Four Decades of Ebell

MRS. CHARLES F. RATHMAN

Almost three thousand women stand in the beautiful temple of service that is The Ebell of Los Angeles and look back along the corridors of time and in looking backward they find the ample pageant of Ebell's history passing before their eyes. They see in the distance a little band of farseeing and inspired women emerging through the narrow doorway which is the beginning of the first decade of the organization. These resolute women hold aloft the flaming torch of progress to found a club that stands as a monument to the spirit of their idealism, its object being, "Individual development, a united effort toward harmony, charity and that broad culture which comes through service to others."

Their unflagging zeal, undaunted adherence to their ideals and undying faith in the institution that is Ebell formed a sure foundation and today's daughters possess a structure whose traditions of loyalty and charity make for this club a place in its city, in the clubdom of the world and in the hearts of its members, unique and unapproachable. As service is the badge of true humanity, they chose for its motto, "I serve," which is evidence of their high conceptions and aims.

The Ebell of Los Angeles was organized in 1894, being one of the several chapters on the Pacific Coast which bear the name of the founder of these societies, Dr. Adrian Ebell. Dr. Ebell was a noted German scholar who saw that the time had come in the world's history when a thinking woman was a necessity—a womanhood to meet and solve various questions which the stress of the age was presenting for solution more and more insistently. Realizing woman's limited opportunities for development along scientific lines he labored to establish an International Academy with chapters all over the world. While traveling in America, in 1876, he formed the first chapter, the Oakland Ebell. It is after this finely organized club that The Ebell of Los Angeles is modeled, consisting of a central organization with departments for study and advancement in all lines of general culture.

At a preliminary meeting held in September, 1894, at the home of the Misses Alice and Emmie Parsons, 1226 South Olive Street, Mrs. H. W. R. Strong and Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, members of the Oakland Club, presented the project. Almost three thousand women stand in the beautiful temple of service that is The Ebell of Los Angeles and look back along the corridors of time and in looking backward they find the ample pageant of Ebell's history passing before their eyes. They see in the distance a little band of farseeing and inspired women emerging through the narrow doorway which is the beginning of the first decade of the organization. These resolute women hold aloft the flaming torch of progress to found a club that stands as a monument to the spirit of their idealism, its object being, "Individual development, a united effort toward harmony, charity and that broad culture which comes through service to others."

Their unflagging zeal, undaunted adherence to their ideals and undying faith in the institution that is Ebell formed a sure foundation and today's daughters possess a structure whose traditions of loyalty and charity make for this club a place in its city, in the clubdom of the world and in the hearts of its members, unique and unapproachable. As service is the badge of true humanity, they chose for its motto, "I serve," which is evidence of their high conceptions and aims.

The Ebell of Los Angeles was organized in 1894, being one of the several chapters on the Pacific Coast which bear the name of the founder of these societies, Dr. Adrian Ebell. Dr. Ebell was a noted German scholar who saw that the time had come in the world's history when a thinking woman was a necessity—a womanhood to meet and solve various questions which the stress of the age was presenting for solution more and more insistently. Realizing woman's limited opportunities for development along scientific lines he labored to establish an International Academy with chapters all over the world. While traveling in America, in 1876, he formed the first chapter, the Oakland Ebell. It is after this finely organized club that The Ebell of Los Angeles is modeled, consisting of a central organization with departments for study and advancement in all lines of general culture.

At a preliminary meeting held in September, 1894, at the home of the Misses Alice and Emmie Parsons, 1226 South Olive Street, Mrs. H. W. R. Strong and Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, members of the Oakland Club, presented the project. A second conference resulted in the determination to try the experiment of adding another club to the crowded condition of a city already possessing two clubs. This determined band of optimists met for the organization of The Ebell of Los Angeles; Saturday, October 27, 1894. Officers were elected, Mrs. H. W. R. Strong being chosen president, and study sections planned. On December 8th, the organization was completed and the list of sixty-eight charter members declared closed.

Today, almost three thousand women may enter into the edifice that is Ebell and receive from its multiplicity and variety of programs, inspiration, stirring of ideas or entertainment. They may become a part of its irresistible and awe-inspiring power for service to the nation, state and city, that steadily moves to achieve its ideal, that of serving humanity.

In the second year of its existence, Ebell became too large for a private home and the lower floor of Ex-Governor Downey's house, a spacious brick home surrounded by a garden, that stood opposite Saint Vibiana Cathedral on Main Street, was secured. The sale of this building sent it to a flat on Flower and Eleventh Streets, which even with the counter advantage of eight-candle power electric lights, was considered at that time too far uptown.

In 1897, Ebell was incorporated under the laws of the State of California and in that year moved into the first structure in Los Angeles to be planned exclusively for the accommodation of a woman's club. It was built by Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, second president of the club, who also made possible the purchase of Ebell's first lot. It was located at 724 South Broadway, was of modified Greek design, the wide front door opening on a hall of comfortable dimensions. The Auditorium provided space for 250 to 300 chairs and a reception room, committee rooms and a kitchen with pantries provided the conveniences of a home-like club house. These accommodations lent themselves to the establishment of the real social life of Ebell, and the custom of serving luncheons and teas, to which the organization has adhered until the present time, made hospitality an inherent part of club life.

At the end of five years a change was made to Cumnock Hall and then the club determined to build its own home. During the presidency of Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, the project was begun by the appointment of Ebell's first Building Committee. The Ebell Building Association was organized and stock sold to finance the purchase of a lot. A site on Hope Street near Ninth was selected but real estate values increased so rapidly that this lot was sold at a substantial advance over its purchase price of $14,500 and the lot at 1719 South Figueroa Street bought for $10,000.

The beginning of the second decade of Ebell was marked by the laying of the corner stone of the club house on Figueroa Street on July 31, 1905, the ceremony being presided over by the president, Mrs. Frank W. King. The formal opening of the new building was the occasion of a brilliant housewarming, given by the club members and the Building Association on the evening of January ninth, 1906. The financial history of Ebell during this decade records the purchase of various blocks of Ebell Building Stock, due to the efforts of Mrs. Phillip Gengembre Hubert and Mrs. Willitts J. Hole, presidents. In December, 1911, while Mrs. Edward C. Bellows was president, in compliance with an order issued by the Superior Court, a deed was executed which made Ebell the owner of her club home. In 1913 all obtainable stock had been secured and the club, practically free of debt, purchased the property on Eighteenth Street with a view of enlarging the club house to accommodate the rapidly increasing membership.

The third decade beginning with Mrs. W. S. Bartlett's administration was darkened by the clouds of the European war looming on the horizon and later seemingly overshadowing almost the whole world, but the women of Ebell, with rare spirit, dauntless courage and true patriotism did their share. No appeal came to them in vain. The needs of Armenia, Belgium, France, Italy and Poland, of the American Red Cross and Red Star and other war organizations played upon the heart strings until purse strings were opened and contributions in various amounts up to $10,000 for the Liberty Loan were made from the club treasury. Mrs. Chester Carlisle Ashley guided the destinies of the club during America's troublous war period and Ebell established a two-fold record for service, that of caring for home philanthropies and assistance abroad.

In the club year 1919-1920, when Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson was president, the lot on the corner of Figueroa and Eighteenth street was purchased for $50,000, adding to the club property which Ebell still owns.

One Ebell historian has said, "The fate of Ebell has always been that of 'the old woman who lived in a shoe' and throughout her career she has been forced almost annually to agitate the need of more room." During 1922-1923, on the advice of Mrs. Grantland Seaton Long, president, a valuable lot on Wilshire Boulevard and Shatto Place was secured, but the building of the new club house was postponed because of the great increase in the value of this property.

The beginning of the fourth decade of Ebell's history "saw the indebtedness on this lot wiped out and Ebell was placed in the unique position among clubs of owing no man a dollar, yet owning two valuable pieces of real estate, each worth too much to be used as building sites." In this decade was conceived and brought to fruition the building of the present beautiful club house on Wilshire and Lucerne Boulevards, the lot being purchased for $200,000, the Wilshire-Shatto lot being sold for $315,000. On February 28, 1927, the ceremony of laying the corner stone occurred, being made impressive by the presence and participation of many charter members, past presidents and members who had attended a similar ceremony at 1719 South Figueroa in 1905. Mrs. William Read and her Board of Directors served continuously during the four arduous building years and saw the triumph of their zeal, a stately group of buildings, opened to the club in October, 1927.

They saw a club house whose separated units have been so carefully designed as to form a magnificent mass, a colossal edifice, severely simple, classically correct, pleasing in its very lack of ornate adornment, suited to the purpose for which it was built. The cost was not disproportionate to its value. In round numbers, for the site, $200,000; for the entire structure, $650,000; for the furnishings, $120,000. Many of the furnishings are gifts from devoted members, departments and committees and Ebell will treasure in its heart, a golden scroll containing the names of the workers and givers.

The Ebell of Los Angeles has five distinct forms of activities:

First: The diversified Monday programs sustain the high standards of excellence that Ebell maintains and are sufficiently varied to suit all tastes.

Second: Through the study departments the members enter into the very heart of the club, for here women are drawn together in groups with the wish not so much to acquire facts as to seek for knowledge. The development of the departments throughout the years is one of the most interesting studies of Ebell's progress. During the first years, the sections met at the homes of the curators and were Tourist, Current Events, Music, Conversation, Original Composition and Law. The once-a-month Monday programs consisted of reports and papers from the "Sections" which reached the dignity of "Departments" in 1905.

At the first Monday meeting a report from the Tourist Section was given and this was the beginning of Ebell's famous Art and Travel Department. It became the Travel Section in 1903 and in 1905 was joined with the Art Section and has come down through the years uninterruptedly as the Art and Travel Department. Music lapsed for only three years since the beginning. Parliamentary Law has continued without interruption since 1900 as has French (omitted one year) and Shakespeare since 1903 with the exception of one year. Books had a varied career, starting as Literature in 1899, becoming Fiction, then Books and Conversation, afterwards Books and Current Literature; then evolving into a Book Review program for Mondays and the more intimate study department of Book Chamber formed in 1927. Public Affairs have always claimed the attention of Ebell, being successively Current Events, Economics, Civics and Social Science which became Public Affairs Department in 1925. Out of this section grew the Social Service Committee which eventually evolved into Rest Cottage Association and Practical Relief Committee.

The years of the other departments can only be given approximately as often they were organized or abandoned in the middle of a year. They are: Applied Design, six; Better American Speech, beginning as English, seventeen; Bible Literature, eighteen; Browning, nineteen; Drama, twenty-three; Drama Workshop, eight; Garden, one; Lives and Times, six; Law ,six; Poetry, beginning as Literary Interpretation, eleven; Psychology, eleven; Spanish, seventeen. Emerson lived for five years, History afterwards History and Landmarks and Califoriania for three years; early day Domestic Science, later Home, six years; Choral, eight; Expression, expiring as Voice Training, nine; Science, six, and Education which had a place on the list at various times.

The first curator was Miss Emmie H. Parsons, who was also Librarian. The first report of a General Curator, that of Mrs. William Read, to be published, says: "Believing that all race advancement must proceed from the individual to society, Ebell has always made much of the department work. Women who read and reflect, who learn to think before they act, who use reason not impulse as a guide for civic duty must make safer and saner citizens." The 1931-1932 report of the General Curator, Mrs. W. L. McLeod, says, "More than ever the adult education in Ebell University has appealed to our membership." The total attendance for 1932-1933 was 28,744.

Third: The Social Welfare work is both specific and general and includes Ebell Rest Cottage Association under the control of its own chairman, Practical Relief and General Philanthropies.

In December, 1917, a little grey cottage at 1305 Ninety-fifth Street was deeded to the Ebell of Los Angeles by Miss Lillian B. Flanders whose dream had been to convert it into a home for convalescent women, and the Ebell Rest Cottage Association was formed. It was the outgrowth of the work of the Social Service Committee and its first chairman was Mrs. William Read, whose dauntless spirit and indefatigiable courage surmounted all the obstacles of those pioneer days. Difficult of access for those whom it hoped to serve, with leaky roof and impossible plumbing, yet it served as an inspiration for the larger and more commodious home at 135 North Park View Street. The new location is ideal, being very accessible, yet its great requisite of seclusion has been attained. To Mrs. George Harris Cook belongs the distinction and honor of being the building chairman. Endless labor was entailed but it was a fine achievement. The cottage was dedicated February, 1923, with a very impressive ceremony.

In 1916 the Social Service Committee of Ebell, at the home of Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, perfected an organization to provide comforts for those in need, especially for the patients at the County Hospital. The present Practical Relief Committee was the result and the passion for service in the hearts of Ebell women found an outlet. So from that far-off day a band of devoted workers has met one day each week to sew; to fashion garments supplied them by Ebell members; to meet applicants for help; to give freely not only of material things but sympathy and encouragement. In the beginning the work was done mostly for the very poor and for hospital cases and to this day garments are sent to the General Hospital and Maternity Hospital. The special interest for some years was that of aiding disabled veterans and that work continued in varying degrees up to the years of depression when it was found that starving families recommended by Ebell members were in greater need. The slogan adopted was "that Practical Relief should help people to help themselves," and that has been the keynote of its work but no needy person is ever turned away and, if not helped, is directed to a place where help will be given. Hand in hand with the work for the needy has gone that of outfitting Ebell's scholarship students and school girls. Mrs. T. J. Fletcher, the present chairman, took charge in 1923.

General Philanthropies from Ebell consisted in contributions to innumerable city, county and state welfare projects, to maternity and rest hospitals using the organizations already formed as an outlet for the gifts. In cases of national and international disasters, Ebell was among the very first to contribute to famine, earthquake, fire or flood victims. The American Red Cross and the Los Angeles Community Chest have ever been its special benefiiciaries. In the recent years of added calls, no appeals from the Parent-Teacher Association and other relief organizations have been disregarded.

Fourth: From the early beginnings of "placing seventy pictures, several casts and hanging baskets in the Amelia Street school, of contributing $125 to the scholarship fund of the California Federation of Women's Clubs," scholarships have always been an unfailing interest. In 1920, it became a definite activity of Ebell, the nine scholarships at that time being supported by gifts and club funds. Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint, who as Ebell history shows have always been the inspiration of the work, started a $10,000 Endowment Fund with a gift of $1,000. So great was the enthusiasm and the allegiance of Ebell members that within two years the sum was completed. In 1927, a second Endowment Fund of $40,000 was established by Mr. and Mrs. Flint, which has been increased to $55,000 and The Ebell of Los Angeles Fund to $15,000.

Fifth: March the fourth, 1921, during the administration of Mrs. Eleanor Joy Toll, the Junior Auxiliary was organized with a charter membership which numbered sixty-six at the end of June. Mrs. Ralph D. Hoard, who served two and one-half years, was the first president and during her term of office were inaugurated many of the functions which are now a part of the very social and philanthropic structure of the Juniors. In 1925, the Ebell Junior Auxiliary became Ebell Juniors and many dreams were actualized. Child Welfare, Drama, Scholarships, Book Chamber and very lately, Athletics, were added from time to time. Much of this history is yet to be written. Aside from the development which the organization affords its members, it is fitting them in a most unique and interesting way for future club work, with a fuller realization of Ebell's ideal of service.

A glancing retrospect of all the decades of Ebell's history gives many interesting sidelights.

A magazine, THE EBELL, of quite pretentious proportions, was published during the first years of the club's existence and contained articles and stories written by the members. It was revived again in 1927 under the editorship of Mrs. Ilot Johnson and is now a valuable club organ. at the suggestion and insistence of Mrs Long Ebell's consistent attitude toward questions of political import which tend to have a divisive effect upon the judgment of women, crystalized in a resolution during Mrs. William Luke Jone's presidency, that distinctly partisan and political movements be not allowed to weaken its forces for constructive work.

The Former Officers' Round Table was organized in June, 1927, its purpose being the stimulation of interest and the addition to Ebell's active workers, of members from the ranks of experience.

The Salon of Art, which began in 1916 as the Art Committee, afterwards the Art Exhibitions Committee, was organized in August, 1929. It was perfected in September and formally opened by the president, Mrs. A. Bennett Cooke, with a reception on the afternoon of October fourth. Mrs. Cooke's administration brought to fruition the long expected presentation of the War Service Memorial, lovingly called the Fountain of Honor by Mrs. L. —the Spirit of Ebell.

One of the more recent events of importance was the addition to the club house of the elevator, a gift from Mrs. Nicholas E. Rice and Mrs. Reuben Shettler and accepted by Mrs. Charles S. Crail, President, at presentation exercises in January, 1932.

Ebell has had building presidents, a war president and two depression presidents, Mrs. Charles S. Crail and Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap, who have held aloft at this end of the corridors of time, the flaming torch of progress passed from hand to hand during the four decades about to be finished the coming year. Almost three thousand women may turn from this brief saga of accomplishment to view a magnificent club, not only of material proportions but a great force whose prosperity and beautiful harmony make it an edifice of strength in the community.

Forty years of constant thought, united effort and purpose have made the aspirations and sentiments of Ebell's founders, the promise and hope of its beginning, a glad reality. To those who have long been workers within its borders and to the newly welcomed participants in its beneficence, it will be "the further seal of mental comradeship, the earnest of larger joys and a lift to higher levels."

Report of the President

THE YEAR'S END

When a club approaches the age of forty years, during which time eighteen presidents have made yearly reports, there remains nothing original for the present incumbent to say. Those who were first in the line were doing something very exciting and very interesting but now that clubs are a part of our every day scheme of living, one is driven to the trite old wording and repetition. This should be an intelligent exposition of the intellectual life of a group of dignified women. Feeling so, all the long words, derivatives of our Latin inheritance, should be used with distinction but after all, the strength of our present position lies in holding fast to those homely virtues by which we have lived, so I am resolved boldly to use the old saws and maxims that were a part of my up-bringing.

The older one grows the more one realizes the proper emphasis to place upon those trite old sayings that have come down to us through the years. I am thinking now of that old one: "Life is what you make it." I would modify it to read: "Our club is what you make it," with the greater emphasis on "you." No one individual is responsible for the success of the year; no one committee has made this success possible; rather is the final accounting a result of all of us working together. That we have come through this year keeping step with those who set us an example to follow shows that we, too, can share in a measure the success that is the Ebell of today. We have had our successes and our disappointments but in the aggregate we have kept in line, stepping ahead, may I say with proper modesty, just a little?

Another old saying: "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," is a great answer to those who have not been quite satisfied with the result. The daily attendance has been very flattering indeed. For the Monday afternoon programs there has been a record kept and 33,669 people have heard our marvelous general programs—some of them scintillating, some of them brilliant, some purely intellectual, some of them instructive, all of them entertaining and none of them drab. Will you ever forget our lovely Mayday festival?

In the departments there have been 28,744 members and guests, an increase of 6,823 over the year 1931-1932, which showed an increase of 3,690 over 1930-1931. The largest attendance ever recorded was for May, 1933, when 6,325 enjoyed the department programs. The total is proof positive of what you have meant to your club, bringing appreciation in this way to your curators who have striven so valiantly to give you the best to be found in the West. Did you see the smiling group of curators and chairmen at the last Friday meeting when the reports were given? The pudding was well worth the eating—to that you, each individual one of you, has attested. We end the year with a membership of 2,736. Of this number 212 have come in during the year, through new members and reinstatements.

"The value of little things," "little drops of water and little grains of sand"—all those silly old maxims come to mind when we contemplate our financial status. A woman's economies are nearly always made up of driblets here and there but they have mounted to large figures again this year. We have paid $17,300 on our mortgage and that after every obligation has been met. The guests that you have brought on Monday afternoon, at a charge of fifty cents, have enriched our treasury by $2,265. The twenty-five cents that you have paid at the Solarium Teas has added over $800. (Did you know that all those delicious sandwiches were donated and made by the loving hands of our committee?) Every curator, every committee chairman has kept well within her budget, so something could be turned back to swell the grand total. Every committee member who has earned money, every committee member who has saved money should take a just pride in that sizable figure. Each of you has helped, whether you were attending our delightful Ways-and-Means parties, our department parties, eating luncheon or playing cards,—each little nickle has grown to the sum to which we can refer with the pride of a good business man who has balanced his budget. Perhaps we will not be asked to be financial advisors to any other concern but by "taking care of our own knitting" we have an enviable record. "A dollar saved is a dollar earned;" and another, "United we stand, divided we fall"—is it possible to express it any better than in these homely old saws of our race? There are many other old maxims that you will recall along this line and if ever you feel that you cannot help your club in a material way that counts, just remember that "Great trees from little acorns grow," and that that "drop in the bucket" will soon fill the pail if it continues dropping long enough. Each of us should take heart and carry on with a feeling of exultation.

That you have attended so regularly bespeaks your knowledge of the reports of your officers and board members. You know that our educational features and our philanthropies have measured up to what we expect—not quite as flourishing as we had hoped but "as well as could be expected." Elsewhere in this Year Book are the detailed reports of every avenue of the club's activities. There you can see exactly what you have done and one wishes every member were interested enough to read those reports. You could stamp your approval on the work of your committees by saying, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Aesthetically we have kept step with our material advancement. Never has the club been more beautiful in all its appointments. The Salon of Art has been an inspiration and art appreciation has grown by leaps and bounds; the variety of the exhibits, from the conventional that we all understand to the very modern that many of us criticize severely, has brought out some warm arguments and cemented some warm friendships.

I am at a loss to find a fine old maxim to measure up to the warmth of my feeling for all those who have contributed to our creature comforts. Those 17,475 cups of tea served on Monday afternoons have promoted good feeling. The dining room, the halls, the lounge, every corner of the house have radiated friendliness and courtesy; the credentials have been kind but discriminating; the quiet avenues of service have been quietly and graciously rendered. That "true politeness is to do and say the kindest thing in the kindest way" is ingrained in the code of Ebell.

While it has been the hope of this administration to keep our club a fountain of inspiration and a source of relaxation and entertainment, the Ebell has done its share in Unemployment Relief. This is indeed the problem of the times. It is because each member is carrying a double load during these trying months that we have kept our platform free from too many appeals. Quietly and happily the work of relief has gone on, however.

For the past three winters the club has maintained its membership in the Associated Women's Committee for Unemployment Relief, a committee composed of all the club presidents in the city, functioning through a small executive group. Through funds made available by the city which can be used for relief only; through a monthly allotment from the Community Chest for "overhead;" through benefits of the various clubs and donations from private individuals for emergency cases, this committee has kept up the morale of about one thousand women and girls each month. Many have been given permanent jobs, but where no other work was to be found, the recipients of the fund volunteered service in our social agencies. In this way over fifty thousand hours of work have been given back to the community, services much needed in these overburdened agencies.

When the Reconstruction Finance Corporation made a loan to our city, the Ebell Club was the first to furnish a room equipped for sewing where from five to fifteen women sew for five days a week earning a living. The garments are turned back to the Red Cross and the women apply to the Associated Women's Committee for the chance to work under this fund. All during this summer, for five days each week our Practical Relief Committee is supervising these women, teaching some of them to sew and furnishing hot tea and sandwiches for the noon luncheon. The women like working in such surroundings as we are furnishing. So Ebell is keeping step with the problems of the depression.

Ebell was one of the first to join the N.R.A. program. As this goes to press, the President of Ebell has been asked to serve as Lieutenant-General on a Los Angeles Committee for the National Recovery Act. She is already serving on the Governor's Committee for State Relief under Director Branion. We feel the necessity of standing fast and holding to our ideals now more than ever before.

In the Yosemite Valley, the gem of our National Parks, is a memorial erected to Stephen Mather, who did more than anyone else to preserve our national forests for the use of all our citizens. As one crosses that turbulent little stream on a footbridge, a bronze plaque fitted into a hugh boulder, midstream, arrests one's attention. There in beautiful simplicity is the tribute that will stand forever as a monument to a great man who gave unstinted service to his country. The last line of that tribute I would paraphrase to apply to our club: "There will be no end to the good that Ebell has done."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. SAMUEL CARY DUNLAP, President.

Report of the Recording Secretary

The Recording Secretary of The Ebell of Los Angeles has deemed it a pleasure to serve the club in that capacity.

During the fiscal year of 1932-1933 she has attended every Monday afternoon meeting, read the minutes of the preceding meeting and prepared notes of the current one. She has attended thirty-seven regular meetings of the Board of Directors, which number includes all of those held with the exception of one when she was out of town. There have been also numerous Executive Committee meetings and several special meetings, all of which have been attended by the Secretary, with one exception, and minutes prepared.

The records for the year show that it has been the constant aim of your Board of Directors to further the ideals of Ebell to the best of their ability. Interest in civic, state, national, and international affairs has been shown by the several endorsements made and resolutions adopted.

Studying and working with the many problems as they present themselves, your fifteen representatives, sitting as a Board of Directors, have acted as a unit to attain both efficiency and economy, and the motto of our organization has been ever followed—"I will find a way or make one."

MARGARET B. MCGRATH, Recording Secretary.

Report of the General Curator

Another successful season's work has been accomplished, as there has been uninterrupted activity in the departments for the club year 1932-1933, just closed. Ebell departments have shown marked development, gain and progress in spite of the commercial depression.

Curators have furnished to discriminating audiences, programs of merit, full of human interest and have upheld the ideals upon which Ebell is founded. They have tried to create a desire for more active work among our women, that by cooperation with their fellow members, they might enjoy the club more. Detailed programs from the departments are to be found elsewhere in this year book.

Our president, Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap, has attended departments whenever possible and encouraged the workers by her interest in their endeavors.

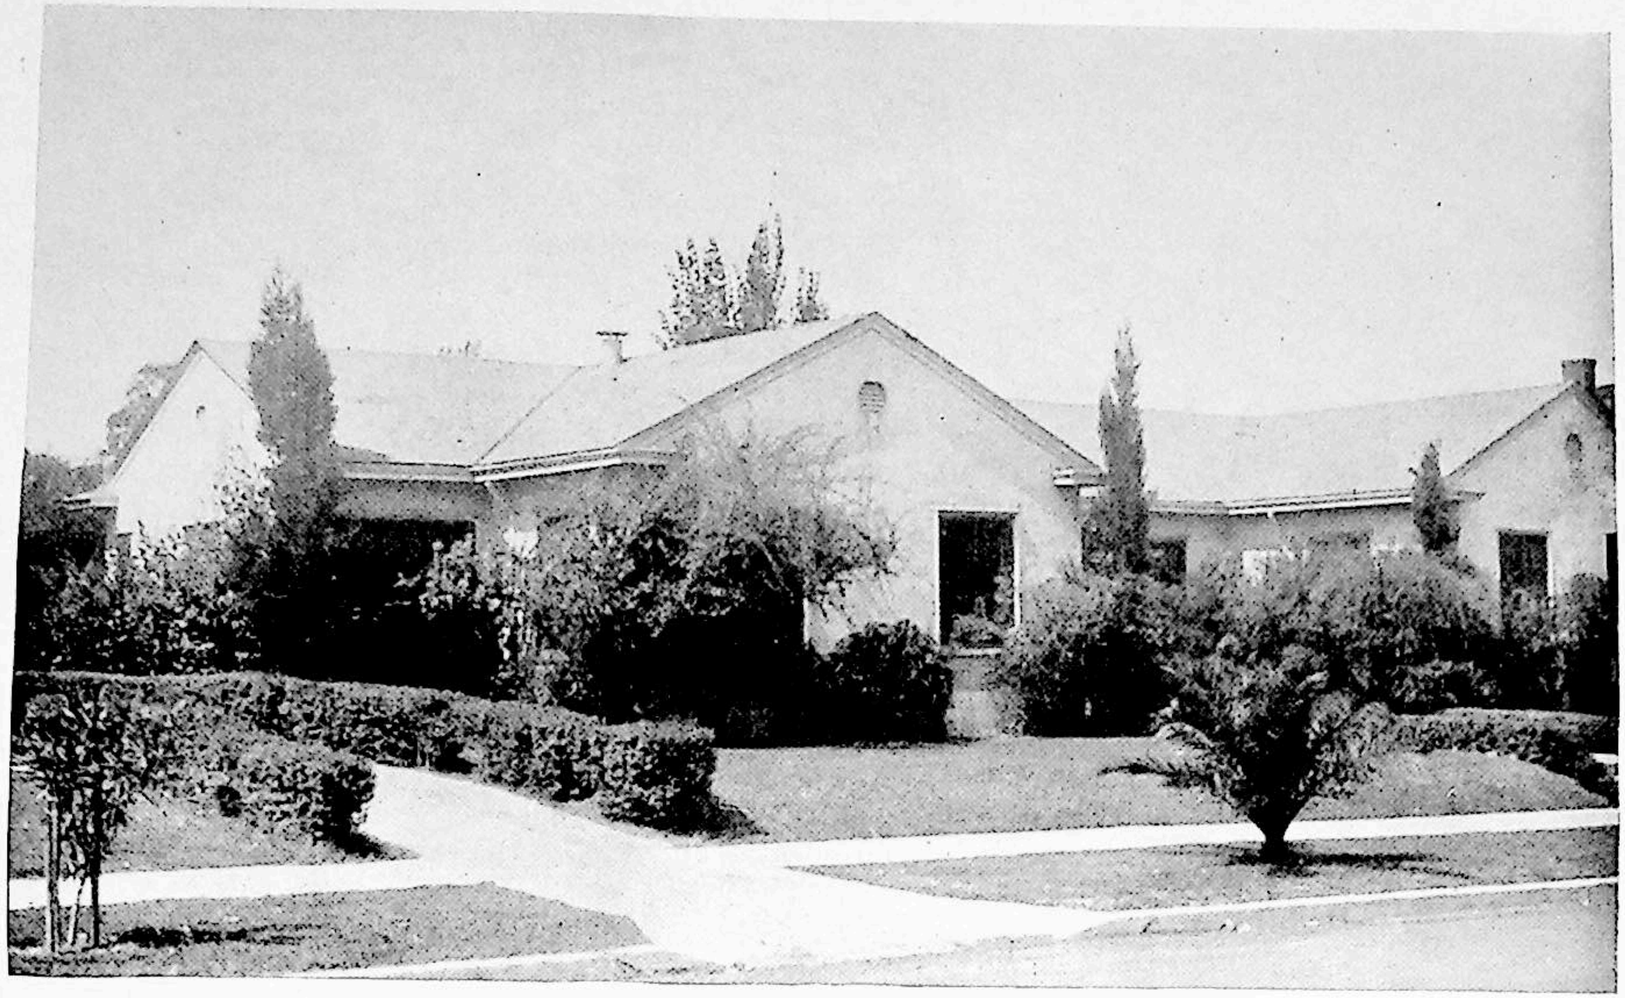
A new office was created on the General Curator's staff, that of General Chairman of Department Courtesy. The emphasis put on this work by Mrs. Frank Brown Wheat has resulted in friendliness to members and visitors and has put the right atmosphere into the departments.

The suggestions and aid generously and kindly given by the Assistant General Curators, Mrs. Charles W. Partridge and Mrs. N. Bradford Trenham have been a great help in carrying on the necessary detail work of nineteen live and active departments.

It is from the report of the efficient General Chairman of Department Credentials, Mrs. O. Arthur Elmo, that we learn, "Several departments met in the Auditorium because the attendance was more than could be accommodated in the Fine Arts Room. The smallest total monthly attendance was 3292 in January and the largest was in May, 6325. Average 4112. Total for the year, 28,744, about 7,000 more than the previous year."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. W. L. MCLEOD,
General Curator.



EBELL REST COTTAGE, 135 NORTH PARK VIEW STREET

Report of Ebell Rest Cottage Association

Through the sympathetic understanding of the Chairman, Mrs. William R. Wherry, and the loyal support of the committee women who have assisted her this year, the work at Rest Cottage, the only free convalescent home for women in Los Angeles, has gone forward with the same spirit of helpfulness to others which has obtained since the cottage was established. This spirit of co-operation has been clearly brought out in the yearly reports of the committee chairman.

The Association has received a bequest this year of $5,000 from Mr. W. J. Puett's estate. This will be added to the Endowment Fund as a special memorial to Mrs. Puett, a former member of Ebell and an active worker for Rest Cottage.

While our income from memberships has not been quite as large as in former years, we are happy to note that the Membership Chairman, Mrs. J. W. A. Off, reports a total membership of 624, total receipts $1,828.25. $600 of this, "In Memoriams," will be added to the Endowment Fund.

Mrs. James A. Rogers, chairman of Finance Committee, has been untiring in her efforts to protect the Association investments and after careful investigation reports the purchase by the Committee of $5,500 city, county and government bonds.

Mrs. F. W. Pitcher, treasurer, reports cash on hand July 1, 1932, $1,529.17; balance July 1, 1933, $1,550.94.

The assistant chairman, Mrs. Jack Armstrong Jevne, reports 165 guests at the cottage during the year. The house mother, Mrs. Hunter, has worked untiringly to provide a balanced diet and a cheerful, comfortable home. Holidays have been celebrated with true holiday spirit; especially was this true at Christmas time. Many women have been helped to find positions where they might be self supporting after leaving the cottage, and others without homes in Los Angeles have been persuaded to return to relatives or friends in other states. The many letters received by the chairman show a deep appreciation of the rest and care which they have received as guests at the cottage.

Two chairmen are largely responsible for the comfort and beauty of the house and garden. Mrs. George H. Mosher, House chairman, reports the purchase of new rugs for dining and living rooms; new dishes especially designed for the cottage, a gift from Mrs. and Mrs. William G. Jackson; the couch recovered, new pillows and six hot water bottles, all provided by Mrs. Louise Helen Kramer, a thoughtful member of the Association. The garden, under the supervision of the chairman, Mrs. Frank P. Ewins, is lovely and restful. Flowers and shrubs have been planted and hammocks placed in attractive spaces for the comfort of the guests.

Mrs. John B. Long, chairman, reports 112 investigations having been made by her committee and gives special recognition to Mrs. Edward North, who was in charge of investigations at the General Hospital. All applicants must be recommended either by an individual or hospital agency and the investigation must be quickly and carefully done to insure satisfactory results.

Mrs. J. A. McCusker, chairman of Transportation, reports 60 calls made, transportation to and from the Christmas party for 38 guests, 27 baskets, donated by Miss Fulmer's school at Christmas time, delivered, and has added materially to the comfort of guests by providing cars to take them to hospitals for treatment and for auto rides about the country.

Mrs. Wilbert O. Miller, chairman of Follow-up Committee, reports 130 calls for the year. This committee of young women has been especially helpful, contacting as they do so many former guests, supplying many necessities and giving words of cheer and encouragement. Many young women have received proper clothing, thus making it possible for them to fill good positions.

This year a new committee has been added to the group, the Field Survey, under the leadership of Mrs. Samuel E. Faroat. This committee visited 14 Social Service agencies, bringing back interesting and informative reports which were given at the regular Association meetings. These reports have added greatly to the interest in the meetings.

Mrs. William B. Mail, Press chairman, has written a splendid report of Rest Cottage activities for the club magazine each month. She also arranged the Christmas program which followed the dinner given for former guests.

Mrs. Erle M. Leaf, Hospitality chairman, reports a buffet luncheon at Rest Cottage in October. 86 friends and members of the Association were served. On December 12th the annual Christmas dinner was given at the Ebell Club for former guests. The tables were decorated with Christmas flowers and each guest received a box of candy as a gift. Former officers of the Association, committee members and the Ebell Board of Directors acted as hostesses. On May 26th in the beautiful garden at Mrs. Leaf's home, a benefit bridge luncheon for Rest Cottage was given. Due to the cooperation of committee members and friends and augmented by donations from several business firms, the affair was a great success, netting $212.21, which was added to the refurnishing fund.

On June 3rd the Association kept open house from three to five o'clock, extending an invitation to all Ebell members to be guests at that time. Many responded to this invitation and the Executive Board felt especially gratified at the appreciation and interest shown at this time.

So in closing the Executive Board and committee members wish to express thanks to the Ebell Board of Directors for their sympathetic understanding of the many problems, to the Practical Relief for their assistance and to the many club members who continued their loyal support during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. EDWARD EVERETT SHERRARD,
Secretary of Rest Cottage Association.

Report of the Scholarship Committee

1932-1933

Thirty scholarships were awarded during the year, twenty-eight for full time and two for one semester each, making a total enrollment of twenty-nine students for the year. In addition, two students were assisted with their school expenses with small amounts, thus making the total expenditure of five thousand eight hundred forty dollars for the year.

Scholarships were awarded to twenty-five young women and to five young men, with twenty-three students at U.C.L.A., six at U.S.C., one at Cal-Tech.

Our students have made excellent scholastic records and in every way have justified our faith and confidence in them. Several have won special honors. Outstanding was the work of a Junior who made a straight "A," with fourteen units of work throughout the year. This was especially noteworthy as this student is entirely self-supporting. Another, a Senior, was admitted to the school of Librarianship, at Berkeley. A very limited number are admitted each year. Another Senior was one of six among eighty applicants chosen for a position at the Scripps Metabolic Clinic, where a nine months course is provided to secure a credential as dietitian. Another Senior was initiated in the Zeta Phi Eta, a national honorary Speech Arts Fraternity, and was chosen to take the leading part, "Electra," in the Greek play, Choephoroe, which was the sixteenth annual Greek drama presented at U.C.L.A.

Twice during the year the Scholarship committee has entertained the students and both occasions were very enjoyable to all. These social gatherings afford the committee an opportunity to become better acquainted with the students and they with each other. The students are very proud of the honor of holding an Ebell Scholarship and they are most grateful for its valued assistance. Each has a goal to reach and an end to accomplish, and we feel confident they are living up to high standards of scholarship, character and leadership. They are the fine type of young people that we hope to have as leaders in the future.

Report of the Former Officers' Round Table

The Former Officers' Round Table at the first meeting of the year held in October and the final meeting in June, enjoyed the pleasure of re-union and the discussion of the general welfare of Ebell.

There were two called meetings, between these two, one in November and another in December, for the purpose of considering the working of one of its committees, that on the Revision of the By-Laws. After the December meeting a draft of the proposed changes in the By-Laws was sent to the Board of Directors for their consideration.

In October there was a joint luncheon of the Public Affairs Department, the Law Observance Committee and the Former Officers' Round Table. Under the leadership of its Law Observance Committee the Former Officers' Round Table assisted in providing a speaker on the subject of Law Observance and also entertained ten aspirants for the office of Superior Court judge of Los Angeles County, each of whom gave a short talk on Law enforcement.

Thus the Former Officers' Round Table, being composed of those members of the club who have served for one or more elective or appointive terms as officers, upholds the ideals of Ebell and its members enjoy the privilege of keeping in touch with each other and the activities of the club.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. LESLIE RANDALL HEWITT, Chairman.

Law Observance

As my work concerns automobiles, may I use their language?

When we have a new, shining car, a good car but still hard to start, we need to have a crank to get it started. So I had to be that crank, in all senses of the word, to get these new Law Observance Stickers started. Soon the self-starter got working and we were increasingly in high speed until after the November election. Losing the State Enforcement Law then put us into neutral, and you know we cannot go far in that gear. One cannot ask people to advertise that they are losers, so it was some time before we were in first and second speeds again.

However, at this time we are again in high speed, with a greater demand for Law Observance Stickers than can be supplied on time. Your chairman, in the cause of public welfare and that there might be laws to observe, contacted the creameries and women's societies of the city for the Wright Act, as an individual and not an official worker.

Since last year's report, about 15,000 of these car-stickers have been used, many for July 4th and during the summer. 2,000 were given out at the State Christian Endeavor Convention at Visalia, where they are still in use, a traveler says. Hundreds have been sent for meetings on request, by mail or telephone, some to take East. Supplies have been kept up at the Library, Chamber of Commerce and Auto Club. 500 were used at the recent Christian Endeavor Convention at Glendale. They have been distributed at all the large and medium sized churches of Hollywood, Huntington Park and Los Angeles. Altogether about 6,000 have been used to help create a spirit of Law Observance and to show loyalty to the Constitution of the United States of America.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. EDWARD LOOMIS WRIGHT,
Chairman.

Report of the Practical Relief Committee

We had hoped to report that conditions were better in 1932-1933 but we found them worse than ever. Now we are looking forward with great hope to next year, as President Roosevelt states that, with our cooperation, employment opportunities will be better.

From June 1, 1932, to June 1, 1933, there were garments and articles received, 4,297, including 314 from Needlework Guild; garments given out 6,187; garments made 1,054. This includes 49 comforters, many of the tops being made from pieces. Wool comforters were found more economical as one takes the place of two cotton ones. We keep Rest Cottage supplied with new comforters, taking their used ones in exchange and passing them on to the Boys' Community Lodge, the boys finding them as warm as new ones. We also made 26 dresses and 11 boys' blouses for the Parent-Teacher Association.

A loyal Ebell member furnished the wool and knitted fourteen sweaters. Fifteen layettes have been given out. We have helped 42 college and 32 high school girls, making 74 in all. Out of this number we have completely clothed 25 girls. We have made eleven graduating dresses, this year using voile instead of silk for most of them. We have helped the Breed Street School.

We sent out 150 Christmas baskets, buying food and making up the remaining baskets with the very generous donations. Without the donations of food, this would not have been possible for our baskets contained not only Christmas dinners but food enough to last the larger families several days and the smaller families a week. Bullock's sends us a box every Christmas and the gift this year was 136 articles of wearing apparel, 17 boxes of writing paper for children, 7 dozen toys and 2 dozen packages of candy, which added greatly to our baskets. This year the May Company gave us twenty-five pairs of shoes and eighteen hats. The cash donations for the Christmas baskets totaled $415.82 and our expenditures for same were $344.80.

Our average attendance is over 16, larger than ever before. We are pleased to welcome six new members to our department this year.

Ebell Station for Unemployed Women

Ebell furnishes the room and equipment and the Red Cross supplies the garments and material for same to be made, and all dresses and shirts are cut out. The project was the thought of Mrs. William Read, chairman of the Associated Women's Committee for Unemployment Relief, of which Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap is treasurer, and the fund was furnished by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Now the funds for this work are in charge of the County Welfare Association.

This work started with eleven stations, Ebell being the first to open its station, on March 16th, with the chairman of Practical Relief as chairman of the station and Mrs. Helen Taylor as our very able supervisor and secretary. Up to June 1, 1933, the Ebell station has sewed 29 days with an average attendance of 12 1-2. The workers have made 1188 garments. We enjoy the work exceedingly for we have a fine body of women to work with and they are so happy to have this work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. J. FLETCHER,
Chairman.

Salon of Art

In closing the fourth year of the Salon of Art, the Art Patrons' Committee can justly look back with a feeling of pride and satisfaction. The nine exhibitions of oils, sculpture, water colors and prints have been of the highest standard of Art and have been greatly varied in interest. None of this could have been accomplished without the whole-hearted cooperation of the artists themselves and the dealers who have aided your chairman in every way.

On our beautiful walls we have had the honor to hang the paintings of such eminent painters as Frank Tenney Johnson, A.N.A., Chauncey Ryder, Feitelson, Nathalie Newking, Thomas L .Hunt, Edgar Payne, John Hubbard Rich, Maurice Braun, Aldro T. Hibbard, John Belman Hall, Harry Leith-Ross, Hanson Puthuff and many others. Mr. A. Katchamakoff, Arnold Foerster, Ernest Yerbysmith and Henry Lion have given us one-man exhibitions of their sculpture and through their kindness a new interest has been awakened in sculpture among our members.

Probably the exhibition that created the most interest in our gallery was that of the portraits in February when Mr. Bagdatopoulos, Mr. Werner, Mr. Rich, Geza Kende and Ruth Elliott loaned examples of their best work. The attendance in the gallery was markedly larger during this showing.

In May, as usual, the Annual Competitive Exhibition was held and contrary to former years this competition was for oils, sculpture, water colors and prints. Again Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher presented us with one hundred dollars and this prize was won by Mr. Maynard Dixon. Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap generously gave us a fifty dollar prize which was awarded to Mr. Frank Tenney Johnson and Mrs. William Clark Brown gave again a prize of twenty-five dollars which was won by Ada May Sharpless, while the prize given again this year by Mrs. George Harris Cook was given to Karoly Fulop. Another member of our Art Patrons generously made it possible to give a third prize in the print family to Mabel Alvarez and the remaining prizes were given from the treasury of the Salon of Art. It is our sincere hope that it will be possible for us to be as generous in the coming year, as all of the prizes were greatly appreciated by the artists.

We are also indebted to Mr. Frank Morley Fletcher and Mr. Lorser Feitelson for two very interesting lectures given to us in the Salon of Art. During the month of June the club members had the privilege of seeing the paintings and sculpture of some of our own members.

The gift to our club house from the Art Patrons' Committee is only partly ours as it is shared by the artist, Maxine Albro, who is giving of her talent by painting the outside walls adjoining the Salon with frescoes. These frescoes, we feel, will add greatly to the beauty and dignity of our clubhouse and I am sure that all the members of Ebell will join us in thanking Miss Albro.

Too much praise cannot be given to Mrs. Frank Viault, Social Chairman, who arranged at least one party a month for us and sometimes two. One particularly lovely outing led us to Santa Barbara where we enjoyed the hospitality of De Witt Parshall and his son, Douglas, in their charming studios, then later we lunched at the Paseo and later enjoyed the Spring Flower Show and the Folkner Gallery. In December our gracious President opened her home to us where we had a business meeting and a delightful tea. Also in May, Mrs. Charles H. Thompson entertained the Art Patrons' Committee and we had the pleasure of hearing Katherine Leighton speak of her trip to South America. In December, Mrs. Viault arranged a Sunday afternoon tea in the clubhouse where we greeted the students of the different Art Schools and Art Departments of the Universities in and near Los Angeles.

The Art Patrons sponsored two dinners during the club year, the first being held at Christmas time when our club was made particularly beautiful with Christmas decorations which showed the hand work and devotion of the Decorating and Diningroom committees. In the evening Mr. John Smallman presented the Club with an impressive program of Christmas music sung by ninety members of his choir. Then in May one hundred thirty-seven artists and their wives were entertained at the Annual Prize Awarding Dinner where twelve prizes of money were presented.

In closing I cannot refrain from expressing my sincere thanks and appreciation to all of the members of the Art Patrons' Committee and especially to Mrs. Samuel G. Puterbaugh, Chairman of Music, for their cheerful cooperation and hard work given so willingly and which added greatly to the success of our year's work. Also from our President and her Board has come a complete understanding of our many difficulties and in every instance they have given their help and advice most generously.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES VOLNEY CRAIG,
Chairman.

Report of the Ways and Means Committee

It gives me great pleasure to submit the report of the activities of the Ways and Means Committee, to-wit:

The past two years have been filled with real pleasure. Success in club work is assured, if certain qualities are possessed by the workers. And it has been proved by the Ways and Means Committee that they had all the fine qualities necessary. They had Faith, Hope and the greatest of all, Friendship, which carried them through everything.

Report of the President of the Ebell Juniors

The Ebell Juniors are proud to report that they have successfully completed an increased program of work this past year. Our general program has not been enlarged as we felt that the established plan of procedure contained a desirable balance between the cultural and the philanthropic. However, we have tried to widen the scope of activities already established, and have succeeded in obtaining an increased attendance and, consequently, an increased amount of work accomplished.

The Junior Book Chamber has been under the direction of Miss Ruth Kennedy and her assistant, Mrs. Edgar Tevis Smith. The informality and charm which have come to be associated with this group have prevailed throughout the year. Fifteen meetings were held on the first and third Thursdays of each month at the homes of as many interested members. The total attendance was 469, making an average of about 31 at each meeting. The largest attendance was 51 and the smallest 12. Approximately 90 books of a varied nature were reviewed, including biography, fiction, travel, current plays and current events. 37 members gave reviews.

The Drama Section was under the very capable direction of Mrs. Harold W. Dougher. She was assisted by Mrs. Frederick Marshall Hughes. This group met on the third Tuesday of the month at the homes of various members and listened to and participated in informal discussions of subjects relating to the theater. Speakers included:

Mrs. Tacie Hanna Rew of the School of Speech at the University of Southern California. Mrs. Rew spoke on, "The Radio Play and Experiences in Broadcasting."

Gertrude Street Vizard who discussed her experiences teaching children at the United Artists Studio.

Mrs. Phyllis Wilson who discussed the Pasadena Community Playhouse in her talk, "A Sure-cure for Boredom." Mrs. Wilson returned another month to give a practical demonstration of street, stage and movie make-up.

Mr. Walter Byron, English motion picture star, who gave reminiscences of his theatrical experiences.

Miss Lucille Ryman, actress and director, who gave us an interesting picture of life back-stage.

Sarah Taft Tesche who entertained with a review of poetry.

The average attendance was 20.

The plays produced by the Drama section include:

Letters by Colin Clements and Litterateurs by Margaret Purcell, given at the regular Junior meeting on November 9.

The Last Christmas by Paul Moffet, given on December 19 at a Monday meeting of regular Ebell.

A Marriage is Arranged, given with Letters at the Thursday night dinner on February 16 when the Juniors assisted as hostesses.

Groups from these plays were presented twice at the Episcopal Home for the Aged at Alhambra, also, at the Soldiers' Hospital at San Fernando and for "Drama Day" at La Camarada Club.

The Scholarship Committee, Mrs. Edmund Hugh McClure, chairman, and Mrs. George Stasand, assistant chairman, presented three gift scholarships of ten dollars a month from September to June inclusive to worthy university students. A special summer scholarship of twenty dollars was given to the mother of three of the children cared for by our Social Welfare Committee to help her complete required work for a teaching certificate needed to improve her status as a teacher. The total expenditure was $320.

The Social Welfare Committee, Mrs. Wendell C. Cole, Jr., chairman, met every other Monday to sew on the little girls' dainty dresses which are distributed to our families. Under the direction of Mrs. Dwight H. Reay, assistant chairman, seventy-four dresses were made. Other assistants were Mrs. Lindley F. Bothwell and Mrs. Cameron L. Thom. The average attendance was eighteen.

During the year thirteen families, including forty-three children (nineteen boys and twenty-four girls), were taken care of. Some surplus clothing was also given to the American Red Cross at the time of the earthquake emergency. Dress materials cost $29, other clothing cost $74, making a total expenditure of $103. Other expenses included $41.89 for Christmas baskets, $1.50 for an emergency food basket, $9.23 for milk, $4.50 for a wood stove and $2.75 for repairs on the sewing machine. The sum total of expenditures was $162.87.

Income, as shown by the report of Miss Elizabeth Scattergood, treasurer, comes from four sources. (1) The Benefits Committee with Miss Margaret Bunn as chairman and Mrs. Brodie Ahlport, Mrs. Arthur F. Daves and Mrs. Robert S. Redington as assistants, gave two parties. The December Supper Dance at the Biltmore netted $34.50 in cash and several thousand dollars worth of pleasure. The Bridge Tea and Easter Fashion Prevue held in the clubhouse netted $171.37. Bullock's graciously presented the fashion show for which our own members served as models. (2) The Bridge Party Committee, Mrs. Miriam K .Ross, chairman, and Mrs. James A. Hague and Mrs. Henry T. Hollwedel, assistants, contributed a profit of $73.06 to the fund. Seven parties were held on our regular fourth Friday. (3) $25.85 was collected in our milk fund bottle. (4) $13 was received through donations. The total income was $317.78. The balance on hand in the social welfare fund is $660.20.

Memorial—Mrs. William Luke Jones

As in a garden each flower exhales its individual perfume; as in an orchestra each instrument carries its own note of harmony, often unnoted until it is muted, so each life adds its influence to the great symphony of existence.

The memory of Mrs. William Luke Jones brings instantly to mind an adaptation of the words of Isreal's prophet, "Her gentleness hath made her great." Her personality was that of a quiet stream which rippled by not over rocks and reached her goal invariably.

Mrs. Jones joined the club in 1904—a time when the services of each member found an immediate outlet and she soon became a force in the life of the organization. The programs of the departments were all given by members and Mrs. Jones contributed liberally of her talents. As curator of the Department of Expression, she led an enthusiastic group of workers and later as General Curator, her gentle hand guided the entire body of students.

Mrs. Jones' especial interest was music. With Dr. Bruce Gordon Kingsley as director and Mrs. Harmon Ryus as curator, the Department of Music became one of the notable concert centers of the city and ten brilliant recitals were given yearly. Ebell contributed her active interest and one hundred dollars toward securing a guaranty fund to bring to Los Angeles the Biennial meeting of the National Association of Federated Music Clubs, whose delightful entertainments are still a pleasant memory.

Mrs. Jones was an indefatigable worker and as member ex-officio of Ebell's numerous committees, she attended practically every meeting. Recognizing the growing necessity of a closer touch with the civic work by Ebell, she appointed the Forward Work Council of twenty-nine representative women to keep the club informed on almost every line of Social Welfare activity in the city and state. A resolution was passed concurrently with this, to the effect that the club would make no endorsement of political men or measures, a wise decision, still in force.

For a number of years Mrs. Jones has lived in Portland, Oregon, but her influence abides with us still.

Strength lies not in the thunder's roar,
But in the warm and gentle pour
Of springtime rain,
Which seeking hidden rootlets
Rises to live again.

FRANKLINA GRAY BARTLETT.

MRS. WILLIAM LUKE JONES

Form of Bequest or Devise

For Benefit of Ebell Rest Cottage

It is suggested that one of the following forms be used when money or real estate is to be left to The Ebell of Los Angeles for the benefit of Rest Cottage.

If money, use the following form: "I hereby give and bequeath to The Ebell of Los Angeles for the maintenance of Rest Cottage_____ dollars."

If real estate, use: "I hereby give and devise to The Ebell of Los Angeles that real property described as follows:_____

If the desire is to leave money or real estate with the intention that only the interest or income therefrom shall be used for the maintenance of Rest Cottage, then add to the above forms as follows: to the first, "And I direct that said sum of money be safely invested and the interest or other proceeds arising therefrom shall be used for said purpose."

To the second form add, "And I direct that the income from said property shall be used for the support of said Rest Cottage and in the event that it is deemed advisable to sell the said property so devised, that the money derived therefrom shall be invested and the proceeds used for said purpose."

At the suggestion of the donor such bequest or devise may be left as a memorial to erect a building or endow a room to be known by the name of the person designated.

You may make your own will without any witnesses being present. To do so it must be wholly dated, written and signed in your own handwriting.

In the event that it is written by other persons it must be signed by you and by two witnesses, who must sign at your request after you have declared to them that the instrument is your last will and testament. They must sign in your presence and in the presence of each other.

Standing Rules

Admission to all meetings shall be by card of current term only.

Regular members may bring three guests to all open Monday afternoon programs by paying fifty cents each.

Junior members shall be privileged to attend one Monday program each month and may bring three guests to such meetings, by paying fifty cents each.

No person eligible to membership shall be admitted as a guest to more than two Monday afternoon meetings in one year.

Auditorium guest tickets are sold by the Guest Ticket Committee at the Lucerne Boulevard and Eighth Street entrances. Regular members will receive ten guest cards for departments; one-half to be issued October first and one-half March first.

Calling cards may be used for guests in the Bible and Public Affairs Departments.

Any member of an out-of-town federated club may, on presentation of credentials, receive a complimentary guest card good for ten days.

Current membership cards will serve as cards of introduction to federated clubs of other cities.

New members notified of their election during February or June shall pay dues from March first and October first, respectively.

Applications for non-resident rates will not be granted after October first for the ensuing year, or after March first for the last half of the year.

Endorsers of temporary membership applicants must state length of time applicants have been in Los Angeles and probable length of stay. All applications must be made in writing each year and the membership must be continuous from the date upon which it is granted.

Canvassing for funds to provide gifts for curators, instructors or officers is definitely against the policy of the Club.

No appeals for financial aid shall be made from the platform or in the club rooms except by permission of the President and Board of Directors; nor shall there be any personal canvass for funds, but a table may be so placed that voluntary contributions may be received.

Curators, committee chairmen and others arranging for called meetings in the club house shall notify the office stating the time and place of meeting.

Ebell seeks information on legislative measures, but does not endorse partisan political measures or persons.

A member may not represent Ebell on any outside committee unless so appointed by the President or Board of Directors.

No refreshments are to be served at any time in the Reception Room except to the Reception Committee.

Luncheon tickets will be on sale in the Galeria every club day from one-half hour before the department meets to 1:00 P.M. At other times they may be procured at the office.

To insure efficient service, reservations should be made for the Wednesday luncheons and the Thursday night dinners by 5:00 P.M. of the day preceding.

For the convenience of members, checks mailed to the office will be accepted for reservations, but no reservations may be made over the telephone.

Reservations are not obligatory for the Monday, Tuesday and Thursday luncheons.

Tables may be reserved for Departments and other groups.

It is a rule of the Club that there shall be no tipping.

Notices

Office open daily from 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M.; Saturday, 8:30 A.M. to 12:00 M.

Official Club pins may be purchased at the office.

Departments are open to all members of Ebell.

The Bulletin Board will note any change in date of meetings.

The Charter Day reception will be held on the last Monday in October.
