Recollections Of Richard D. Rutherford (V. M. I.)¹

¹ "Recollections" appeared in thirteen (13) consecutive issues of the Spirit of Jefferson—Farmer's Advocate. The first article was printed in the April 1st, 1948 issue, and the final article in the June 24th issue. Initially the articles appeared on Page 4 A but following the May 13th article they appeared on a variety of back pages. Each article appeared under the headline "Local History" and each article was prefaced by the same bold type bio of Rutherford.

Richard Duffields Rutherford was 10 years old at the beginning of the Civil War. His father Thomas Rutherford owned an entire block bounded on the east by East Alley (Seminary Street), on the west by East Street (Church Street), on the north by Washington Street, and on the south by Congress Street comprising Lots Nos. 101, 102, and 108. In 1858 Rutherford purchased a house on Lot No. 108 which was built in 1840 by Dr. Taliaferro Stribling. Today the house is the Carriage Inn.
