(FACSIMILE OF DR. ADRIAN EBELL'S CHOSEN MOTTO)

Our Club Name

EVERY member of EBELL should be able to answer with certainty the question, often repeated within and outside the Club membership,—“Why are we called ‘Ebell’?”

Adrian Ebell, born September 30th, 1840, in Ceylon, of mixed German-British-Dutch ancestry; brought to America while very young by an older sister who had married an American missionary, gaining his education at Easthampton and Yale, and later, at German Universities; dying at the age of thirty-seven, after seeing the ideal conceived in boyhood well on the way towards realization; may be regarded as an international figure.

Always deeply interested in a wider horizon for women everywhere, through the extension of opportunities for higher education in all lines tending to the enlarged sympathy that results from the assimilation of broad culture when pursued with the ultimate motive of unselfish service, Dr. Ebell initiated the organization of study classes for women in the eastern part of our country and, after a visit to California, was returning to Europe to further his plans for an international college for women, when he was stricken with fever that resulted in his death.

While a student at Yale, his brilliant personality and rare courage attracted the attention of a man of large wealth who had no son. Given his choice between the lure of all that belongs to the sole heir of a vast fortune and the struggle and deprivation attached to carving his own career, but on condition that another name be added to that of Ebell, he elected to keep his honored birthright unsullied and to tread the path of self-denial. This he chose rather than to risk, through the temptations frequently accompanying great wealth, possible belittling of a name that had stood through generations for fidelity to ideals of loyalty, truth and honor.

Such was the man to whose memory the Ebell Clubs of California—among which The Ebell of Los Angeles is third in order of organization—chose to build living monuments by taking his name and carrying on his work through the education of women. May we perform the task worthily and prove loyal to our chosen legend, “I serve.”

Standing Rules

Admission to all meetings shall be by card of current term only.

Regular members will receive two guest cards for Monday afternoon programs and ten for departments; one-half to be issued October first and one-half March first.

A member may invite but one guest to any Monday program. Members' visiting cards will admit gentlemen to all open meetings.

Any member of an out-of-town federated club may, on presentation of credentials, receive a complimentary guest card good for ten days.

Current membership cards will serve as cards of introduction to federated clubs of other cities.

No person eligible to membership shall be admitted as a guest to more than two Monday afternoon meetings in one year.

New members notified of their election during February or June shall pay dues from March first and October first respectively.

Endorsers of temporary membership applicants must state length of time applicants have been in Los Angeles and probable length of stay. All applications must be made in writing each year and the membership must be continuous from the date upon which it is granted.

No appeals for financial aid shall be made from the platform or in the club rooms except by permission of the President and Executive Committee; nor shall there be any personal canvass for funds, but a table may be so placed that voluntary contributions may be received.

Ebell seeks information on legislative measures, but does not endorse partisan political measures or persons.

President's Review

A REPORT of the year's work in any club must be primarily a statement of facts; a record of things accomplished.

Secondarily, it may well include an account of things attempted, and possibly, to be complete, it should contain in addition to these an appraisal of the club's machinery and an indorsement of the motives and purposes which animate the governing body and the general membership.

Of facts, there are first the facts financial. July 1st, 1924, there was an outstanding indebtedness on the Wilshire-Shatto lot of $30,000. June 30th, 1925, that debt was wiped out and Ebell was placed in the unique position among clubs of owing no man a dollar yet owning two valuable pieces of real property, each worth too much to be used as a building site.

The Board of Directors, upon whom falls the burden of directing and controlling the finances of Ebell, even with the added wisdom of the Advisory Council of Past Presidents and the technical assistance of the Treasurer and other members of the Executive Committee, could not have accomplished this almost marvelous feat but for the loyal and constant support of the various Committee Chairmen and Department Curators.

Each of these vied with the others in keeping expenses within the budget allowance, yet each managed to uphold the high standard of excellence to which Ebell is accustomed.

In one instance only was the budget insufficient: the item of taxes, the levying of which does not lie within the Club's control.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

The administrative history of the past year has been uneventful. There were few changes in the personnel of the Executive Committee. Each officer understood what was to be done and each did her duty quietly, competently, making "Board-days" days of harmonious gladness. The Chairmen of Appointive Committees and the Curators also carried on the Club activities under their jurisdiction with an expedition which insured success. Elsewhere may be found detailed reports of their work.

Since July 1st, 1924, there have been 465 scheduled meetings which the President might have attended. Of these, 387 were directly or indirectly under the auspices of Ebell; 78 were either semi-official business and committee conferences or Federation meetings. The President actually attended 286 meetings, about equally divided between programs and business.

The Monday afternoon programs have had that varied and vital quality which holds the sustained interest of a critical and cultured audience. The speakers have been men and women of national, sometimes of international renown. It does not matter whether these lecturers have pleased or whether they have promulgated opinions with which someone does not agree. Not at all. What does matter is that Ebell members should know what the foremost intellectuals of today are thinking and doing: should keep open minds.

The luncheon programs have been presided over by twenty-eight different women, thus securing variety while sharing responsibility. The luncheon speakers, listed elsewhere, brought from many lands messages weighted with progressive thought.

That Ebell stresses the value of systematic study in well-organized and ably officered departments is proved by the attendance at the 205 department meetings, many of which were as popular and as instructive as were the programs of highly-paid professionals.

Of special or purpose programs there were five: "A Civic Day," devoted to emphasizing the need of getting out the vote; an all-day program advocating "Better Speech"; an evening exhibition of "Living Reproductions of Famous Paintings," given to raise money to purchase a picture; an evening program sponsored by the Drama Department for the benefit of business and professional members who cannot attend on Monday afternoons; and Ebell's annual tribute to the memory of Shakespeare, a program arranged and presented by the gifted and world-famous actor, Frederick Warde, who for six years has been associated with Ebell in this commemoration of genius.

Social affairs of note given by Ebell in addition to the twelve regular department luncheons and twenty-eight guest luncheons, were numerous. Worthy of mention are:

1st. The reception tendered the Charter Members, at which were present eleven of Ebell's founders and eleven Past Presidents, some of whom are still actively serving their Club:

2nd. The different entertainments given by the Benefits Committee, the Juniors, and the Practical Relief, which combined pleasure and profit so magically as to over-supply all budget demands:

3rd. The Christmas dinner at Rest Cottage for eighty-three former guests, and the school children's holiday party with its infectious and inspiring gaiety:

4th. The Press, Reciprocity, and Social Welfare Luncheons, which are still vivid in memory because of the refulgent wit of the speakers, visitors from other clubs, one of them President of the California Federation of Women's Clubs:

5th. The new members' party, which had as its motif a friendly and warm undertone combined of mutual understanding and responsibility:

6th. The "Workers' Annual," an all-day conference between outgoing and incoming committees: and 7th and last, Ebell's own annual luncheon, possibly the last in the dear old Club home, sponsored by the Benefits Committee and overflowing into patio and garden, a cheerful and bright farewell to the season.

Of the things attempted but only partially accomplished the Club Survey is perhaps most far-reaching in effect. This committee undertook the compilation of comprehensive data concerning Ebell's membership. To find women able and willing to act as Curators, Chairmen of Committees, or Assistants, has become each year increasingly difficult. The Club Survey Committee has recorded such talents or special fitness or desire to serve as the sponsors or members themselves have suggested with the idea of finding some congenial work for each member and of changing the personnel of the general committees each year, promoting for merits only.

Another thing attempted has been a closer alliance with the Federation, District, State, and National; but owing to the unusually large number of meetings held by or for Ebell, the effort has been but moderately successful. Ebell did have a representative at many of the District Conferences; did furnish many speakers for smaller clubs; did consider the legislative measures indorsed by the Federation; and did with great pleasure attend many Reciprocity meetings.

Ebell also sent a full complement of delegates to both the District and State Conventions, with many alternates for good measure; and Ebell succeeded, with the ready and able assistance of twenty or more other clubs from this District, in having a resolution put through both conventions, which will, if followed up, insist that the California legislators pass laws sufficiently drastic, adequately to protect women and children from degenerates.

Ebell has paid into the Federation treasury this year in dues, $1,069.65; toward the Endowment fund, $357.50; to the Redwood Memorial Grove, $390.00; to the Quinquennial fund, $100.00; total, $1917.15. Ebell has signally honored five women by purchasing trees in the Memorial Grove, to be named for them. Those so favored are Mrs. H. W. R. Strong, Ebell's first President; Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, Ebell's second President and first President of the California Federation; the late Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson, a former President of Ebell; Mrs. Charles E. Wolfenden (tree purchased by her husband through Ebell); and Mrs. William Read, generously remembered by the members of the Ebell delegation at Santa Barbara.

A third thing attempted has been the formulating into a consistent club policy of the many widely-separated-in-time and sometimes contradictory rulings made by the Executive Committee through the years.

The fourth thing attempted was not accomplished at the end of the Club year; but at this time, July 30th, the goal seems near. No one who has not tried it can by any possibility understand how difficult the purchase of a suitable site for a new Club home can be made by the presence of complicated restrictions; by the repeated changes in zoning ordinances, with petitions, counter-petitions, and the referendum; and by the inflated prices sometimes asked because a woman's club is known to be the purchaser. Sufficient energy to build many club houses has been wasted in a vain effort to remove restrictions from the most desirable site offered and to satisfy the demands of the holders of the reversionary rights. It could not be done, at a price within reason. All this and the inability to sell the Wilshire lot until these questions are settled by the courts have caused a delay most irksome to everyone. The efforts being made could not be published, but the Board never for a moment wavered in the avowed purpose of so financing the new Club home as to make the fewest possible demands for contributions upon the members. Better to delay than to assume too great an indebtedness. Today that phase is over. The next step is to begin active construction after a conference with architects.

With grateful appreciation for the loyal support and the timely assistance of the members of Ebell, this report is

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WILLIAM READ, President.

Report of the Recording Secretary

UNDER the leadership of our most efficient President, Mrs. William Read, Ebell has just concluded another year of achievement and success, and it is with a sense of pride and real satisfaction that we review some of its activities.

Our First Vice-President, Mrs. W. B. Scarborough, has attended or sent delegates to nineteen reciprocity meetings and has represented Ebell on various other occasions. As Chairman of Printing, she supervised the printing of our monthly bulletin and of the Year Book. She also has served as Chairman of the Advisory Committee for the Ebell Juniors, attending their meetings and giving them valuable counsel.

Our Second Vice-President, Miss Frederica de Laguna, as Program Chairman, has arranged for thirty-six Monday programs during the current year; four of these have been plays; three, illustrated lectures; one symposium; one costume recital; five readings; ten musicales; and ten lectures.

These diversified programs have afforded the members an opportunity for enjoyment, culture and information. Many noted artists and distinguished lecturers have appeared, including: Nancy Schoonmaker, Salvador Ordonez, Donald Ogden Stewart, Dr. Robert A. Millikan, Edgar Lee Masters, The Maurice Browne Players, Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, Mary Austin, Phillip Tronitz, Badger Clark, Gilmore Brown Players, Calmon Luboviski, Robert T. Burge, Mrs. Bannell Sawyer, Branson De Cou, Drama Workshop of Ebell, Maurice La Vove, Zoe Akins, Dr. James A. B. Scherer, May MacDonald Hope and many others.

Our Third Vice-President, Mrs. Lyman Curtis Blakeslee, as Chairman of the House Committee, has devoted her time administering to the material needs and comforts of our Club. Besides the Monday teas and regular luncheons, she has provided refreshments for our Charter Day Reception, the Children's Christmas Party, the annual Shakespearean Commemoration, and several other special affairs. She has also attended to the upkeep of our Club House and furnishings.

Our Fourth Vice-President, Miss Ada A. Dryden, Chairman of the Membership Committee, has taken charge of all

Our Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Birney Donnell, reports having written eight hundred thirteen letters during the past year: two hundred seventy-six were messages of sympathy or condolence, three hundred forty-four were invitations to Ebell functions, while forty-eight were in appreciation of gifts to the Club.

Our Club Survey Committee, a new committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Charles D. Burt, has made a complete survey of the Club membership by securing and filing useful information as to the activities, interests and capabilities of our members.

Throughout the year, Mrs. Leon Fremont Moss and the Courtesy Committee have extended a most gracious welcome to all the members and their friends and have sustained and promoted the atmosphere of comradeship for which Ebell is noted.

Our Chairman of Credentials, Mrs. James Andrew Rogers, reports that during the year twenty-seven of our thirty-six Monday meetings were open meetings and that Ebell entertained one thousand five hundred twenty-two guests at these meetings, including one hundred eight gentlemen who were admitted upon members' calling cards.

Mrs. Charles Ashworth Stavnow, Chairman of Ushers, with her committee, has performed her duties most efficiently and has observed the rule of reserving seats only for Past Presidents, distinguished guests and Monday workers.

The Decorating Committee, under the splendid leadership of Mrs. Charles Howe, has tastefully arranged the flowers and greenery in the Auditorium and reception rooms. Our Club walls have been made most attractive by the exhibits of paintings procured by Mrs. George W. McCoy, the Art Exhibits Chairman.

Mrs. Alfred W. Rea, Chairman of the Library Committee, reports one hundred twenty-two new books added to Ebell's collection, through gifts and purchase.

The Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Patrick Campbell, has sent regular notices of Ebell's activities to the daily papers and has kept in her Press Clipping Book a complete record of all Ebell publicity for the past two years.

There have been thirty-five meetings of the Executive Committee and thirty-two meetings of the Board of Directors, where all the Club business has been carefully considered and executed.

On Thursday morning, October thirtieth, our President held a special Club meeting for the purpose of discussing and presenting important current events.

The following resolutions have been endorsed by the Club:

Resolution, of sympathy at the death of our Charter member, Mrs. Charles S. Gilbert.

Resolution, addressed to the City Council, protesting against the establishment of an Amusement Park at Manitou Avenue and Lincoln Park Avenue, because of its proximity to a public school.

Resolution, of sympathy at the death of Mrs. Gene Stratton-Porter.

Resolution, urging the State Legislators to appropriate sufficient funds to properly maintain the operation of the Industrial Farm at Sonoma.

Resolution, protesting against the sale of the Pacific Colony property at Pomona.

Resolution, urging the State Legislators to establish and maintain properly equipped institutions for the care and cure of drug addicts.

Resolution, urging our Legislators to enact a law ensuring the sterilization of any person over twenty-one years who shall be found guilty of assaulting a child or a woman.

The following additional resolutions were adopted by either the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors:

Resolution, protesting against the granting a portion of Pershing Square to the Pacific Electric Company for a terminal.

Resolution, asking the Board of Regents of the University of California to consider favorably the Westwood site for the new home of the Southern Branch of the University of California.

Resolution, urging the City Council to put the Daylight Saving time into effect.

Resolution, endorsing the proposed Bond Issue for the Municipal Electric Distributing System.

Resolution, endorsing the Child Labor Amendment.

Resolution, endorsing the candidacy of Mrs. J. B. Lorbeer for the office of President of the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's Clubs.

Resolution, opposing the Rosenshine Bill.

Resolution, disapproving of the Pacific Coast Sportmen's Club plan to establish a game reservation.

Resolution, endorsing Bill 1095, concerning the granting of certain tidelands to the county of Los Angeles.

Resolution, endorsing the candidacy of Mrs. John Stearns Thayer for Recording Secretary of the Los Angeles District of Federated Clubs.

Resolution, endorsing the plan to name and dedicate as memorials to our early pioneers the six new bridges that are under construction over the Los Angeles River.

Resolution, endorsing the plan to publish the original documents of the Bancroft Library for educational purposes.

Resolution, providing for a new road into "The Big Basin" in the Santa Cruz Mountains.

On April thirteenth, the Club passed an amendment to Section 1, Article VIII of the By-Laws, concerning applicants for membership in Ebell.

Although not a complete record, this brief resumé reveals the fact that Ebell has enjoyed a year of study, work and endeavor along many lines, a year of progress and inspiration.

Respectfully submitted,

ELLEN L. ANDREWS,
Recording Secretary.

Report of the Benefits and Entertainments Committee

THE Benefits and Entertainments Committee has given five parties this year, three of which were benefits and two were entertainments. We have attempted to carry on the social activities of the Club and at the same time increase the fund for the advancement of our philanthropies.

Our first party was given at the Uplifters' Ranch on the twenty-first of October. A barbecue luncheon was served beneath the grand old sycamores dressed in their autumn colors. Later the guests strolled about the grounds and visited various homes on the Ranch, which were decorated to represent foreign countries.

The second party was a New England supper, held at the Club House. Ebell Juniors and daughters of Ebell members proved to be attractive models in the Fashion Revue. A delightful musical program was enjoyed.

A bridge tea was given at the Biltmore Hotel. Peggy Hamilton gave an elaborate Fashion Pageant during the tea hour.

The Encino Country Club was the setting for the fourth party, a May breakfast. Some of the guests were entertained by dancing and musical numbers, while others played bridge or wandered over the grounds.

The Annual Club Luncheon was held at the Club House on June twenty-third. Tables were placed throughout the building and on the lawn, which was covered with an awning for the occasion. Luncheon was followed by a program.

The Committee wishes to express its gratitude for the helpful co-operation of the Executive Committee and the President during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CECIL R. LUTON, Chairman.

Lest it mar thy fortune."

It is the aim of this department to combat inertia in regard to our language, our most valued inheritance and possession, and to stimulate interest in retaining its purity and in making it the efficient and splendid instrument that it should be, not only for ourselves, but for the handicapped alien within our gates.

Delivery and the development and beautifying of that God-given instrument, the voice, will also be considered.

To be able to read good literature understandingly, it is necessary to have some knowledge of the French language. The instructor of the French Department, Mademoiselle Madeleine Letessier, comes to us with a pure French accent and a thorough knowledge of her language. The fact that she has been sent here by the French government to study the customs of the American women attests this fact. In this department one can soon have a fundamental and conversational knowledge of the French language.

Assistant Curator, Mrs. Roy Charles Arnold
Secretary, Miss Flora May Cronemiller
Credentials, Mrs. Howard H. Daniels

In contrast to the practice of the past few years, the Music Department will have a different lecturer for each meeting and therefore a varied list of subjects will be reviewed. The programs following the lectures will endeavor to introduce artistic members of Ebell, new and old, as well as finest resident musicians.

Parliamentary Law

First and Third Mondays, 10:00 A.M.

Curator and Instructor, Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey
Assistant Curator, Mrs. Charles E. Stanton
Secretary, Mrs. Leroy Enyeart
Credentials, Mrs. J. Ira Moyse

Parliamentary law is the concrete application to club life of the fundamental, ethical principles which govern one's conduct in respect to himself and the rights of others in all human relations. Through parliamentary law these fundamental principles of order, justice and courtesy to every member of the organization, the rule of the majority and the protection of the rights of the minority are conserved in all the business procedure of the club. This is of paramount importance, since in this way only shall the spirit abide in the organization, the spirit whose manifestations are loyalty, co-operation and harmony, for without the spirit the organization shall perish.

Psychology

Second and Fourth Mondays, 10:30 A.M.

Curator, Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt
Assistant Curator, Mrs. Edgar S. Stanley
Secretary, Mrs. Ulysses Grant Miller
Credentials, Mrs. Maurice M. Armstrong
Luncheons, Mrs. Jesse T. Trenery

The department will continue the study of the various phases of the "New Psychology," paying especial attention to the appreciation of its principles to life in its social relations.

Many new books on these most important subjects will be reviewed.

Public Affairs

Third Thursday, 10:30 A.M.

Curator, Mrs. John Stearns Thayer
Assistant Curator, Mrs. Edward Crumley
Secretary, Mrs. Gertrude R. Nash
Credentials, Miss Eugenia L. Hobbs
Mrs. William F. McLaughlin

The purpose of this department is to stimulate thought in the general movement of progress regarding citizenship, social science and kindred subjects.

There is need for common knowledge of the general facts. The aim is to give emphasis to those factors in our development which appeal to us as most vital from the standpoint of present day needs.

Shakespeare

Second and Fourth Tuesdays, 10:30 A.M.

Curator, Mrs. Norman D. Hall
Assistant Curator, Mrs. James Donovan

Assistant Curator, Mrs. Harry Newill Hosick
Secretary, Mrs. B. S. Galloway
Credentials, Mrs. Louis J. Pozzo

If one wishes to understand and to pronounce correctly the many names so closely connected with the early history of California, one must know Spanish.

Señora Maria Lopez de Lowther, whom we are fortunate to have as instructor of the Spanish Department, is a master of her own language. Her knowledge comes from personal contact with Spanish speaking peoples in many parts of the world. After a few lessons with her, the names of our streets and cities become real and musical, and we love the romance of California.

Report of the General Curator

DURING the year 1924-1925 the twelve cultural departments of Ebell held two hundred five meetings. That the programs and studies were interesting and stimulating to the members is shown by the exceptionally large attendance throughout the year.

The Department of Better American Speech was reorganized and proved very popular. Three General Curator's luncheons were held during the year, at which the Officers of all departments, the Executive Board, and Chairmen of Committees discussed the operation of all departmental business and in this way co-ordinated the work of the various branches.

The Art and Travel Department, Miss Helen Louise Stubbs, Curator, held seven regular meetings, with an average attendance of two hundred seventy, and an evening entertainment in the form of an Art Benefit. Two hundred thirty dollars was cleared. This forms the nucleus of a fund with which to buy a work of art for the new Club House. In the travel programs, we visited different parts of our own country, Mexico, Canada, scenic Utah, and the Mesa Verde National Park, besides spending a morning in Japan. Miss Pauline Curran decorated the stage upon that occasion to represent the interior of a Japanese home. The chief artistic effort of the year was a program of "Living Reproductions of Famous Paintings." Seventeen pictures by Old Masters were staged, about twenty-five members of the Club taking part. The last program, an address, "The Importance of Design in Textile Art," was given by Miss Estelle Cross, a young woman who has gained recognition both in the East and abroad.

The Better American Speech Department, Mrs. Emerson Clyde Gates, Curator, held fourteen regular meetings, with an average attendance of one hundred nine. A comprehensive study was made of the English language, its history and development, the correct use of the spoken and of the written word, the enrichment of our vocabularies, and a discrimination in the use of words. Attention was given to the advantages of reading aloud, to public speaking, and to the writing of letters, resolutions, essays, and luncheon speeches, as well as to a consideration of the influence of the pulpit, stage and screen and of the style tendencies of the modern novel and poetry. An intensive campaign was carried on to secure the co-operation of other organizations in the observance of Better Speech Week. Representatives from these organizations and teachers from the public schools were guests of the Club on February twenty-seventh at a meeting followed by a luncheon. Many radio talks were given during the week.

The Bible Department, Mrs. Joel B. Gwynne, Curator, held thirteen meetings, with an average attendance of one hundred sixty-six, the largest attendance in the history of the department. Miss M. Winifred Rousee presented her interesting course of lectures, "Through the Bible, a Book at a Time." Seventeen books were reviewed, beginning with Genesis and closing with the story of Esther. On December eighteenth, a Christmas play, "The Light," a religious theme adapted by Mrs. Margaret Barbrick Gillette, was presented by the Drama Workshop. Special Christmas music, including carols by the choir boys from St. Paul's Cathedral, added greatly to the enjoyment of the program.

The Books and Current Literature Department, Mrs. Jack Valley, Curator, held seven regular meetings, with an average attendance of two hundred eighty-three. A new plan of study was put into effect, in that the Curator gave a lecture at each meeting, developing and illustrating the technique of the modern novel and the short story. Supplementary book reviews were given at each meeting.

The Browning Department, Mrs. John E. Coffin, Curator, held sixteen regular meetings, with an average attendance of fifty. Five of Browning's major poems were studied. Addresses were given at various meetings by Dr. Carter, Miss Jean Dickinson, Dr. Coe Culbertson and others. The annual meeting celebrating Browning's birthday was held May eighth. Dr. Charles Aked delivered the lecture on "The Brownings—An Epithalamium."

The Drama Department, Mrs. A. H. Purdue, Curator, held seven regular meetings, with an average attendance of two hundred sixty-one. The plays that were read and reviewed were mostly of recent date and portrayed some phase of American life. These programs were given by Ebell members. At the May meeting the Department had the pleasure of hearing the dramatic critic, Clayton Hamilton. The Drama Workshop of Ebell was organized early in the year and presented four original, one adapted, and four selected plays. Five of these were played by Ebell Juniors for the Bible Department, for the Drama Department, and for a Junior program. One was read at a Drama meeting by the author, Mrs. W. E. Keepers, and three were given as a Monday afternoon program by the Drama Workshop under the direction of the author, Mrs. Margaret Barbrick Gillette.

The French Department, Mrs. Charles D. Burt, Curator, held thirty regular meetings, with an average attendance of fifty-one. This has been one of the most successful years of the French Department under the instruction of Mademoiselle Madeleine Letessier. The first class studied Chardenal's Grammar, using the conversational method and read several short stories from "Les Petits Contes de France" by Meras. The second class completed Chardenal's Grammar and studied Francais Pratique by Briscoe and Dickman. The third class completed "French Composition" by Galland and read Saint Magloire by Roland Dorgeles. Twelve short dialogues were given during the year, in which twenty-six different members took part.

The Music Department, Mrs. Samuel G. Puterbaugh, Curator, held seven regular meetings, with an average attendance of three hundred fifteen. The two outstanding features of the programs were, first: Mrs. Gertrude Ross as lecturer on the Instruments of the Symphony Orchestra and excerpts from the coming program and from the music of the Pilgrimage Play composed by Mrs. Ross; second, the high calibre of the artists on each program, who were almost without exception professional musicians of the first rank and many with national reputations. We wish to express our gratitude to the management of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra for permitting several of the first chair men to illustrate to us the range and tone-color of their instruments.

The Parliamentary Law Department, Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey, Curator, held fourteen regular meetings, with an average attendance of fifteen. At each session a new lesson was studied, followed by a general discussion of the review lesson.

The business of "The Small Town Improvement Club" gave an opportunity for practical drill.

The Psychology Department, Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, Curator, held fourteen meetings, with an average attendance of eighty-six. Many of the leading psychologists of the city addressed the department. Among them were Dr. Paul E. Bowers, Dr. Louise Unger, Dr. Sheperd Ivory Franz, and Dr. Emory S. Bogardus. Reverend E. Burdette Backus gave a New Year's sermon and Alma Whitaker a talk on "The Psychology of Travel." Many new books of psychological import were reviewed by the members and three mornings were devoted to valuable questionnaires and discussions.

The Shakespeare Department, Mrs. Norman D. Hall, Curator, held fourteen regular meetings, with an average attendance of one hundred one. The first work of the year was the study of King John, with a background of English history. Two meetings were spent on the study of Julius Caesar, followed by a lecture by Mr. Frederick Warde. The next play for consideration was King Lear. Mr. Warde presented a recital with current comments on the play. During the year some time was given to Measure for Measure. The last play for study was Macbeth, which the department read under the direction of Mr. Warde. Two luncheons were given, Mr. Warde being the speaker on both occasions.

The Spanish Department, Mrs. Ralph R. Hartley, Curator, and Senora Maria Lopez de Lowther, Instructor, held twenty-two regular meetings, with an average attendance of thirty-five. The Department is divided into three classes for the study of grammar and composition and the practice of conversation.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. CHARLES V. CRAIG, General Curator.

Report of Art Exhibits Committee

DURING the past club year there have been exhibited on the walls of the Auditorium nine one-man shows, lasting for one month. In the Tea Room there have been held eight one-man shows besides a continual exhibition by the California Miniature Society, changing every month.

It has been the purpose of the Committee to bring before the club members the best available in paintings and etchings, featuring those artists who have had a broad experience in their field of endeavor and whose work is influential in creating an art centre in the Southwest.

On February 4th our annual luncheon was held. At this time several eminent artists and speakers interested in art were our guests.

The following is the list of local artists whose work has been exhibited during the past club year: Loren Barton, Maurice Braun, Benjamin Brown, Paul Lauritz, Thorwald Probst, Charles L. A. Smith, Jack Wilkinson Smith, Charles Tanner.

The portraits of E. Hodgson Smart, and of Housep Pushman, and the etchings by Brangwyn were exhibited.

There was held in November an exhibition of etchings representative of the most important etchers, from the Primitives down to our own generation, from the Dutch, German, Scandinavian, French, English and American schools.

The California Society of Miniature Painters showed the work of its best painters, changing exhibits from time to time.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. GEORGE W. MCCOY, Chairman of Exhibits.

Report of the Practical Relief Committee

TO GIVE a clear idea of the activities of this Committee, it may be well to classify them under five heads. We consider our most important and constructive work is that for the twenty-five scholarship and school girls, whom we have helped this year. To most of them we have given complete outfits, which consist of two suits of underclothes, two underslips, two nightgowns, three pairs of stockings, shoes, two wash dresses, one woolen dress, one evening or afternoon dress, a skirt and sweater, cloak and hat. We have made graduation dresses for three girls, two graduating from High Schools and one from the Southern Branch of the University of California.

The Rest Cottage guests are given the next consideration, since almost all of these women after convalescence need some clothes, if not complete outfits, to re-enter the business world.

Ebell's interest in the ex-service man has been centered in the Disabled Veterans' Association of the World's War, Post 1. Since the Community Chest has been in operation we have been much relieved in the demands made upon us. The most outstanding work for our boys was the assistance rendered in securing $1,000 from one of our generous Ebell members towards a new automobile. The work of the Relief Officer of Post 1 had been crippled by not having an adequate conveyance for our sick boys to hospitals and homes.

In the next class we place the families and elderly women who need what our organization alone can give them—friendly help, sympathy and advice. The knowledge that they have friends to turn to in dark hours seems to fill them with renewed courage and hope.

In the fifth and last class we place the philanthropic organizations with which we co-operate, the Out Door Relief, Johnson Apartments, Business Women's Club, Juvenile Protective Association, Kiddie Koop, and many others.

During the past year we have had forty-nine meetings, with an average attendance of twenty, with thirty-eight members enrolled. We have received 5626 garments and articles, and have distributed 5606. We have made 828 new garments, comforters, and rugs. These do not include the dresses remodeled, cloaks relined, or repairs and mending done.

It would not have been possible to accomplish this were it not for the devoted service and sacrifice of our members, much of this work having been done at home. We know that each one looks forward to Friday, for the association with one another in this most interesting and helpful work draws us together in the strong bonds of friendship and love. We urge each member of the Club who can use her needle, to join us, knowing she will be well repaid for the sacrifice she may have to make to give one day a week in service for the unfortunate ones in our midst.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. T. J. FLETCHER, Chairman.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae Association

EBELL REST COTTAGE, 135 NORTH PARK VIEW

Report of the Ebell Rest Cottage Association

REST COTTAGE had a notable visitor for several weeks, Miss Lillian B. Flanders, the donor of the original cottage. Miss Flanders was made an Honorary Life Member by the unanimous vote of the Association. Mrs. T. T. Knight's friends gave a Memorial Life Membership and three living-room chairs as a tribute to this beloved Charter Member of Ebell.

During the year we have been greatly indebted to numerous persons for assistance, notably the firm of Tryon and Brain, who made a gift of a cement driveway and walks. The financial report, on another page, will record this munificent present. It will also tell the story in figures of the royal support given by the Benefits and Entertainments Committee of Ebell; the Ebell Juniors; the Association members, and many other contributors. A furnace has been installed for the comfort of the guests. A substantial contribution was made by the firm installing it. Thirty-five hundred dollars has been added to the Endowment Fund this year, making the total Endowment ten thousand dollars. Mrs. Cora Morse Royal learned through the press of Rest Cottage. A bequest in her will, recently probated, provides that if specified property sells for five thousand dollars or more, the Cottage shall receive five thousand dollars. If said property sells for less, then the Cottage shall receive full proceeds from the sale. The Practical Relief is a very dependable ally. The Membership Committee is credited among its achievements with seventeen new Life Members.

Two afternoon teas have been given at the Cottage for Ebell members. At Christmas time, invitations were extended to former guests to attend a turkey dinner and Christmas Tree festivities. Sixty-seven responded. This was the crowning event of the year in enjoyment and good-fellowship. The treasury of the Association profited by the surplus from the contributions.

One hundred sixteen women have received Ebell's hospitality at the Cottage this year. The most gratifying feature of the work is the growth in personal interest the club women are taking in their guests. The field of the Follow-up Committee grows in size and helpfulness. In one half day, two young women telephoned their gratitude to Ebell Club for help given them while at the Cottage, enabling them to gain promotions in new lines of work. These girls had unusual difficulty in regaining health and courage, and their appreciation was unmeasured. The results of the earnest work of the committees, we will leave for the convalescents to record in their greater usefulness to the community. The representatives to whom the great heart of Ebell has entrusted this work, thank the Club for this opportunity to serve.

Form of Bequest or Devise For Benefit of Ebell Rest Cottage

It is suggested that one of the following forms be used when money or real estate is to be left to The Ebell for the benefit of Rest Cottage.

If money, use the following form: "I hereby give and bequeath to The Ebell of Los Angeles for the maintenance of Rest Cottagedollars."

If real estate, use: "I hereby give and devise to The Ebell of Los Angeles that real property described as follows:....."

If the desire is to leave money or real estate with the intention that only the interest or income therefrom shall be used for the maintenance of Rest Cottage, then add to the above forms as follows: to the first, "and I direct that said sum of money be safely invested and the interest or other proceeds arising therefrom shall be used for said purpose."

To the second form add, "And I direct that the income from said property shall be used for the support of said Rest Cottage and in the event that it is deemed advisable to sell the said property so devised, that the moneys derived therefrom shall be invested and the proceeds used for said purpose."

At the suggestion of the donor such bequest or devise may be left as a memorial to erect a building or endow a room to be known by the name of the person designated.

You may make your own will without any witnesses being present. To do so it must be wholly dated, written and signed in your own handwriting.

In the event that it is written by other persons it must be signed by you and by two witnesses, who must sign at your request after you have declared to them that the instrument is your last will and testament. They must sign in your presence and in the presence of each other.

Report of the Scholarship Committee

THE year 1924-1925 has been one of growth for the scholarship work. By decision of the Board of Directors, it was held as a matter of policy that scholarships given by individual members of the Club, through Ebell should be considered not as a part of, but in addition to, the scholarships maintained by the Club. Thus, during the latter part of the year just past, the number of our scholarships has been increased from twelve to sixteen, making it possible to give much-needed assistance to four more young women whose names had been on the scholarship waiting-list.

To the four members of the Club whose generosity and kindly interest have prompted these gifts, we are most deeply grateful. But the entire scholarship work is a tribute to the co-operation on the part of the members of Ebell, who all help in some way to encourage and carry on this very worthy activity. To the Benefits and Entertainments Committee we are particularly indebted for the wonderful assistance they have given this year.

Of the sixteen girls, eleven have been in universities, four in high schools, and one has held the music scholarship. Two of these girls have graduated from the University of California, Southern Branch, and of the remaining number probably thirteen will be carried through another year. Just what this really means to the fortunate girls is probably best expressed in the words of one of them in acknowledging her first scholarship check: "Every girl who is earning all of her expenses as I am becomes somewhat discouraged at times, and nothing could have made me more delighted than the realization that I had friends who were interested in me and willing to help me."

That former committees have shown care and wisdom in the awarding of scholarships seems to be amply proved by the cases of two young women who held Ebell Scholarships until they graduated a year or so ago. They are both teaching now, and one of them has this year entirely repaid the amount she had received from the Club. The other is repaying at the rate of fifteen dollars a month. She writes that she has enjoyed helping with Ebell's scholarship work, and that she will never forget the Club that helped her to get an education.

It is because the scholarship is a source of encouragement and inspiration to such fine young women as these, and because it is a constructive work making for good citizenship, that Ebell may feel deeply and justly proud of this department.

Report of the President of the Ebell Juniors

THE Ebell Juniors, in their third year, have experienced a growth which comes from closer relationship with the Club, which has been the dream of its founders.

The past year has seen the "Junior Auxiliary of Ebell" become the "Junior Department of Ebell," and its members "special members" with special members' privileges. With this has come the realization that the Junior Department is fitting us, in a most unique and interesting way, for future club work and is giving us a goodly share of poise and dignity for everyday life, with the knowledge that personality must be forgotten, for the time being, in service to the whole.

The Junior Department has held nine monthly meetings this year under the able supervision of Miss Betty Brown. Four of these have been supplied by Junior Members. The programs for the year are as follows: October, The Orpheus Four; November, Caroline Duncan in "Recent Broadway Successes"; December, One Act Play from the Drama Workshop presented by Ebell Juniors; January, Musicales, Mary Christin Albin Trio; February, "Music and Dance," The Lytelle Twins from the Chicago Grand Opera Company; March, Miss Mildred Paver, Reading of One Act Plays; April, The Norma Gould Dancers; May, Three One Act Plays from the Drama Workshop, presented by Ebell Juniors, directed by Mrs. Loren Willard Babcock; June, Annual Luncheon and Installation of Officers.

There have been seven monthly card parties held in the homes of members, with the exception of the first and last, given at the home of Mrs. W. B. Scarborough, our Advisory Chairman. A taxation of twenty-five cents each time enabled us to pay for refreshments and prizes.

To Mrs. Edmund Alfred Jackson, the Benefits and Entertainments Chairman, goes the credit and heartfelt thanks of every Junior for the two benefits of the year, a Spanish Dance, which was not only a social success, but gave us the opportunity to present fifty dollars to Practical Relief and fifty dollars to Rest Cottage.

The benefit Bridge Luncheon and Peggy Hamilton Fashion Show at the Biltmore Hotel, by far the biggest party of its kind ever attempted by Ebell Juniors, was pronounced a big success. We were more than glad to turn over the $408.06 to Rest Cottage, $50 being for the completion of our Life Membership and $358.06 for the Endowment Fund. Our last entertainment was the invitational dance.

We have done our best to co-operate with every department of Ebell this year and have in some measure succeeded; supplying girls to assist in Fashion Show and to sell candy for the benefit at the Uplifters' Ranch; appearing in the Fashion Show at the New England Dinner; assisting at the Spanish Fiesta; supplying program of plays for the Drama Department; supplying girls for the Fashion Show at the Biltmore Party; supplying girls for the Fashion Show at the Federation Party; assisting at the Charter Day Reception; giving a Christmas Play for the Bible Department; presiding at one Wednesday Guest Luncheon.

Now we of the past who must make way for those who come in the future do so with gratitude and loving appreciation for the helpful co-operation we have received.

Respectfully submitted,

ELSA MATHEWS,
President of the Ebell Juniors.
