

Lines on the Back of a Confederate Note from
"Gone with the Wind" by Margaret Mitchell

"Representing nothing on God's earth now And naught in the waters below it—
As a pledge of a nation that's passed away Keep it, dear friend, and show it.

Show it to those who will lend an ear
To the tale this trifle will tell Of Liberty, born of Patriots' dream
Of a ~~storm~~-cradled nation that fell".

The description of southern life in ante-bellum days is very fine in "Gone with the Wind" and much like that described by W. C. Cabb's mother & sisters on their plantation in Berkeley & Jefferson Counties in Virginia as I heard them often refer to them
