The Ebell

Dr. Adrian Ebell, a distinguished German scholar, realizing woman's limited opportunity for mental development and the necessity of fitting her to cope more effectively with the strenuous and complex forms of modern life, conceived the idea of establishing an international academy with headquarters at Berlin and tributary chapters in all parts of the world, for the object of developing feminine mentality along serious and scientific lines.

The first of the several chapters on the Pacific Coast bearing his name was the Oakland Ebell, organized in 1876. The Los Angeles Ebell, established in 1894, with its central organization and various study departments, was modeled upon the same lines as this admirably planned Mother Club.

Annual Report of the Recording Secretary

Another year of progress marks the history of Ebell. Whether the aim has been for pleasure or for profit undoubtedly each member must feel that she has received a large measure of that which she most coveted.

Financially, the Club is in a very gratifying condition, as it now owns 2875 shares of the Ebell Building Association Stock.

There have been one hundred ninety-seven new members received during the year; two qualified as Life Members, eleven as Associate and twenty-seven as Temporary. Eighteen members have resigned. It is with sorrow we record that twelve received the final summons and have passed over into the Great Beyond. The total number of regular members is now 1148. ✓

At the Monday afternoon programs three thousand five hundred ninety-seven guests have been entertained. The Club is greatly indebted to the Program Committee, Mrs. John Haywood Francis, Chairman, for thirty-four afternoon programs, beside the Charter Day reception, an evening of music and social enjoyment in connection with the Arts and Crafts Exhibit, the Children's Christmas Party, an Exhibit of Applied Work of the Los Angeles Public Schools and the Annual Luncheon.

There have been eighteen lectures, eleven musicales, one dramatic sketch and four readings.

In the lectures given a wide diversity of subjects was presented. What our attitude toward human progress should be was revealed to us by Dr. Robert J. Burdette in his lecture on "Human Orientation." Mr. John Vance Cheney touched our hearts with poetic sentiment in the reading of his original verse and an address on "Our Inheritance Here in this Southland." With stereopticon we were thrice carried across the waters to entrancing scenes in Europe; Prof. Haig Arklin took us on a visit to the famous Art Galleries in his lecture on "Masterpieces of Art;" by word and by picture Mr. B. R. Baumgardt in "Athens and the Golden Age of Pericles," portrayed the indebtedness of modern civilization to the ancient Greek for art, philosophy, poetry and architecture; and Mrs. W. S. Bartlett graphically described the Passion Play as she had seen it at Oberammergau.

The ever-recurring and ever-important topic of woman was twice discussed; Mrs. Charles Louis Michod tracing the intellectual development of woman from primitive ages to the present time, and Prof. John H. Francis in his theme, "Some Problems Common to Club Women and the Public Schools," showing how the home ought to co-operate with the school in the development of the child.

Some of the grave problems of human existence were treated by Rev. Dana W. Bartlett in a stereopticon talk on "Life's Contrasts," and by Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells in "Some Side Lights on the Social Question."

An interesting phase of modern art was presented in the Arts and Crafts Exhibit, which was supplemented by the instructive addresses of Miss Leta Horlock-er, Miss May Gearhardt and Mr. Hector Alliot.

To be permitted to see an unknown land through the eyes of another was our delightful privilege in the "Travel Sketch—Porto Rico" by Dr. John Willis Baer. The heart was thrilled with patriotism on Abraham Lincoln Anniversary Day by Miss Frances M. Richardson's address on the "Growth and Triumph of the American Flag," and by the presentation to the Club of a beautiful flag by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Coleman.

How to use some of the mysterious powers of the mind in a practical way was scientifically discussed by Mr. Richard Ingalese in his lecture on "Practical Occultism." To the ardent devotee of books, Mr. Arthur E. Bostwick gave special pleasure in his talk on "The Companionship of Books." No other lecture during the year was so unique as that of Mr. Henry Oldys on "Bird Notes"—his imitation of bird songs by whistling being marvelous.

Some legislative affairs were ably presented by Senators Leslie R. Hewitt and Lee C. Gates.

Miss Katherine West Nathan cleverly illustrated the art of amusement in her dancing and her talk on the "Evolution of National, Court and Drawing Room Dances."

A new feature introduced on the programs this year was a preliminary talk before the regular program by a representative person on some theme pertaining to the advancement of the city or the welfare of the community. Those who have appeared in this capacity are Mr. D. E. Luther, Mrs. Von Wagner, Mr. Hughes, Miss Bessie Stoddard, Dr. P. V. K. Johnson, Mr. William Spalding, Mr. W. A. Alderson and Dr. Luella Clay Carson. Others who have spoken before the Club but whose names did not appear on the regular program are, Dr. Erwin S. Chapman, Mrs. Harriet W. Myers, Mr. Miller of the State Normal School and Mr. Norman Hackett.

The musical afternoons have given much pleasure to large and enthusiastic audiences. Two song recitals, one by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Balfour and the other by Mr. Arthur Alexander, awaken delightful memories. To the Dominant Club Quartette Ebells is especially grateful as the musical numbers most greatly enjoyed were the original song compositions of one of our own members, Mrs. William H. Jamison.

Groups of songs by Miss Jean Clerihew and Mr. Fred G. Ellis were most charmingly rendered. To Mrs. Grace Widney Mabey and Mr. Homer Grunn, Miss Margaret Goetz and Mrs. Gertrude Ross we offer deepest appreciation. A Christmas Song Cycle by

Miss Mary Carter assisted by Mrs. William H. Jamison portrayed most vividly the story of the Christ-Child.

A program of musical enjoyment was a group of children's songs of her own composition sung by Mrs. John J. Abramson. This was accompanied by the exceedingly artistic telling of some children's stories by Miss Fannie E. Foote.

In two lecture-recitals given, one by Dr. Bruce Gordon Kingsley and the other by Mrs. Edward Mac Dowell, assisted by Miss Zerlina Bartholomew, there was a happy combination of entertainment and instruction.

A chorus in costume of National Folk Songs under the direction of Miss Margaret Goetz was not only pleasing to the ear but beautiful to the eye. Ebells counted herself especially favored in being permitted to listen to Miss Olga Steeb in a piano recital. An afternoon with the Glee Clubs and orchestras of the Los Angeles and Polytechnic High Schools, under the leadership of Miss Verna Blythe and Mrs. Gertrude Parsons, demonstrated the fine work being done in our city schools. Others who have assisted on musical programs are Miss Lorna Gregg, Mrs. Wallace Cahill Ayer, Mrs. Harmon Ryus, Mr. J. P. Dupuy, Mr. Will Garaway, Miss Florence Gratrix, Miss Hazel Peterson, Miss Irma Hahn, Mr. Ernest E. Pither, Mr. Baxter and Mmes. Menasco and Adolph Fleischman.

Among readings and plays we are pleased to note "Prophecy and Fulfillment—the Bible" by Miss Ida M. Leonard, "The Shepard" by Mrs. Cora Mel Patton, "A Kentucky Cardinal" by Mrs. Katherine Wisner McCluskey, "The Piper" by Mrs. George Goldsmith, and a Dramatic Sketch by Miss Marjorie Rambeau.

The Ebells Children's Christmas Party brought much joy to two hundred eighty-three children, but it is safe to say that the little hearts made truly the happiest were the three hundred sixty-nine settlement children entertained the next day—children whose moments of supreme happiness are very rare.

The growth of Ebell is in no way more forcibly shown than in the increased interest in the following nine departments, which work along different lines, yet all unite in one aim, the development of the individual. Thirty mornings the members of the Department of French met under the able instruction of Prof. Alliot, with Mrs. L. R. Quint as Curator. The members of the Department of Expression wandered far afield in thought and consequent expression, with Emerson for their guiding star, and with Mrs. W. L. Jones, Curator, and Mrs. J. W. Holder, assistant, to see that the wagon was ever "hitched to the star." The Department of Shakespeare, with Mrs. Edward North as Instructor and Mrs. F. W. Beau de Zart as Curator, spent fifteen profitable mornings carefully studying the three great Roman Plays. The Department of Art and Travel visited England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Miss Alice Mitton was the Instructor and Mrs. B. N. Pratt Curator. The Department of Music, with Mrs. Harmon Ryus, Curator, has had fourteen Wagnerian lecture-recitals of unparalleled interest, in which Dr. Kingsley completed the exposition of "The Ring of the Niebelung," with a final concert-review of the year's work. The Department of Books and Conversation, with Mrs. George Goldsmith as Curator, held seven enthusiastic meetings. The work ranged from the classics to the latest books and dramas. Mrs. W. S. Cross was chairman of the Hospitality Committee, and managed the luncheons more than ably. The Department of Science has been carried through the year with a committee of six strong members, with Mrs. D. K. Dickinson, Curator, as chairman. Each member of this committee furnished a speaker for one morning, making seven lectures in all, the subjects being as varied as the callings of the various speakers. And "last but not least," the Department of Drama, with Mrs. Ada Henry Van Pelt, Curator, held fourteen meetings, when different phases of the Drama were presented.

Books for the Club library have been bought from time to time, the most notable being the latest edition of the Century Dictionary.

That Ebell does not exist for self-culture alone is proven by the good work of the Civics and Philanthropy Committee, Mrs. W. R. Dickinson chairman. Space permits of the special mention of but two facts: The securing of two hundred ninety-six dollars for the scholarships, and the furnishing of the model bungalow at the Utah Street School.

Other committees that have contributed to the pleasure and success of the Club, and especially of the Monday afternoons, are the House Committee, Mrs. Edwin A. Curtis chairman, whose ministrations added social enjoyment to the tea rooms; the Courtesy Committee, Mrs. Reuben Shettler chairman, whose gracious cordiality made the member and the guest alike feel welcome; the Credential Committee, Mrs. Malone Joyce chairman, who so tactfully guarded the doorway; the Ushers Committee, Mrs. Samuel V. McClure chairman, who so carefully ministered to the comfort of the audiences; and the Decorating Committee, Miss May Neill chairman, whose services added beauty and attractiveness to the stage and the reception rooms.

During the year the Club has been the recipient of useful and handsome gifts from Mrs. Henry Valk, Mrs. Nell D. Brooker, Mrs. M. M. Ritterband, Mrs. Alexander Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Coleman. Mrs. F. W. Johnson, Mrs. Philip Gengembre Hubert, Mrs. James Warren Holder, Mrs. J. H. Miles and many others donated books, clothing, money and other gifts in aid of the benevolences of the Club.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. C. SMITHER,
Recording Secretary.
