*"BUT as the course of life goes on,
as its limit comes in sight and we see how short it is, the elective system must come in: Out of the mass of things which we have touched,
we must choose these which are ours
—the books which we shall read, the men whom we shall know, the power that we shall wield, the pleasure which we shall enjoy, the special point where we shall drop our bit of usefulness into the world's life before we go."—

The study of our finer literature is thus the study of the soul, and the progress made will be upward and onward and the result a purifying of the ideals and a chastening of the chords of man."—(A fragment from a manuscript note inserted before flyleaf of the 1602 quarto of Merry Wives of Windsor.)

Report of the Recording Secretary

AS THE club year 1912-1913 draws toward its close and must soon be written as EBELL history, it becomes the duty of your Recording Secretary to present an epitome, as nearly as may be, of the activities of the club as a whole, as heretofore submitted in detail from week to week throughout the year, and of our present condition as to growth in numbers and more intangible things, as the cumulative effect of the passing weeks and months.

From the report of the Membership Committee, of which Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald is chairman, we learn that the year has added to our roll 206 new names; 16 members for various good reasons have resigned; 18 in accordance with our By-laws have been dropped for non-payment of dues during a period of eighteen months; 10 the Angel of Death has garnered for the larger life; our total membership at present is 1380. One new name has been added to our list of life members and two have been made honorary members.

From the viewpoint of those close to the inner workings of the club it is difficult to see how Mrs. Brock, chairman of our House Committee, could more thoughtfully have cared for our physical comfort. By her wise supervision we have been warmed or cooled, cheered and fed and provided with all the necessities and many of the luxuries of a well-ordered home. A pleasing addition to our tea room is the beautiful urn on the china cabinet.

Our members and their guests have been met at the threshold by the welcoming smile of the chairman of the Courtesy Committee and it is a current saying in Ebell that no one who has felt the handclasp of Mrs. Barlow or any of her co-workers can ever again feel strange in our club home.

The Social Committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Edmund E. Smith, has distributed those thoughtful, sympathetic attentions that lighten the sorrow and add to the joy that are a part of the life of each of us.

The patient skill of our ushers, under Mrs. F. E. Hughes' direction, in caring for the audiences that have taxed the capacity of our club house from week to week is known to all, while Mrs. Goddard and her faithful Decorating Committee have been ever present in the faces of lovely flowers not only on great occasions like Charter Day and New Year's receptions, but at every meeting of the Club.

Mrs. S. M. Browne, chairman of the Credentials Committee, whose welcome comes only at sight of a certain bit of paste board of definite color and superscription, reports the entertainment at our regular Monday meetings of three thousand eight hundred seventy-one guests, one hundred twenty-four of these being men. Fifty have been admitted to the various departments. If we add to these those entertained on special occasions, Charter Day and New Year's receptions, our Children's Christmas parties, Reciprocity Day and the Blue Bell Operatives' Club evening, it will be seen our total number of guests is about five thousand.

The Program Committee, Mrs. E. W. Martindale, chairman, has provided thirty-six programs, thirty-two for regular Monday meetings, one for each of the Children's Christmas parties and one for our New Year's reception, these for our upbuilding mentally, morally and spiritually, our all-round artistic development and our growth along all lines of culture. Never has the spirit of Christmas hovered closer to Ebell nor the Christmas light and joy, reflected in the happy faces of little children, entered more homes that might have been desolate on the birthday of the World's Joy than in the Yuletide season of nineteen hundred twelve.

From Mr. Henry Bailey we learned how to discern our architectural inheritance in our present day architectural environment and from Mr. Ernest Bachelder to feel the humanness of the great cathedrals which represent the aspirations, the ideals and the personalities of their builders. Dr. Van Dyke established the existence of a moral law in art and the logical sequence that the artist's character is of vital importance, leaving its lasting impress on his work.

Professor Maria Sanford in her lecture on the Beauty of the Bible brought to us the spiritual lesson of Faith, the most potent factor in the building of character—the supreme end of living.

Reciprocity and Legislation Day when it was Ebell's pleasure to have as our guests at luncheon delegates from each of the Federated Clubs and to listen with them at our afternoon meeting to discussion of important legislative measures, and our Political Program just before the National Election when the situation was clearly presented from three standpoints by Mesdames Florence Collins Porter and O. P. Clark and Miss Mary Foy, are red-letter days which we all remember with pride.

Ten musicals, presented by artists, most of whom we are proud to claim as residents of our city and not a few as members of our Club, have given us opportunity to hear the best in this—to many—highest expression of art.

The liquid notes of Madame Vicarino delighted one of our largest audiences on a day already rich in the theatric and artistic interest of papers by Mr. Otheman Stevens and Mr. John Mitchell.

With Mr. Baumgardt we read a marvelous tale—the Romance of Civilization—and with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kemp we viewed the creation of that greatest triumph of modern civilization, our own Panama Canal. And again, we lingered with Miss Cocke in Sicily and the Isles of Greece.

An afternoon with the Drama Department and one with Mrs. Goldsmith brought illumination through lecture and dramatic interpretation.

The Johonnot lectures and especially the spirit of co-operation that brought them here and that is still with us mark a step forward in Los Angeles club life. At the postponed semi-annual business meeting held February Seventeenth, an amendment to the By-laws raising the Life Membership fee from one hundred to two hundred dollars was adopted by the Club.

Thus week has succeeded week bringing these and other feasts among which choice has been difficult because of general excellence and only necessity could be permitted to keep one away.

Resolutions as follows have been adopted by the Club as a whole:

Favoring the establishment of Vocational Schools throughout the country in all suitable grades of school work.

Endorsing the movement for Permanent Grand Opera in our city.

Petitioning against the sale by the Council of the Water Board lot.

Endorsing the principle of equal pay for equal work, regardless of sex, as now provided by the law of California.

Endorsing the campaign to raise funds for the Social Service Hospital.

Protesting against the destruction of Magnolia Avenue's (Riverside) noble line of trees.

Petitioning our City Council and Board of Supervisors each for an appropriation for $2500 toward the maintenance of the People's Orchestra and the People's Chorus.

Ebell contributed one hundred dollars toward a guarantee fund to bring to our city in the Exposition Year, the Biennial meeting of the National Association of Federated Music Clubs, of which our own member, Mrs. W. H. Jamison, is Vice-President for California. We also joined the Federation through our Music Department, whose curator, Mrs. H. D. Ryus and Miss Gentry Wickizer, one of our members, represented Ebell as delegates at the convention of the Federation held in Chicago in May.

The Ebell Scrap Book, begun by Mrs. Roscoe B. Ashley in the early days of the Club and presented to Ebell by its compiler at the beginning of this club year, is a unique and valued addition to the library. Mrs. Ashley continues to add to the work.

At a business session of the Club, on June 2, 1913, an amendment to our By-Laws, increasing the annual dues, raising them from $8 to $10, was adopted.

Early in the year Ebell transferred her dramatic activity from the National Drama League with headquarters at Chicago, to the Los Angeles Center of the League, paying dues here and co-operating with the local association, our Club having a representative on their Executive Board and our Drama Department presenting the program on the occasion of the League's Reciprocity Day at San Pedro.

Through the appointment by our President of a committee of twenty-nine representative Ebell members and appearing in our Year-book under the caption of Forward-Work Council, Ebell has been kept in touch with practically every line of social service activity in both our city and our state.

At the closing session of the Civics Department three minute reports were presented by the members of this Council on their respective work and the listeners realized that these reports were the result of personal knowledge.

With the growing power and prestige of Ebell as a factor in the life of the city, many causes have sought her endorsement or approval, but while never hesitating to array herself on the side of any measure making for the uplift and betterment of our citizens, Ebell has chosen, in faring forth to new fields of possible accomplishment or defeat, to cultivate angelic caution and rather than risk acting unwisely, to welcome every opportunity for investigation and enlightenment in the problems of citizenship, that our individual members may be fully informed in the premises; but for the present, as a Club, not to endorse specific political measures.

At a postponed semi-annual business meeting held February 17th the Club voted against limiting its membership and Ebell continues to grow in numbers and prestige. Shall we be able to preserve that homogeneity, that unity of purpose that make for efficiency and strength in the testing times and that are not a matter of size but of character? If we do, it must be through high and ever higher standards of thinking and living in all our relations with our fellows, club members and others, and through the constant fidelity to the altruistic legend on our banner which have made possible the Ebell of which we are all, to-day, so proud.

Let us continue to seek first the only prestige that can endure—that character that is the unfailing fruit of daily culture through service.

Respectfully submitted,

MATTIE H. WILSON,
Recording Secretary.

Annual Report of the General Curator

TOO MUCH cannot be said in praise of the Department work, one of the strongest features of EBELL. The Departments are the conservers of the cultural ideals of the Club; they promote loyalty and allegiance, and are the source of tender friendships and lasting intimacies.

An outline of the work shows first, the Department of Parliamentary Law, Mrs. Matthew S. Robertson, Curator, studying the first principles of governmental action; methods of parliamentary procedure, origin and enactment of laws, all of which topics have new meaning and interest to women who have a practical part in the making and enforcement of laws; women whose highest privilege as well as duty it is to study at first hand the machinery of the state and nation. This Department held thirteen meetings and had a registration of forty-four.

The Department of Expression spent the year on some of the essays of Emerson, in "Conduct of Life" and "Society and Solitude." They studied carefully and minutely the gracious words given to the world by this poet and seer, were inspired by the thoughts he uttered, and the aspirations he awakened; they studied also with reverence the beautiful life he lived so that he might through loving appreciation be as immortal as a mortal can be. Mrs. Ilot Johnson was Curator until January when Mrs. William Read accepted the position. This Department held eleven meetings, and had a registration of fifty-three.

The Department of Shakespeare, with Mrs. Edward North as Instructor, Mrs. Wm. H. Mayne, Curator, studied three plays of the great bard, Romeo and Juliet, Love's Labor's Lost, and Winter's Tale, showing the contrasts of Love versus Hate, Learning and Jealousy. Historic and geographic settings, special topics of customs, comparative readings and character sketches, gave zest and variety to the programs, as did also the lay sermons, quotation contests, and active readings. This Department held fourteen meetings and had a registration of ninety-six.

The Department of Art and Travel, with Miss Anna Beckley as Instructor, Mrs. E. R. Potter, Curator, enjoyed a "Tour of Germany," beginning with Cologne and the historic Rhine and ending with the nation's capital, Berlin; they journeyed through picturesque and romantic scenery, visiting monuments and ruins and re-velling in art-museums and cathedrals. Talks from members recently travelling in Europe were greatly appreciated. This Department held fifteen meetings and had a registration of two hundred and thirty.

The Department of Music, with Dr. Bruce Gordon Kingsley as Director, Mrs. Harmon Ryus, Curator, began the year with the study of the mystical music-drama "Parsifal," and Wagner's wonderful harmonies of music and thought were presented so skillfully and interpreted so feelingly by Dr. Kingsley that five meetings seemed all too few for the consideration of this masterpiece. Lecture recitals were also given on "Great Symphonies," and the modern operas, "Haensel and Gretel" and "Natoma." During Dr. Kingsley's absence in April and

May lecture-recitals were given by Baroness A. von Meyerinck on "Modern Opera," by Charles Farwell Edson on "American Music," by Homer Grunn on "Indian Music" and Vernon Spencer on "Folk-Lore of Different Countries as Shown in Their Music."

This Department held fourteen meetings, and had a registration of one hundred and six. At the closing musicale and annual luncheon May 28, Madame Katherine Fiske as a special courtesy gave a song recital with Mr. Axel Simonsen, violoncello, Mrs. Sidney B. Webb, violin, and Mrs. Ryus, piano.

The Department of Books and Conversation, Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, Curator, made a departure in the line of study this year by emphasizing the "Human Side of Literature," bringing before the Department the personality of authors as shown in Autobiography and Letters. The subjects discussed were Memories and Impressions of Modjeska, Love Affairs of Literary Men, French Memoirs, Mark Twain, American Memoirs, Martin Luther and the Monastery Poets, New England Letter-writers. An important feature of the year's work was the critical review of each month's books given by Mrs. William Read the first two meetings, and by Mrs. W. R. Mail the other five times. This Department held seven meetings, and had a registration of one hundred and sixty-one.

The Department of Drama, with Mrs. Mila Tupper Maynard as Instructor, Mrs. Ada Henry Van Pelt, Curator, studied Maeterlinck's dramas in chronological order, with outlines and active readings of each of the fifteen plays; they also discussed two of Zangwill's plays, and touched upon recent British drama, Bernard Shaw, Arnold Bennett, and others, not forgetting the consideration of current local plays, one of the features of the Department from the first, now taken up and recommended by the Drama League of America. In February, the Department gave a complimentary entertainment to EBELL members and their friends, presenting the reading of Zangwill's "The Melting Pot," by Mrs. Charles S. Hall. Members of the Department also gave a program on Reciprocity Day at the San Pedro Woman's Club, which was highly appreciated. This Department held fourteen meetings, and had a registration of two hundred and twenty-five.

The Department of Civics, Mrs. James Bert Stearns, Curator, has taken up subjects pertaining to city and national problems, and vital to the American house-wife; a few of the topics only can be mentioned, the high cost of living, pure food, the problem of supply and demand, the interest of the employer and the protection of the employed, domestic immigration policies, journalism, education, and bills to be presented to the Legislature. This Department held seven meetings, and had a registration of one hundred and fifty-six.

The Department of Social Science, Curators, Mrs. Charles N. Flint, Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, was added to the curriculum of study-sections last year, and took for its leading thought the broad field of Democracy. The different phases discussed were The American Idea, Progress and Poverty, The Great State and its Constructors, Woman in Democracy, Economics in Democracy, Ethics in Democracy. There was ample scope for the development of this Department along broad lines, and it has been well sustained. Six meetings were held, and the registration was ninety-one.

The Department of Bird-Study, with Mrs. W. N. Sarver as Curator, though formed late in April, has shown gratifying progress. Two lectures, with stereopticon, were given; one by Prof. Thompson on Birds, their nests, and economic value, another by Mrs. Harriet Myers, on "Warblers." Bird-skins were loaned from Exposition Park Museum where a large collection of stuffed birds may also be seen. There were three field-day excursions to Eastlake Park, Sycamore Grove and Eagle Rock, where as many as twenty-five varieties of birds were observed. The Department will be strengthened and enlarged the coming year by the study of Forestry. Six meetings were held, and the registration was fifty-two.

The Department of French was discontinued the past year, but has been reorganized and promises well for next year's work.

A registry of names of members attending the Departments is taken as an index of interest shown, and as a working basis for Department programs. These lists are incomplete, but accurate as to actual attendance of those registered. The total registration is twelve hundred and four.

The social features of EBELL are emphasized by the luncheons given by the Departments, some serving luncheon each month, others only once or twice during the year; the theme of the morning is continued with Round-Table Talk, and toasts, interspersed with music and readings. It has been an enjoyable privilege to be able to bring guests to Department meetings on regular guest cards. EBELL is generous toward her Departments, providing when necessary the most competent instructors, and buying needed books for reference. A catalogue of books in the EBELL Library will soon be placed in the hands of members who are requested to preserve it for reference as the basis of reading for Department work. "Reading maketh the full man, conversation the ready man." A fine stereopticon is to be purchased before October, also a post-card projector. Several magazines are subscribed for and are to be found upon the library tables.

The Monthly Bulletins which contain the programs of each week should be preserved and often consulted; they are perfect little hand-books and outlines of the year's study, a treasure-house of literary, artistic and practical suggestion and should be prized accordingly.

Each year more of the members are realizing the opportunities of intellectual and spiritual growth to be had by attending the Departments, and that the ones who write papers and take part in the discussions are those who receive largest benefit. If one day in the week could be regularly given to self-improvement in the Club, this would mean the attending of at least two Departments and sharing in the broadened horizon and deepened life there to be gained. Is it not worth earnestly striving for?

The Department work of EBELL cannot be measured by rule, nor calculated by figures, for does not the poet say, "For who has sight so keen and strong that it can follow the flight of song?" and we will say, where is the plummet that can sound the deep things of the spirit? The added mental equipment, increased "initiative," richer soul-life and spiritual strength gained in Department work may be felt, not told; but are realized with inward satisfaction, and a conscious joy.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. THOMAS B. STOWELL,
General Curator.

Annual Report of the Treasurer

July 1, 1912, to July 1, 1913

THERE is a tide in the affairs of men—also of clubs it would seem, as the close of the Club Year found Ebell possessed of 206 new members and practically free from debt.

Two hundred and seventy-one of the 284 shares of stock outstanding have been purchased, and only the fact that the remaining shares were unobtainable kept Ebell from becoming their owner.

The repairs during the year have not been extensive and were chiefly made in the Auditorium, where the walls were retinted, new curtains hung at doors and windows, and the wooden posts under the balcony replaced by iron columns.

The dressing-room was refurnished, linen and china shelves replenished, and many little additional touches given all through the club house. At the entrance to the driveway two lighting posts were installed, adding to the beauty of our exterior and to the comfort of our members.

Realizing that in the near future a larger club house will be necessary to adequately accommodate our members and care for their needs, an Emergency or Sinking Fund has been created and the sum of $2,000.00 put therein. It is hoped to increase this amount from time to time, as possible, so a working capital will be available when the time comes to use it.

A detailed report of Receipts, Expenditures and the Assets and Liabilities of Ebell follow, and are respectfully submitted.

CHARLOTTE M. ROCKWELL,
Treasurer.
