History

THE EBELL CLUB OF LOS ANGELES owes its plan of organization to the Ebell of Oakland, California, which was founded in 1876, by Dr. Adrian Ebell of Berlin. This eminent educator became convinced that the great need of the feminine mind was the study of science and philosophy. He therefore founded an "International Academy of Sciences," with headquarters in Berlin; and he designed to establish "Chapters" in all the large cities of the world. The first of these to be formed on the Pacific Coast, was the result of a lecture delivered by him in Oakland. Dr. Ebell dying shortly afterward, the Oakland Chapter decided to sever its connection with Berlin, reorganize the Society on broader lines, and name it for its founder. The following year, the system of study in departments was inaugurated, which secured the success and permanence of the institution. In 1894 two charter members of the Oakland Ebell, Mrs. H. W. R. Strong and Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, united with Miss Emmie H. Parsons and Miss Alice K. Parsons, in calling a meeting for the formation of a Los Angeles Ebell, on lines similar to those of the Oakland Society. Mrs. H. W. R. Strong became its first President and to her indefatigable efforts and fostering care, are due the remarkable growth of the infant organization. For a year The Ebell of Los Angeles met in the Miss Parsons' parlor, but as it increased in membership, it sought successively three rented homes. To its second President, Mrs. Clara B. Baker (now Mrs. Robert J. Burdette) the Club is indebted for substantial financial assistance and wise advice in the purchase of a lot, the sale of which made it possible to obtain the present location, where in 1905, the Club House was built.

At the close of the fiscal year of 1913 Ebell had completed the purchase of all the then obtainable stock of the Ebell Building Association and created an Emergency Fund of $3000. Our income had been increased by raising the dues from $8 to $10 annually and our life membership from $100 to $200. It had also been voted that our membership should not be limited. Early in the year a meeting was called consisting of the Executive Committee, the Past Presidents of Ebell, the original Board of the Ebell Building Association and Mr. Hunt the architect of the building, to advise upon the questions of enlarging or building a new club house and of purchasing ground; adjoining lots north, south and west of our present site were considered and it was finally decided the 18th Street property was most desirable and steps for its purchase for $15,000 were completed in August, 1913. $9000 has now been paid on the lot, leaving an indebtedness of $6000. A small income is derived from the house on the property, and all but five shares of Ebell Building Stock belonging to the Russell Estate has been acquired.

Several tests have been made this year of the attendance by members only. It was found by the elimination of guests we had a seating capacity sufficient for the average attendance. This fact coupled with the financial depression of the present, made it seem advisable not to begin building on a large scale, particularly as the Fire Ordinances of the city made it necessary to build an absolutely new Auditorium, and prevented the building of additions thereto as at first contemplated. It was therefore planned to make such changes as were deemed imperative by our increased membership and business requirements, including a better side entrance and more office room. A Building Committee consisting of Mrs. Edward C. Bellows, Mrs. William Read and Miss Charlotte M. Rockwell was appointed and with Mrs. James Tabor Fitz Gerald they worked long and arduously upon the purchase of the lot and various plans for the building. Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlisle and Mrs. Chester Ashley were later added to the Committee, which was instructed to carry to completion during the summer, the plans endorsed by the Executive Committee.

To promote efficiency in our business management, our By-Laws were amended, giving the Board of Directors power to appoint the Treasurer of the Club from the membership at large, and ruling that the Treasurer and Recording Secretary should meet with the Board of Directors, but have no vote thereon.

The Forward Work Council, which was inaugurated in 1913, and indicates a portion of Ebell's Civic and Philanthropic activities, has been increased by the addition of the Children's Home Society of California, The Juvenile Protective Association, The Young Ladies' Auxiliary to the Children's Hospital, Florence Crittenden Home, The Penny Kitchen, Seaside Home for Children, The Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra. This means that practical assistance is given to these organizations, and an Ebell member appointed to keep in touch and report upon the work. Instant and enthusiastic support greeted our latest effort along educational and cultural lines—that of creating an appreciation and support for the symphony orchestra, by arranging for a series of interpretative lectures, upon the symphonies given by the Orchestra, to which have been invited interested members of the Federated Clubs in the District, and for presentation of the symphony plans before such clubs as wish it.

Ebell secured the endorsement of the County and State Federations for the Boundary Stone League, Miss Annie Belle Picher founder, whose aim is to perpetuate the wonderful historical atmosphere of our great Pacific slope, by placing state and county boundary stones, suitably marked with bronze medallions, along the Pacific Highway. The National Sculpture Society is interested in the designs and has endorsed the plan as one of great historical value and artistic merit.

Further demonstration of Ebell's interest in community welfare has been indicated by the concerted action of the Club, in regard to the maintenance of the Moving Picture Censorship; the preservation of Civil Service in its purity, the endorsement of the Child Labor Bill, and by other measures relative to the welfare of women and children, and educational matters.

Perhaps in the opinion of the Executive Committee, one of the most significant actions of the year was that taken in reference to the non-endorsement of political measures by our State and County Federation; which culminated in the adoption of the following resolution at the thirteenth Annual Convention of California Federation of Women's Clubs.

"Whereas: The Ebell of Los Angeles has adopted the following resolution: 'That the Ebell delegates, to the thirteenth annual convention at Riverside, be instructed to vote and work against the endorsement of any measure, except those involving a distinct moral or educational question; and that they also endeavor to have all resolutions fully discussed, and the vote taken when there is a large representation of delegates present and voting.'

Whereas: There is seemingly a strong sentiment in support of this position throughout the State Federation,

Therefore Be It Resolved, that we here assembled, protest against using the influence, and agencies of the State and District Federations, to further distinctly partisan and political interests; and that we work for the moral and educational movements on which women stand practically united.

Further, Be It Resolved, that this resolution be presented to the District Federation for consideration and action during the coming year."

This is in accordance with Ebell's consistent attitude toward those questions of political import, which tend to have a divisive effect upon the judgment of women; whose strength, as an organization, lies in their unity of thought and action. Also, such endorsement is misleading as to the number of women represented by such action. We educate along lines of political welfare, for individual action outside the Club, but matters of partisanship and expediency have not been allowed to weaken our forces for constructive work.

The most gratifying results of our work has been the steady, dignified, harmonious progress of the Club in its own particular line of individual development, as a living contribution to social service.

Ebell women who gladly acknowledge their indebtedness, to our Department work and Club association, in the realization of their highest ideals, are leading in a quiet and unobtrusive way, the forces that are making for righteousness in this community. It means the upbuilding of character, the strengthening of the home and the home ties, the mothering of the race, the steady, practical readjustment of things to a new order, in which love and justice will bring greater opportunity for right living, and happiness to the many, as well as to the few.

The loyalty and loving co-operation of Ebell members, their genuineness of friendship and of purpose, the enthusiastic support they accord their officers, has made service in Ebell synonymous with love, and love with service. It is a privilege in which we all rejoice.

MRS. WILLIAM L. JONES,
President.

Report of the Recording Secretary

ANOTHER year has passed into history and Ebell, the largest woman's club in the world, must face the responsibility of measuring progress and accomplishment against opportunity, remembering that each new member is not only a possibility of enlarged vision, but also a new channel for increased service.

Reports, as mere recapitulations, are lifeless, but so long as each year adds evidence of a deepening culture, a perception at once clearer and more sympathetic and a wider conception of social service, your Secretary is persuaded that we shall find reports not prosy or tiresome but stimulating. Witness those that follow.

Our First Vice-President, Mrs. J. T. FitzGerald, tells us that twenty-four invitations to reciprocity meetings have been received. Of these meetings nineteen have been attended by Mrs. FitzGerald or appointed delegates and the interesting reports of the same submitted, from time to time, to your Executive Committee are sufficient evidence of the cordiality of our fraternal relations.

Our Second Vice-President, Mrs. George P. Thresher, has ministered to our members and their guests in the presentation of thirty-six programs; entertaining, informing, stimulating;—artistically, educationally, intellectually and spiritually. It is pleasant to record that several of these were given by artists whose names adorn our roll of members and one of them by one of our always beloved Past Presidents, Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt.

We have enjoyed seven musicals, three illustrated travel lectures, two illustrated scientific lectures, one on the "Conservation of Fishes" by Professor Charles Holder and Mr. Ormsby Phillips, one on "Egyptology" by Dr. John Balcom Shaw, a picturesque day with the ancient Zunis and one with the Greek Dance, and dramatic lectures, readings and interpretations besides.

Mr. Ernest Coulter told us of a "Day in the Juvenile Court" and of the "Big Brother" movement; Professor Stark Young brought us the message of individual responsibility in personal reaction to environment of time and circumstance in life; Professor S. H. Clark and Mr. John Barry gave us the sociological significance of the modern drama. Dean Southwick, in a masterly interpretative reading of Stephens Phillips' "Herod" showed us the desolation that follows the realization of Ambition's dreams, when Love is dead. Miss Wilkes' excellent production of Besier's fine play, "The Virgin Goddess," made the closing meeting a memorable one.

These and other programs of value have made a record of opportunities for enjoyment, information and culture.

Our Third Vice-President, Mrs. George A. Brock, ministering to those material needs the satisfaction of which seems to put us in tune for the reception of the finer things, reports that, in view of extensive alterations and renovating contemplated during the coming vacation, only strictly necessary repairs and additions have been made. A new furnace has been installed.

The hospitality, characteristic of Mrs. Brock, that has been in evidence for ourselves and our guests throughout the year, is known to us all. Besides the regular Monday teas, refreshments have been furnished for the Charter Day reception, for the two Children's Christmas parties and for two entertainments given for the Blue Bell Culture Club in whose progress Ebell is deeply interested.

The following statement of our Membership Committee is submitted by our Fourth Vice-President, Mrs. S. M. Browne, who has valiantly guarded our portals, measuring each newcomer by that arbiter in all questions concerning members and their rights and privileges, Section VIII of the By-Laws.

Membership July 1st, 1913.....	1381
New members to May 22, 1914.....	127
Resignations to May 22, 1914.....	31
Loss by death	9
Dropped for non-payment of dues.....	20
Total membership May 22, 1914.....	1450
Admissions during June bring the total to.....	1461

Besides these, during the year, forty-four temporary members have enjoyed the privileges of the Club for one or more months.

Our General Curator, Mrs. Thomas B. Stowell, whose enthusiastic championship of our Departments, has been at all times an inspiration, submits a detailed report in the Year Book.

Our Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ellen Augusta Lamb, reports one hundred sixty-six letters received and filed, and two hundred ninety-one notices and two hundred fifty-four letters written and mailed. Sixty-five of these were messages of sympathy or condolence, seven were replies to questions concerning Ebell's policy, and fifteen were in appreciation of gifts to the Club consisting of two beautiful pictures, of books, flowers and money.

The Ebell of Los Angeles

Our faithful and efficient Treasurer, Miss Charlotte Rockwell, submitted a general report showing a healthy condition of the Club financially and stated that the mortgage on the Eighteenth Street lot has been reduced to six thousand dollars, reserving a more detailed report for the Year Book.

Courtesy and kindliness may not be catalogued, but of their power to sustain and promote the atmosphere of cordial friendliness for which Ebell is noted, as represented by our Courtesy Committee, of which this year, Mrs. Leon Moss is Chairman, we are all aware. Mrs. Moss desires to record her appreciation of the work of all the members of her committee which all Ebell members and their guests can endorse.

Mrs. L. A. Gould, Chairman of the Social Committee, submits the following:

The Social Committee formulated a plan in an endeavor to further the spirit of unity and service and asked the coöperation of the entire Club membership, but work can be made successful only through united effort. The Secretary and Chairman have written letters of sympathy, of condolence and of congratulation, desiring to share the joys and the sorrows of our members. Calls have also been made.

The Chairman appreciates the work of the committee in the effort to carry out her plan.

(Signed) MRS. L. A. GOULD,
Chairman of the Social Committee.

The Ebell of Los Angeles

The Chairman of the Credential Committee, Mrs. L. C. Blakeslee, reports the entertainment of three thousand nine hundred seventy guests, one hundred ninety-seven of whom were men and three hundred sixty-three Department guests. Mrs. Blakeslee notes that at one of our best lectures only eighteen guests were invited while at a musical there were three hundred three, and suggests that possibly, some of our friends might enjoy the privilege of attending a good lecture equally as well as a musical, the more even distribution, at the same time, helping to solve the question of auditorium capacity.

Mrs. Blakeslee adds words of appreciation for every member of her committee.

Of the work of our ushers, in charge of Miss Ethelyn Ashton, and their patience and skill in caring for the comfort of our large audiences, throughout the year, we are all witnesses.

Mrs. Magauran and her Decorating Committee have been ever present in their silent, but eloquent representatives, lovely flowers. Mrs. Magauran wishes to report, however, that, in view of the scarcity of blossoms during the past winter, the sum expended, thirty-two dollars and fifty cents, would not have achieved the results attained, this being made possible only by the generous contributions of Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, Mrs. F. W. Johnson and other Club members.

The Club, at its regular meetings, from time to time, has endorsed resolutions as follows:

Urging the appointment of Dr. Margaret Schallenberger as State Commissioner of Elementary Education.

Asking Mayor Rose to fill, promptly, a vacancy on the Moving Picture Censorship Commission.

Urging that Civil Service be kept free from political or personal influence.

Asking for the passing of an ordinance providing for the employment, by the City, of men committed for drunkenness, wife-beating, and like crimes, the money to be paid to the wife for the support of the family.

Instructing our delegates to the State Convention against endorsing or voting for political measures.

Endorsing the Child Labor Bill.

Endorsing the official participation, by California, in the Centenary of Peace among English-speaking peoples.

Endorsing the work of our Superintendent of Schools, John H. Francis, and urging our Honorable City Board of Education to accede to Mr. Francis' request for an expert survey of our Public School System.

Through the Forward Work Council, first appointed last year, Ebell has continued her interest in and been kept in touch with the various phases of philanthropic, civic, educational and cultural work in our city and is officially represented on the Board of Managers of nearly all the organizations endorsed or assisted by us. Our President has recently been appointed a Director on the Children's Home Finding Society Board.

That our philanthropic activities have kept pace with our growth will be seen from our Treasurer's report.

Representatives of educational and philanthropic causes have been accorded brief hearings at the regular meetings of the Club. Dr. Warren Hilton, President of the National Society of Applied Psychology, aroused a lively interest by his talk on the object and work of the Society which has been productive of practical results in the lecture courses by Dr. David Beaton, which have been enjoyed by many of our members.

Mr. Ray Petty, who presented the cause of the Fresh Air Fund for the Newsboys' Club was enthusiastically received, a speaker for the opening of their Playground being furnished from Ebell and further measures of support and encouragement are now being considered.

Steadfastly refusing to give support to anything savoring of political partisanship, Ebell has consistently welcomed every opportunity, in her regular weekly meetings and through her Departments, to be informed on all issues touching her human relations, municipal, state, national and international, and has sought to stimulate her members to such earnest study as shall give wisdom for decision and power for service,—such worthy service as can be offered only by cultivated, trained, richly furnished personality, and to establish within our Club a true democracy,—a democracy that shall fit Mr. Ferguson's definition, "A multitude of people standing together, each of whom could stand alone, holding each other up," and that shall reach out to include all, the least of these, our brethren.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTIE H. WILSON,
Recording Secretary.

Report of the General Curator

THE Departments of Ebell are in the fullest sense alive; they are active and progressive, and the end of the year shows gratifying advance in the number enrolled, and in the quality of the work done. Each Department has its individual methods of procedure, its own standards, its own manner of arousing and keeping the interest of its members, its own plan of study whether with an instructor or without, but all maintain a high degree of excellence.

It is impossible to give details of each Department, but the bulletins issued each month show the character of the work, the large number of papers given by members and the variety of topics discussed; but the willing spirit, the understanding mind, the enthusiasm, cannot be portrayed. To miss the Department meetings is to miss the heart-beat of the Club. Each Department has been fully officered with those best adapted to foster and to further the work with which they are severally connected. The Instructors have been competent and painstaking and have omitted nothing within their power to make each subject not only entertaining and profitable but an inspiration to further and deeper study. The generosity of the Club toward its Departments is manifest in many ways; the use of the Club House for extra meetings and rehearsals, guest-privileges upon special occasions, magazines and needed books of reference, additional lectures, and at the beginning of the year the purchase of a balop-ticon for special use in the Department of Art and Travel.

The Ebell of Los Angeles

The double-dissolving lantern is also used in Department work if desired.

Besides the regular meetings special programs have been given by the Departments as follows: a lecture on Emerson by Charles H. Woodbury; active readings in Shakespeare; closing musicale with Ellen Beach Yaw and Charles Wakefield Cadman as guests of honor; two dramatic entertainments; art exhibit of "Contemporary American Painters," with colored slides from the Art Department of the General Federation; French songs, and the acting of modern French plays; special addresses by experts on "Conservation of Birds and Fishes"; lectures on Social Science by Rev. David Beaton. These all show the resourcefulness and general activity of the Departments.

The Department of Parliamentary Law, Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson, Curator, studied the Common Law of Parliamentary Procedure with particular reference to Assemblies, their organization and rules governing the same; a special chart, designed by the Curator, was used illustrating these topics.

The Department of Expression, Mrs. W. R. Mail, Curator, studied carefully five essays from Emerson's "Society and Solitude," with discussion of these, and suggested comparative literature. This Department gives fine opportunity for individual expression and the growth is marked.

The Department of Shakespeare, Mrs. Henry Levinson, Curator, Mrs. Edward North, Instructor, studied "King John," "Merry Wives of Windsor" and "Macbeth"; the general themes being Patriotism, Comedy, Fate and the Supernatural.

The Club of Los Angeles

The syllabi prepared by Mrs. North are of great value. The members of this Department seek the reward which comes to those who study aright the grand poets. Under the careful tuition of a gifted instructor they strive to distinguish between outer symbols and primary causes.

The Department of Drama, Mrs. Ada Henry Van Pelt, Curator, Mrs. Mila Tupper Maynard, Instructor, spent a most profitable year with Hauptmann and Sudermann as the chief dramatists studied, with incursions into the field of British dramatic art, and the reading by Mr. R. A. Maynard of "Chitra" by the Hindoo poet Tagore.

A mere enumeration of the plays read follows, but while this gives some idea of the work accomplished, from it there cannot be formed a correct conception of the dramatic talent and careful preparation of the various readers. Of Sudermann's plays there were read "Hindle Wakes," "Magda," "Princess Faraway," "Margot," "John the Baptist." Of Hauptmann's, "Before Dawn," "The Coming of Peace," "The Weavers," "And Pippa Passes," "Sunken Bell" and "Hannele." These were varied by Lessing's "Nathan the Wise," Percy MacKaye's "Tomorrow," Bernard Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion," Brieux' "La Femme Seule," Nietzsche's "Superman," Chesterton's "Magic," Galsworthy's "Fugitive," and Sidney Houghton's "Phipps."

Mrs. Van Pelt, the founder of this Department, has been made the first Curator Emeritus.

The Department of Music, Mrs. Harmon Ryus, Curator, has been most successful in procuring the best possible programs. Symphony Programs were discussed by

The Club of Los Angeles

Herr Adolph Tandler, Italian and French Opera by Mr. Roland Paul, Modern Opera by Mr. Sidney Francis Hoben, and special operas were read with musical accompaniment by Miss Jessie Weimar, Miss M. Marie Elliott, Miss Eleanor Miller and Mrs. Bessie Bartlett-Frankel.

The Department of Books and Conversation, Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, Curator, continued the theme of the preceding year, "The Human Side of Literature," with "Letter-writers of Antiquity," "Letters in Fiction," "Royal Writers," "Writing About Royalty," "Literature of the Far North," "A Morning with Newspaper Men," and "Personal Letters of Long Ago," contributed by members. The best of new books and current topics have been discussed at each meeting.

The Department of Art and Travel, Mrs. C. Q. Stanton, Curator, Miss Helen A. Brooks, Instructor, has enjoyed a year in Paris, studying its architecture, its cathedrals and palaces, its notable women, its amusements, its intellectual, scientific and literary life; the Paris of the Revolution, of Napoleon, and of Today. Lectures upon French Art have been given at each meeting by the Instructor, illustrated with post-cards shown with the balopticon.

The Department of Civics carried out a most original and unique idea of the Curator, Mrs. John H. Francis, who, by the courtesy of the Los Angeles City Government, has been able to show the workings of all of its Departments through talks by the officials having each in charge, beginning with an address by Mayor H. H. Rose on "The Greatest Problems of Greater Los Angeles." The opportunity thus afforded of gaining information at first hand was most unusual and highly illuminating, and the Department feels itself under great obligations to those who, by accepting the invitation of the Curator, gave them this valuable privilege.

The Department of Social Science, Mrs. Charles N. Flint, Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, Curators, has held seven meetings quite remarkable in the character of the work presented and discussion elicited. The books reviewed and discussed were "The New Democracy" by Walter E. Weyl, "The Inside of the Cup," Winston Churchill, "Comrade Yetta," Albert Edwards, "Crowds," Gerald Stanley Lee, "The New Penology" from magazine articles, and "The Religion of Democracy," Charles Ferguson. The programs have all been papers prepared by the Curators and members, except when Rev. David Beaton presented "Some Present Day Phases of Social Science."

The Department of Bird-Study, Mrs. W. N. Sarver, Curator, was combined with the Department of Forestry, Mrs. W. H. Wiley, Curator. The work has been most instructive and valuable in showing the necessity of the preservation of bird-life and the conservation of the forests. Excursions into parks and fields and to the beach have given opportunity for the study of birds in their native haunts, and more than fifty specimens of wild flowers and plants have been brought in for inspection; bird skins have been loaned from the Museum at Exposition Park, lectures have been given by Mrs. F. T. Bicknell, Miss Victoria Ellis, Mrs. Harriet S. Myers, Mr. Alfred Cookman, and Prof. Charles F. Holder.

The Department of French Expression was reorganized from the former French Department with most gratifying results, and opened the year by the giving of a one-act comedy, "La Duchesse Couturière," and presented another in January, "La Cigale Chez les Fourmis."

This Department under the skillful guidance of the Curator, Mrs. B. W. Zens, met every week, and maintained for four months, without an instructor, the work in French grammar, conversation, reading, story-telling and the preparation and presentation of the two French plays. Several complimentary lectures were given by the following: Madame de Kerpezdron on Rostand's "Chantecler," Rev. Paul Datin on "French Proverbs," Prof. Geo. Jomier on "French Literature," and Madame A. Corte on "A Trip Around the World." In the middle of the year the Executive Committee granted the earnest request for an Instructor, and Madame Isabelle de Kerpezdron was appointed. Pailleron's play, "Le Monde ou l'on S'ennuie" was adopted for class reading, and two more plays were given, "La Pluie et le Beau Temps," and "L'Anglais, tel qu'on le parle."

Upon request of the Reciprocity Committee of the Los Angeles District of Federated Clubs, five papers written by our members have been furnished for circulation in smaller clubs: "Pliny the Younger" by Mrs. William Read; "Caesar from his own Pen" by Mrs. Jay B. Millard; "Mark Twain" by Miss Charlotte M. Rockwell; "The New Democracy" by Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, and "Crowds" by Mrs. Walter H. Fisher.

The Department Luncheons are a most characteristic and enjoyable feature, and carry out the ancient idea that those who "eat salt" together, are forever bound in friendship's ties. The daintiness of the menus, the perfection of detail, the decorations, the friendly spirit, the after-dinner speeches and programs have made these functions most popular. There have been seventeen of these luncheons this year.

The total aggregate registration of the eleven Departments was fourteen hundred thirty-six; the total individual registration six hundred fifty-nine.

The inspirational side of the Department work can never be reckoned; it means a touch with great souls by means of great books, the broadening of the intellectual and spiritual horizons, a thirst for knowledge which, satisfied, is a perpetual re-creation, the renewal of one's ideals and the preservation of one's enthusiasms, and best of all it gives the ability to

Rise on stepping stones

Of our dead selves to higher things.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. THOMAS B. STOWELL,

General Curator.
