The Ebell

THE EBELL CLUB OF LOS ANGELES was organized in 1894 on lines similar to the Ebell of Oakland, California, which was founded in 1876 by Doctor Adrian Ebell of Berlin. It consists of a central organization with a system of study departments.

In 1897 the Club was incorporated and in this year joined the General Federation. In 1900 it became a Charter Member of the State Federation.

In 1903 the Ebell Building Association was incorporated with power to issue stock, buy and sell real estate and build and own buildings—the Ebell, as a literary organization, having no power to issue stock.

In 1905-6 a lot was purchased and the present club house erected, the Ebell eventually becoming the sole owner of the stock.

The active membership of the Club is limited to 1550, with a waiting list.

The growth and success of the society is due not only to the broad and carefully laid foundation planned by its organizers, but to the conscientious and efficient work of each succeeding administration, in the building of the superstructure.

With the stress and the bigness of the times making us all more sober, more anxious to solve this riddle of life, we shall consider those books, periodicals, and reviews, that treat of current events; also, other literary works, that, by their breadth of vision, by their exuberance of humor and sympathy interpret the Passing in terms of the Permanent. So may we learn by a wider understanding, something of the meaning of Life, and be able to say with Robert Browning:

*"Our times are in His hand
Who saith 'A whole I planned,
Youth shows but half; trust God: see all nor be afraid!'"*

President's Report

As the horizon of the individual woman has been widened by the opening of new doors of opportunity and responsibility since the granting of Suffrage—so the horizon of the Club has been immeasurably extended by our interest in the stupendous world events of the past year.

The unusually large number of measures of great import to women that have been before our State Legislature and the Congress of the United States have received our close consideration. Letters and telegrams have been sent to our Senators and Representatives urging the establishment of a Woman's Bureau; an appropriation to enforce the Child Labor Laws; the purchase of certain lands adjoining the Yosemite Valley to include certain wonderful mountains and waterfalls; National Prohibition; prohibition of the use of grains for the manufacture of liquors during the war; inauguration of a franking system for all soldiers' mail from abroad and from training camps. Local and State legislative measures have also received our attention and action and we feel that we have stood for right and justice as true women should.

Your President has served on committees of many Civic organizations:— Chamber of Commerce Survey Committee of Billboards; Chamber of Commerce Special Power Bond of committee of seven; Organization Committee of New Jail Association; Prisoners' Aid Society; Director of Morals Efficiency Committee; Vice-President of Japan Society and Director of the Los Angeles Branch American Red Cross.

The crisis in our national affairs caused by the Great War has found us ready to serve — we have formed a large and active Ebell Auxiliary to the Red Cross, making many dozen hospital garments, forming four classes for Home Nursing and two classes in Surgical Dressings. We have also cooperated with the National Council of Defense in the sale of Liberty Bonds and the distribution of seven hundred copies of the President's War Message to the City High Schools. Hundreds of our women have signed the G. F. W. C. pledge for plain living and later the Hoover Food Pledges. The Club and individual members gave five hundred dollars for Y. M. C. A. work in Military Camps and five hundred seventy three dollars and seventy-five cents was raised in one afternoon by voluntary offerings for the National Red Cross Fund Drive. Our Red Cross work has continued through the summer and we stand ready to devote our best energies to our Country's needs in the coming year.

New opportunities and responsibilities call for our highest and best endeavor and freely as we have received as a Club so freely shall we give of our substance and of ourselves that at the end of another year we may look back with pride to feel that we have done what we could to alleviate the suffering and need of the world and to uphold the honor and dignity of womanhood.

So do we face the unknown future with high courage, with faith and determination to uphold the ideals of Democracy, of Liberty and of Service.

Report of the Recording Secretary

1916-1917

ON the second day of October, 1916, Ebell's twenty-second Club year was begun, to draw to a close on June twenty-fifth, 1917; a year unprecedented in its history, with its augmented Departmental work, enlarged field of Philanthropies and Social Service and its activities to meet the needs of the crisis which is rocking the world today, the Great War.

Members who used to attend the more superficial programs, come now to help in the work of mercy and relief, to make garments and bandages and to learn the care of the sick and wounded, while intelligent investigation has brought to their observance cases of illness and need at home.

Never have women responded as they have to this call, never have they held so much at stake.

Mrs. Ashley assumed the Presidency realizing from previous experience the import of her office, and during the year has given unstintedly of her time and thought, not only to the Club but to Committees and Conferences where her presence was desired.

Mrs. Grantland S. Long, First Vice-President, presided at the Board meetings during the summer, as Mrs. Ashley, owing to illness in the family, was obliged to be absent. As Chairman of the Printing and Red Cross Nursing Committees, her influence has been widely felt.

Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, Second Vice-President, as Chairman of the Program Committee has supplied thirty-eight Monday programs, and has been of great assistance in the Department program work. On the evening of November twenty-first, Senator Gore was engaged to give a lecture, "Social Duty." The guests on this occasion were the men friends and relatives of the members.

Mrs. Henry Van Bergen, Third Vice-President, Chairman of the House Committee, has devoted her time to the needs and comfort of the Club, arranging for Monday teas, receptions and special luncheons.

Mrs. Lyman C. Blakeslee, Fourth Vice-President, as Chairman of the Membership Committee, gave the following report at the annual business meeting:

Members admitted . . . .	125	Half rates for service . .	2
On waiting list . . . . .	65	Age limit . . . . .	3
Resignations . . . . .	21	Absent . . . . .	54
Deaths . . . . .	11	Dues remitted for services	7
Employees' rates . . . .	28	Dropped for non-
Wives of Clergy . . . . .	12	payment of dues . .	29

Miss Mattie H. Wilson, Corresponding Secretary, has filled her office as only she could. With the rare spirit of sympathy, the happy word of congratulation and giving, by her presence, the benediction of her most generous nature, every member of Ebells regrets her retirement.

On March twenty-third, Mrs. Frederick Warren Johnson, on account of duties at home, tendered her resignation as one of the Directors of the Club. This was accepted with keen regret and it is Ebells good fortune that a Past President, Mrs. Charles N. Flint, was willing to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Will H. Smith, Chairman of Credentials, submits an interesting report. Ebells entertained over three thousand guests during the year at the regular and Department meetings.

Mrs. Adolf K. Brauer, Chairman of Ushers, with her assistants has performed her duties most efficiently with the observance of every measure for safety and comfort.

Mrs. Charlotte E. Wood, Chairman of the Decorating Committee, has, with the aid of her assistants, supplied the reception rooms and auditorium with effective and tastefully arranged flowers and ferns, throughout the year.

Mrs. Edwin A. Curtis, Chairman of the Courtesy Committee, has extended a welcome to the members of the Club and their friends, her assistants also being ready to dispense hospitality on all occasions.

The following Resolutions have been adopted by the Club during the past year :

Resolution, addressed to the City Council, asking that a parcel of land be rented or donated to the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, on which to erect a Preventorium for the care of tubercular children.

Resolution, of thanks and appreciation to the artists who loaned paintings for Ebells's first Art Exhibition.

Resolution, in support of the Channel Club in its effort to secure an appropriation from the Board of Supervisors for the repetition of the Nativity Play, during the Christmas holidays at Exposition Park.

Resolution, in appreciation of the work of Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond, and of regret at her illness at that time.

Resolution, of sympathy at the death of Mrs. Eliza Tupper Wilkes.

Resolution, endorsing the action of the City Attorney in his effort to abate the Billboard nuisance.

Resolution, asking the State Assembly to postpone indefinitely, action on Bill No. 798 which allows the sale of dogs and cats from the public pounds for the purpose of vivisection.

Resolution, appealing to our Government to take the initiative in passing a National Prohibition Bill.

Resolution, urging our State and National Administrations to protect our women and children by maintaining all regulations regarding child-labor and women's employment.

Numerous letters and telegrams to United States Senators and Representatives and State Senators and Assemblymen urging on and commending their support of Bills and Measures relating to the public welfare and promoting good citizenship have been authorized and sent.

Ebell has been the recipient of some very interesting gifts during the year: one a gavel, presented by Mrs. Sherman W. Wiggins, is made from the various woods of California, combined to make a most beautiful design. It has been exhibited in a great many Chambers of Commerce throughout the country and the Club is proud in the possession of such a prize. Another, a photogravure, "The Blind Bard," was given by Mrs. C. D. Clawson, and hangs in the tea room, a charming reminder of the donor. Besides these several volumes have been added to the Library through the generosity of Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlisle, Mrs. Alexander Campbell and others.

On Thursday, June 7th, a special meeting was arranged for consideration and discussion of important emergency measures in connection with our present national crisis. Stirring appeals were made and after the meeting those present responded most generously to the Y. M. C. A. Military Work Fund.

Every thought and action of our women has been colored and shadowed by the cloud that seemingly overcasts the earth today, but with rare spirit, dauntless courage and true patriotism they have done their share.

We live today the things that are borne in from the outer world and from across the seas. They are the emergencies in which women look from their own hearts to seek the sympathy of their sisters and are comforted to think that they are banded together in a way to make their work more effective, their insight more keen and their quest for the best guidance so directed. Our future, we know, holds everything. Our motto, "Ich Dien," never meant so much.

Respectfully submitted,

ELEANOR S. MACAULEY, Recording Secretary.

Report of the General Curator

SINCE activity is the test of a living organism we may say Ebell is truly alive in the world of today when we consider her sixteen active departments. The question has been asked, "Why stay we on earth except to grow?" and Ebell answers, "During the year the growth is shown by the two new departments added, the Choral and the Spanish, in order that our horizon may broaden and that we may meet and satisfy the varying interests."

The Parliamentary Law Department, with Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey as Curator, has had a year of earnest, practical study including the organization of assemblies, elections, by-laws, the introduction of business and the use and relation of the secondary motions. The attendance has been constant and regular to a remarkable degree and the aim has been to become intelligent, helpful members of our organization.

There were twenty-eight enrolled with an average attendance of sixteen and the guests numbered thirty-one.

With Mrs. Horatio Cogswell as Curator, the Department of Music had a season of great interest and educational value. The opening meeting was devoted to Ebell's composers who proved their worth in a delightfully varied program. The remaining meetings, with the exception of the last, were in charge of Mrs. Ethel Graham Lynde, who was assisted at the piano by Miss Grace Adele Freeby. Two of Mrs. Lynde's lectures dealt with Operas; one being "Iris" by Mascagni and the other "The Nightingale" by Stravinsky. Otherwise her lectures were interpretations of the programs given by our Symphony Orchestra. In these programs Mrs. Lynde dealt with Symphonies by Mozart, Beethoven, Brahms and Tschaikowsky, besides many works of lesser importance. These lectures have created a well deserved interest in our Symphony Concerts. On the morning of January tenth, Mr. Cadman was present at the meeting and, graciously responding to Mrs. Lynde's request, played and elucidated his "Thunderbird Suite." The season closed with a musical given by the Ebell Chorus, the Symphony String Quartette, Karoly Horvath, who introduced the Hungarian national instrument, the Cymbalour, Mrs. Guy Bush, pianiste, and the Ebell Quartette. This program was followed by a luncheon at which the guests of honor included the artists of the morning, Herr Tandler, Mr. and Mrs. Behymer and Madame Hesse-Sprotti.

There was an enrollment of two hundred three and an average attendance of ninety-three; with guests to the number of seven hundred eighty-three.

"American Ideals" was the topic of the year's study in the Emerson Department. The Curators, Mrs. Ilot Johnson and Mrs. W. R. Mail, felt that there was unusual significance at this time in the seeking to determine from actual events whether history has not in itself spiritual forces which may result in a "Renewed confidence in our threatened idealism and a revived confidence in the might of right." Their plan was to study American original thinkers with their contribution and effect upon American Ideals. By papers and discussions, the ground was covered from the Mysticism of Jonathan Edwards to the Philosophy of Josiah Royce. Suggested outside readings covered Plato, Jefferson, Hamilton, Milton, Whitman, Carpenter, Tagore, Buckham, James, Royce, Woodbridge Riley, Darwin and Florence Huntley. The class read together Emerson's Essays, "Milton," "Modern Literature," "The Oversoul," "Art and Criticism," "The Tragic," and the chapters on "Commodity," "Beauty" and "Language" in "Nature Addresses."

There was an enrollment of one hundred three, an average attendance of thirty-five, and the total number of guests was twenty-four.

The aim of the Department of English has been to arouse an interest in the analytical study of our language thereby gaining an understanding of the fundamental facts and attaining a relative completeness and accuracy of expression. With Mrs. C. S. Ward, Curator, at the beginning of the year, and later Mrs. Malone Joyce, this Department has been zealous in its efforts to improve under the able guidance of the instructor, Mrs. Ilot Johnson.

There were sixty-four enrolled, with an average attendance of thirty-six, and nine guests.

With Mrs. Charles A. Stavnow, Curator, and Mrs. Edward North, Instructor, the Department of Shakespeare began the year's work confident in the faith that each year's study of Shakespeare means a clearer understanding of life and of mankind. In the study of "The Tempest," they found that "Living gives us our philosophy which in turn makes our life what it is." These lines in "Measure for Measure" come as a trumpet call at this hour of crisis in the world: "Thyself and thy belongings are not thine own so proper as to waste thyself upon thy virtues, they on thee. Heaven doth with us as we with torches do, not light them for themselves; for if our virtues did not go forth of us, 't were all alike as if we had them not." In "Othello" they came to know Iago, who at the last realized the futility of attempting to harm the souls of men. The study of this Department was broken by three happy hours of social pleasure in the three Department luncheons of the season.

There was an enrollment of seventy-eight, an average attendance of forty-eight, and the total number of guests thirty-four.

In the Department of Social Science with Mrs. Charles N. Flint and Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, Curators, the members who had charge of the monthly programs of this Department most ably reviewed the following books: Cabot's "What Men Live By," Devine's "Misery and Its Causes," Ross' "Social Control," Nearing's "Poverty and Riches," and Mrs. W. E. Keepers gave a scholarly "Appreciation of H. G. Wells from a Sociological Standpoint." In April a lecture on "Liberty" was given by Reverend E. Stanton Hodgkin and in May, one on "India, Its Problems and Solutions" by Dhan Gopal Mukerji. These reviews and lectures were supplemented by a series of "Practical Talks" on Civic Conditions given by Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsay (City Council), Mrs. Katherine J. Haw (Superintendent Juvenile Hall), Doctor Harriet Probasco (Juvenile Hall), Miss Anna Dempsey (Hamburger Department Store), Miss Maude Minor (Secretary New York Probation Association).

In July, 1916, under the direction of the Social Science Department a "Social Service Committee" was organized with Mrs. William Read as Chairman. The report appended—as given by its efficient and untiring Chairman—is a brief outline of the great work done by the Social Service Committee.

The Social Service Committee of the Social Science Department held its initial meeting July seventh, 1916.

Its purpose — the practical application of social science principles as presented in the Department work and the establishment, ultimately, of a rest home for convalescents. To give immediate relief to some of the helpless and suffering was the first task. Cooperation with existing social agencies with similar aims was sought and secured. Sub-committees were formed to visit places of instruction, recreation, and correction; schools, playgrounds, homes, courts, jails, homes for children, homes for the aged or infirm, hospitals, vacation homes, housing apartments. At the County Hospital patients needed warmer sleeping hoods and shoulder wraps. To provide these a sewing room was necessary. Generous members contributed sufficient money to purchase one sewing machine and generous business firms gave the free use of others.

During the Club year 745 new garments have been made and 1180 used garments or other useful articles collected and distributed to the County Hospital, Florence Crittenton Home, McKinley Home for Boys, Needlework Guild, Neighborhood Settlement, various schools, numerous individuals, and the Red Cross. From available funds many convalescent patients have been given a month's rest and many destitute families rendered less miserable. But most important is it that the ninety-five to one hundred women who have aided in the social welfare work are now awakened to the evil effects of the existing industrial and social systems and are convinced of the futility of depending solely upon alleviation of suffering for social progress. The cause of these evil conditions must be found and removed and a wiser system established on a fairer foundation.

There were one hundred sixty-nine enrolled in the Social Science Department, an average attendance of ninety-eight, and the guests numbered two hundred eighteen.

Miss Anne H. Smith, Curator, and Miss Jessie Weimar, Instructor of the Voice Training Department have realized that to be heard is an important thing for the Club woman with a message and their object has been to assist the individual to more ably serve. Technical exercises have been given to develop the voice in purity, strength, flexibility and sustaining power as well as in the economy of breath. The importance of the training of the ear, the position of the body and ease of manner have been recognized. Twenty-eight profitable lessons have been enjoyed, and on the closing day the old English comedy "Confusion," by Joseph Derrick, was presented, followed by the joint luncheon with the English Department.

There were one hundred one enrolled, an average attendance of thirty with one hundred seventy-nine guests.

The aim and purpose of the French Department may be said to be two-fold: to acquire fluency and accuracy in speaking the French language and to become familiar with the literature and the ideas and ideals of the French people. These two goals are logically inseparable, and under the guidance of Madame de Kerpezdron the members of the Department have made marked progress. A beginners' class was inaugurated in October, to which the first half-hour of the session has been devoted. Considering the handicap of so short an instruction period, the members of this class have made commendable progress, especially in the excellence of their pronunciation. The Curator, Mrs. B. W. Zens, opened the work of the Department in October, but was forced to relinquish her post the first of November, owing to an extended absence from the City. The Department was in charge of the assistant Curator, Miss Amy Wheeler. In January the Department presented a comedy, "Le Jeu de L'Amour et du Hasard," by Marivaux, preceded by a short address by Madame de Kerpezdron, and an appropriate musical number. In March, the Department presented a musical and literary program, followed by a luncheon. During the year the Department listened to lectures by their instructor on French authors from Balzac and Victor Hugo to Victorien Sardou and contemporary writers, thus completing a three years' course in French literature.

There was an enrollment of eighty-five and an average attendance of thirty-four, with two hundred thirteen guests.

The Department of California History and Landmarks, with Miss Margaret F. Phillipson as Curator, opened the year with a most instructive program, given by Miss Grace Stoermer, on the "History and Development of California Industries," illustrated with motion pictures. After this auspicious beginning, the greater part of the year was given to considering the early life in Los Angeles and the bird life and flora of the vicinity. Seven Franciscan missions were studied and two programs on the El Camino Real were presented by Mrs. A. S. C. Forbes. Mrs. M. E. Bartlett provided music for each meeting.

There were one hundred forty-five members enrolled, an average attendance of thirty-four and the guests numbered eighty-one.

One of the newest Departments of Ebell is the Choral Department with an enrollment of twenty-eight and an average attendance of twenty-two; under the able direction of Mrs. T. D. Wallace. The weekly meetings have been devoted to the practice of vocal exercises and songs. Several programs have been given. Much credit is also due Mrs. Guy Bush, the accompanist, for her regular attendance and the inspiration given. Miss Maude Merryweather, the Curator, has held monthly business meetings and harmony in spirit as well as in sound has been the key note of this Department.

A Department of Spanish was organized the first Wednesday in October with Miss J. Maud Blanchard as Curator and Senora Aurelia Borquez de Whenthoff as Instructor. The course consisted of conversations and story writing in Spanish, based upon the text book "A Series of Spanish Conversations" (Whenthoff). Great interest was shown from the beginning and the enthusiasm of the class was evident from the large attendance, as well as by the many study circles that met for an hour of practice several times each week, in the Club House, and by the willingness to help one another.

March seventh was chosen as Spanish Reciprocity Day, a large number of guests from other clubs responded to the invitation, hearing a short story in connection with the lesson. On Thursday, May thirty-first, the Department gave a Spanish luncheon. This was followed by a Spanish Play, written by Senora Jeannette Fischer and presented under her direction.

The enrollment was one hundred forty-nine, an average attendance of sixty-eight and forty-eight guests.

The Department of Bible Study, with Mrs. W. S. Bartlett as Curator, had seventy enrolled and an average attendance of thirty-one, with forty-one guests. Leaders of men and nations, prophets, priests and kings were the topics considered, and many of our present laws were traced back to their foundations under Moses; the prophecies of Christ in the Old Testament, patriotism as shown in the Book of Esther, a review of the little known Book of Tobit and a "Garden on a Spring Morning" with descriptions gleaned from the Bible. A lecture by Dr. W. H. Fishburn on "What the world owes to the Jew and why he has not passed from the earth," was much enjoyed; also the story of "The Witnesses," by Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews. While this Department is not numerically large, the interest and enthusiasm of its members cannot be excelled.

The Browning Study Department with Mrs. Thomas B. Stowell and Mrs. Sidney J. Parsons as Curators, has given its entire time to the study of the first six books of "The Ring and The Book." Forceful and thoughtful discussions of vital and inspiring topics were participated in by a large number. A resume of Hodell's "The Making of a Great Poem" by Mrs. Ilot Johnson was printed for the use of the class and an original poem uniting Maeterlinck's "Monna Vanna" and Browning's "Pompilia" was presented by Mrs. Thomas R. Coles. A permanent contribution to aid Browning students is the booklet containing more than three hundred questions on "The Ring and The Book" prepared by the Curators and published by the Ebell. The annual luncheon to honor Browning's birthday was held May eighth and observed as a reciprocity day for other Browning Clubs.

The enrollment was ninety-eight, an average attendance of sixty-seven and thirty-five guests.

The Art and Travel Department, taking for its motto — "Art for Life's Sake," — has studied a number of cities from the viewpoint of what they offered their citizens that would make life in them more livable; beautiful buildings, parks and gardens, public art galleries. The Department has had fourteen illustrated lectures — some from the American Federation of Arts, others by professional lecturers, on Municipal Art in Florence, in Brussels, in Mexico City, New York, Washington City and others; also lectures on American Mural Painting, American Sculpture, American Municipal Art.

It has had seven exhibitions of paintings; one — a miscellaneous collection from the California Art Club — and six one-man exhibitions — C. P. Townsley, Frank W. Cuprien, Hanson Puthoff, Elizabeth Gowdy Baker, John W. Rich and Arthur J. Vernon.

The Curator furnished a winter's outline of study for one of the smaller art clubs of the city and several outlines for a club in another state.

The enrollment has been three hundred eighty-two, the average attendance one hundred eighteen, and the guests numbered two hundred sixty-eight.

The Department of Drama with Mrs. A. W. Allen, Curator, studied the chief contemporary dramas of the following countries: Norway, Germany, France, Russia, England, Ireland and America. The third act from Zangwill's "The Melting Pot" was presented by the Polytechnic High School under the direction of Miss Craig; scenes from "My Lady's Dress," by Knoblaugh presented by Manual Arts High School under the direction of Miss Maude Howell; "A Pot of Broth," by Yeats, the Egan Dramatic School, and a one-act play by Strinberg, directed by Mrs. Alfred Whitney Allen. The year culminated with a scintillating talk on the "American Drama" by Dr. Paul Jordan Smith, and an illuminating reading from Ibsen's "Ghosts" by Nicholas Dunaew.

The enrollment was one hundred thirty-five with an average attendance of two hundred ten, and guests to the number of ninety-three.

Mrs. George H. Kress, Curator of the Books and Conversation Department, remembering that reading is primarily for the reader to find himself, devoted the early part of the year to a few autobiographies. Having gained a broader vision of man, later time was given to modern twentieth century literature, both English and Russian, in the endeavor to secure a more universal vision.

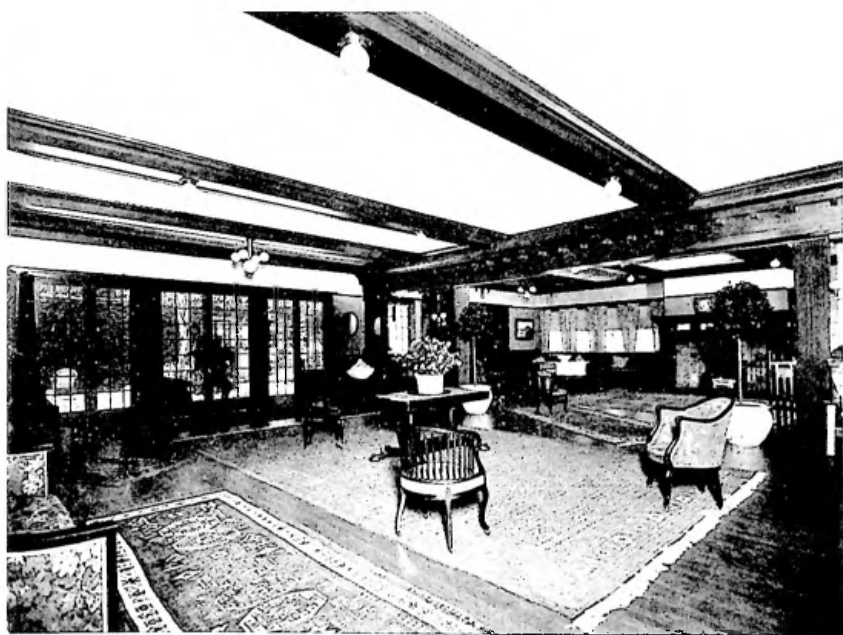

Reading to acquire a knowledge of people of our own age, especially of woman, what she stands for economically, politically and socially, the members of this Department have been stirred by the knowledge of woman's achievements. To bring sunshine and radiance, the beauty of modern English verse has been enjoyed.

There were one hundred nine enrolled, with an average attendance of one hundred six and the guests numbered one hundred eighteen.

Club women have a vision of having the ability coupled with the opportunity to do things worthily and well for the elevation of mankind. Emulating the ideals of the founder of Ebell we would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift, realizing that it is not what man does that exalts him but what man would do.

Respectfully submitted,

LAURA PAXTON.
