Dr. Adrian Ebell, a distinguished German scholar, realizing woman's limited opportunity for mental development and the necessity of fitting her to cope more effectively with the strenuous and complex forms of modern life, conceived the idea of establishing an international Academy with headquarters at Berlin and tributary chapters in all parts of the world, for the object of developing feminine mentality along serious and scientific lines.

The first of the several chapters on the Pacific Coast bearing his name was the Oakland Ebell, organized in 1876. The Los Angeles Ebell, established in 1894, with its central organization and various study departments, was modeled upon the same lines as this admirably planned Mother Club.

Annual Report

"Incorporated for the advancement of all lines of general culture," Ebell looks back upon a year of well spent activity; not alone restricted to individual progress, but tending also to that wider development of home, city, state and country.

The Departments have given opportunity for individual growth, while at the open meetings subjects of broader significance have been presented, enabling the Club as an organization to consider and endorse measures intended for the benefit of the community at large.

Fifty-seven members have qualified during the year, two names have been added to the list of Life Members, and Mrs. Robert J. Burdette has been elected an Honorary Life Member. Twenty-two Associate and ten Temporary Members have availed themselves of the Club privileges during their sojourn in the city.

About 3400 guests have been entertained at the open Monday Meetings.

It is with deep sorrow we record the names of six of our Active Members who have been called to the "Land of the Hereafter": Mrs. Homer Laughlin, Mrs. F. H. Fellows, Mrs. J. A. Clark, Mrs. William A. Phelps, Miss Frances Maurice, Mrs. I. W. Shirley.

During the year the Club has acquired 147 shares of Ebell Building Association stock, making the total holdings 1494 shares, representing an investment of $14,940.00. Five shares were presented by Mrs. C. N. Flint.

The sum of $501.61 has been expended on furniture and permanent improvements.

Assistance has been given or memberships have been taken in the Juvenile Improvement Association, the Archaeological Institute, the Maternity Hospital, the Bethlehem Institute, the Registration Bureau, the Barlow Sanatorium, the Junior Republic, the Legal Aid Society, and smaller donations made to many other worthy cause. Ebell has also furnished the Junior Club room of the Young Woman's Christian Association, at a cost of $500, the Club starting the fund with $100, and Mrs. John H. Norton, Chairman of the Furnishing Committee, having obtained subscriptions amounting to $400 for this purpose.

The Club is indebted to many of its members and friends for books, pictures and other gifts.

The Departments, under the efficient management of the General Curator, Mrs. W. L. Jones, now number ten, all doing work so earnest and active that this short report can in no way do them justice. These Departments are Ebell's workshops, where matters of science, art, civics or philosophy can, by their members, be worked down, brought from the abstract to the concrete, from a passive to an active force. As growth and youth are synonymous, all who enter the Departments find that wondrous fount sought by many, but realized only by those who learn in wisdom's school that "we are never old while we grow."

The Department of Parliamentary Law met each Monday, before the general session, until March, under the capable curatorship of the late Mrs. J. A. Clark. The instructor, Mrs. J. A. Osgood, Club Parliamentarian, has given the members excellent drill in parliamentary procedure.

The Department of Science, in charge of Mrs. Jay B. Millard, assisted by Mrs. Sidney J. Parsons, met the third Tuesday of each month, and has witnessed a great material growth, due in part to the breadth and scope of subjects discussed.

The Department of French, in charge of Mrs. E. C. Bellows and Mrs. P. Newmark, has held three classes weekly under the instructorship of Professor Gabriel Durnerin. In March, at an open meeting, this Department cleverly presented two French plays.

The Department of Current Topics, under the management of Mrs. Frank A. Kelly, has given to the Club, at open meetings, seven interesting programs on vital subjects of the day. This work has fallen naturally under the heads of Foreign Affairs, Home Affairs and New Books. Each program has been ably presented by Club members only, and was followed by general discussion of interest and profit.

The Ebell of

The newest Department, that of Expression, has done enthusiastic work under the leadership of Mrs. William W. Orcutt and Mrs. Fred Hooker Jones. The aim has been to develop the power of original expression, and to that end extempore speaking and debate have been important features, as have story telling and more general literary work. This Department gave an interesting program for the open meeting of April sixth.

The Department of Music, under the curatorship of Mrs. Marion Welsh, has done exceedingly good work, the music of different nations being studied, with Mrs. Edwin G. Voigt as instructor. A delightful program from living composers was rendered in January before the Club.

The Department of Art and Travel began the year with its usual enthusiasm, Mrs. A. J. Chandler acting as Curator, and later Mrs. C. Q. Stanton, with Miss Alice Mitton continuing as instructor. The first half of the year was devoted to the Napoleonic Period and Modern French Art, the latter half to Dutch and Flemish Art. Miss Mitton's collection of pictures added much to the pleasure of the work. February third, this Department furnished a unique program, entitled "The Street Cries of Nations."

In the Department of Shakespeare, with Mrs. John S. Thayer and later Mrs. F. W. Johnson as Curator, and Mrs. Edward North as instructor, the plays "Two Gentlemen of Verona," "King Lear" and "The Tempest" have been studied. By means of papers and discussion, excellent work has been done.

The Department of Civics, under the leadership of Mrs. Russell J. Waters and Mrs. William Baurhyte, has been a practical one, designed to answer some of the many needs of the complex living of to-day. Many plans have been launched or assisted, such as the Legal Aid Society, whereby the poor are to be legally helped in trouble; the Club Women's Registration and Information Bureau, where the woman who can do things well is made known to the woman who wants things done well. This Department has placed itself on record as favoring the movement for the lessening of the hours of child labor, the introduction of certified milk through the Los Angeles County Medical

Los Angeles

Association, and has co-operated with the Los Angeles Civic Association in the campaign against billboards. An interesting program was given to the Club in March.

The Department of Books and Conversation, under the leadership of Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, assisted by Mrs. Stephen S. Wilder and Mrs. Eugene T. Pettigrew, has furnished instructive programs to an enthusiastic monthly audience. The course this year, one of comparative literature, dealing with the drama, poetry, and old and new values in fiction, was particularly varied, and interesting. The luncheons which followed were in charge of Mrs. T. T. Knight.

The Club has enjoyed thirty-five regular Monday afternoon programs, exclusive of the Charter Day Reception, October 28th, and the Children's Christmas Party, December 30th. The Chairman of the Program Committee, Mrs. Willitts J. Hole, and her able assistants, furnished excellent programs. The musical work has been of a high order; such names as the Mendelssohn String Quartette and Milan Opera Company recall delightful afternoons in the early season; later, a charming program was rendered with ballads of Early England, Ireland and Scotland, sung in costume by Louise Nixon Hill, with dialect stories by Miss Kavanaugh; an excellent matinee was furnished by Mrs. Robert Wankowski, of the Club, assisted by Mr. Natorp Blumenfeld, violinist; a recital of French songs was given by Miss Blanche Ruby, assisted by Miss Smith, pianist; and a remarkably fine interpretation of Salome was presented by Miss Lelia Holterhoff. In lighter vein was an afternoon of Spanish song and dance.

The Christmas program was in charge of Mrs. Edward C. Dieter.

The Honorary Members have been particularly obliging this year. In the early season, Lieutenant General Adna R. Chaffee addressed the Club on "Cuba, China and the Philippines;" later, Rev. Robert J. Burdette spoke on "Woman's Sense of Humor," and Mr. B. R. Baumgardt vividly reviewed the scenes of old Pompeii.

The Ebell of

Among other speakers, Dr. Titian Coffey showed how "the other half" live in this city, and Rev. Dana Bartlett explained the great work of the Bethlehem Institute. The Club traveled over that country of special interest, Palestine, with one of its members, Mrs. A. C. Smither, and wandered in the forest primeval with Mr. E. A. Mills, United States Forester, also made a trip to Ellis Island with Dr. John Willis Baer, and watched the mighty stream of immigration pour into this country, realizing that in these foreigners its future brawn and strength is largely vested.

Among the literary days, those to be especially remembered were the afternoons with Mr. Mestayer on Henrik Ibsen, Mrs. Merrill Moore Grigg in her wonderfully realistic reading of that soul problem, "The Scarlet Letter," and Miss Cora Mel Patten, who gave a dramatic interpretation of the "Sunken Bell."

In Art, an instructive lecture on "Phidias and the Parthenon" was given by Dr. H. H. Powers, and later Miss Locke spoke on "Architecture as an Expression of Race Consciousness."

The Children's Christmas Party was, as usual, the one time when the little ones of Ebell made merry at their mothers' club house. Under the supervision of Mrs. B. R. Baumgardt, they enjoyed a delightful little play, followed by the time-honored appearance of Santa Claus and his pack. Toys brought by the children were sent to the Day Nursery, Bethlehem Institute and the Church of the Neighborhood.

Much pleasure has been derived from the cup of tea that cheers, which has been served by the hospitable Chairman of the House Committee, Mrs. Edward C. Dieter, and her assistants. Informal luncheons given by the Departments have contributed to the general sociability.

The final meeting of the Club followed the annual luncheon, June 22nd, at which time the retiring President, Mrs. P. G. Hubert, installed the officers for the following year.

ELIZABETH H. KRESS,
Recording Secretary.
