Our Club Name

EVERY member of EBELL should be able to answer with certainty the question, often repeated within and outside the Club membership,—“Why are we called ‘Ebell’?”

Adrian Ebell, born September 30th, 1840, in Ceylon, of mixed German-British-Dutch ancestry; brought to America while very young by an older sister who had married an American missionary, gaining his education at Easthampton and Yale, and later, at German Universities; dying at the age of thirty-seven, after seeing the ideal conceived in boyhood well on the way towards realization; may be regarded as an international figure.

Always deeply interested in a wider horizon for women everywhere, through the extension of opportunities for higher education in all lines tending to the enlarged sympathy that results from the assimilation of broad culture when pursued with the ultimate motive of unselfish service, Dr. Ebell initiated the organization of study classes for women in the eastern part of our country and, after a visit to California, was returning to Europe to further his plans for an international college for women, when he was stricken with fever that resulted in his death.

While a student at Yale, his brilliant personality and rare courage attracted the attention of a man of large wealth who had no son. Given his choice between the lure of all that belongs to the sole heir of a vast fortune and the struggle and deprivation attached to carving his own career, but on condition that another name be added to that of Ebell, he elected to keep his honored birthright unsullied and to tread the path of self-denial. This he chose rather than to risk, through the temptations frequently accompanying great wealth, possible belittling of a name that had stood through generations for fidelity to ideals of loyalty, truth and honor.

Such was the man to whose memory the Ebell Clubs of California—among which The Ebell of Los Angeles is third in order of organization—chose to build living monuments by taking his name and carrying on his work through the education of women. May we perform the task worthily and prove loyal to our chosen legend, “I serve.”

modesty and generosity, perhaps, the Cottage with its business has flourished like the proverbial bay tree. It has grown more beautiful and more useful as the months have passed. The property has increased in value appreciably and under the wise management of the committee, Ebell Rest Cottage has come to be 'an asset of recognized importance in the Social Service life of the city.

The work of the Practical Relief Department is of such a nature that the attention of the public is not drawn to it, but the self-sacrificing women who work on this committee obtain their reward in the happiness they are able to give to others and in the gratitude and love that comes to them from the many families they have assisted and the many young men and girls to whom they have given a friendly hand in time of need.

Third, the Golden Scroll. The most notable affiliation which we have consummated this year with undertakings outside of our Club, was our initiative campaign to assist in building the Mission Theatre at San Gabriel. Our interest in this enterprise was based upon the fact that this magnificent theatre, which is to be spaciouly and solidly built of brick and concrete, on beautiful and enduring lines, modeled after the old mission of San Antonio, will stand as a monument to the high appreciation and the love which our people have for the history and the literature of the early days of California. Only California plays will be given there and the entire proceeds will go to the upkeep of the theatre and to the preservation and perpetuation of our California History and Landmarks. The contribution of Ebell's members to this fund has already reached two thousand, one hundred thirty-one dollars.

Fifth: The monthly exhibition of paintings from the brushes of many of our finest California artists is also one of our inspirational contacts and creates an increased atmosphere of culture and charm to our Auditorium meetings.

No report of the Club year of 1924 would be complete without a reference to that great event of national importance in the Club world, the Biennial Convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which met here in June. Ebell's share in this convention, aside from her one hundred per cent contribution toward the expenses and the work of a large number of her members on the committees, was the very brilliant and unique affair at the Club House on the evening of June seventh, at which we entertained seven hundred of the Biennial delegates.

The affair assumed the character of an Early California Fiesta. The Club gardens and patio were decorated with that motif; the stage setting recalled the pueblo days; the refreshments, the strolling players, the Spanish dancers, the costumes of the hostesses were all in keeping with that period in the history of California, so treasured by us all in song and story; and we were amply repaid for all the effort and time and talent expended, in the enthusiastic enjoyment of our guests, most prominent of whom were the retiring President, Mrs. Alice Ames Winter, and the incoming President, Mrs. John D. Sherman.

May we speak briefly now of our Club House dream? Eighteen months ago, when we acquired the building site at Wilshire Boulevard and Shatto Place, we cast our eyes into the future and visualized our Club House as fronting on the most beautiful boulevard in the most attractive city in America and began to erect, in our fancy, a structure like unto the fabled castles in Spain.

However, the speed and realism of modern life have overwhelmed us. The rapid growth of Los Angeles since that time, and the re-zoning of Wilshire Boulevard, have placed our location, in a few months, in the midst of commercial buildings and in the heart of the crash and uproar of traffic caused by the intersection of two main arteries of the city. For these reasons it became necessary for us to look for a more appropriate site.

On account of the size and unusual requirements of our Club, it has been difficult to find that spot which would meet with the approval of a majority of our members. From the large number submitted for approval, two beautiful pieces of ground were selected, only to be reluctantly relinquished eventually, on account of building restrictions. It is the hope of the Directors that a suitable place may be acquired this summer.

In the meantime, the President has kept a careful hand on the Wilshire-Shatto property, giving a great deal of time and thought to realty values, and is prepared to state that by reason of our purchase of the Wilshire-Shatto property and the increase in values since then, we may hope to realize a very handsome profit which can be applied on our new Club building. There is not in the minds of the Directors any regret that we have postponed action in the matter of building until 1925.

A word as to the immediate future: If any regret has arisen in the mind of the retiring President at the thought of stepping down from the high position of honor and trust that has been accorded to her by our members for the past two years, it has been quickly dispelled in the assurance she has of the superior qualities of our new presiding officer.

Fifteen years of intelligent and devoted service to the interest of our Club, with an eye ever single to its integrity of purpose, its usefulness in the community, and its exalted spirit of love and co-operation, have amply fitted her to hold this office. We could not have secured a more inspiring leader than Mrs. William Read, and Ebell is to be congratulated upon her new President.

MRS. GRANTLAND SEATON LONG.

Report of the Recording Secretary

WITH our President, Mrs. Grantland Seaton Long, as guiding star, Ebells has completed a most successful year, one that has been full of service and accomplishment. In her opening address, our President asked each member to give of her loyalty, initiative and cooperation. The Ebells members heard the call and have responded.

Mrs. William B. Scarborough, our First Vice-President, has rendered valuable and efficient assistance. As Chairman of Printing, she supervised the printing of the Year Book and of the monthly Bulletin, and as Chairman of Reciprocity has attended or sent representatives to fifteen reciprocity meetings. Also she has represented our President and Ebells on many occasions.

Our Second Vice-President, Miss Frederica de Laguna, as Chairman of the Program Committee, has presented thirty-six Monday programs. Of this number two were plays; three, illustrated lectures; three, symposiums; five, readings; ten, musicales; and twelve, lectures. These programs were prepared with care and discrimination and with an endeavor to suit the varied tastes, and have been of exceptional excellence as many outstanding artists and noted lecturers appeared.

The worth and variety of these programs will be recalled as we name Mr. William McFee, Rebecca West, Dr. Edwin Mims, Celeste Nellis-Ryus, Dr. Edwin E. Slosson, Amy Cryan, Dr. B. R. Baumgardt, Marion Craig Wentworth, John G. Neihardt, Katharine Oliver McCoy, Dr. Benjamin Harrison Lehman, Jessie Rittenhouse, Dr. Charles Aked, Eli NorRemick Warren, Dr. Samuel Crothers, Elizabeth Drew, Philip Tronitz, Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn, John Smallman, Gene Stratton-Porter, the Gilmore Brown Players, and many others.

Throughout the year, our Third Vice-President, Mrs. Lyman Curtis Blakeslee, with her House Committee, has carefully attended to the many needs and comforts of the Club as well as arranging for the Monday teas, receptions, and luncheons.

Miss Ada A. Dryden, Fourth Vice-President, Chairman of the Membership Committee, has successfully taken charge of all matters pertaining to the admissions and resignations of members. She reports that our total membership is now two thousand three hundred seventy-seven. Miss Dryden's Committee also arranged the beautiful reception and breakfast given by Ebells on April thirtieth, in honor of our new members.

Our Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Birney Donnell, has written seven hundred ninety-two letters during the past year. Among these have been business letters and letters of appreciation, sympathy, and congratulations which have expressed Ebells's loving interest in her members.

Mrs. Walter C. Vallikett and her Club Welfare Committee have assisted Mrs. Donnell by keeping in close touch with the members.

The Chairman of Courtesy, Mrs. Lewis W. Andrews, and her Committee have graciously extended a welcome to all members and their friends and have endeavored at tea time to introduce members to one another.

Mrs. Laura P. Joyce, Chairman of Credentials, has been a most faithful and tactful doorkeeper, while the Ushers' Committee, of which Mrs. Robert M. Hartwell was Chairman, has efficiently performed its duties of administering to the comfort and safety of the Club. Both of these Committees have effectively handled our large audiences.

Mrs. George Tomlinson and her Decorating Committee have tastefully made our Club House beautiful for each occasion, while the Art Committee, with Mrs. George W. McCoy as Chairman, has beautified our Club walls with exhibitions of rare and attractive paintings.

Our Library Committee, under the fine leadership of Miss Emma E. Seibert, has made it convenient for our members to secure books, and through gifts and purchase has added many new books to Ebells's collection.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell, as Publicity Chairman, has kept the daily papers in constant touch with Ebells's activities and has written many interesting articles for "The Club Woman" concerning Ebells. Mrs. Campbell also had charge of the Press Luncheon given by Ebells on January thirty-first, in honor of the Club Editors.

Our Federation Secretary, Mrs. Emerson Clyde Gates, represented Ebells at the Federation meetings and brought the Club into closer association with the work of the District Federation.

Mrs. Charles Van Valkenburg, Chairman of Red Cross, and Miss Della F. Bates, Chairman of the Needlework Guild, with their respective Committees, have carried forward their splendid work and brought much credit to Ebell.

There have been twenty-five meetings of the Board of Directors and twenty-seven meetings of the Executive Committee. At all these meetings the Club's business has been carefully considered and faithfully executed according to the best interests of the Club.

Ebell's interest has not been self-centered for she has also been busy in many activities which radiate into the life of the community, and her influence has been far reaching. Outside of her three worthy philanthropies, Rest Cottage, Scholarship, and Practical Relief, she has given financial aid to eighteen other organizations, and has allowed many free rentals. Her keen interest in civic and public affairs may be judged by glancing at the resolutions she has adopted, and also is evidenced by the fact that many of her members have served on important social and civic committees.

The following resolutions were endorsed by the Club: Resolutions of respect to the memory of Woodrow Wilson; resolutions asking the City Council to rescind its ordinance establishing an industrial district in the Bimini Ravine, in order to permit the property owners to proceed with their park project; resolutions asking the Mayor and City Council to prevent the erection of a Hospital on the ground overlooking the Bimini Ravine and to preserve this ravine as a beautiful park for our city; resolutions commending the Standard Oil Company's decision to remove their bill boards from our California highways; resolutions petitioning the City Council to place upon the ballot the proposition to issue bonds for the purpose of acquiring a site and the building of a Civic Auditorium; resolutions endorsing the three measures pending in Congress, concerning Indian Welfare; a resolution endorsing the Will Bill; resolutions urging the establishment of a Soldiers' Hospital at Sawtelle; resolutions urging Congress to take action in favor of the International Conference of the Anti-Narcotic Society; a resolution urging action by Congress for the relief of the Disabled Veterans.

At the Monday meetings held June second and June ninth, Ebell's By-Laws were revised.

In addition to our regular meetings and departments the Club has had a number of noteworthy affairs. On Monday afternoon, October twenty-ninth, Ebell celebrated its twenty-ninth anniversary with a reception held in honor of its Charter Members. There was music in the Patio, and at tea time a large birthday cake surrounded by candles, lighted for each happy year our Club has been organized, was cut by Ebell's first President, Mrs. H. W. R. Strong, and by our beloved President, Mrs. Long.

Our special guest luncheons have been among the notable social features of the year. The after-luncheon speakers have been entertaining and diversified, as many distinguished and world speakers have been our guests. Among these were Chief August Vollmer, John Steven McGroarty, Rebecca West, Ralph Arnold, Ella Buchanan, Arthur Hazard, William Preston Harrison, and Admiral Samuel S. Robison.

In harmony with the Christmas spirit Ebell brought great joy to the hearts of two hundred public school children by giving them a real Christmas party on December fourteenth.

Our fifth Annual Shakespearean Commemoration program was given on Saturday evening, April twenty-sixth, under the splendid direction of our friend, Mr. Frederick Warde, and proved to be an exceptionally fine performance. An informal reception followed this enjoyable program.

Our closing affair of the year was a brilliant luncheon given at the Ambassador Hotel on Monday, June twenty-third. The program was a delightful musicale in charge of Celeste Nellis-Ryus.

This is not a complete record of Ebell's activities, yet it reveals a record of growth and achievement and exemplifies the spirit that has made and continues to guide Ebell,—“that spirit that lives only as it serves.”

Respectfully submitted,

ELLEN L. ANDREWS,
Recording Secretary.

Report of the Benefits and Entertainments Committee

THIS year the Benefits and Entertainments Committee continued the policy established last year, namely, that we concentrate more on the social success of our parties than on the financial success.

During this year we have not solicited donations from the merchants and nothing from our Club members but home-made candy and salted nuts for sale at our parties. Many members who found it impossible to attend all of the parties, welcomed this opportunity to help swell the fund for the maintenance of our Social Service activities. Members of this Committee have found the actual work very light this year as the majority of our parties have been given at the hotels and there the hardest work is all taken care of for us, so the Committee have willingly made most of the candy themselves. For our party at the Club House Mrs. John Maclean Rugg generously donated all of the candy.

Our first party was given in the ballroom of the new Biltmore Hotel on November ninth. There was such a demand for tickets I am sure we could have sold another hundred tables if space had allowed. The hotel served a dainty tea.

The second party was given in the Fiesta ballroom of the Ambassador Hotel. The ballroom had just been redecorated and made a lovely setting for this party. Members of our Ebells Juniors and friends modeled beautiful gowns, hats, and wraps loaned by the I. Magnin shop in the hotel, in a beautiful Fashion Pageant. This was followed by a delightful tea served by the hotel.

The third party was held in our Club House on May ninth. The Committee felt we should give Club members one opportunity to entertain their friends at a party in their Club Home. We called this our Spring Party and the Decorations Committee made the Club House festive with spring blossoms. The Denishawn School for Dancing gave several beautiful spring dances by young girls in their professional class, for the entertainment of our guests during the tea hour. Tea was served by our Committee.

For our last party we combined the Annual Club Luncheon with our last Benefit party. This was held on Monday, June twenty-third, in place of a last Club meeting, at the Ambassador Hotel in the Fiesta ballroom. As this was the final social affair of Mrs. Long's administration the Committee invited her to be their guest of honor. The tables were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and the hotel served a dainty luncheon. After the luncheon we were entertained with an unusually delightful musical program arranged by Mrs. Harmon Ryus. The guests then played Bridge or Mah Jongg or sat in groups chatting and listening to the lovely harpist who so generously donated her talent for the remainder of the afternoon.

This Committee wishes to thank the Executive Committee of Ebells Club and the President, Mrs. Long, for their helpful support during this year.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. WILLIAM C. WARMINGTON, Chairman.

Report of the Practical Relief Committee

"IT IS not a question of whether she is deserving, only a question of whether we can help her," was the reply given to your Chairman when discussing what answer to make to an appeal for help that had come to the Department. With this always in mind our aim is not only to help in a material way, but to give sympathy and courage to these unfortunate ones, and to let them know that they have friends in Ebell.

In the past year we have made more than seven hundred new garments, received more than three thousand old ones, and distributed more than four thousand.

A large part of our work is for ex-service men and their families, many of whom have come from all parts of the United States, seeking to regain health in our wonderful climate. It is most distressing that these men who have sacrificed so much in the service of their country (and we must not forget that it is our country too) should be in need of the necessities of life.

Our attention was called to a young woman, wife of an ex-service man whom the stress and horrors of the war had left, as it did so many of our soldiers, in such a nervous state that at times he lost his mental balance. In one of these lapses he left home, and his wife, failing to find him in San Francisco, started to walk to Los Angeles, hoping to find him here. After some harrowing experiences she arrived here thoroughly exhausted and discouraged. She obtained work as a waitress, but eventually had to go to the General Hospital for a major operation. When she left the hospital she was taken into the home of another ex-service man and given room and board in return for the little help she was able to give. This family was in need of bedding and clothing, which the Practical Relief was privileged to supply. Through the Disabled Veterans Club, the husband was located in Chicago. The Hollywood Post of the American Legion furnished transportation. She was sent to her husband and at last reports was comfortable and happy.

Again, we found a wife and three children without sufficient food, who were selling the furniture piece by piece to get the necessities of life. The husband, a Spanish War Veteran, in the Sawtelle Hospital, suffering from tuberculosis, was unable to eat from thinking of his starving family. They wanted to sell their home in order to live, hoping the husband would recover and be able to work again. We supplied their needs and finally succeeded in persuading them to receive help from the Out Door Relief Association, and then to save their home. Through our Scholarship Committee the oldest girl is enjoying a scholarship from the Parent Teachers Association. The husband is home now, much improved in health.

We have adopted two babies in the Kiddie Koop. A letter from the Superintendent says in part: "I would not presume to thank you for undertaking what is your blessed privilege, but I will say you are being a great help to the Kiddie Koop as well as a Godsend to those babies, whom I consider the most needy here, and there are many. It's a big thing for you women to do."

A woman, well educated, refined, and at one time very prosperous, came to us with only thirty cents in her pocket, and having to leave her boarding house the next day. She was sick and in a bad nervous condition. The doors of Rest Cottage were opened to her, and after a rest there the Out Door Relief gave her a place in Vacation Home. She writes that she is much improved in health and is now ready to work. These are only a few of the pathetic cases we have found.

Our thanks are due the Out Door Relief and Juvenile Protective Associations, the Johnson Apartments, and the Hollywood Post of the American Legion for their co-operation.

The members of the Practical Relief Committee number twenty-seven and we fully realize that it would not have been possible to accomplish what we have, had it not been for the sympathy, encouragement and financial aid given us by the fine women of Ebell. We ask your continued co-operation through the year before us. It is not what we give but what we share, and we know that the spirit lives only in service.

Respectfully submitted,

ALICE G. FLETCHER, Chairman.

Report of the Scholarship Committee

THROUGHOUT the year the wonderful spirit of Ebell has been shown in the way in which everyone has co-operated to finish the fund of $10,000, Ebell's share of the permanent Scholarship Fund. The Benefits and Entertainments Committee, the Spanish Department, the French Department have all given material assistance; and Rest Cottage and Practical Relief have quietly withdrawn from any active solicitation. Individual members of our Club have given generously. That the Endowment Fund has "gone over the top" is due to this general co-operation.

Three beautiful parties have added to the joy of our social life, as well as much to our funds. The Spanish Ball under the able direction of Mrs. A. B. Griffith was a charming affair. The Special Scholarship Benefit at the Ambassador, under the leadership of Mrs. William C. Warmington, gave us $1000. We are particularly grateful to the Benefits and Entertainments Committee and to the Ebell Juniors, those charming "models" for this brilliant event. The Ten-Dollar-a-Plate Luncheon at the Biltmore netted the largest sum of any benefit of the year, a total of $1462.50. The success of this is due to the happy team-work of the Scholarship Committee, and especially to Mrs. Albert Laurance Bagnall, who suggested the idea and acted as Chairman of general arrangements; to Mrs. Fred C. Hartmann, Assistant Chairman; to Mrs. Julian E. Garnsey, Treasurer; to Mrs. Ralph B. Hardacre and Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, who arranged the program. We also appreciate the interest manifested by every member of the Ebell Board.

From the experience of several years, we have formulated a suggested policy for the Scholarship work. The scholarship shall be a gift, limited to twelve girls, and to fifteen dollars a month; preferably, girls whose homes are in Los Angeles. Later, perhaps, in years to come, the sum may be increased, but never to more than twenty-five dollars, inasmuch as it is intended to assist a good student, not to maintain her entirely. It is to be kept constantly in mind that it is a great honor to be an Ebell Scholarship girl, and that those worthy of this honor shall hold it until receiving a degree of graduation.

[ The EBELL of Los Angeles ]

Our twelve girls have been a joy and an inspiration. Three are graduating from a University, one of them receiving the highest honors, awarded to only four of the Seniors. One has left school to marry; so we have eight girls to depend upon Ebell for next year—"hold-overs," we call them. Three other girls have found scholarships through the recommendation of our committee.

The joy of working together, and the social contact with these enthusiastic young people has made the Scholarship work a continuous pleasure. We wish to thank all concerned for the opportunity of joyous service to Ebell's philanthropy.

Report of the General Curator

IN 1923-24 the thirteen departments of Ebell completed an interesting year of activity. The following brief report of the work of the various departments will indicate in a measure the wide cultural field covered. The enthusiastic co-operation of the officers and members made possible the success of the departments.

The Art and Travel Department, Miss Helen Louise Stubbs, Curator, held seven meetings with an average attendance of two hundred and seventy-eight. Art and Travel programs alternated. A valuable part of each program consisted of a short talk on the work of visiting artists, given by Mrs. George W. McCoy. The wide scope of Art in modern life was emphasized throughout the year. This was uniquely demonstrated in the program on Costume Design, generously given by Miss Norma Gould. In the Travel programs we journeyed far. The longest jaunt we took was with Mrs. Charles H. Thompson who, by means of the stereopticon and slides made from original views, took us to see "Landmarks Around the World before Columbus."

The Bible Department, Mrs. Joel B. Gwynne, Curator, held fourteen meetings, with an average attendance of one hundred and forty-seven. During the months of October and November four lectures were given by Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, vividly portraying "The Life and Works of Paul of Tarsus." On December twentieth a Christmas program was given under the management of Miss Margaret Goetz. In January Miss M. Winifred Rouzee began a delightful lecturing tour around the world, visiting places familiar in sacred history. With Miss Rouzee's spiritual interpretation these lectures were greatly enjoyed. The annual luncheon closed the year's work.

The Books and Current Literature Department, Mrs. Albert Denison Jack, Curator, held seven meetings with an average attendance of three hundred and ninety-eight. Local poets and poems were placed in the foreground, adding much to the popularity of the department. Biography took precedence over fiction. One patriotic program was given. The last meeting of this department was given over to Miss Rebecca West, an English author.

The Browning Department, Mrs. John E. Coffin, Curator, held seventeen meetings, with an average attendance of forty. The study of The Ring and the Book was completed. Ten members of the department presented the different parts of the poem under the general direction of the Curator. Music was contributed for some of the meetings. On May eighth the anniversary of Robert Browning's birthday was celebrated. Dr. Walter F. Dexter lectured. Music and luncheon speakers concluded the program.

The Choral Department, Mrs. John W. Monahan, Curator, met for three months, with an average attendance of seventeen. Owing to the Director's being called out of town, the department work was discontinued.

The Drama Department, Mrs. Margaret Barbrick Gillette, Curator, held seven meetings, with an average attendance of one hundred and ninety-eight. The programs have been varied and always interesting, covering play production, modern play reading and ten-minute play reviews. Mrs. Aurania Rouveyrol read her poetic drama, "Magic," at the October meeting. Throughout the year many prominent authors and dramatists spoke before this department. Addresses were given by Mr. Gilmor Brown of the Pasadena Community Theatre, Mrs. Roger Sterrett, District Chairman of Better Films, and many others.

The French Department, Mrs. Charles D. Burt, Curator, held twenty-nine meetings, with an average attendance of fifty-one. The first class studied Chardenal's Grammar and read several short stories from "Les Petits Contes de France," by Meras. The second class completed the study of Introductory French Composition by Francois, and "Le Gendre de Monsieur Poirier," by Augier. The third class completed the study of Advanced French Composition, by Francois, and read four novels. On May twenty-ninth the French and Spanish classes gave a joint luncheon in the auditorium. The French class gave $108.00 to the Scholarship Fund.

The Music Department, Mrs. Berne S. Barker, Curator, held seven meetings, with an average attendance of two hundred and three. A special program was given during Music Week. The year was spent in studying the various influences which have been brought to bear upon American music during the building up of its present distinctive type. More than sixty-five artists and speakers of prominence contributed their services to this section. An active interest was taken in the promotion of the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association, the Hollywood Bowl Summer Concerts, and an ovation which was arranged by the musicians of the city for one of its composers, Charles Wakefield Cadman. The lecturer for the year, Mrs. Gertrude Ross, an Ebell member and composer of note, was chosen to present her own compositions at the Biennial of the National Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Parliamentary Law Department, Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey, Curator and Instructor, held fourteen meetings, with an average attendance of fourteen. At each session new motions were studied, with review of past work and general suggestions of parliamentary procedure. A new feature this year was the organization of the Smalltown Improvement Club, to give practical drill in the work. By-Laws were adopted, officers elected, and regular meetings held.

The Psychology Department, Mrs. Summer P. Hunt, Curator, held fourteen meetings, with an average attendance of eighty. Dr. Louise Unger, a student of Jung, and a practicing psychoanalyst of this city, lectured, as did John Maud, a practicing hypnotist. Child psychology was studied and several books were reviewed by members of the department.

The Shakespeare Department, Mrs. Herbert F. True, Curator, held fourteen meetings, with an average attendance of forty-four. During the past year time was spent in studying Roman history of the period of Julius Caesar. There was a debate, with earnest argument on both sides, and active readings given of parts of all plays studied. Questions and answers on the subject matter of the plays were a feature of the department. Three luncheons were given, each followed by an interesting program of addresses and music.

The Social Science Department, Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, Curator, held seven meetings, with an average attendance of two hundred and five. During the past year this department has covered a wide range of subjects of local and national importance, such as socialism, drug addiction, heredity, community welfare work, and immigration. Current events have been reviewed at each meeting.

The Spanish Department, Mrs. A. B. Griffith, Curator, and Senora Maria Lopez de Lowther, Instructor, held thirty meetings, with an average attendance of fifty-two. Instruction was given in primary, intermediate and advanced Spanish. In December a ball was given, and the sum of two hundred and thirty-seven dollars was presented to the Scholarship Fund. In May the Spanish and French Departments gave a joint luncheon, which was followed by a delightful musical program and an artistic presentation of "El Avantal," by members of the Spanish Department.

Report of the Ebell Rest Cottage Association

EVERY member of Ebell Club who has had even a small part in the building and support of Rest Cottage, must feel a pride in that very tangible evidence of the unselfish thought of the women of our Club, for those whose lives have been cast in less pleasant lines than their own.

The Cottage is lovely now, with the roses blooming, the well-kept lawn and the abundant shrubbery, and the artistic interior is as clean and white as when it was opened more than a year ago.

The two thousand five hundred sixty-six dollars expended for the convalescent fund represents that many days of cheerful environment and comfort for the one hundred ten women to whom Ebell has offered a gracious hospitality. Their letters tell of renewed hope, of spirits revived, and, as one said, "of a new faith in womankind."

It is interesting to note that the majority of women coming to the cottage the past twelve months have been recommended by Ebell members or their friends.

The sum of thirty-five hundred dollars has been added to the Endowment Fund. This includes five hundred dollars bequeathed by Miss Annie L. Bartlett and invested in securities, the interest of which will go toward the support of the Cottage in the years to come. The increase in the valuation of property in the neighborhood of First and Park View Streets has added very considerably to Ebell's holdings.

The earnest work of the Membership Committee has resulted in the enrollment of about one-third of the members of Ebell. A complete list of the Life Members, which now number seventy-five, will be found on a succeeding page.

It is impossible to record in this short space, all of the activities of the busy year just past—the delightful social gatherings at the Cottage, the Thanksgiving offerings, the Christmas festivities—nor may we tell of the long list of new friends enrolled, and all the generous gifts to the Cottage.

The Executive Committee wishes to express sincere appreciation of the co-operation of the Practical Relief, the financial help given by the Benefits and Entertainments Committee, and that wonderful bag of clothing and linens from the Needlework Guild. These have made possible much of the follow-up work of the Association.

The Chairman cannot close this report, which ends two years of happy service, without an expression of deep gratitude for the fine spirit of loyalty and friendship which has come from the working force of Rest Cottage. Each chairman has been ever diligent to do her part and each committee member has given of her best. We consider it a privilege to have served Ebell in this work with its strong heart appeal.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. GEORGE HARRIS COOK,
Chairman Ebell Rest Cottage Association.

Form of Bequest or Devise For Benefit of Ebell Rest Cottage

It is suggested that one of the following forms be used when money or real estate is to be left to The Ebell for the benefit of Rest Cottage.

If money, use the following form: "I hereby give and bequeath to The Ebell of Los Angeles for the maintenance of Rest Cottage .....dollars."

If real estate, use: "I hereby give and devise to The Ebell of Los Angeles that real property described as follows:....."

If the desire is to leave money or real estate with the intention that only the interest or income therefrom shall be used for the maintenance of Rest Cottage, then add to the above forms as follows: to the first, "and I direct that said sum of money be safely invested and the interest or other proceeds arising therefrom shall be used for said purpose."

To the second form add, "And I direct that the income from said property shall be used for the support of said Rest Cottage and in the event that it is deemed advisable to sell the said property so devised, that the moneys derived therefrom shall be invested and the proceeds used for said purpose."

At the suggestion of the donor such bequest or devise may be left as a memorial to erect a building or endow a room to be known by the name of the person designated.

You may make your own will without any witnesses being present. To do so it must be wholly dated, written and signed in your own handwriting.

In the event that it is written by other persons it must be signed by you and by two witnesses, who must sign at your request after you have declared to them that the instrument is your last will and testament. They must sign in your presence and in the presence of each other.

Report of the President of the Ebell Juniors

EBELL JUNIORS, a Department, which three years ago was considered by some of our Ebell Household as a doubtful venture, stands today a justified organization, which is helping to develop the minds and talents of the younger women of this community; it is with considerable satisfaction and a great deal of pride that I record their work for the past year.

Having been an officer in the Ebell Juniors since it was organized, I have seen it grow from a tender sapling to a splendid tree, until now it stands a joy to the eye and a delight to the passer-by. As I have said before, Ebell Juniors are going to be known all over the United States eventually, and they have made a splendid beginning, having been the inspiration for Junior organizations in Tennessee, Arkansas, Massachusetts, and Arizona.

During the past year there were seven meetings, one Musical Tea and the Annual Closing Luncheon. On March 12th, a red-letter day in the history of our Club, we were given the privilege of presiding at the President's Luncheon. Addresses were given by Mrs. Long, Mrs. Hoard, and Regge Doran. There was also given a Duet Solo by two of our own members.

With the exception of two meetings, the programs were given by our own members. These two were contributed to by the California Telephone Company, who gave a Switch Board Demonstration, and Miss Lorraine Simons, who gave a Russian Ballet number.

Organizing Department work is a very difficult and rather slow undertaking, but although we have only one real flourishing Department, the Drama, we are duly proud of it. Each year three one-act plays are directed and produced by our own girls, many of whom have studied professionally.

Our Philanthropic objective has been the California Home for Crippled Children. The first benefit given was a dance on the evening of November 21st, and the net proceeds were $210. During the month of November voluntary contributions amounting to $10 were used in buying cooking utensils, dishes and paper napkins. At Christmas time a lovely bathrobe and a pair of knitted bedroom slippers were given to each child, fourteen in all; also six bed-spreads and six bed-pads. On Washington's Birthday, a Supper Dance was given and the net proceeds were $80, used to pay some delinquent bills. Through personal interest on the part of our members, and the response to the great amount of publicity sponsored by the Juniors, the California Home for Crippled Children was saved from bankruptcy, and I am happy to say that today the Home is carrying the weight of its own expenses and has all bills paid.

The Junior girls have assisted on Red Cross Drives and Salvation Army Drives; were models at the Spring Card Party given at the Ambassador; and also assisted at the Biennial Convention, and the Early California Fiesta, a gala night at Ebell. Miss Dorothy Sherrard also contributed to the program on Washington's Birthday, in the Books and Current Literature Department.

The Bridge Teas given on the first Friday of each month for the members have been a splendid success. Girls have become acquainted and many new members have come into the Club.

Early in the Club year the hearts of the Juniors were saddened by the passing of Mrs. John A. Clinkscapes, and our sincerest sympathy is with her beloved ones.

As your retiring President, I charge you with this one thing: That you do not forget the symbol of your state work, "The Torch." Keep it lighted with the love of God and Man. Suppress hatred with love and suspicion with confidence, and if you do that your pathway shall be illumined and made straight.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH A. WARD,
President Ebell Juniors.
