The American's Creed

I BELIEVE in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic and a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and their fortunes.

I, therefore, believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies.

President's Report

1917-1918

A CAREFUL survey of the activities and achievements of Ebell during the last two years gives me reason to be deeply grateful for the privilege of being President of so responsive a body of women. No appeal for help, and the appeals have been many and continuous, has come in vain. The needs of Armenia, Belgium, France, Italy and Poland, of the Red Cross and the Red Star have played upon your heart strings till the purse strings have been widely loosened.

Contributions of over eleven hundred dollars each have been made to the General Federation of Women's Clubs for Furlough Homes for American Soldiers in France; and the Navy Base Hospital No. 3, with its unit of Los Angeles Doctors and Nurses, for a wireless Telephonograph equipment, consisting of a mahogany Victrola case containing a Victor phonograph, two Edison storage batteries and an Audio-Frequency wireless transmitter, and another case containing fifty-four movable bed telephone receivers and eighty phonograph records. This is a wonderful invention of Earl C. Hanson, son of our member, Mrs. Charles L. Hanson, whereby music from a victrola in a distant part of a hospital is transmitted wirelessly to a 'phone attached to the bed of any patient desiring to listen, without disturbing others who should have quiet. One or all of the fifty-four phones may be used at one time, and we hope the tedium of many a weary convalescent hour may be lightened for our wounded men in France, by its use.

Five hundred dollars of Club funds were appropriated for each of the two drives of the Y. W. C. A. and for the Y. M. C. A., these amounts being increased to approximately five thousand dollars each by the personal gifts of our members, and by the Committees organized of Ebell women.

Our Liberty Loan Committee consisting of Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlisle, Mrs. Charles N. Flint and Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, received subscriptions from Ebell members as follows:

First Loan	. . . . .	$ 35,000.00
Second Loan	. . . . .	65,000.00
Third Loan	. . . . .	95,000.00
Total	. . . . .	$195,000.00

of which $10,500.00 was subscribed from Club funds. We have also purchased the limit of $1000.00 in War Savings Stamps.

These war times are teaching us the value of small things—spare minutes, teaspoons of sugar, ounces of wheat flour, small economies and small gifts—as we find them, when multiplied by the many, transmuted into countless socks and sweaters, tons of sugar, pounds of flour, our limit in thrift stamps and thousands of dollars for war needs.

We are proud of the fact that over $4,350.00 has been given in small donations by our members for the various works of relief, $1,620.00 for our Allies, the remainder for local funds for war work or for Red Star or Red Cross.

[ The EBELL of Los Angeles ]

Mrs. William Read, Chairman of Social Service, Mrs. Charles N. Flint, Chairman of Philanthropy, and Mrs. George Warder Bayly, representing the Methodist Hospital, have by their broad vision and untiring efforts, established Ebell's own contribution to the philanthropies of the city, the Ebell Rest Cottage.

The great activity of our Club year, the one dearest to our hearts, has been the Red Cross work of our Auxiliary. It was organized under our Los Angeles Chapter before our entrance into the war. It is growing steadily in numbers, interest and in work accomplished, to the gratifying totals set forth in the report of the Vice-Chairman and Purchasing Agent, Mrs. Ilot Johnson, to whose boundless enthusiasm and untiring devotion, executive ability and tactful personality much of the success is due.

In May, 1917, the Social Service Committee under Mrs. William Read, Chairman, was merged with the Auxiliary, turning over to the Red Cross sewing machines, materials, workers and equipment, to which we have added constantly as the work has grown.

Classes in Home Nursing were formed and many of our members have continued through the hospital training course and classes in first aid, dietetics and canteen service. Our surgical dressings classes continued work throughout the hot summer of 1917 under Mrs. O. O. Witherbee, and during the winter with Mrs. George B. Macaulay, Chairman, classes have worked four days a week with the gratifying results shown in the report. The club knitters are legion—the flying needles seem never still. Mrs. George H. Mosher and her committee added substantially to the Red Cross funds from the sales of the Jumble Inn held in the patio each Monday during May and June.

✓ So far as we can ascertain, every member of Ebell is a member of the Red Cross. A most thrilling scene was presented on May 6th, when the President, as Chairman of Ebell Auxiliary, administered the oath of allegiance first to our uniformed Red Cross workers, then to the Executive Committee and the audience, who rose en masse and, with uplifted right hand, repeated the solemn pledge. Many Ebell members are also Chairmen of other Auxiliaries, or Salvage Precincts, while every division of Red Cross activities at headquarters or chapter house finds some Ebell woman at work.

Through its officers and various members, Ebell has been represented on the boards and committees of all the war activities of the city. They have also fully carried on the work of the usual and much needed local civic and philanthropic organizations, for a list of which consult our Forward Work Council.

We are proud of our member, Doctor Helen H. Woodroffe, who has been in active relief work in France for a year; and of the gallant men whose names are inscribed on our Honor Roll; and of our brave members, their mothers, wives and sisters, who have sent them off with a smile and a God speed! May we but live up to their splendid example, and do what we can to help win the war!

Our Special Guest Luncheons on the first Thursdays of each month, following the interesting programs of the Social Science Department, have been the outstanding social features of our year. The attendance of members and guests has averaged two hundred; the table appointments and decorations arranged by Mrs. S. E. Faroat, Luncheon Chairman, have been beautiful; and the after-luncheon speeches have been thrillingly interesting and varied, as many speakers of note have been our guests.

Our regular Departments, luncheons and Monday programs have sustained the high order of excellence for which they have ever been noted, and your President wishes to thank all the Curators, Officers, Chairmen of Committees and members of the same, who have stood so loyally by their Club duties in spite of the increased call upon their time and interests by the Red Cross and other war activities. Not one has failed to shoulder the extra burden, and this generous loyalty and co-operation of officers and members alike has made possible the wonderful work we as a Club have accomplished—merely hinted at in the foregoing figures—and has made the year one of great joy and pride to your President.

We have been banded together in a labor of love with a spirit of loyalty and devotion to our Country, that Liberty, Fraternity, and Equality shall be the heritage of all, and Justice and Right shall prevail.

MRS. CHESTER C. ASHLEY, President.

Report of the Recording Secretary 1917-1918

EBELL'S twenty-third year began on Monday, October first, 1917, with a new realization of human interdependence brought about by the Great World War. In her opening address the President, Mrs. Ashley, challenged each to give her best service. Feeling safety and pride in her capable leadership, the members have made gratifying response.

Mrs. Grantland S. Long has proven her whole-hearted allegiance and given efficient service as First Vice-President. As Chairman of Printing, she supervised the Year Book. She has carried through the campaign for Furlough Home Fund; completed the two Honor Rolls of the one hundred forty-four young men who have gone from our midst in defense of our country; and has represented our President at various meetings.

Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson, Second Vice-President, as Chairman of the Program Committee, has supplied thirty-nine Monday programs which have brought pleasure and profit to the members and friends. The Program Chairman was able to augment the printed programs by a remarkable list of important War speakers whose names follow: Ex-Ambassador James W. Gerard; A. J. Sacks, of the Russian Mission; Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago; Mrs. George H. Bass, Chicago; Dr. Carl S. Patton; Congressman H. Z. Osborne; Mr. Motley H. Flint; Madame Arabella Angellini, for Italian Relief; Lieutenant McKinnon of Scottish Infantry; Louise Closser Hale, for the Stage Women's War Relief; Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, Federal Food Commission; Congressmen Lewis and Adamson; Father Patrice Flinn, of the Diocese of Paris; and M. William Sandoz and Madame M. Lantes, representing the Relief Committee for Invalided Soldiers, Reforms No. 2.

Mrs. W. W. Homan, Third Vice-President, Chairman of the House Committee, was early incapacitated by ill health, and Mrs. Grantland S. Long attended to her duties until the appointment of Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Perkins, to this office. Since December twenty-seventh, Mrs. Perkins has attended carefully to the material needs of the Club. Co-operating with the National Food Conservation Committee, the Club voted to restrict the serving of teas to one Monday each month. Strict observance of all wheatless rules has been maintained in the serving of war cakes.

Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey, Fourth Vice-President, as Chairman of the Membership Committee, gave the following report:

The kindly messages of friendliness so well expressed by Mrs. John S. Thayer, Corresponding Secretary, have been warmly welcomed by the large number who have received them. Other letters authorized by the Club, numbering eight hundred thirty-nine, have received her attention.

Mrs. Sidney M. Haskell, Chairman of Credentials, reports three thousand seven hundred two guests entertained during the year, and directs attention to the fact that lectures have been as well attended as musicales.

Mrs. Tom P. Robertson, Chairman of Ushers, has been tireless in observing rules adopted for the safety and comfort of the Club.

Mrs. William M. Kinney, Chairman of Club Welfare, has kept close watch over the Ebell family in order that recognition should be given as occasion demanded.

Mrs. Edwin G. Howard, Chairman of Courtesy Committee, manifesting the cordial spirit of Ebell, has graciously welcomed all members and friends.

Mrs. Milton E. Hammond, Chairman of the Decorating Committee, has effectively accomplished her work. The varied artistic effects achieved have delighted all eyes.

The following resolutions have been adopted by the Club during the past year: Resolutions addressed to Congress: Favoring increase of Letter Carriers' Salaries; Favoring reduction of Postal Rates; and

[ The EBELL of Los Angeles ]

Endorsing the Food Commission in limiting the use of barley in brewing. Resolutions to Los Angeles County Supervisors: Urging the erection of new Nurses' Home at the Los Angeles County Hospital; and Favoring increase of School Budget. Resolutions to City Council: Relating to the City Inspection of Buildings; For increase in salary of Police-women; Favoring Efficiency Budget; Favoring protection of Cooked Food; Endorsing Fire Protective Association; Endorsing Industrial Home for Women; and Favoring Maintenance of Industrial Standards for Women and Children in War Time. Resolutions of sympathy on the deaths of Mrs. Anna Hall Ashley, Mr. George Gibson, Mrs. Lydia B. Torrey and Mr. William L. Jones. Resolution Endorsing Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles for a second term as President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Club year ended with a delightful Garden Party on Monday, June twenty-fourth, at the Hooker Gardens, 325 West Adams Street. While enjoying social pleasure, Ebell maintained her habit of service by giving the entire proceeds, amounting to twelve hundred sixteen dollars, to the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Red Cross. 1216.00

Steadfastly adhering to her high standard of patriotic loyalty, Ebell has been ready to respond to each call with both workers and money. Opportunity is not what may come to us tomorrow, but what we make out of today. The world is not measured by the reach of our arms nor the horizon of our vision, but by the never ceasing influence of our thoughts and our acts.

Respectfully submitted,
LAURA PAXTON, Recording Secretary.

Report of the General Curator

THE departments of Ebell may readily be separated into two groups, one, that of the "Program Departments," where the topic for the day is presented by one or more speakers: the other group, that of the "Study Classes," wherein all present are supposed to take part. To the first group belong Social Science, Books and Conversation, Art and Travel, Drama, and War Economics. To the study group belong the departments of Browning, Emerson, Shakespeare, Parliamentary Law, Language Classes, (including English, French and Spanish) and the Choral.

It is an interesting fact to note that the average attendance of this year in every Study department was below that of the same department last year, while in the Program departments, in every instance, this year's average exceeded that of last year.

The work of the departments for the year just closed followed very closely the announcements as given in the monthly bulletin. All programs were composed to harmonize with present day conditions, and the Great War, consciously or not, was the real topic underlying all discussions.

The Social Science department, Mrs. Jay B. Millard, Curator, emphasized throughout the year the Individual Responsibility of One and All in the world today. "Reform, ethical or political, national or international, can be brought about only through readjustment of the ideals of the individual." The papers and lectures were of very great value, and covered many subjects, closing with a fitting climax, "The Potentialities of the Coming Race."

The departments of Books and Conversation, Mrs. George H. Kress, Curator, gave reviews of books, including many on war topics; the reading of letters from the front; of poems from the trenches; and closed with a very dramatic reading of an up-to-the-minute war play, "Man's Efficiency." At each meeting a short time was given to literary notes from current magazines.

The Art and Travel department, Mrs. A. B. Cooke, Curator, continued the work of last year, The Study of American Cities and American Art. Great emphasis was given the fact that "Patriotism demands that we keep our artistic standards as high as possible, for a nation with high artistic ideals always stands high in the scale of civilization." Programs were illustrated by means of lantern slides, and by exhibitions of pictures, oriental rugs, pottery, and tiles.

Mrs. W. B. Scarborough, Curator of the Drama Department, scoured the vicinity of Los Angeles to bring us all phases of modern drama. We learned of The Community Drama, The Art of the Kinema, The Japanese Stage of Today (also of The Ancient Drama of Japan), The Little Theater Movement and The One Act Play. The work was illustrated by informal talks, papers, lectures, and by plays reviewed, read, or acted. "The Tents of the Arabs" and "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil" are two short plays which were beautifully presented by students of Los Angeles Junior College under the direction of their Instructor, Mrs. Miller.

With their much beloved Curators, Mrs. Thomas B. Stowell and Mrs. Sidney J. Parsons, the members of the Browning department concluded the work begun last year, the reading and discussion of "The Ring and The Book." This wonderful poem was the inspiration of many fine papers. The year's work closed with an address by Doctor George Wharton James, subject, "A Personal Appreciation of Browning."

The Emerson department continued reading and discussion of the essays in the volume entitled "Nature Addresses." These discussions, led by the Curator, Mrs. David Unruh, brought out many beautiful and helpful thoughts. The several points of view added much to the interest. The year closed with an address by Reverend E. Stanton Hodgin, subject, "Idealism."

In the Shakespeare department, Mrs. Charles Stavnow, Curator, "Patriotism" was the theme for the year. This topic was admirably developed in the discussion of the historical plays, led by Mrs. Edward North, Instructor. The final conclusion of the department was, that today, as well as in Shakespeare's time, Victory or Defeat depends upon the motive governing the action.

The Parliamentary Law Department, Mrs. Charles McKelvey, Curator and Instructor, did faithful work in teaching woman to fit herself for business meetings; to understand the forms of parliamentary procedure; to know the purpose and place of motions used in ordinary assemblies; and to preside at meetings with the dignity that comes from the consciousness of doing and saying the right thing at the right time in the right way.

The three language classes did good work. The English class, Curator, Mrs. Malone Joyce; Instructor, Mrs. Ilot Johnson, continued painstaking work in the study of pure English and in the nicety of the choice of word to fit the thought. The French class, Mrs. J. B. Gwynne, Curator; Madame de Kerpezdron, Instructor, specialized this year in conversational work. "Details of the Beautiful Buildings of Paris" was the subject used to develop conversational powers. At each meeting Madame de Kerpezdron gave a short lecture on French historical characters. Three meetings during the year were devoted to programs which included French music, vocal and instrumental, readings, poems, anecdotes, and short plays. Monsieur Louis Briois gave a delightful morning, speaking with much understanding and feeling on the unknown heroes of France; his talk was interspersed with many beautiful anecdotes, not only of the plain soldier in the trenches but also of the brave mothers and sisters at home. The Spanish department, Miss J. Maud Blanchard, Curator; Señora Aurelia Borquez de Whenthoff, Instructor, continued the work begun last year, using the conversational method; having as text book "A Series of Spanish Conversations in the Conjugational Order"—Whenthoff. This year, however, there were two classes, one for beginners, the other for second year students. Realizing the importance of frequent practice in conversational work in learning a language, several study groups were formed on the Big Sister plan, and regular meetings were held in addition to the classroom work.

The Choral department, Mrs. Reynold Blight, Curator; Mrs. Abbie Norton Jamison, Director; Mrs. Guy F. Bush, Accompanist, gave special attention to Folk Songs, thus getting a fuller understanding of national characteristics. American music was represented by several negro spirituals and by the best known of our patriotic songs. At all times great emphasis was placed upon pure enunciation, and upon the laws of time and rhythm.

Our club year began with thirteen departments and closed with thirteen; one, the Bible department, was discontinued after two meetings, as its Curator, Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, was absent from the city during five months. Another department, "War Economics," was formed, Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt and Mrs. Charles N. Flint, Curators, and weekly meetings were held during two months. Food Conservation, including canning, drying and preserving; Food preparation; Meat and Wheat Substitutes were ably discussed and demonstrated by our speakers, who were mainly from the teaching force of the Home Economics department of our Normal and High Schools. Many valuable recipes were distributed; great stress at all times was laid upon the importance of all housewives abstaining from the use of any wheat whatsoever at the present time, the best substitute being a combination of several other products, as barley, corn flour, rice flour, and potato flour.

An important phase of department activity for the year just closed was the great interest in all that concerned the welfare of our soldiers and sailors. Whatever the cause presented to any department, it met a ready response, were it an opportunity to subscribe for a membership in Red Cross or Red Star, to purchase tickets for Red Cross benefits, to send books and magazines to the camps, or to subscribe to the Furlough Homes, that wonderful movement of the Women's Clubs to provide in France a place of repose far back from the fighting line, for our battle-weary men. During all meetings a large percentage of the members knitted industriously, and the musical click of their needles was the low rhythmic answer of woman to her country's call.

The French department was the first one to undertake any independent war relief; through individual subscriptions of its members it adopted for one year a little mite of a French girl, whose mother had been widowed by the war. This was given as an offering of love and gratitude to the land of Lafayette.

Through the courtesy and kindness of Mr. Samuel J. Keese and his friends (all members of the Autochrome Club) the Social Science department presented a very beautiful entertainment, called An Evening of Color. This included an explanation of the process of the preparation of the plates used in photographing in the natural colors; a very wonderful exhibition of lantern slides, picturing trees, flowers, desert and mountain scenery, all in the natural colors; and most unique of all, the microscopic projection of the growth of crystalline forms in color, as shown by the polariscope. The proceeds of the sale of tickets provided for the relief of one Belgian Baby for one year, and for a six months' scholarship for our local scholarship fund. This fund is used to assist children to remain in school, who, owing to present conditions, might be obliged to become wage earners at too early an age.

For the benefit of our Red Cross Auxiliary fund, the Spanish department gave two representations of "Scenes from Spanish Speaking Countries," being living moving pictures interspersed with song. Many members of the Spanish colony assisted, adding much to the beauty and success of the entertainment, and providing an opportunity for better reciprocal understanding and appreciation between our neighbors to the south and ourselves. The Mexican Market in the patio added a goodly sum to the Red Cross fund. By request, the Spanish entertainment was repeated at the submarine base at San Pedro for the pleasure of the men stationed there.

In keeping with the times, few luncheons were given at the club this year, and then only in celebration of some special occasion. The only exception was the Special Guest luncheon, every first Thursday, immediately following the Social Science Section, and which afforded an opportunity to club members and to local and visiting celebrities to know one another. Our President, Mrs. Chester C. Ashley, presided at these guest luncheons and introduced the speakers.

A warm word of appreciation is due the officers of the departments who gave many hours of their time to provide us all with entertainment and diversion; who furnished us a quiet hour of relaxation with the poets, dramatists and philosophers; who brought speakers on the great questions of the day, who presented squarely and fairly the facts and conditions of the times, and thus helped us to keep a steady, sane grasp of the situation. Sometimes our Curators may have felt that the times were too big, too full of portent for the building of programs, but they went steadily on in the line of accepted duty—truly Soldiers of the Home Guard.

In closing, the writer wishes to pay a tribute of love and appreciation to her able and kind assistant, Mrs. J. Elton Lang, who was ever ready with a smile to do whatever fell to her lot.

Respectfully submitted,
OLIVE R. LEVINSON, General Curator.

Red Cross Report

THE Ebell Auxiliary of the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Red Cross was organized by Mrs. William Read in May, 1917.

Under the leadership of Mrs. O. O. Witherbee during the summer of 1917, the Surgical Dressings instruction was enthusiastically attended by Ebell members. When the Club year opened in October, the Chairman, Mrs. George B. Macaulay, developed a strong corps of instructors. One hundred fifty of the members are enrolled. 12,800 yards of gauze have been used at a cost of $600.00. The cost of the muslin and cotton used make the total expenditure $662.37. The Department has recut large quantities of dressings sent out by Red Cross headquarters.

2,984 yards of muslin and outing flannel were bought at a cost of $451.95. The material for 38 Aviators' Jackets, emblems, needles, thread, tapes and buttons brought this amount to $572.46. 166 suits of pajamas, 482 hospital bed shirts, 25 Aviators' Jackets have been turned in to headquarters, leaving on hand July 1st, 61 suits of pajamas and 13 Aviators' Jackets. 165 hemmed pieces of old linen, 35 miscellaneous articles make a total of 873 articles. All garments were cut under the direction of Mrs. Gustave Pockles.

The work of this Department has been carried on by a group of quiet workers. Sewing is not a novel service appealing to the romantic, but a prosaic everyday task, one performed solely from a truly patriotic sense of duty.

Ebell Rest Cottage

ON December twenty-ninth, nineteen-seventeen, through the generosity and co-operation of Miss Lillian B. Flanders and the Board of the Methodist Hospital of Southern California, Ebell became the owner of a small cottage and large lot in the Oliveta Tract at 1305 West 95th Street.

At this cottage Miss Flanders had helped Ebell to care for many convalescing women and here Ebell purposes maintaining a modest "Home" where the good work may be carried on, where rest and atmosphere may do their part in building up new life in worn bodies and furnishing new strength and courage to weary, flagging spirits.

Since July, nineteen-seventeen, more than a score of women have been sustained and comforted through the trying period of convalescence, at a total cost of four hundred sixty-nine dollars and sixty cents. Only a part of this expense has been paid out of the Ebell treasury, the balance being subscribed by members of the Committee or other outside agencies.

From the Civilian Relief or Red Cross Home Service Committee, from the County Hospital Social Service Committee, and from those in charge of the Johnson Apartments, the Ebell Rest Cottage has received support and co-operation and has tried to reciprocate in kind.

Statement of funds acquired and disbursed by Rest Cottage Committee since January, 1918.
