

Charles Town, W. Va.
May 24, 1925.

To the Class of 1925,

Wont you folks think for one minute because I have kept quiet so long that I have not felt the deepest appreciation and feeling for the lovely spirit of the class which prompted you to dedicate your Annual to me. I knew I could never express my thanks and feelings in words, so didn't try nor can I write them ever now. I have put it off thinking that at this late date I might not have