MRS. WILLIAM SPRINGER BARTLETT

Memorial Mrs. William Springer Bartlett

In ancient Gothic histories a legend survives of certain tried and experienced women in each tribe, who were especially revered as the keepers of the soul and traditions of the race. Such a guardian woman in this later time, Mrs. Bartlett appeared to me.

When we bade good-bye to the dear beauty spot on Figueroa Street that had been the scene of so many happy associations, and moved into this, our magnificent new home, we asked Mrs. Bartlett for an expression of her feeling. These are her words:

"When, thirty-three years ago, a little group of women raised an altar to an ideal they called "Ebell," they could not then see how the years would crown their work.

"The task of the women of today is to carry a coal from that altar to their new home, and to nurture it until it becomes a beacon of inspiration to the city of Los Angeles, even to the nation; and may each member of the club carry as an accolade the motto, 'I serve'."

Then, and since then and today, we have called her "The Spirit of Ebell."

It was she who planted the seed that has grown into this great club. It was Mrs. Bartlett who helped to organize it and set its standards. It was she who unswervingly and continuously has held before us the purposes for which we were organized and the ideals to which we aspire.

She has stood ever on the Watch-tower, alert and anxious always that our standards should not be lowered; and, not content with leadership, she was ever ready to step down into the ranks and lend a hand to any task that was required of her.

In spite of increasing years and crippling illness, she was always able to reach back into the rich storehouse of her memories and bring to us the stimulating results of a lifetime of study and research. Only a few weeks before her death I heard her give a remarkable talk on the "Heroes of the Southland"; and only ten days before her demise, she addressed a meeting at the West Adams Presbyterian Church on the subject "Christmas."

In her brave and gallant way, she often said she had planned to die in the heat of battle—that she never meant to surrender!

Franklina Gray was a child, living in Brooklyn, when Civil War was declared, but her people were of the Old South, and thus it was that all her childhood and young womanhood were colored and clouded by the pain and bitterness that grew out of the historic conflict.

In 1864, when she was eleven years old, she removed with her parents to San Francisco, but returned a year later to Baltimore and entered Patapsco Seminary, where she remained until she was seventeen years old, spending her summers with her uncle at the family estate in Halifax County, Virginia.

Her father, Franklin Gray, was also a Virginian, but prior to his marriage to her mother, Matilda French, he had heard the call of California in the gold rush days, and was one of the intrepid band of young men we call "the forty-niners." Later, he became one of the banking firm of Graham, Gray and Company, and also served his city as Alderman, following the first Charter Election of San Francisco. This accounts in some measure, perhaps, for some of Mrs. Bartlett's abiding love for early California history.

She was surrounded by every comfort and luxury and to her was given every opportunity for education at home and in foreign lands, that wealth and loving care could provide. Her fine mind eagerly grasped all the mental stimulus that came to her, and as the years passed on, bringing changes of scenes and conditions, she came to be sought out for advice and suggestions, in every community in which she lived.

In 1874, the family came to Southern California and in 1876, Franklina Gray became the wife of William S. Bartlett whom we remember as the president of the German American Trust and Savings Bank. They lived for a time in Santa Ana where Mrs. Bartlett organized the Santa Ana Ebell Club, and some years later they established their permanent residence in Los Angeles. It was in 1894 that she, with other charter members, organized The Ebell of Los Angeles, fashioning it after the model of the Oakland Ebell of which she had been a member.

Mrs. Bartlett has long been regarded as one of the commanding leaders of thought in this community, but tribute must also be paid to her for her uncompromising loyalty to her ideals, and to her singlehearted, courageous championship of those principles that she believed to be vital and enduring.

No power was ever able to change the current of her high aspirations nor to weaken, in any way, her impulse toward the goal she had set for herself; not the absorption of family life, with all its implies of personal joy and sorrow and pain and illness, anxiety and hope and struggle of many kinds; not the disillusion that often comes in strange lands, amid new faces and alien customs; not that last corroding ache of disappointment we sometimes experience at the failing enthusiasms of our friends and companions. Throughout the years she has been faithful to her conception of what home and Christian living should be, of civic responsibility, of the urgent duty that each generation owes to the generation that is to follow.

She has held aloft the torch of life and love and beauty that was handed to her at her birth, and its light and warmth and fragrance have gladdened every human heart that has come within its glow.

The Ebell of Los Angeles has honored her as its creator and its foremost leader for forty years, and acknowledging this, each administration, from the first, has looked to her for encouragement and endorsement, knowing that her guidance would be steady, unchanging, helpful and sane.

It was her prayer that she might not falter and that she might serve on to the end; and that prayer was granted. In the fullness of years and in complete possession of her faculties, she "passed from slumber to a dream and from a dream to death."

And now she has gone from us, a radiant spirit, taking its flight just as she would have wished to go—at the Christmas season, while the bells were ringing out tidings of Peace and Goodwill, and the green holly wreaths were giving forth their message of Life Everlasting.

A noble Christian woman, a devoted mother, an honored friend and leader! In your new abode on high, Franklina Gray Bartlett, we salute you!

MRS. GRANTLAND SEATON LONG.

Report of President

For the third time your presiding officer will attempt to give a brief summary of the year's work. The interested members will read in detail the reports of all officers and committee chairmen appearing elsewhere in this year book, because there one will find the real history of this wonderful club of ours. We share alike in the pride of achievement as evidenced by their reports. It is in the cooperation of all members and all workers that the club has maintained its high standard and to all we owe a deep debt of gratitude. The gratification of work well done is surely theirs. A few things may be added to those reports and an analysis of parts of them may present an interesting sidelight on the most interesting and most absorbing experience of many years.

That we have survived the depression as well as we have is very comforting. We have accepted our responsibilities and met all our obligations. To do this, when it is said that sixty per cent of our population is caring for the other forty per cent—to be among the sixty per cent—has required all we possess of courage and resourcefulness. The trend of things is shown in the history of our most important rental. Three years ago we were receiving from this group seven hundred dollars a month for our auditorium; for the past year the same group have given us two hundred fifty dollars for our Fine Arts room and now it is extremely doubtful if they can continue with so great a reduction. But with such a disappointment our rentals show a handsome profit of about fourteen thousand dollars.

We are still the largest Federated club in the city and that probably makes us the largest club in the West. Even so our membership has returned to the level of 2500 or less. However, the interest and enthusiasm is manifested in the attendance, which helps us bear the disappointment of the loss of members. Over a period of three years the attendance at the departments has increased from 21,921 in 1931-1932 to 32,158 in 1934-1935. Because of the reorganization of several departments during the current year, there have been fourteen meetings less than last year and therefore the largest attendance on record was in 1933-1934, when we achieved 35,978. In addition the attendance at the Monday programs has numbered 29,925. These figures attest the attitude of the membership. If our club has been a source of inspiration to this number, if it has been entertainment, if it has been an escape from the worries that beset us all, if it has met the need of any one of these groups, it has been a work worth while. We are truly a pioneer in adult education and "our university" fills a real need in the lives of many women of Los Angeles.

Though Federal Relief has completely changed the type of work of all private agencies, Ebell is still expertly organized for emergency relief, and being so attuned to the needs of the day has met every obligation presented. At that everyone wishes we could have done more. There have been many distressing problems but as in the past, such cases belong to our private files and you would not wish it otherwise. With the adjustments to the prevailing rapidly changing conditions, the welfare work has been particularly difficult but our committees have been both patient and helpful. Theirs has been the most wearying work in the club but their cheerful demeanor under all circumstances quite belies the charge that the burden is heavy.

The refinancing of the mortgage, of the insurance, of the rentals, of the endowment funds of both Scholarship and Rest Cottage—the whole of some and a part of the rest—has been a grave responsibility. We can only hope that the future will show it was wisely done. We were fortunate indeed that Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint, though not obligated to assist in the reorganization of the securities of the Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint Scholarship Endowment Fund, proved themselves willing auditors to the many committee meetings needed for this refinancing. After it was an accomplished fact their approval gave great satisfaction to your committee. In addition they gave to their endowment fund five hundred shares of stock in the Security-First National Bank, quoted today at 41. Every pledge to a student has been fulfilled but we were not able to assign as many new scholarships as formerly. However, fourteen grateful young men and women are happily representing Ebell in our local higher schools of academic culture.

A new departure was the Mortgage Party given by the Former Officers' Round Table, when $1,050 was earned and a brilliant party given in our auditorium. It was a great success in every way. That and the other three parties, sponsored by Practical Relief, Rest Cottage and Scholarship, made this a banner year for benefits,—all of them adding $3,460.16 to our income, giving beautiful entertainment to our members and their friends.

The decrease in income from registration fees and dues has been in a measure offset by the decrease in taxes and interest paid. The amount of interest paid this year is about $3,500 less than three years ago and the amount paid in taxes is about $6,000 less. Our income from all sources, which includes the Former Officers' gift and the $9,000 bequest from Mrs. Oliver Hershman-Martinek's estate (with the approval of her daughter), made it possible for the Board to pay $20,000 on our mortgage. $52,300 has been paid during the past three years. Since December, 1926, the mortgage has been reduced by $285,000. We are not worried about eventually paying it off, particularly as our Figueroa property is again increasing in value. A budget is a wonderfully restraining influence, and while the living within our income has been difficult at times, it also repays in enjoyment such as that which comes from solving a problem in arithmetic. It taxes one's ingenuity but it keeps one very much alert. The Ebell Club is very much indebted to our "ex-officio" members, namely the husbands and friends who have given us legal and financial advice when asked. The contributions of many, many of our own members, both from their talent and from their purses, have helped to maintain our high standard. The reputation that Ebell is such a rich club has to be met repeatedly with the assertion that we are rich in opportunity for service. If one could give only a small measure of the words of praise for our beautiful club house that have been so enthusiastically voiced by our friends, it would fill many pages. Our visitors from far and near are extravagant in their commendation. With such a setting it is all the more necessary that we maintain our high standards of righteous living. So though the financial problem has been always uppermost in our consciousness, because of the depression, we hope we have not forgotten that the real emphasis should always be placed upon the spiritual values.

The theme of the past year has been one of creative work, beginning with the pageant in October, celebrating our fortieth birthday, the Junior Extravaganza, the Shakespeare pageant, poetry, plays and other programs in the departments—all original work. An Ebell play won the prize given by the Festival of Fine Arts group for the best play presented in competition with other federated club plays. It was "The Fox Woman" written by Miss Pauline Curran. Ebell gave a contract prize of $100.00 for the winner of the Little Theatre Groups. "Inglewood Players" thereby gave us our last Monday program.

Two disappointments have come with this year; namely the change from the magazine to a bulletin and the destruction of the Maxine Albro murals in our patio. The former was necessary because of the financial failure of our young publisher and the latter because of the majority ruling. Some of our members really prefer the new bulletin. It is very nice. After two years and two opportunities for expression from the membership as to the fate of the beautiful murals, one can hold no resentment at the outcome because we must abide by our well-known policy of majority rule. One wishes that there had been a larger vote, as only a few over six hundred members voted on this important subject.

Our relation to the outside public has been one of quiet suggestion and cooperation rather than radical expression of a stand upon any subject. However, we sent resolutions to the U.C.L.A. authorities warmly approving the stand taken by Director E. C. Moore against the communistic propaganda on the campus of our State University. We also wrote to the Regents asking for a favorable consideration of establishing a school for Social Service training there. We also protested the tax upon our motion picture industry. We asked to have our streets cleaned and so requested in a letter to Mayor Shaw. A delegate from Ebell attended the Institute of World Affairs at Riverside. We cooperated with the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce in many ways,—welcoming their speakers on our platform for enlightenment upon all kinds of civic enterprises: national trade week and the California International Exposition at San Diego, to name a few. We expressed our interest in retaining the Municipal Art Association; many of us attended the Woman's Civic Conference. Our own Salon of Art has kept in touch with the best that is offered in the field of Fine Arts, bringing celebrated artists to us as well as exhibiting their works. Our annual dinner, honoring our exhibiting artists of the year, when substantial prizes are given, is now recognized as the outstanding art function of Los Angeles. Our usual Thursday Assemblies have brought talented speakers and though the number of dinners has been decreased to one a month, the attendance has been large and our membership has been assured of a brilliant social evening, after a very instructive program. On Wednesday afternoons the Salon of Art has been opened to the public, and the Solarium teas have given our members social relaxation as well as earning a tidy sum for our treasury,—both events being hailed with delight.

Aside from the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint to their Scholarship Endowment Fund, there have been numerous gifts to our Rest Cottage Association, notably among them being the one thousand dollars given by Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, several gifts of pictures to the club, and a bequest of $25,000 from Miss Florence Riley, $10,000 of which was given to the club proper to be used as a payment upon the mortgage if so desired by the Board of Directors. However, it is extremely doubtful if we receive any of Miss Riley's bequest because there is a technicality involved as to whether the will complies with the California law. Being one of our charter members and loving this club for over forty years, it was a beautiful expression of devotion and appreciation from Miss Riley.

One of our most beautiful and impressive services was the special hour honoring our former past president and charter member, Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, who died in January. No one can replace so gifted and talented a member as our own beloved Mrs. Bartlett. A fitting tribute to one so representing the Ebell ideal was given by another past president, Mrs. Grantland Seaton Long, a devoted friend as well. The Shakespeare pageant was given in honor of the great Frederick Warde, who also passed away in the spring, and who has always been associated with our annual celebration of Shakespeare's birthday.

Some unusual opportunities have come to your presiding officer as ex-curricula activities, the high light of all being when Ebell joined with the Club Cooperation group of our Los Angeles Community Chest in giving a luncheon for Mrs. Herbert Hoover. Our First Lady gave a delightful and encouraging talk in our auditorium to six hundred presidents from other clubs. It was interesting to be one of the small executive committee which arranged the first national birthday party for President Roosevelt. It was inspiring to listen to Admiral Joseph Mason Reeves, Commander-in-Chief of our U. S. Fleet, at our Thursday Assembly, honoring the gallant officers of our Navy. The Sunday reception given by our Music Department in honor of Director and Mrs. Otto Klemperer of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra added laurels to our club history. The Japanese Princess, one of the Royal Family of Japan, was entertained by the Board of Directors one Saturday morning. It was intriguing to attend the Labor Conference in San Francisco at the request of the Honorable Secretary of Labor, Frances E. Perkins. It was gratifying to continue as treasurer of the Associated Women's Committee for Unemployment Relief of Women, a connection maintained for five years and one reluctantly relinquished. The last function of the year was the reception honoring the officers and delegates of the American Association of University Women, assembled here for their biennial convention. Dr. Meta Glass, a sister of Senator Carter Glass, is national president of this organization and stood in line with other officers. This was an occasion similar to the receptions of former years when the Board opened the club to receive the women delegates to the Olympic Games and to receive the wives of visiting governors, here for the Western Conference. These have been stimulating contacts.

Reviewing it all one is reminded again of the infinite variety that is Ebell. Whether the greatest pleasure came from sharing an experience near the seats of the mighty, acting as model in the Junior Fashion Show, playing the part of the interlocutor at the Workers' Luncheon (that intimate occasion of our very own), it is hard to tell but one is safe in saying that no state of apathy exists at Ebell. It is an absorbing, stimulating experience to be a worker in so important a community group.

Though in a report like this one is not supposed to mention any names, your Board of Directors, each one of whom presides over a special club activity, and is in every way responsible for the great success of that phase of the whole club work, deserve special words of commendation. The plan developed through these forty years is an admirable example of expert organization and as long as we have such devoted Board members as you have known during these past three years, you can rest assured that the club will wax strong. Working together has been the great satisfaction. It is not the individual that counts. If your particular service has been just one-half hour's service, that brief period is as important as all the rest, because the picture is not complete until each part is well done. The real things of life come to us in this service for others: the deepening friendships, the understanding human frailties. We have extended our own mental horizon, we have educated ourselves better to understand the world problems. In serving others, we have served ourselves and have found anew that work is the greatest gift to man. We have traditions to follow; we must keep abreast of the times; to adjust one to the other, to do the best in every new situation, remembering the past and its policy, requires careful, painstaking endeavor. Your presiding officer has made many failures and deeply regrets them. However, not much time could be spent in contemplation of the mistakes made because too many problems awaited each new day with other and worse pitfalls to be avoided. One is deeply grateful for the honor of such services as Ebell offers. It is a great experience. Surely we can very happily reiterate: "It IS the greatest club in the world."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. SAMUEL CARY DUNLAP, President.

Report of Recording Secretary

It is a pleasure to report briefly that your Recording Secretary has attended every Monday Afternoon Meeting for the past three years, with one exception when it was necessary for the President and the Secretary to be at the bank on Ebell business. She has also attended all Board meetings, including both regular and adjourned sessions and called meetings, as well as all Executive Committee meetings except when absent from the city. For each of these meetings minutes have been prepared and read at the succeeding meeting.

Your Recording Secretary has deemed it a privilege to serve Ebell in this capacity.

Respectfully submitted,
MARGARET B. McGRATH, Recording Secretary.

Report of General Curator

Two words follow us throughout our lives—Hail and Farewell.

It seems but yesterday, our nineteen departments stood at the starting point of the year's work, now we close another chapter, and the record stands for all time.

It must always be a serious thing, to live one's best from day to day, and yet joy in service is continually in the hearts and minds of the curators, as the monthly programs are planned. It is a great opportunity to be the chairman of a department. We frequently hear this expressed; "I get so much more than I give." There is a law of compensation. Give to the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you.

The curators might rightly be called "The Builders," even as Henry Longfellow in a simple little poem brings out the thought, that every hour of our lives we are building characters.

*For the structure that we raise,
Time is with materials filled:
Our todays and yesterdays,
Are the blocks with which we build.*

In this building process, the co-operation between the members and the different sections, is one of the main contributing factors. When a curator sees her department steadily grow in attendance, it naturally spurs her on to greater zeal in her particular line of endeavor.

The two conferences held during the Club year, when all the curators are together for mutual benefit and interchange of ideas, have been a source of inspiration and understanding.

Notwithstanding the fact, there were fourteen meetings less than last year, owing to the combining of the Drama Workshop and Drama Department, also one meeting a month in Parliamentary Law instead of two, the total department attendance for the year 1934-35 was 32,158.

This is a source of great encouragement in reviewing the work and demonstrates that both the Builder and the Receiver must have enthusiasm which means a combination of faith, energy and optimism; faith to overcome obstacles, energy to attend the meetings, optimism that Ebell departments are the best, for the gifts they bring as the days come and go.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES D. HILL, General Curator.

BEDROOM, EBELL REST COTTAGE
MEMORIAL TO MRS ANNE S. TREMPER

Report of Ebell Rest Cottage Association

Rest Cottage, although small in size, wields a mighty influence for good in our community. Sad to relate the "I. Q." average of our guests has been raised considerably since the financial depression, but with it has come a finer appreciation of Ebell's hospitality. So I reverently say, God bless Rest Cottage and its founders. In this quiet, cheerful environment, combined with excellent food, the business woman and the young mother are soon able to again cope with their respective duties and problems.

Rest Cottage is credited with helping many families to hold together, when at the breaking point from ill health and discouragement, and in reuniting other families. Confidential letter files bear testimony to these statements.

Mrs. John B. Long, assistant chairman, reports that we have had two hundred sixteen guests in the Cottage "that the officers all agree that the type of women has been unusually high." She also says, "We know the Cottage has saved the lives of several girls. One girl said, 'No one ever loved me before.' And another, 'I didn't know that there was a place like this where somebody cared.' And so we go on to another year with greater faith in the benefit of Rest Cottage."

Mrs. Louise Helen Kramer, house chairman, tells us that many valuable gifts have been received at the Cottage. A beautiful seven-piece bedroom set given by Mr. Staples in memory of his sister and our club member, Mrs. Anne S. Tremper, a silver tea service by Mrs. John W. Musselman, in memory of her husband and many valuable gifts by Mrs. Kramer, which she failed to report, have been given. Many members have contributed generously.

Mrs. James Andrew Rogers, finance chairman, has practiced alert, watchful waiting and thereby saved us money. All the investments made by the present committee, serving three years, are paying interest. The chairman says, "that our finances have held up wonderfully well during the times of depression." For financial statement in full we refer you to the treasurer's report on another page.

Mrs. Jess E. Wilson is planning with the advice of an experienced landscape gardener, "to have flowers blooming every month of the year; a friendship garden for choice bulbs and flowers, gifts to the Cottage, and a rose garden; through the medium of flowers to bring new hope to our guests."

Mrs. Herbert Chesshire Stone, membership chairman, has, with the assistance of her committee, collected fifteen hundred dollars in memberships. She reports two life memberships: Miss Ada A. McClelland and Mrs. Frances A. Stribling; a memorial membership given by Mrs. John Pierce Herrick for her mother, Mrs. Joseph A. Brown.

Dr. J. Margaret Roberts, chairman of investigations, reports that her committee has made one hundred eighty-five investigations. Miss Clemence A. Renard, chairman of transportation, records eighty-two calls made. Mrs. Jack Armstrong Jevne, chairman of follow-up committee, has made eighty visits, frequently carrying with them material aid.

Mrs. Charles Ashworth Stavnow and the hospitality committee have served with efficiency in their many and varied activities this year, beginning with the workers' luncheon at the Cottage in October; then the Christmas party given at the Club on December the fifteenth for women who have been guests at the Cottage. Each dinner seems to surpass the preceding one in friendliness and loveliness. This year the benefit party was added to the duties of the hospitality committee. From the proceeds of this party, we were able to reimburse the Ebell treasury for the amount of its yearly allotment, nine hundred dollars to Rest Cottage. The other committees gladly assisted the hospitality in every way desired. At the benefit party, Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher gave Rest Cottage a most generous gift, a check for one thousand dollars which has been placed in the endowment fund. The closing meeting of the year was followed by a delightful picnic.

Mrs. Allen C. Stelle and the field survey committee visited many interesting places this year. They brought instructive accounts of these visits to the meetings. The Needlework Guild was able to give us, this year, the articles most needed.

The opportunity to work for Rest Cottage is a priceless privilege and in saying this, I voice the enthusiasm of the officers, chairmen and committees.

And now for the traditional postscript. Since writing the above report, we are happy to announce that Mr. Alva S. Staples has taken out a Memorial Membership for his sister and our member, Mrs. Anne S. Tremper.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WILLIAM R. WHERRY,
Chairman of Ebell Rest Cottage Association.

Report of Scholarship Committee

The Ebell Scholarship work has had a very good year. In September, 1934, we had fourteen students enrolled, two of whom were graduated in February, at which time we awarded two new scholarships. In June five more completed their University courses and we are confident that we will be able to fill these vacancies in September. The Ebell Juniors will support two half scholarships with us next year. One of our students, Harry Koons, will be awarded a fifth year so that he may receive his Master's degree at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena, having received his degree in Science there this year.

As will appear in the financial report further on, quite a few of the Scholarship investments have been sold and the money re-invested. This was necessary, primarily, because of re-organizations and changes in the companies in which our funds were invested.

The money which supports the Ebell Scholarships is derived from four sources: (a) income from the Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Flint Scholarship Endowment Fund, (b) income from the Ebell Endowment Fund, (c) a monthly appropriation from the Ebell treasury and (d) gifts from members of the club.

This Ebell Scholarship work, which we define as an educational activity, by assisting so many young people through Universities, is a noble work and the members of Ebell may be justly proud of it.

Report of Former Officers' Round Table

The Former Officers have had four meetings during the club year; a tea at the home of the chairman, where plans were made for the evening of Grand Opera given November twenty-first; a luncheon on the president's Wednesday; a business meeting and a tea in the Solarium; a luncheon with a short musical program and election of officers on June sixth. Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap, president, gave a review of all the activities of the club during the past year.

The evening of opera cleared one thousand fifty dollars, which amount was placed in the mortgage fund.

Report of Practical Relief Committee

The Ebell Practical Relief has worked under a new policy this year in order to cooperate with changed conditions in city and county welfare work. When Federal funds became available for use, needy families who had for years depended on our Practical Relief for food, clothing and spending money were put on county lists or on S.E.R.A. projects. This left us free to concentrate on the care of emergency cases,—clothing for school boys and girls, layettes for depression babies, and bedding, spectacles, shoes and groceries for special needs. Inasmuch as the garments most in demand could be purchased so cheaply ready-made, we have discontinued the making of such articles, except that about 100 comforts and garments already on hand were finished. The Council of Social Agencies helped us in checking our individual cases, so that we were able to work more intelligently and avoid duplication. We have tried to keep within a definite territory and not encroach upon the boundaries of other welfare groups. However, club members, persons recommended by club members, and school and college girls and boys have been served without obtaining such clearance.

At our monthly meetings the heads of various welfare agencies came to tell us of their field and of what we can do to help them. Miss Alice Streckwald spoke on what is being done by the Children's Protective Association; Mr. Adams of the Children's Home Finding Society, told of their work; Miss Mary Stanton gave us an insight into the work of the Council of Social Agencies; Mrs. McKinley of the Home Service Department of the Red Cross, explained the scope of that organization; Miss Irene Dudley told about the Day Nursery of the Goodwill Industries; and Miss E. A. Valens of the Children's Hospital told of the out patients' department. Mrs. Chester C. Ashley, our special assistant chairman, gave us at each meeting an introductory talk which connected the speaker's activities with those of the Community Chest and explained the relationship between the various relief agencies in the city.

The committee has not limited its work to Fridays but has been busy many mornings each month arranging and giving out the garments donated by club members, and preparing layettes, for which there is a great demand. Representatives from the Practical Relief have attended four meetings of the Associated Women's Committee for Unemployment Relief, and five meetings of the Association of Volunteers in Social Service held at the Hamburger Home.

We have received 919 useful used garments or other items as gifts; we have purchased 145 adult items, 18 doz. baby garments, and 55 doz. diapers; we have knit 18 baby sweaters, and made some 50 other baby garments. We have distributed 891 garments, 30 layettes and 173 yards of goods. 26 boxes of foodstuffs were given out, mostly at Christmas. Approximately $105 has been spent in direct relief. Seven bags of miscellaneous articles, unsuited to our purposes, have been given to the Goodwill Industries. In many cases, dress goods and accessories were given to women who were able to make their own garments, thus increasing their feeling of self reliance. For needs such as eyeglasses, children's shoes, etc., cash was given so that proper fittings could be made.

We have made no appeals from the stage for money for Christmas or any special use, nor have we solicited directly from members, but we gave one large party this year which netted $1,196.00, much more than enough to supply our budget for the year.

Report of Salon of Art

Nine exhibitions of paintings, sculpture and prints, and two of miniatures, all of wide variety, were shown in the galleries the past year. Most of these works of art were by California artists and were assembled from the far-flung corners of our country, from New England to Honolulu. We sincerely hope they have brought pleasure to the members of Ebell. That our club is an art-loving organization is evidenced by the ever increasing crowds gathered in the Salon of Art during the busy days throughout the year, and it is that interest which has made the work seem very much worthwhile. Now that it is becoming known that we share the beauties of our galleries, there are many visitors from our own city and out-of-town guests who avail themselves of the "open house," Wednesdays. The guest book records names from all over the world.

The Art Patrons are a social-minded group, as well as art-lovers, and each month some event has been planned by the social chairman, Mrs. Robert M. Hartwell and her committee, usually combining luncheon or tea with a little journey to some shrine of art. The opening party of the season was an evening reception on October the fourth, honoring the California Art Club, whose members were exhibiting in the galleries that month. Two Assembly Dinners were sponsored by the committee. The Christmas party, when the club was gay with the "white Christmas" motif, was an evening we will always remember. In May during the annual competitive showing of California artists, more than one hundred of the artists who had loaned their works for exhibition, were entertained at dinner, with some three hundred club members and their guests. On that evening the Art Patrons were happy to present fourteen prizes, amounting to six hundred fifteen dollars. Three hundred twenty-five dollars of this amount was given by generous donors among the members: Mrs. Willitts J. Hole, Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap, Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, Mrs. R. T. Burge, Mrs. William Clark Brown and Mrs. S. D. Tuttle. The remaining amount came from the Art Patrons' treasury. The closing social day of the season was an afternoon at the charming country home of Mr. H. B. Nelles of Van Nuys.

Sales aggregating something over seven hundred dollars have been made by the sales committee and others and, while Ebell receives no commission in money from these sales, we are gratified to be able to do something for the artists who show a fine spirit of cooperation towards the club and this branch of its work.

Many are the expressions of appreciation from them for "the constructive work Ebell is doing for a better Art understanding in Los Angeles."

We wish we might mention by name every member of the committees. They have done splendid work and the chairman is happy to have served with them, and regrets the ending of this year of fine friendships and contacts made.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. GEORGE HARRIS COOK, Chairman.

Report of President of Ebell Juniors

Annual reports of any organization are apt to be dull, mundane matters unless those who read them can visualize clearly the fine type of activity which lies back of the compilation of figures and statistics.

A story of friendliness and cooperation lay behind every report that a committee chairman presented at the final Junior luncheon on June 12, and as outgoing Junior president I am proud indeed to set down the combined results of a year of varied and profitable activity.

Because it is the one department which works whole-heartedly for others, we list first the work of the Social Welfare Committee. Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Wellman B. Mills, this department held eighteen meetings during the year with an average attendance of about twenty members. On these occasions eighty-five children's dresses, with matching "shorts" and ten pairs of rompers were made for distribution to needy families. During the year eight families, with a total of twenty-six children, were cared for and upon the chairman's books are listed such items as: 32 pairs of shoes, 60 pairs of socks, 10 sets of underwear, 1 brace for a little victim of infantile paralysis, 14 well-filled Christmas baskets and many other items. Mrs. Mills, to whom we extend grateful credit for her great personal interest and labor, was aided by two assistants, Miss Ellen O. Mead and Miss Frances Audrey Stevens.

"The Talk of the Town," was indeed that, when the drama department presented it on December 7, in Ebell Auditorium. Its success called for a second performance, and it appeared as a regular Monday afternoon program at Ebell in February. Mrs. Robert M. Hixson, chairman of the drama committee, wrote the Extravaganza. Her drama department met twice a month throughout the year at the homes of members. Their year's work culminated in the production of a mystery comedy, "Strange Guests," produced under the direction of Robert Frazer as the program for the regular Junior meeting in May. Mrs. Hixson had as assistant chairman Miss Lillian D. Howard.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Kenneth D. Holland the Benefits Committee entertained with two parties during the year; a dinner dance at the Victor Hugo and a spring fashion luncheon given at the clubhouse. The latter event yielded $190.00 for the treasury.

Junior membership on May 31 included two hundred thirty-six members, forty of whom were new members, according to Miss Albertina M. McGrath, courtesy chairman.

Under Mrs. Harvey Lee Moore, the Junior Tea Committee served tea following the eight monthly meetings, and cooperated with the drama department in serving refreshments following the Extravaganza presentation in December.

Mrs. Frederick M. Hughes, Treasurer, submits the following financial report:

Balance on hand July 1, 1934.....		$ 738.08

Junior Book Chamber met twice monthly throughout the year at the homes of members under the chairmanship of Mrs. John W. Spellman.

Bridge teas were given monthly on last Fridays under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Antrim Hague, whose ably conducted Monday morning bridge tournaments were a charming feature of her committee's activities. She was assisted by Mrs. Charles E. Currey and Mrs. Olander L. Hammond, Jr.

Mrs. John Martin Askey presided over a four-section Athletic Committee, culminating the year's activities with sports day at the Los Angeles Tennis Club on June 4. Her assistant chairmen were Miss Betty White (tennis), Miss Katharine Horshel (swimming), Mrs. Gerald Moon (shooting), Miss Eline T. West (riding).

Miss Marjorie Louise Martin, program chairman, presented the following monthly programs:

OCTOBER—Fashion Show and skit presented by our own members with clothes by courtesy of Bullock's.

NOVEMBER—Lecture, on Tibet, by Miss Doris Shelton.

JANUARY—Musical Travelogue by Celeste Nellis Ryus.

FEBRUARY—Lecture, The Destiny of American Civilization, Captain Paul Perigord of the University of California at Los Angeles.

[The EBELL of Los Angeles]

MARCH—A "home talent" program presented by our members, Miss Katherine Loughman, pianist, Mrs. Lawrence E. Martin, who reviewed Pearl Buck's "A House Divided," and Mrs. John Polkinghorn, who spoke on puppeteering.

APRIL—Speaker, Alma Whitaker, pithy columnist on the Los Angeles Times.

MAY—Three-act play, "Strange Guests," presented by Ebell Juniors Drama Section.

Ebell Juniors this year maintained a scholarship for a young woman student at U.C.L.A. and, an innovation, financed a Girl Scout "Campership."

Tribute should be paid at this time to our three Ebell Junior advisors, Mrs. Emmet H. Wilson, chairman, Mrs. Ralph B. Lloyd and Mrs. Harry Philp.

To Mrs. Samuel Cary Dunlap, Ebell President, I extend on behalf of the Juniors heartfelt thanks for her generous help and kind understanding. On my own behalf I tender sincere gratitude for a sweet friendliness and a model in office that was inspiring always.

To the Junior Board and the many members who helped make the past year a success I am gratefully indebted.

Respectfully submitted,

SECTION 4. A member who resides more than thirty-five (35) miles from the city, making possible only an occasional attendance at the regular meetings of the Club, shall, upon written application each year and with the consent of the Board of Directors, be classed as a non-resident member and have one-half of her dues remitted. She may have admission cards to one-half of the regular meetings which the Juniors are permitted to attend. She shall not be eligible to election to office or to serve on committees.

SECTION 5. A member who is an employee and whose hours of employment are such as to make possible only an occasional attendance at the regular meetings of the Club, may, upon written application each year and with the consent of the Board of Directors, have one-half of her dues remitted; she may have admission cards to one-half of the regular meetings which the Juniors are permitted to attend. She shall not be eligible to election to office or to serve on committees.

SECTION 6. A member who is absent from the city for one year or more may, upon written application each year and with the consent of the Board of Directors, pay one-half of the yearly dues from the date of her departure provided, however, her dues are not in arrears at the time of application. She shall receive a certificate of membership in lieu of a regular membership card.

ARTICLE VIII

MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The regular meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held on the first Tuesday of each month.

The regular meetings of the Ebell Juniors shall be held on the second Tuesday of each month from October to June inclusive, excepting December.

SECTION 2. All departments of Ebell shall be open to Ebell Juniors on the same terms as to regular members.

SECTION 3. Ebell Juniors may have the privilege of attending nine regular Monday meetings during each year.

ARTICLE IX

ELECTIONS

SECTION 1. Each member of the Executive Committee shall be elected for one year at the regular meeting in May. No member shall be eligible to serve two consecutive years in the same office.

Election shall be by ballot and a plurality vote shall elect at any election.

Nominations

SECTION 2. The names of the candidates for office shall be placed on the ballot through a Nominating Committee consisting of five members. Two members of this committee, a chairman and an assistant chairman, shall be appointed by the Executive Committee at its regular meeting preceding the regular meeting of the Juniors in March; the other three members shall be elected from the floor at the regular meeting in March. Vacancies occurring in the Nominating Committee shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 3. On or before April first the Nominating Committee shall meet to nominate candidates for each office to be filled. All nominations must be approved by the Board of Directors before being published in the May issue of the Ebell Magazine.

The Nominating Committee must obtain the consent of each candidate before placing her name on the ballot.

SECTION 4. At the regular meeting in April, the Nominating Committee, through its chairman, shall report to the Juniors the names of the nominees it has selected for each office to be filled.

Nominations from the floor shall be called for and if there are no further nominations, the report of the Nominating Committee shall be accepted. This report shall be published in the May issue of the Ebell Magazine.

Election

SECTION 5. All matters pertaining to the election shall be arranged by an Election Board of three members, two of whom shall be elected by the members at the regular meeting in April. The other member shall be elected by the Executive Committee at its regular meeting in April and must be a member of that Committee.

SECTION 6. It shall be the duty of the Election Board to cause to be printed ballots upon which shall be placed, in alphabetical order, the names of the candidates for each office, with as many blanks as there are offices to be filled.

Balloting shall take place at the hours set by the Executive Committee and published with the report of the Nominating Committee in the May issue of the Ebell Magazine. At least two members of the Election Board must be present during the balloting. Each member shall be required to register before casting her ballot. Only members whose dues are paid to date shall vote at annual elections.

The Chairman of the Election Board shall announce the result of the election at the close of the regular meeting in May.

The Election Board shall place the counted ballots in the ballot box, seal, and deliver it to the Financial Secretary of the Club. These ballots shall be given to the Junior Advisor on the Board of Directors who shall report the results of the election at the next regular meeting of that Board.

SECTION 7. The installation of officers shall take place at the regular meeting in June. They shall enter upon their duties July first provided, however, that the President for the ensuing year shall call the incoming Executive Committee together for the appointment of standing committees.

ARTICLE X AMENDMENTS

These rules may be amended at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors by a majority vote. Notice of such amendments shall be given at the previous meeting.

Whereas, the provisions of these By-Laws require the signature of each member of the Ebell Juniors; and whereas, those who have already signed the Junior By-Laws have, by such signing, bound and pledged themselves to abide by the Rules and Regulations of the Club; and whereas, we as citizens of the United States of America enjoy the protection of its government: therefore we do hereby, in signing these By-Laws, pledge ourselves to uphold the provisions of the Constitution of the United States of America and also to abide by the Rules and Regulations of the Club.

Standing Rules

Admission to all meetings shall be by card of current term only.

Regular members may bring three guests to all open Monday afternoon programs by paying fifty cents each.

Junior members shall be privileged to attend one Monday program each month and may bring three guests to such meetings, by paying fifty cents each.

No person eligible to membership shall be admitted as a guest to more than two Monday afternoon meetings in one year.

Auditorium guest tickets are sold by the Guest Ticket Committee at the Lucerne Boulevard and Eighth Street entrances. Regular members will receive ten guest cards for departments; one-half to be issued October first and one-half March first.

Calling cards may be used for guests in the Bible and Public Affairs Departments.

Any member of an out-of-town federated club may, on presentation of credentials, receive a complimentary guest card good for ten days.

Current membership cards will serve as cards of introduction to federated clubs of other cities.

New members notified of their election during February or June shall pay dues from March first and October first, respectively.

Applications for non-resident rates will not be granted after October first for the ensuing year, or after March first for the last half of the year.

Endorsers of temporary membership applicants must state length of time applicants have been in Los Angeles and probable length of stay. All applications must be made in writing each year and the membership must be continuous from the date upon which it is granted.

Canvassing for funds to provide gifts for curators, instructors or officers is definitely against the policy of the Club.

No appeals for financial aid shall be made from the platform or in the club rooms except by permission of the President and Board of Directors; nor shall there be any personal canvass for funds, but a table may be so placed that voluntary contributions may be received.

It is against the policy of Ebell for its members to solicit gifts, commissions or favors from merchants or commercial concerns of any kind.

Curators, committee chairmen and others arranging for called meetings in the club house shall notify the office stating the time and place of meeting.

Ebell seeks information on legislative measures, but does not endorse partisan political measures or persons.

A member may not represent Ebell on any outside committee unless so appointed by the President or Board of Directors.

No refreshments are to be served at any time in the Lounge, except to the Reception Committee, and for major benefits within a designated area.

Luncheon tickets will be on sale in the Galeria every club day from one-half hour before the department meets to 1:00 p.m. At other times they may be procured at the office.

Reservations for the Thursday Assemblies will close by 5:00 p.m. of the day preceding.

Tables may be reserved for Departments and other groups.

It is a rule of the Club that there shall be no tipping.

Notices

Office open daily from 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M.; Saturday, 8:30 A.M. to 12:00 M.

Departments are open to all members of Ebell.

The Bulletin Board will note any change in date of meetings.

The Charter Day reception will be held on the last Monday in October.
