This document shall serve as a letter of authenticity for the above-referenced signature(s), which James Spence Authentication LLC has examined. The signature(s) is/are consistent considering a wide range of specific qualities including slant, flow, pen pressure, letter size and formation, and other characteristics typical of our extensive database of known exemplars we have examined throughout our hobby and professional careers.

It is our considered opinion that the signature(s) is/are genuine. Your authenticated signature(s) has been assigned a unique certification number, which is uploaded into our restricted database and can be confirmed on our website www.SpenceLOA.com at any time.

This letter must appear on our proprietary water-marked paper and bear the live signatures of both James J. Spence, III and a notary public. We appreciate your consideration of entrusting James Spence Authentication's judgement and look forward to examining additional collectibles for you in the near future.

Autographically Yours,

James J. Spence, III
