or persons.

A member may not represent Ebell on any outside committee unless so appointed by the President or Board of Directors.

No refreshments are to be served at any time in the Reception Room except to the Reception Committee.

Luncheon tickets will be on sale in the Galeria every club day from one-half hour before the department meets to 1:00 P.M. At other times they may be procured at the office.

To insure efficient service, reservations should be made for the Wednesday luncheons and the Thursday night dinners by 5:00 P.M. of the day preceding.

For the convenience of members, checks mailed to the office will be accepted for reservations, but no reservations may be made over the telephone.

Reservations are not obligatory for the Monday, Tuesday and Thursday luncheons.

Tables may be reserved for Departments and other groups.

It is a rule of the Club that there shall be no tipping.

Notices

Office open daily from 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M.; Saturday, 8:30 A.M. to 12:00 M.

Departments are open to all members of Ebell.

The Bulletin Board will note any change in date of meetings.

The Charter Day reception will be held on the last Monday in October.
