

Lexington.

Jan 28th '64

Miss M. Tabb -

Your letter written the 14th inst^d reached me by yesterday's mail - and I reply at once, that you may have time to perfect your arrangements if you decide to come to Lexington. - Several of the Young Ladies finish school this term & consequently their places will be vacant - which will enable me to take you in - The Books you will need in addition to those your Sisters have, are a "Blair's University Rhetoric" large edition, "Locke's Modern History" & "Davies' Algebra" - that is if you intend pursuing Mathematics - Provide yourself also with Slate & Pencils - In buying Books &c for yourself for yourself & will be obliged if you will purchase me 2 bunches of Piano strings - 1 No-13 - & 1 No-14.

also a set of Guitar strings - If it takes silver to buy them I can return it to you -

Enclosed with this you will find my advertisement for the Spring Term - which states charges &c.

Your sisters are very well - Cornelia has whooping Cough - but is recovering from it - She is in school & has been most of the time -

With regards to your Father

I remain Yours &c

M. W. Baskerville