The Ebell

Dr. Adrian Ebell, a distinguished German scholar, realizing woman's limited opportunity for mental development and the necessity of fitting her to cope more effectively with the strenuous and complex forms of modern life, conceived the idea of establishing an international academy with headquarters at Berlin and tributary chapters in all parts of the world, for the object of developing feminine mentality along serious and scientific lines.

The first of the several chapters on the Pacific Coast bearing his name was the Oakland Ebell, organized in 1876. The Los Angeles Ebell, established in 1894, with its central organization and various study departments, was modeled upon the same lines as this admirably planned Mother Club.

Lecture-Recitals and Class Lessons (alternately) on the
WAGNER MUSIC DRAMAS:

Das Rheingold	Tristan und Isolde
Die Walküre	Die Meistersinger
Siegfried	Parsifal
Die Götterdämmerung

Each of these great music dramas is explained with the special view of bringing before the minds of the audience what actually takes place at the best performances, and at each lecture-recital a program of the music is rendered on the pianoforte. References are frequently made to the interpretations given by the great singers. In order to make the course more inclusive, Wagner is shown not merely as the superb musician, but as the dramatist, poet, philosopher, and deep ethical teacher.

The class lessons are for the purpose of stimulating greater interest in these renowned masterpieces. On these occasions the members of the Music Department are entitled to ask questions either viva voce or in writing, and thus individual difficulties are explained.

The aim of the Director is so to train the artistic faculties that each of his hearers may become a cultured musician, able to appreciate the beautiful in music, and ready to exercise a keen, judicious, and always sympathetic criticism. The course should commend itself to the beginner as well as to the advanced, to the pianist, the vocalist, the student of musical form and instrumentation, and to those wishing to become acquainted with Wagnerian traditions.

Annual Report of the Recording Secretary

The last year of The Ebell of Los Angeles has been not only one of continued progress in those special lines of culture for which our Club was founded, but has been notable also as one in which our material prosperity may be said to have received a distinct impetus. We refer to the purchase of 261 extra shares of Ebell Building Association Stock—our holdings now amounting to 1755 shares, valued at $17,550—thus giving the Club, as an organization, the controlling interest in the clubhouse property. As loyal members of Ebell we rejoice in this knowledge.

One hundred and sixteen regular members have qualified during the year, five names have been added to the list of Life Members, fifteen Associate and thirty-two Temporary Members have enjoyed the privileges of the Club for the year. Twenty-one members have resigned. It is with sad hearts we record the death of five of our Active Members, and one Honorary Member. The total number of regular members in good and active standing is 918. There have been 4787 guests entertained at the open Monday afternoon programs.

The Club is indebted for gifts of pictures, books, etc., to Mrs. Richard Gird, Mrs. O. H. Churchill, the Department of Art and Travel, the Department of Shakespeare, Mrs. P. G. Hubert, Mrs. George H. Kress, Mrs. Benj. Thorpe, Mrs. Elizabeth Hancock, Mrs. F. W. Johnson, and Count Bozenta.

The Club has had the pleasure of assisting the following philanthropic and civic organizations: The Barlow Sanitarium, the Maternity Hospital, the Archaeological Society, the Berkeley Loan Fund, the Legal Aid Society, the McKinley Home, and of giving smaller donations to several other worthy causes. The Los Angeles County Chapter of the California Branch of the American National Red Cross was launched under Ebell auspices—the initial expense being paid by the Club. By the kindness of our members who participated in it, one of our Monday programs was re-produced for the benefit of the Sicilian earthquake sufferers, $227.50 in this way was turned over to that worthy cause.

We have had thirty-five regular Monday afternoon programs, exclusive of Charter Day Reception, and the Children's Christmas Party—all of which have been excellent and varied. We have had ten musical programs, five of which were arranged by our own members, namely: Mesdames Welsh, Martindale, Ogilvie and Stanton. The names of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clifford Lott recall a delightful program, and "The Raven," under the direction of Mr. Archibald Sessions will long remain a delightful memory. Mr. and Mrs. Thilo Becker furnished an artistic program later in the season.

Our lectures were all good, of sufficiently varied subjects to bring out interested audiences. Early in the season Mr. Charles Keeler spoke on "Man, the Creative Artist, in His Relation to Nature." This was the first of a series of lectures given by Mr. Keeler. Our Honorary Member, the Hon. Frank P. Flint, kindly addressed us on "Our National Resources," bringing us in touch with the vital happenings at Washington, and those special things that affect the interest of our state and city. One of the gems of the year was the theme "The Bible as Literature," presented by Mrs. Hume, our State President. Dr. M. S. Hughes told us in his inimitable way of "The Penalties of Progress"; while Mr. C. A. Ballreich addressed us on "City Politics," touching on that important subject, "Women's Suffrage." Dr. Ross Moore and Rev. Dana Bartlett spoke to us on the much-discussed and highly interesting subjects, "Psycho-Therapy" and "Religio-Therapy." We are indebted to Mr. Frank G. Tyrrell for a lecture on "The Romance of the Desert," which, under his magic touch, blossomed like a rose. Through the courtesy of Dr. Fitch C. E. Mattison, Dr. George H. Kress and Mr. Leslie Hewitt, "City Problems" were discussed—the first two gentlemen devoting themselves to problems of physical health, and the latter to problems of political health. We again had the pleasure of traveling with Mr. Baumgardt—this time through that land of the warm sunshine—"Broad-Breasted Spain."

We have had readings and plays varying from the comic farce of Howells to Browning's immortal "Saul." Mrs. Eliza Tupper Wilkes gave us a delightful program. Mrs. Lillian Burkhart Goldsmith presented a clever farce by Bernard Shaw, and the Department of French gave two French plays. We are indebted to Mrs. C. L. Higbee for a most pleasing June program.

The social feature of all these Monday meetings was made attractive and cordial by the kindness of the House Committee, whose courtesy over the tea cups added a charm to the whole.

Our Children's Christmas Party was a pleasure to all. Once more the auditorium rang with the merry laughter of happy children as they welcomed their time-honored guest—"Old Santa," with his pack. Only a few of the members know of the happy faces and the hearts made glad by the lovely toys left by our little ones for their less fortunate friends.

The following day was one of pure delight to sixty little folk, brought from different parts of the city by loving members, interested in each particular child. What happy loads the borrowed automobiles contained! There was a glorious ride, the wonderful Clubhouse reached, toys received, "Santa" seen, grand slides across slippery floors, and off again to a fairy home where the choice of eating ice cream or rolling down real grassy hills, would have made some little ones miserable, but that the gracious hostess, Mrs. Robert Marsh, kindly gave time for both. Sixty little hearts made happy! Those who made this possible, certainly realized the meaning of the words: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." The complete success of this party would indicate that this feature for Yule Tide bids fair to become an Ebell annual.

The report of the General Curator, Mrs. E. C. Bellows, shows that the department work has been earnest and thoughtful, and well maintained throughout the year. This branch of our Club work is participated in by nearly half the members, and they are enthusiastic in their appreciation of the value of the opportunities offered.

The Department of Parliamentary Law met twice a month, during five months, under the instruction of Mrs. J. A. Osgood. In the course of her excellent drill, some valuable discussions on current events occurred. After the close of Mrs. Osgood's engagement, part of the class continued to meet during two months more, for practice under the leadership of the Assistant Curator, Mrs. C. B. Dickson.

The Department of Science, with Mrs. Jay B. Millard and Mrs. Charles N. Flint as leaders, held seven meetings, two of which were symposiums by members of the Department, and the others, lectures by prominent workers in the scientific field.

The Department of French, Mrs. James Bert Stearns, Curator, met each week. The Club is indebted to this section for a Monday afternoon program.

The Department of Expression, under the leadership of Mrs. W. L. Jones, spent fourteen meetings in studying the Essays of Emerson, and the members unite in declaring that the work was both pleasant and profitable.

The Department of Shakespeare, Mrs. F. W. Johnson, Curator, held fifteen sessions. They studied the plays "Twelfth Night" "Hamlet" and "Midsummer Night's Dream." The regular attendants found the discussions of great value to a just understanding of life, as well as the master dramatist.

The Department of Music, Mrs. Katherine Kimball Forest, Curator, held seven meetings during the year. The programs, given by local artists of more than local reputation, have covered a wide range of musical knowledge and beauty, including valuable papers on the "Evolution of Music," both historical and constructive; a morning of Irish songs and three of opera.

The Department of Books and Conversation, with Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, as leader, enjoyed seven instructive programs dealing with the drama and recent works of interest.

The Department of Art and Travel, in charge of Mrs. Allison Barlow, Curator, spent a profitable year in the study of Flemish, Dutch and German Art.

Under the supervision of the General Curator, more than fifty dollars' worth of books have been added to our library.

Respectfully submitted,
E. H. KRESS,
Recording Secretary.
