

Avro Arrow, CF105 - after Jan had completed the first flight, March 25, 1958. A few minutes after this picture was taken there was no one around the aircraft - they had all scattered when all four main wheel tires (200 psi) blew from the build-up of heat from the brakes as a result of heavy braking after a hot landing.

675-
RL 843-020