History of the Ebell of Los Angeles

From 1894 to 1927

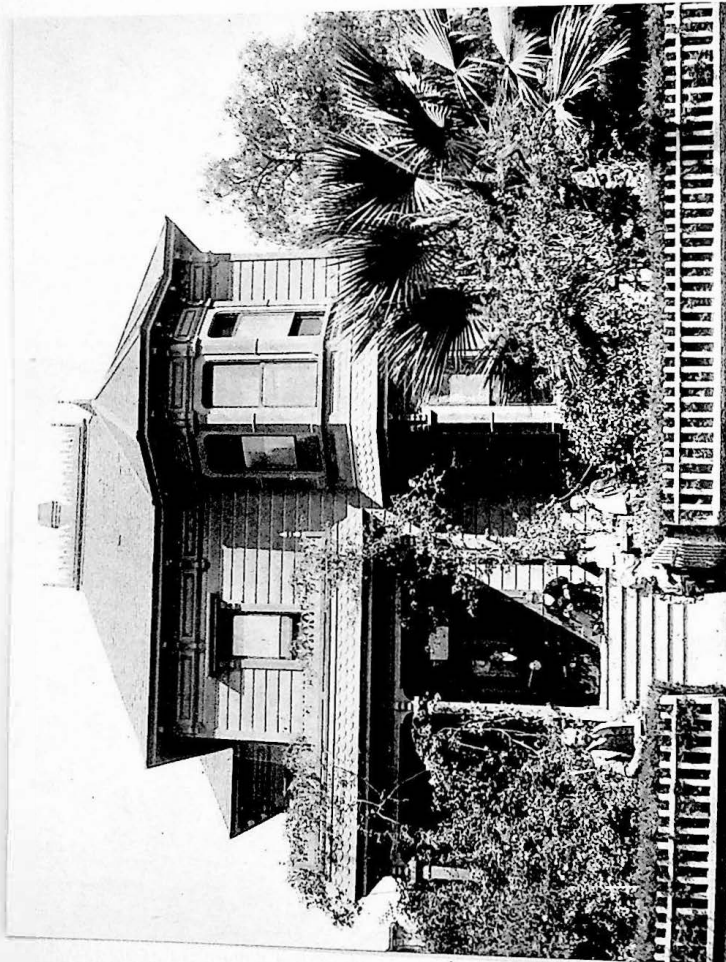

Few great movements affecting the social and moral life of a nation have had their birth, growth, and florescence in so short a time as that of Women's Clubs. One hundred years can easily compass their history. Therefore Dr. Adrian Ebell may be called a pioneer in his life work of widening the scope of woman's education. After some years of lecturing on the sciences at "Female Seminaries," he began the ambitious project of organizing around the world a chain of women's societies to be known as "Chapters of the International Society of Arts and Sciences," with headquarters at Berlin. The first of these Chapters in the West was established in Oakland, California, in 1876. It was not very popular, and on Professor Ebell's death was reorganized by Miss Mary Culbertson into a "Society for General Culture," which was named in honor of its originator, "The Ebell Society." It became the inspiration and model of the many societies later organized in Southern California and known by the name of "Ebell." The first of these to follow the example of the parent society was the Ebell of Los Angeles.

From a statement written by Mrs. H. W. R. Strong shortly before her death the following account of the founding of the Los Angeles Ebell is compiled.

In September 1894 Mrs. Strong and Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, both of whom had been members of the Oakland Ebell, met with the Misses Alice and Emmie Parsons, and the Misses Jeanne and Grace Dennen, to discuss the feasibility of organizing a club in Los Angeles on the lines of the one in Oakland.

There were in Los Angeles at that time two Women's Clubs, the Friday Morning and the Ruskin Art. It was gravely debated whether there was room in the city for a third. It was finally thought best to defer the decision for further investigation.

A subsequent conference resulted in the determination to try the experiment; and the selection of names was made from the visit-lists of those present, to whom Miss Grace Dennen was requested to write, explaining the plan of the proposed organization, inviting them to a meeting at the Parsons' home, 1226 South Olive Street. The drawing room was filled on that occasion, and Mrs. Strong called the meeting to order.

The account of that meeting is condensed from the Secretary's minutes. Mrs. H. W. R. Strong having been elected Temporary Chairman, stated the purposes of the proposed organization, and then read a letter from Miss Mary Culbertson, first President of the Oakland Society, giving an account of Dr. Adrian Ebell and his work. The Constitution and By-Laws of the Oakland Society were also read. After a unanimous vote to organize a club in Los Angeles on similar lines, the meeting elected the following officers:

President	Mrs. H. W. R. Strong
First Vice-President	Miss Alice K. Parsons
Second Vice-President	Mrs. W. S. Bartlett
Third Vice-President	Mrs. Frank W. King
Fourth Vice-President	Mrs. W. G. Cochran
Fifth Vice-President	Mrs. H. K. Putnam
Recording Secretary	Mrs. Hugh W. Vail
Corresponding Secretary	Miss Jeanne W. Dennen
Treasurer	Mrs. L. W. Blinn

It was at once voted to organize Study Sections on the following subjects: Music, Electricity, Biography, Sanitation, Languages, Literature, History, and Art.

Mrs. W. B. Berry was authorized to establish a study section in Pasadena. It was moved and carried to hold two meetings of the Society each month one of which would be in charge of Sections to be chosen in rotation. The following committees were appointed: To draft a Constitution and By-Laws, Mesdames J. J. Ayers, J. C. Merrill, Miss Alice K. Parsons; to select a name, Madame J. C. Merrill, Miss Alice K. Parsons.

The Society then adjourned until December 8th, when the organization was completed. To the list of officers were added the following: General Curator and Librarian, Miss Emmie H. Parsons; Critic and Parliamentarian, Miss Harriet R. Strong.

The name selected was the "Ebell of Los Angeles." The Constitution and By-Laws of the Oakland Ebell were adopted with some changes to suit local conditions. The list of charter members was declared closed, comprising the following names:

At this second meeting it was decided that fees and dues of the Club should be as follows: entrance fee, one dollar; annual dues, two dollars, payable semi-annually in November and April.

Thus was launched an organization which for thirty-three years has established an ever widening influence, and which is today one of the largest Women's Clubs in the United States. Certainly its organizers laid its foundations wide and deep, with a vision of the ever increasing opportunities of the future.

The history of Ebell has been unique in this: that while the difficulties have been great at times, it has not only never stood still, but it has always gone forward. It has never swerved from its object, the advancement of women, nor abandoned its motto, "I Serve."

For three years, Mrs. H. W. R. Strong guided its destiny, overcoming by her courage, tact, and wisdom, the many obstacles which beset the unknown path of the new venture. At the end of six months there were 140 members who listened to Mrs. Strong's first Annual Address, from which I quote the following:

"Ideas and ideals are far more than personalities. If our ideas are true and high, the world awaits. The Ebell Club has breadth of organization that gives room to students and listeners both, and also in its classes there is adequate assistance through expert instructors. . . . Our people will become an ideal people when the girls and women are all, every one, educated to be not only the mothers of men but their mental equals. Then and only then will 'the scorn of the petticoat' be wiped out. . . . Women have accorded to them spirituality and heart. They are saying, 'Let us have brains as well.' Great fear has been expressed that women highly educated will be destructive of homes. Happiness belongs to the home, yet our honored forefathers declared to the nations of the world, their inalienable right to pursue happiness. This is a great mistake; happiness cannot be gained by pursuit. Men have compassed land and sea, they have organized clubs with home comforts, still in pursuit. They have speeded horses, they have employed steam and electricity, and now lastly, the bicycle, still pursuing. Yet sweet happiness evades them. The idea that where one is, is not the best place to be, but somewhere else are wealth and joy, has made of us a nation seeking happiness by pursuit."

During the second year of its career the Ebell established a magazine under the editorship of Miss Grace Den-nen. It continued for several years, and gave proof of the varied talents of the membership.

When the Club entered upon its second year it had outgrown the hospitality of a private home. The time not seeming ripe for building it was decided to investigate the renting of a place of meeting, at a maximum rental of $35 a month. The Committee after diligent search reported that the lower floor of ex-Governor Downey's house was available. This spacious brick home surrounded by a garden was one of the notable mansions of the time, and stood opposite the Saint Vibiana's Cathedral on Main Street near Third. Here the Club remained until the sale of the building sent it to a flat at Flower and Eleventh Streets, which however, was considered by the membership, as too far uptown. A special attraction was cited that the flat was fitted with eight-candle-power electric lights, a luxury still rare enough to be worthy of special mention.

The second President of Ebell was Mrs. Clara B. Baker, better known now as Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, whose enterprise and assistance secured for the Club its first real home. Mrs. Burdette erected a building suitable to the Club's purposes on a lot owned by her on Broadway near Seventh Street, for which a rent of fifty dollars a month was paid her with the understanding that should Mrs. Burdette decide to sell the property the Ebell would move. The erection of this building was a proof of the owner's faith in the future of the organization, for not long before the Club took possession of it we read, in the minutes of the Executive Board, that financial difficulties were many. The Treasurer reported in March 187 that out of a total of 121 members 50 were delinquent in their dues, twenty of whom were listed as "Hopeless." Monthly expenses were $43 and monthly income $23. A much heralded Poster Entertainment, which had cost much labor, reported total receipts, $82.15; expenses, $76.40; profit, $5.75. So the building of the first Ebell Club was distinctly an act of faith.

The following is quoted from the Los Angeles Times of September 25th, 1897: "The Ebell Society of Los Angeles will this morning hold its first regular meeting of the third year of its existence, in a new and admirably planned building, erected for its own special use and occupancy, the first structure in the city to be built exclusively for the accomodation of a woman's club. The building which was only recently completed bears the number, 724 South Broadway, and is the property of Mrs. P. C. Baker, having been planned by her especially for the society's convenience. It is a modified Greek structure, simulating a temple, and both interior and exterior are exceedingly attractive. The woodwork and floors are polished Oregon pine, the walls and ceilings are softly and attractively tinted, the main auditorium in fawn color, the reception and committee rooms in pale blue gray. The wide front entrance opens on a hall of comfortable dimensions on either side of which are small rooms. One is cosily fitted as a reception room, with pretty and homelike appointments. The large auditorium which is the principal feature of the building, is an ideal place for chamber concerts, art exhibits, and like affairs, and will accomodate two hundred fifty to three hundred chairs. A commodious stage at the east end of the hall is lighted by a series of electric lights, which are placed throughout the building as well. Beyond the auditorium are committee rooms on one side, with a chamber for the maid, and a kitchen with pantries and all the conveniences of a home. The auditorium is heated by a furnace, and the smaller rooms by fireplaces. The grounds will shortly be put in order with lawn, vines and flowers.

The Society's strongest work is in its sections, which are practically small clubs, each presided over by a curator. They are divided as follows: Conversation, Current Events, Art, Literature, Science, Law, Physical Culture, Travel, and French. The Society has now about one hundred fifty members, and is governed by the following officers: President, Mrs. P. C. Baker; 1st Vice-President, Miss Alice K. Parsons; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Dean Mason; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. E. A. Praeger; Recording Secretary, Mrs. J. B. Hamilton; Assistant Recording Secretary, Miss Emmie H. Parsons; Treasurer, Mrs. T. T. Knight; Curator, and Librarian, Mrs. R. W. Burnham."

In this building began the first real social life of Ebell. Members of the Board at that time remember with tenderness the lunches to which each contributed twenty-five cents; and a committee, changed each meeting, went out and bought the edibles and served the meal. What delectable salads and chafing dish soufflés we achieved in friendly rivalry! The intimate companionship of those days lingers in memory like a perfume.

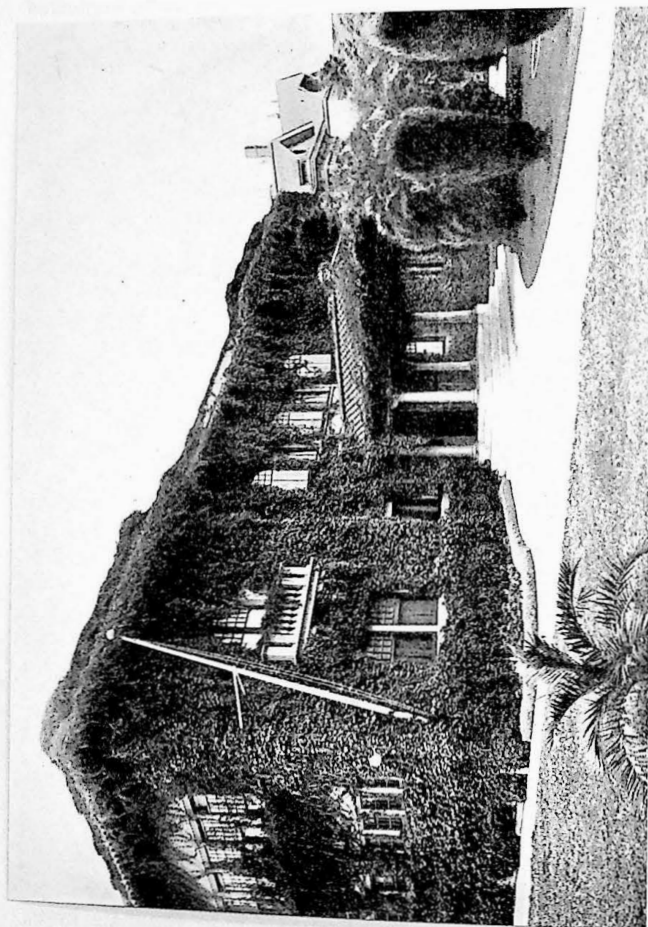

As the lease of this club house was of uncertain tenure it was deemed wise to revive the project of buying a lot for future use. This had not materialized when in 1902 the necessity for the move came, and Cumnock Hall, 1500 Figueroa Street, was rented for the temporary quarters of Ebell. This hastened the determination of the Club to build, and Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, the new President, appointed a Ways and Means Committee with Mrs. Charles N. Flint as Chairman.

When the Club opened in October 1902 this Committee reported that various members had promised subscriptions aggregating between fourteen and fifteen thousand dollars, to be taken in stock if a stock company should be organized to build a club house. They also reported that a lot on Hope Street near Ninth had been selected, and through the agency of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, an option on this lot had been secured for ninety days. At the end of that time Mrs. Burdette made the first payment on the lot, thus securing it, and she agreed to sell it to the Ebell Club Building Association when they should be in a position to purchase it for the price she had paid and all expenses incurred. These results of the labors of the Ways and Means Committee being deemed sufficiently encouraging to the Club to proceed, this Committee was discharged, and an Organization Committee appointed with Mrs. R. H. F. Variel as Chairman. This Committee with the generous assistance of Judge R. H. F. Variel, completed the organization of the Ebell Building Association, which was a stock company with a capital stock of $50,000. The Directors of this Association were, Clara B. Burdette, Acsah J. Stimson, Caroline Variel, Rose L. Burcham, and Mary L. Hunt. Mrs. Variel was elected President, and Mrs. Burcham, Secretary. Too much praise cannot be given these ladies for the devotion and business wisdom which they brought to bear on their task.

A subscription agreement was printed and subscriptions solicited. The first two thousand shares at $10 each were reserved for Club members and these were all to be taken within four months. This being accomplished, the Association purchased the lot on September 16th, 1903, paying Mrs. Burdette $14,500, the original price of the lot including taxes and interest to date. A second subscription agreement was issued in which the remaining stock was offered to others not Club members. However, the great majority of these shares, 3550, were taken by Ebell Club and its members.

The values of real estate were increasing so rapidly that the Hope Street lot became a most fortunate investment and the Association decided to sell it and buy a less expensive one for the Club. Accordingly the Directors then bought the property at 1719 South Figueroa Street for $10,000. In March 1905 the cornerstone of Ebell Club House was laid in the presence of a number of members most interested. The following account is copied from the minutes of the Club Secretary, Miss Helen Louise Kimball.

"A special meeting of the Executive Committee was called at the new Club House site, at 18th and Figueroa Streets for the purpose of laying the corner stone; Mrs. Frank King, President, presiding. Those present were Mesdames King, Hunt, Swaine, Hubert, Chandler, Dieter, Crary, Cochran, and Miss Kimball of the Executive Board, and a number of members of the Club. Mrs. King read a short history of the Ebell Club of Los Angeles dwelling particularly upon the dream of the members which was now being realized, a dream of the time when the Club should have a permanent home, and not be obliged to move on. Mrs. Hunt read a history of the Ebell Building Association, showing how from a mere hope, the Club House had become a reality. Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles extended the Club the good wishes, in the name of the State Federation of Clubs, of which she is President. Mrs. Hunt then placed in the receptacles prepared for them the histories just read by Mrs. King and Mrs. Hunt, Articles of Incorporation of the Ebell Club of Los Angeles, Articles of Incorporation of the Building Association, a copy of the first Year Book of the Club, a copy of each of the morning papers of Los Angeles, a few coins of current date. The box being sealed and placed, Mrs. King with a new trowel, spread the cement and the Corner Stone was lowered into its place. Mrs. Eliza Tupper Wilkes pronounced the benediction."

The architects of the Club House were Messrs. Hunt and Eager. The building cost $25,000 and the furnishings, including two pianos, pictures, books, etc., cost $7,500. At the time of its completion the Club owned 11,000 shares of its stock.

At the annual meeting of the Association, April 28th, 1906, the Directors after paying all bills and indebtedness, were able to distribute to the stockholders a surplus of $13,000; giving to the Club $3,000 for services rendered the Association; to the older stockholders 29% and to the recent ones, 25% of their total investment. This is a record of which able and experienced financiers might well feel proud. The enterprise was conceived and carried to completion by women, not however without the valued advice of club husbands.

In this Club House, the Ebells has done its work since January 9th, 1906. For twenty-one years it has been one of the moulding forces of the life of the city; has grown with its growth; prospered with its prosperity; and as the city needs have evidenced, has enlarged its fields. No worthy philanthropy has lacked the interest and sustaining influence of Ebells Club. From the first the Club has given its assistance to all that concerned the Public Schools; decorating and beautifying the Amelia Street School in 1902; furnishing milk for underfed children; championing causes dear to the heart of every teacher. Frequent programs have been devoted to exhibits of Public School methods and work. The first Home Teacher in Los Angeles was financed by Ebells and the first Americanization Cottage at Utah Street furnished. The Penny Kitchen and Open Air Clinic were fostered by the Club. A keen interest in Art and Music has been sustained in Ebells ever since its organization. It endorsed the movement for permanent Grand Opera in Los Angeles as early as 1918, and has never ceased to support the idea. It contributed $100 toward bringing the Biennial Meeting of the National Federation of Musical Clubs to Los Angeles, and Ebells members did much to insure the success of the Convention. It has maintained a Music Department ever since its organization, at which many notable musicians of the United States have appeared.

In 1914 the Club inaugurated exhibits of paintings by California artists, which have brought some profit to the exhibitors and much pleasure to the members.

The Los Angeles Chapter of the National Red Cross was launched under the auspices of Ebells, and the initial expense paid by the Club. As early as 1899, Mrs. Lowenberg, of San Francisco, President of the Philomath Club of that city, appeared before the Ebells to urge a movement among women to foster arbitration among nations, so that war might be forever banished. When, however this dream was not realized, the Club devoted itself with unswerving loyalty to the support of the Government during the critical years of 1916-18. Mrs. Chester C. Ashley, then President, applied her remarkable executive ability to organizing the

THE PATIO

[ The EBELL of Los Angeles ]

Club for patriotic work. Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson, her successor, continued brilliantly the work she began. From Mrs. Ashley we take this report of accomplishment:

"No appeal for help has come to us in vain. The needs of Armenia, Belgium, France, Italy, and Poland, of the Red Cross, and the Red Star have played upon our heart strings until our purse strings have been widely opened. Contributions of $1,100 each have been made to the General Federation of Women's Clubs for furlough homes for American Soldiers in France, and the Navy Base Hospital No. 3 with its unit of Los Angeles doctors and nurses. Approximately $5,000 was contributed to the Y. W. C. A., and the same amount to the Y. M. C. A. by the committees organized by Ebell Women. The Liberty Loan Committees received subscriptions from Ebell members of $195,000, $10,000 being contributed from Club funds.

The great activity of our club year (1918-1919) has been the Red Cross work of our Auxiliary, organized under the Los Angeles Chapter before our entrance in the war. The report of Mrs. Ilot Johnson to whose boundless enthusiasm much of our success is due, gives totals of accomplishment which reflect the devotion of 150 workers. 12,800 yards of gauze were used at a cost of $600. Cost of muslin and cotton used, $662.37. 2984 yards of muslin and outing flannel were bought, also material for 38 aviators' jackets, 166 suits of pajamas, 482 hospital bed units, 165 pieces of hemmed linen and miscellaneous articles, making a total of 873. 300 machine knitters converted 882 pounds of wool into 2992 garments beside individual gifts of 147 articles."

Notwithstanding the stress of all these war activities, local needs were not neglected. For some time a necessity had been realized for a Rest Home in which women, wage earners or home-makers, broken down by the struggle of life, but unable to meet the heavy expense of sanitariums might recuperate before again undertaking to resume their duties. On December 29th, 1917, through the generosity and cooperation of Miss Lillian B. Flanders and the Board of the Methodist Hospital of Southern California, Ebell became the owner of a small cottage and a large lot in the Olivita Tract at 1305 West Ninety-fifth Street. At this cottage Miss Flanders had been helped by Ebell to care for many convalescing women, and it was determined to establish a permanent home. Led by Mrs. William Read a band of indefatigable women set themselves to the task of carrying on this work. A Rest Cottage Association was formed with Mrs. William Read, Chairman; Miss Mattie Wilson, Secretary; Mrs. William R. Wherry, Treasurer; Mesdames C. D. Clawson, Gertrude Nash, and Sidney J. Parsons, Directors; with the ex-officio addition to the Directorate of Ebell's President, Mrs. Mathew S. Robertson; and the Chairman of Philanthropy, Mrs. Charles N. Flint.

This Rest Cottage is not a hospital, neither is it a sanitarium; but it is what its name implies, a place where rest in cheerful surroundings, good food, and country air may complete the cures which science has begun, and may restore hope and courage to those struggling to take up life's burdens. While the world was at war and all resources were strained to the utmost, rooms were added to the original cottage, and sanitary plumbing was installed, a fence and shed for storage purposes were built, all financed from personal gifts, except $150 from the Club treasury. Here this good work was carried on successfully until the Cottage became inadequate to the demands upon it, when the property was sold and a desirable lot purchased. The new Cottage at 135 North Park View Street was dedicated, free from all debt, February 6th, 1924. It has twelve large airy rooms, and provides accomodation for fourteen women.

The Ebell Club is indebted to Miss Julia Morgan of San Francisco, who donated the plans for the building, and to Mr. Sumner P. Hunt for valuable services rendered in supervising the work. The Club is now engaged in raising an endowment for Rest Cottage, of which $19,074.25 has been received to date. The Cottage is supported by a grant of $75 a month from Ebell funds, by dues from members of Ebell Rest Cottage Association, and by gifts.

Ranking in importance with Rest Cottage, Ebell carries on two other lines of community service, Scholarships and Practical Relief. Feeling the impending danger of world conflagration, the Social Service Committee, in 1916, at the home of Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, perfected an organization to provide comforts for those in need, especially for the patients of the County Hospital. The present Department of Practical Relief was a result of the passion for service engendered in the hearts of Ebell women by the strenuous years of the war. Hands unused to idleness were eager to relieve suffering which follows in the wake of war. There were veterans to be cared for, women and children to be helped on their way. So a band of devoted workers meets one day each week to sew, to revise and remake the garments supplied them by Ebell members; to meet applicants for help; to listen to and investigate their stories; to give freely not only of material things, but sympathy and encouragement.

The giving of scholarships to struggling students had been a feature of Ebell Social Welfare work from the beginning of its history. In 1921 this work was revived and vitalized. Since that time it has ever widened in scope and interest. Its object is to give opportunity to worthy and ambitious young people who need assistance in getting an education. The applicants are recommended by their teachers for their standing and deportment in school. Small sums are given monthly to assist in defraying expenses. The Practical Relief cooperates by outfitting any girl with suitable clothing at the beginning of each school year. More important still is the establishment of friendly relations between these girls and women of experience. Many a discouraged and lonely young student has gone forward with renewed courage knowing there was someone who cared.

During the year 1925-1926, the Scholarship roll of Ebell has contained the names of nineteen different girls who have received assistance. Twelve were university students; one a music student, and the rest high school pupils. Most of these girls are honor students, and are believed to possess qualities of leadership. An endowment fund is now being raised for carrying on this work, $13,000 having already been contributed.

One criticism of Women's Clubs which is often heard, is that they are composed of too many grey heads. Ebell determined to correct this, so in 1921 a Junior Department was organized. Young women under the age of twenty-six were eligible. Reaching that limit they are expected to pass into regular membership. An advisory board of Ebell women assists them, but they elect their own officers and make their own plans for work and amusement. They are following the ideals of the Club, and are making service their first object, having organized a Child Welfare Department, which meets to make garments for dependent children. They are already a most valued adjunct to many of the activities of the Club, besides preparing themselves to meet more ably life's responsibilities. That this training is not interfering with their home duties is proved by the fact that last year five babies were born to the group, and have been made honorary members of the Juniors.

The fate of Ebells has always been that of the "old woman who lived in the shoe" and throughout her career she has been forced almost annually to agitate the need of more room. As early as 1914 the Directors purchased the lot at the rear of the Club House with the plan of enlarging. But the World War caused delay in the project. In 1919 the clear foresight of the President, Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson, led her to urge the purchase of the lot adjoining the Club House on the south. The indomitable energy of the Ways and Means Committee working with her successor, Mrs. Eleanor J. Toll, raised the $50,000 to pay for it. But the congestion of traffic and crowding of business led the Club reluctantly to decide that a location must be found where Ebells might abide in peace, and house her growing family. The real estate transactions which for several years have added work and worry to the officers of Ebells are too intricate to recount here, but they have been happily ended in the selection of the property on Wilshire Boulevard on which the stately new Club House is now rising. The history of what Ebells does with enlarged opportunity; what influence it wields in the life of the community belongs to the future and depends upon the continuance of its purpose of service.

When thirty years ago the little group of women raised an altar to the Ideal they called Ebells, they could not foresee how the years would crown their work. The task of the women of today is to carry a coal from that Altar to their new home, and to nurture it until it becomes a beacon of Inspiration to the City of Los Angeles, even to the Nation, and may each member of the Club carry as an accolade, the motto chosen at its birth:

"I SERVE"

President's Report

The year of 1926-1927 in Ebell will long be remembered as a period of intense activity. This activity had many different manifestations, chief among which was the building of our new Club home.

"Wisdom hath builded her a house" we read and we might add "and the building thereof demanded the service of both mind and heart."

From the very first day of the present Club year, July 1, 1926, to the last, June 30, 1927, there has been no cessation of effort. Plans were made and changed to meet financial conditions. Serious consideration was given to the expressed wishes of the Club members for spacious elegance and luxurious refinement but the excessive cost often made discriminating elimination necessary. Yet we have a building, nay a group of buildings, so simple as to seem almost austere but withal so correct as to be truly an ornament to the city.

November 18, 1926, the supplemental and final plans were approved, the cost being too near $600,000 for comfort. November 29, the steam shovel was on the ground and excavation was begun. December 7, we had official approval of the final plans, preliminary and conditional approval having been granted July 26.

The architects, Hunt and Burns, and the builders, the Scofield Engineering and Construction Company, were ably abetted in their desire to give us the best of all houses, a friendly, comfortable home, built to live in as well as to look upon, by the remaining members of their staff: Julian E. Garnsey, interior decorator; George W. Reynolds, director of furnishings; Miss Florence Yoch, landscape designer. These assistants were chosen by the Board upon the recommendations of the various Committees which had investigated their fitness. Each is unexcelled in the particular line of work undertaken: each is an artist, a designer, as well as an executive. Ebell is most fortunate in their selection.

To finance a project so extensive and expensive, permission of the Court to mortgage all present real holdings of the Club was sought as early as April 1926, and secured the 18th of May.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

In November, the Security Trust and Savings Bank accepted the mortgage, agreeing to lend us $700,000 and to collect interest on such sums as were actually advanced. When we thought of owing this vast debt it seemed that with us, as with others, building might prove to be "a sweet impoverishing" but after four months and ten days of almost constant conference with realtors we received from the Troy Motor Sales Company a definite offer of $315,000 for the Wilshire-Shatto lots and having convinced ourselves that we could not hope for a better price, we sold. But it required two and one half months more to get this property satisfactorily zoned and this sale consummated. January 20, 1927 we received the first $105,000 of the contract price, less the commission and escrow charges, and by February 28 we were ready to lay the corner stone. The ceremony was made impressive by the presence and participation of many charter members and past presidents who had attended the similar ceremony at 1719 South Figueroa Street in 1905.

From the beginning the actual building has gone forward smoothly and rapidly. Today it seems certain that it will be finished in time to be furnished and ready for occupancy in early October.

Although some part of every day, often the major part of it, has been given over to the building project, other factors pertaining to club life have not been neglected. Federation methods have been studied and well-considered amendments to the C. F. W. C. by-laws offered. Four of the largest clubs in the Los Angeles District combined in a campaign for recognition of the rights of the majority. It has long been the custom to permit an intrenched minority to control the policy of the C. F. W. C. There has never been representation according to membership nor taxation (in the form of dues) according to representation. Ebell, the Friday Morning Club, Glendale Tuesday Afternoon Club, and Hollywood Woman's Club joined in the preparation of amendments which would have corrected the most flagrant defects of the system.

Full delegations were sent to both the District and the State Conventions after careful instruction as to the ethics of the contention, but the unequal voting power under the old form of government, which the amendments were designed to correct, made it easy for the minority membership to keep control and to defeat every proposed improvement, thus keeping in force the antiquated system of representation by districts, artificial, political divisions, and denying the large majority-membership a controlling voice in federation policy. The selected group of women who represented Ebell at Sacramento came back thoroughly convinced that withdrawal from the C. F. W. C. was necessary to the preservation of our ideals. Reports were made to, and discussed by the Board of Directors and Executive Officers and the Advisory Committee of Past Presidents, in conference with the delegates, with the result that the Executive Committee decided, unanimously, to recommend to the Club that we withdraw from the C. F. W. C. This recommendation was presented to the Club at an open meeting, Monday, May 16, and again on May 23. As in 1915, the claims of justice were put in the scales against those of expediency and once more Ebell was swayed by the ethical rather than the sentimental. After full and free discussion from the floor, a vote was called for, and again, almost unanimously, Ebell decided to sever all connection with C. F. W. C. This step was taken neither in haste nor in anger but in sorrow and only after all our efforts toward co-operative correction of pervasive governmental faults had been spurned. The denial of proportionate representation is un-American, and must not be endured.

So absorbed have those nearest the center of club activity become that no thought of weariness has overcome their enthusiasm; no sacrifice of time, strength, or money has seemed too great if it but hastened or helped to perfect the desired supreme achievement; a fitting temple for the Ebell whose ideals are so sacred. To perpetuate these ideals has been the conscious aim of the governing body and the working staff.

All former officers at the suggestion of Mrs. Edward C. Dieter, met, early in June, and organized a Round Table, with the idea of sustaining interest in their Club and stimulating support for its worthiest endeavors. Mrs. W. S. Bartlett was made temporary chairman and Miss Charlotte Rockwell secretary. Mrs. Chester C. Ashley was on June 16, made permanent chairman.

The evening programs were held under the auspices of the department curators and were pronouncedly successful affairs. They are listed elsewhere, but the annual tribute to Shakespeare's memory is worthy of special mention because of the participation of Dr. Frederick Warde, an honored Ebell associate, whose genial yet dominating personality assures success.

The charter members luncheon (October 15); new members luncheon (May 16); and high tea on the closing day (June 27) were vivid examples of Ebell's hospitality. Fortune has favored us.

Were it possible to write an appreciation instead of a report, many pages would be filled with well deserved praise of those serving their club so ably and cheerfully. As of one mind and for one cause chairmen of committees and their assistants; curators of departments and their staff; former and present officers, all have given their best thought to their duties; their loyal support to their officers; their assistance to the Club's social welfare activities; and to the Ways and Means Committee. To the members of the Club, the Executive Committee and the President, are deeply grateful for the confidence expressed in their management. The resolution passed by the Club April 4, 1927, setting aside the election of officers for 1927-1928 in order that the building program might not be interrupted was an evidence of faith highly prized by those whom it most nearly concerned.

With such an incentive there must be even more earnest service. Our hearts glow with gratitude that we are thought worthy to serve. With the shining example of Ebell's first president ever before us we do not mourn her absence. We hope to follow in her footsteps to help preserve the traditions of Ebell.

When we enter the door of our spacious and grandly beautiful home we shall expect it to be gracious, warmly hospitable, sincerely friendly. We expect to say, "Behold our home! A spot of earth supremely blest." Enter in, dear Ebell members, to this soon-to-be-loved delightful home.

Respectfully submitted by

Mrs. WILLIAM READ, President.

Report of the Recording Secretary

In the report of the Recording Secretary of the Ebell of Los Angeles for the year just closed, the business of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee assumes the greatest importance by reason of the building program, which has filled the time and occupied the serious thought of each officer and director.

An unusually large amount of time has been spent in transacting the financial affairs of the Club. The sale of the Wilshire-Shatto property; the approval of plans and oversight of the new building, insurance policies, furnishings and equipment plans and contracts, as well as oversight of the finances of Rest Cottage and Scholarships have constituted a business of considerable proportion, running well over a half million dollars.

With the multiplicity of detail to be considered and acted upon, the Board of Directors held 47 meetings during the year, at which Mrs. Read presided. The attendance was 93 percent, no one being absent save for illness or enforced absence from the City. At many of these meetings, where financial matters were to be decided, the entire Executive Committee was present and consulted. Fifty meetings of the Executive Committee were held, the President presiding at every meeting with an average attendance of 88 percent. Here the regular Club work was planned, each member having her own particular assignment.

Mrs. Ilot Johnson, First Vice-President, was quietly and efficiently ready to assist and represent the President wherever needed. She served as Chairman of Printing, supervising the year book and bulletins, and as Chairman of Representation, has attended many meetings of other clubs in the District. Mrs. Johnson has also served on the Building Committee, as did Mrs. Lyman Brumbaugh Stookey, the Corresponding Secretary, whose report of letters written for Ebell appears elsewhere.

Miss Helen Louise Stubbs, Second Vice-President, Chairman of Programs, arranged thirty-nine programs, seventeen of which were lectures; eight were illustrated travelogues, eight were musicales, and six were dramatic entertainments presented by the Drama Workshop. Our musicales have consisted of vocal and instrumental entertainments by internationally known artists. The best known lectures appearing on our platform, this year for the first time, were Leo Katz, the artist, George Creel, Grant Overton, and Lewis Brown.

Our house has been kept in order and hospitality dispensed through the united efforts of the House Committee with the Third Vice-President, Mrs. James Andrew Rogers, Chairman. The Monday afternoon teas have increased in popularity, more than 8000 persons having been served. Refreshments were provided and served for three evening receptions and out of its budget the Committee was hostess to the Club members at the final June meeting when a delightful high tea was served.

Chairmen and members of committees have worked in harmony and understanding to maintain the standard of Ebells, and the results were never more gratifying. Mrs. William J. Wilson has been Chairman of the Benefits and Entertainments Committee; that splendid group of women who obligate themselves each year to provide a large portion of the funds for Rest Cottage, Scholarships, and Practical Relief. So successful were their efforts this past year that before January 1st their quota was raised and they allied themselves with the Ways and Means Committee, pledging a grand piano as their contribution to the furnishings.

The records of the Club Survey Committee have been in charge of Mrs. Edward Everett Sherrard, who with her assistants has indexed and cross indexed the entire membership, placing names of all members under committees on which they have served. This Committee also regularly checked the vital statistics and the society columns, turning over the facts so gleaned to the Corresponding Secretary and to the Membership Chairman.

Mrs. Lyman Curtis Blakeslee, Chairman of the Courtesy Committee, has with her assistants, given a cordial greeting to members in the tea rooms and has made an especial effort to introduce new members.

Mrs. Frank Howell Stanbery, Chairman of the Credentials Committee, and Mrs. Frank Brown Wheat, Chairman of Ushers, with their Committees, have admitted and seated members and guests on Monday afternoons and at the evening meetings in an efficient and courteous way. Mrs. Stanbery reports 1439 guest cards have been used during the year.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

The auditorium and tea rooms have been elaborately and beautifully decorated on Mondays by the Decoration Committee under Mrs. Bertam E. Green's leadership.

Miss Flora Belle Houston, Chairman of the Library Committee, reports 228 new books added to our shelves by gift and purchase. The Committee is planning to supervise the removal of the library to the new quarters.

Mrs. Edward A. Tufts, Press Chairman, has sent notices and reviews of meetings to five daily and one weekly newspaper and a 2500 word article each month to the Club Woman magazine. A clipping book has been compiled, which includes more than 388 notices and articles. This book together with those previously filed, forms a valuable history of the activities of Ebells's club life.

To a great extent resolutions passed by the Club indicate high lights in our history. No one will question that we have made history this year, for we have established ourselves as a club of independent standards, and patriotic and practical ideals. In our withdrawal from the California Federation of Women's Clubs, we have signified our intention of carrying on our work with calm deliberation and conscientious endeavor.

When it seemed to us as if prohibition laws were to be tampered with by politicians, we sprang to arms and passed resolutions to defend the cause. The ever threatening clouds of war roused us to pass resolutions recommending a second tongue for all nations, so that a better understanding might strengthen neighbourly bonds. The necessity for flood control of the Colorado River caused us to express our sympathy in resolutions, copies of which we sent to our representatives in Washington. The furnishing of our new Club House awakened our zeal and we passed resolutions to assess each member $20. We passed resolutions expressing our confidence in and gratitude to our President on the Sacramento mission.

In the midst of life there has been death. We have paid sad tribute to two beloved members, Mrs. H. W. R. Strong, first President of Ebells, and to Miss Helen Augusta Brooks. These women, even in death lead us through memory of their valiant souls to deeds of courage and beneficence.

Report of the Corresponding Secretary

A comparison of the reports of the Corresponding Secretary for the years 1925-1926 and 1926-1927 may be interesting. At the close of last year 765 letters had been written of which 195 were invitations to the New Members Luncheon. Exclusive of these the number of notes and letters was 570.

This year Mrs. Charles D. Burt, Membership chairman, and her committees most kindly assumed the duty of sending the luncheon invitations to our new members. The count of the communications for the year June 21, 1926 to June 13, 1927 is 649, an increase of 79. Of these there were 248 business letters, 143 letters of cheer, 112 of sympathy, 48 of congratulations, 98 of thanks. During the two years, then, 1414 letters have been written for Ebell, a privilege much appreciated and for which there is much gratitude.

Respectfully submitted,

The Ways and Means Committee

The Ways and Means Committee was organized to inaugurate and carry forward a plan to raise funds for furnishing our new Club House.

This magnificent building has been erected and financed without a call on the members of the Club for assistance in any way. It is the result of five years of earnest, careful management of our Club properties, on the part of the Directors, assisted by the valuable and free advice of our lawyers and bankers, and is a notable achievement.

However, it was found necessary and expedient that the members of the Club should provide for the furnishing of this, their own Club home.

After a careful appraisal of our assets and our needs, and keeping in mind, a handsome, dignified, and adequate mode of furnishing, our director of furnishings, Mr. George W. Reynolds, assisted by our architect, Mr. Summer P. Hunt, and our Furnishing Committee, Mrs. Jay B. Millard, Chairman, has estimated the sum required will be $120,000.

Acting upon the recommendation of the Ways and Means Committee and with the approval of the Executive Committee, a resolution from the Board of Directors was submitted to the Club membership for endorsement, whereby it was proposed that the Club should assess its members the sum of $20 each, to be paid in full, at once, if possible, or over a period of two years, if necessary, at the option of each member.

After due notice and consideration this resolution was unanimously adopted at a regular meeting of the Club on Monday, March 9. This assessment, with our membership should bring something over $50,000.

The remainder of the fund is being raised by individual donations of money or of definite objects of various kinds as well as by pay entertainments of a very high order. These entertainments are gifts themselves, in that the several hostesses who present them bear the entire cost of each affair, leaving the total entrance receipts for the Furnishing Fund. These Dollar Parties are very successful and very popular and are meeting a need we have long felt for a closer social relation among our members.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

At this date July 23rd, 1927, the Ways and Means Committee reports the following returns pledged or paid in:

Assessment, Pledged . . . . .	$50,000.00
Money Donations . . . . .	9,767.85
Gift Entertainments . . . . .	2,342.70
Piano Fund . . . . .	2,500.00
Life Memberships . . . . .	3,600.00

$68,210.55

In addition to this we have had offers of a number of suitable and beautiful pieces of furniture, paintings, vases, and statuary, whose value can not be accurately estimated but which will materially lower the original sum required.

The Ways and Means Committee will continue its activities next year, until it has secured the necessary amount.

MRS. GRANTLAND SEATON LONG, Chairman

Report of the Federation Committee

THE Federation Committee of the Ebells of Los Angeles for the year 1926-1927 has consisted of eleven chairmen, a secretary, and an assistant secretary, who have represented Ebells at the Department Conferences of Los Angeles District C. F. W. C. The chairmen have attended the Conferences that correspond to the activities of the Departments of Ebells. They have made monthly reports of the lectures and the subjects under consideration by the State and District Federation. The reports have been placed on file for reference regarding the work of the Federation. A summary of the reports has been furnished the Executive Committee of Ebells by the secretary of the Federation Committee.

A spirit of friendly cooperation has existed between the Federation and the Ebells and the coordination of profitable suggestions for the club work has been of interest and mutual benefit. The Federation Secretary wishes to express appreciation of the earnest service given by the members of the Federation Committee to the ideals of Ebells in the discharge of their duties as chairmen.

Art is the sincere and suitable expression of man's inherent craving for beauty. The best thing one gets from travel is the development of discrimination.

Facing forward today means facing West toward the center of future world activities. For the coming year we will in general study the countries bordering the Pacific, first becoming better acquainted with Art Movements in Southern California.

"Let us be pirates, stealing beauty for our dreams.
Round the Pacific with that golden bird, the sun,
We'll search with eagle eyes each place, as it beseems
Bold buccaneers who carry home what they have won."

Report of the General Curator

The aim of this section of the annual report is to bring under brief review the various aspects of the Departments of Ebell, to make sure that we are providing a well rounded work for the members while keeping the first things in the first place. There was no marked change in the general plans and work of the Departments for the year past, the programs and studies being conducted in much the same manner as in previous years. It is interesting to observe, however, that the participation and enthusiasm of the members was far above normal. Perhaps the new club house cast its shadow before it, at any rate certain facts are increasingly evident. One is that the interest in this important phase of club life is steadily growing. Purpose, vigor, loyalty, and love permeated every session of the Departments.

Starting the week the Browning Department, under the Curatorship of Mrs. Milton K. Young, met every first and third Monday morning. The year was devoted to the study of Browning's eight plays. The Drama Workshop presented Pippa Passes for the annual birthday celebration. A fund of three hundred fifty dollars ($350) was collected and it is planned to purchase a table for the new club house.

The Parliamentary Law Department met at the same time every first and third Monday. Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey, Instructor, presented the rules of Parliamentary procedure in her own inimitable way. This Department held a benefit luncheon and card party, the proceeds to be used in the furnishings of the new club building.

Alternating with these Departments was the Psychology Department, meeting every second and fourth Monday. Mrs. Edgar S. Stanley, Curator, has presented book reviews and papers by members and lectures by professionals of standing. At the second annual luncheon two plays were given by the Drama Workshop. The growing attendance compelled the Department to move into the auditorium.

The Tuesday Departments are: The Better American Speech and Shakespeare; Curators, Mrs. J. Elbert Harshman and Mrs. William H. Bryan. Many interesting speakers were presented in both Departments. The Better

American Speech Department studied those fundamental principles of good English necessary to clearness of thought and conciseness of speech, while the Shakespeare Department devoted serious study to the historical background as well as reading the actual text. Mrs. Harshman finds it impossible to continue and Mrs. George W. McCoy is the new Curator.

The Shakespeare Department held its annual luncheon under the old grape vine at San Gabriel and later attended the Mission Play. The members have purchased a marble bust of Shakespeare for the class room of the new club house.

The first Wednesday morning of each month the Art and Travel Department was privileged to be led by Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, Curator. In her annual report she says, "The history of the Art and Travel Department is co-eval with that of the club as it was organized in 1894. Its appeal is universal as all Americans travel and most travelers are interested in Art." During the past thirty years the retiring Curator has three times led the Art and Travel Department and she feels qualified to testify that interest in the Quest of the Beautiful never lags. "Men may come and men may go" but the love of Art goes on forever. Mrs. James W. Johnson assumes the Art and Travel curatorship.

Mrs. John Stearns Thayer presided over the Public Affairs Department which met every second Wednesday morning. It is gratifying to report that this Department has won a place in the activities of the Club. There were educational programs on civic and legislative lines always giving both sides of the question in a controversial matter. Two innovations were made: a breakfast to which candidates for state and judicial offices in the fall election were invited; a closing meeting, in the nature of a trip around Los Angeles Harbor through the courtesy of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, the San Pedro Woman's Club serving the luncheon in Point Firmin Park. Mrs. Leiland Atherton Irish assumes the curatorship of this Department.

The third Wednesday was always a busy day. Our largest Department, Books and Current Literature, meeting in the morning and the Music in the afternoon following the luncheon. Mrs. Jack Vallely, Curator, surveyed the entire field of contemporary literature reviewing seventy-two novels, twenty-eight biographies, eight books dealing with political questions, and six books of travel. Members also contributed book reviews, essays, and poems.

Mrs. Guy Frederick Bush, Music Curator, has had varied musical entertainments presented by our own members and our artist friends. These programs have been an enriching factor in our club life.

The close cooperation of the Drama Department and the Drama Workshop was shown by the presentation, in February, of The Twig of Thorn, a play presented by the Drama Workshop for the regular meeting of the Drama Department. So successful was this play that it was repeated in April, as a compliment to the Drama Workshop of the Hollywood Woman's Club. Other programs comprised two plays read, a survey of the Negro Drama, a glimpse of the Evolution of the Motion Picture, and a Christmas program of Music and Song, thus rounding out the year's work under the able leadership of Mrs. Harry C. Bender.

We always found the Spanish Department meeting on Thursdays. Mrs. Franklyn A. Rauscher, Curator, reports that a group of advanced students studied during last summer and throughout the club year, meeting once a week at the various homes. This Department started a gift fund to aid in the furnishing of the new building. We welcome Mrs. W. L. McLeod as the new Curator.

The Bible Department met twice monthly, the second and fourth Thursdays. Mrs. Lena Leonard Fisher, Curator, has been the Lecturer. She has brought our attention to the study of the characters of the men of the Bible, under the general subject of Pictures of the Patriarchs. The primary object has been to make the Bible and the characters studied, real and vital, while abjuring any theological or sectarian phases of discussion. The Club recognizes the cooperation of the University of Southern California in making it possible for a teaching schedule to be arranged for Mrs. Fisher, which permits her work at Ebell.

In addition to the regular Friday meetings of the French Department Mrs. R. E. Filcher, Curator, reports that study classes have been conducted at the homes of members and at the club house for all three divisions. As a result much greater progress was made in the study of French and the interest and enthusiasm of individual members was greatly stimulated. Mrs. A. Halden Jones assumes the French curatorship. In both language Departments the present instructors will continue, Señora Maria Lopez de Lowther in the Spanish Department, and Mademoiselle Madeleine Letessier in the French Department. These two departments joined with the Better American Speech Department in an annual luncheon. A musicale and two one-act plays given by the Drama Workshop followed the luncheon.

Mrs. A. H. Purdue, Chairman of the Drama Workshop and Mrs. Lurah C. Davis, Chairman of the Art Exhibits, give separate reports. There is no doubt about the valuable service these two Departments have rendered. Mrs. Purdue continues another year and Mrs. William H. Millspaugh will have charge of Art Exhibits.

The future of the Departments seems very promising. Two new ones have been organized and are to function next year. Poetry with Mrs. William E. Keepers as Curator and Arts and Crafts with Mrs. Lurah C. Davis, Curator.

To all Department Officers and to Mrs. James W. Johnson, Assistant Curator, the General Curator wishes to express the heartiest appreciation for the work during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

For the period plays, artistic costumes designed by Mrs. John William Monahan and Mrs. Edwin Embury were made by Ebell members. The music, the dances, and the lighting, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Hairston Leigh, Misses Selma and Velma Lytell, and Mrs. Charles E. Stanton were special features of several plays.

The interest shown by the officers and members of the Club and the cordial support given by the General Curator, Mrs. Harry A. Ford, have been important factors in the success of the Workshop.

EBELLS REST COTTAGE
135 NORTH PARK VIEW STREET

Report of the Ebells Rest Cottage Association

"Service" the key-note of Ebells is fully expressed in Rest Cottage where one hundred twenty-two women received the kindly hospitality our cheerful Home affords with its glowing fire, lovely gardens, trees, and flowers bringing health and happiness to many lives.

Our guests express in numerous letters their appreciation of Ebells' generosity, for, with the few weeks rest they are renewed in body and spirit to assume their duties in the office or home.

Rest Cottage gratefully acknowledges the gift of one thousand dollars from Mr. Lewis Clark Carlisle in memory of Mrs. Carlisle, who was Ebells' Treasurer for eight years, and of a beautiful radio from Mrs. James Howard Moore.

Again we thank Miss Fulmer's School for the Thank-giving baskets extending happiness to eighteen families.

We appreciate the helpfulness of the Benefits and Entertainment Committee, the Needlework Guild, and the Practical Relief and many others who give of their time to help carry on.

Through the earnest work of the Membership Committee, eight hundred five members were enrolled—five hundred forty-two Associate, one hundred seventy-six Contributing, sixty-five Sustaining, fourteen Life, and Eight Memorial; a total of four thousand eleven dollars and fifty cents.

Five thousand nine hundred eighty-seven dollars have been added to our Endowment Fund, making the total Endowment nineteen thousand one hundred seventy-four dollars and twenty-five cents.

To the Investigating, the Follow-up and the Transportation Committees too much commendation cannot be given for their untiring efforts to bring comfort and happiness to guests they are privileged to meet.

Among the social gatherings at the Cottage the Christmas dinner for seventy-nine former guests, with gifts and a delightful musical program, two teas, and two luncheons proved an inspiration to the Social Committee and to all who helped make these days long remembered.

Our President, Mrs. Read, honored the Cottage by calling with such distinguished guests as Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Miss Mary Hays, and Mrs. Charles F. Turner, President of the Friday Morning Club. They were loud in their praises of the work Ebell is doing for her less fortunate sisters.

The Chairman wishes to express her sincere appreciation to our President, Mrs. Read, the Ebell Executive Committee, Ebell members, the Rest Cottage members, and the Rest Cottage Committee members for their co-operation thus making possible this noble work, which speaks for itself, in the happiness it gives to those who enter the portals of 135 North Park View Street.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. SAMUEL EMERSON FAROAT,
Chairman Ebell Rest Cottage
Association.

Resolutions

Establishing Ebell Rest Cottage Association

Whereas, There has been conveyed by Deed of Gift to The Ebell of Los Angeles certain property described as Lot 206 of Olivito Heights Tract, as per map recorded in Book 8, Page 47, of Maps in the office of Recorder of Los Angeles County, State of California, which property is known as and hereinafter referred to as Ebell Rest Cottage; and

Whereas, The terms and conditions on which said property was so conveyed required that it should be made a place of rest for women, who, because of their physical condition, need rest and quiet for a period of time to enable them to resume their former occupation, and that it shall be maintained as such by The Ebell of Los Angeles; and Thereafter at each annual election one Director shall be elected who shall serve for three years.

That said Ebell Rest Cottage Association, when organized as aforesaid, shall have full power and authority to adopt rules and regulations governing the management, maintenance and control of Ebell Rest Cottage and of any endowments, annuities, devises, bequests, memorials, gifts and contributions therefor, provided, however, that such rules and regulations shall not become effective or be changed or modified in any manner whatever unless approved by the

That said bond shall provide that the Treasurer giving the same shall faithfully perform all the duties of her office as provided by the laws of the State of California and the rules and regulations of said Association, and shall also provide that she shall keep true and faithful books of account showing the amount of money in her hands and the accounts to which it is charged.

That the Auditor of The Ebell of Los Angeles shall be the Auditor of Ebell Rest Cottage Association.

That monthly reports shall be made by the Chairman of Ebell Rest Cottage Association to the Executive Committee of The Ebell of Los Angeles.

Form of Bequest or Devise For Benefit of Ebell Rest Cottage

It is suggested that one of the following forms be used when money or real estate is to be left to The Ebell for the benefit of Rest Cottage.

If money, use the following form: "I hereby give and bequeath to The Ebell of Los Angeles for the maintenance of Rest Cottage .....dollars."

If real estate, use: "I hereby give and devise to The Ebell of Los Angeles that real property described as follows:....."

If the desire is to leave money or real estate with the intention that only the interest or income therefrom shall be used for the maintenance of Rest Cottage, then add to the above forms as follows: to the first, "and I direct that said sum of money be safely invested and the interest or other proceeds arising therefrom shall be used for said purpose."

To the second form add, "And I direct that the income from said property shall be used for the support of said Rest Cottage and in the event that it is deemed advisable to sell the said property so devised, that the money derived therefrom shall be invested and the proceeds used for said purpose."

At the suggestion of the donor such bequest or devise may be left as a memorial to erect a building or endow a room to be known by the name of the person designated.

You may make your own will without any witnesses being present. To do so it must be wholly dated, written and signed in your own handwriting.

In the event that it is written by other persons it must be signed by you and by two witnesses, who must sign at your request after you have declared to them that the instrument is your last will and testament. They must sign in your presence and in the presence of each other.

Report of the Practical Relief Committee

The work of the past year has been full of interest and accomplishment. While we emphasize the work for the disabled veterans and their families, the Rest Cottage guests, and the college and school girls, we never turn away anyone applying for help without at least, giving encouragement and sympathy. We always try to send them to the Social Agencies that can give them the help we are unable to give.

We have six elderly women whom we clothe, all fine women, well educated, who now find themselves dependent through no fault of their own. Two of these women were at one time members of Ebell and one a member of the Friday Morning Club.

Besides giving 557 pieces of clothing to disabled veterans and their families, we sent fifty Christmas dinners, each basket accompanied by a second one filled with all kinds of fresh vegetables, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Burt. At a Monday meeting of the Club a contribution of $212.55 was given by the members to cover the expense of these dinners. Bullock's sent us 150 toys and 55 pieces of clothing to be distributed with the baskets. We also clothed twenty-five Rest Cottage guests.

We find our greatest interest in the college and school girls. We have completely outfitted twenty-eight girls and they will look to us for clothing until their school days are over. All of these girls are working their way through high school and college. We have supplied three graduating dresses and have also given a suit to a boy who faced graduation without suitable clothing. This boy has made a record in high school, standing at the head of his class. He has worked his way through school since he was twelve years of age, and is planning to take a college course through his own efforts.

One woman came to us in deep trouble, tired and in a nervous condition, having a baby two years old to support and not knowing how to get work. Before marriage she had earned her own living by means of her voice. A month at Rest Cottage rested her; she and her baby were clothed by the Practical Relief Committee and with the assistance and advice of our Curator of Music, Mrs. Guy Frederick Bush, secured a position where she receives more than one hundred dollars a month.

We could tell you many stories of human interest had we time and space. We have received 4092 garments and articles, including 297 garments received from the Needlework Guild, and have distributed 3852. We have made 650 garments and remodelled 52 dresses and coats. We sent the flood sufferers fifteen comforts, one pair of blankets, six nightgowns, and six boy's blouses.

We have held forty-five meetings, thirty-three workers enrolled, with an average attendance of fifteen, showing that our work is not confined to Fridays, as much is done outside.

It is only through the devoted services of the members of the Practical Relief Committee and the cooperation of the officers and members of our splendid Ebell Club that the record of the past year is so satisfactory.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. T. J. Fletcher, Chairman
Practical Relief Committee

Report of the Scholarship Committee

The past year has been marked by an unusual number of special scholarships. In addition to the twelve scholarships traditionally maintained by Ebell, five special yearly scholarships were given by individual club members. Twenty names in all appear on our list of beneficiaries. Fifteen girls were carried through the first semester, eighteen through the second semester, and two were given assistance to enable them to obtain their credentials for teaching in California.

Of the eighteen girls who received scholarships during the second semester, two were students in High School, twelve in the University of California, Los Angeles, one in the University of California, Berkeley, two in the University of Southern California, and one in Occidental College.

The funds which made possible the above scholarships came from the following sources: (1) interest from Endowment Fund, (2) annual appropriation from the treasury of Ebell, (3) special scholarship donations from individual members, or groups of members, (4) smaller donations to the scholarship work, and (5) a share of the receipts from benefit parties given by the Benefits and Entertainments Committee.

Since our scholarships are given as honor awards, recipients are chosen with regard to their scholastic attainments and character, as well as their financial needs. Nearly all of them find employment in various capacities outside of their class periods, for our aim is to assist students rather than to support them entirely.

The Committee has found encouragement in the reports from some of our graduates that they have secured good positions, mostly in the teaching profession, and that many of them wish to repay the sums advanced to them in order that other girls may be helped in their turn. The following quotation from a recent letter is indicative of the response which the generosity of Ebell awakens in our girls: "The world can't be such a harsh place after all if it contains so many helping women. I feel that I must do something fine with my life to justify the faith that has been put in me."

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

The Committee desires to thank the members of Ebell, on behalf of the girls assisted during the past year, for their interest and financial aid, and to express its indebtedness for support and guidance given by our President, Mrs. Read, and the Executive Committee. Grateful acknowledgment is also due to Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap and to Mrs. F. W. Pitcher, who acted as temporary Chairmen during the enforced absences of the permanent Chairman.

Report of the President of the Ebell Juniors

Progress and achievement and the introduction of several new ideas into the working plan of the Department is the record of the Junior Department of Ebell for the past year. The fulfillment of two promises made a year ago at the installation of this regime, the first, to bring the Junior Department into closer contact with the Club proper; and the second, to distribute the responsibility of the Department's work among a greater number of individual Junior members, has made this record possible.

Our Child Welfare work, instituted last year by the Junior past President, Mrs. Loren Williard Babcock, has flourished this year under the very able direction of Miss Margaret W. Ross. In addition to the two boys taken last year, ten children have been "adopted" this year. The term "adopted" is not the legal one, but means the assumption of the entire responsibility of clothing and caring for the children, providing milk for the babies and, at times, assisting the mothers with food and clothing.

In order to augment the funds available for this humanitarian work, this enterprising Child Welfare Committee held a Rummage Sale, in March. This was a departure for the Juniors and proved a highly profitable one, netting approximately $153.

As it is our happy privilege to be members of Ebell, it is always our earnest desire to do our "bit". With the completion of the new Club House in sight, the Juniors decided that they wished to make some lasting gift toward the furnishing of the new building. A Gift Committee with Mrs. Raymond Tremaine, Chairman, has been diligently searching this year for just the right gift.

To purchase this gift it was necessary to raise a sum of money. It was decided to venture into new fields and to stage a three-act play as a benefit. The comedy Perkins was selected and two performances were given which netted $240.79. This play was staged by our Drama Committee with the very efficient chairman Miss Alice Elizabeth Warmbath, directing. The leading role was very fittingly portrayed by the Junior who has had the most to do with the advancement of our drama work, Mrs. Charles Axiom

Chamberlain, one of the Junior past Presidents. In addition to this the Drama Committee has given two monthly programs and one Monday program for Ebell.

Two benefits, under the direction of Mrs. Loren Williard Babcock, Chairman, netted $127.49 and $368.20 respectively. One was a bridge-supper at the Club House and the other the annual luncheon and fashion-show held at the Ambassador Hotel. Of this sum, $109.21 was added to the Gift Fund, making a total of $350.00, and the remainder was turned over to the Child Welfare Fund, making a total of $549.48. These two sums plus a gift of $10.00 make a total of $909.48 cleared this year.

Credit for the very splendid monthly programs is due the Chairman, Mrs. Edmund Alfred Jackson, and her committee. The most unusual one was the children's party given in April for the children of Juniors and former Junior members.

October, Program by New Members.

November, Plays. "Suppressed Desires" and "The Lights of Happyland."

December, Christmas Program by the pupils of the Lytell Studio of the Dance.

January, Illustrated Talk, "New Color Combinations" given by Mrs. Henrietta Horton Kapp.

February, Musical by Miss Margaret Schurmer, Soprano and Miss Orris L. Cook, Pianist.

Mrs. Harriet Williams Russell Strong

FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE EBELL OF LOS ANGELES

In the recent tragic death of Mrs. Harriett W. R. Strong, the Ebell Club has lost its first President, and the city and state have lost one of their most useful and distinguished women.

Mrs. Strong's essential characteristic was courage; she never feared new paths. Her ancestry entitled her to this quality. The founder of her family in America came to this country in the 17th century. He was a Presbyterian clergyman, as were five generations of his direct descendants. He was a friend of Alexander Hamilton's and was Commissary General in the War of 1812. One of his grandsons was Noadiah Russell who was one of nine ministers who united to form a college, which was the foundation of Yale University.

Mrs. Strong was born in Buffalo, New York, but when she was a small child the family moved to California. One of her early memories was of being taken from boarding school at Benicia to San Francisco, to see the first Japanese Delegation to America after Commodore Perry had forced open the doors of the Sunrise Kingdom.

At the age of nineteen she married Charles Lyman Strong who had been sent by the banking firm of Weller and Company of New York to establish the first bank in San Francisco.

Mr. Strong built the first fire proof building in that city, having sent to China for the brick. He also made the first gas on the Pacific Coast. He, too, was a courageous promoter of new things.

Having come to California in broken health, he purchased from Governor Don Pio Pico part of his ranch at Whittier. After Mr. Strong's death, several years later in San Francisco, Mrs. Strong decided to return to Southern California and devote herself to developing this ranch. Contrary to the advice of experienced ranchers she decided to plant one hundred fifty acres to walnuts, the first which had ever been planted on high land. The experiment was a success and she developed what was, at that time the largest walnut orchard in the world. There were twenty-five miles of trees, if set in a single row. Seeking a crop for quick returns while her trees were maturing, she planted Pampas Plums and invented a process for curing them and giving them a silky finish. In the World's Fair at Chicago she exhibited a pavilion made entirely of Pampas Plumes, which won much attention.

Mrs. Strong was an inventor of no mean ability. She invented a system of water dams, a working model of which was exhibited at the Chicago World's Fair and for which she received two medals.

Mrs. Strong was deeply interested in promoting the Colorado Water project and was summoned before the Water and Power Committee of Congress, and questioned concerning her proposed plans for using the water. She obtained a number of patents on useful inventions.

Mrs. Strong was the first woman member of the Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles and retained her membership until her death.

At the time that her attention was occupied by these practical matters Mrs. Strong was actively supporting literary, musical, and scientific movements. She was first Vice-President of the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra and was unremitting in the effort to further that organization. She composed a number of musical works, some of which have been orchestrated and sung in Los Angeles. She served as one of the judges in the City Public School Musical Memory Contests.

She was one of the founders of the Ebell Club of Los Angeles and its first President. She was a member of the Friday Morning and Ruskin Art Clubs, and President of the Hamilton Club, organized for the study of the Constitution of the United States. Her address on Constitution Day, 1924, was printed in pamphlet form and many hundred copies distributed. Mrs. Strong was also President of the Business League of America.

To sum up the accomplishments of this remarkable woman seems an idle task. To have known her personally, is to realize her charm and her strength. Her work was accomplished so quietly that few will know of her deeds even in Ebell which owes her much. Beginnings are more important than endings; foundations are more vital than facades; and the pioneer who blazes a new trail is greater than the conqueror who walks in other people's paths.

So it is with reverence that the Ebell Club pauses to do honor to the woman who had the courage to be her first President, and the vision to plan her great future.
