

Names in the News

FRED MITCHELL

E. C. GARRARD

J. F. PERRIER

• Kenneth W. Brown, who has been vice president & general manager of Avro Aircraft Ltd. during the past year, has returned to the Boeing Airplane Co. as assistant general manager of the Boeing Vertol Division.

• Fred P. Mitchell, assistant general manager & Chief engineer, has assumed the responsibilities of vice president & general manager. In addition, Mr. Mitchell will also direct the activities of the engineering department at Avro.

• Dr. J. F. Perrier, P.Eng., has been appointed to the position of engineering department head for systems, Sperry Gyroscope Co. of Canada Ltd. A lecturer for three years in electrical engineering at the University of Alberta, Dr. Perrier holds a long and successful record of engineering achievements. With Canadair Ltd. from 1955-60, Dr. Perrier participated in the Tartar missile proposal to the RCN, assisted in weapon system studies for the Velvet Glove system, and was responsible for the preparation of missile test flight programs in connection with Sparrow II.

• H. B. Renwick, vice president of Canadian Pacific Airlines, has been elected chairman of the Western Hemisphere Traffic Conference of the IATA. Mr. Renwick was named in the concluding sessions of this year's rate deliberations at Cannes, France.

• William J. Mann of Toronto has been elected executive vice president and a director of Canadian Curtiss-Wright Ltd. Mr. Mann was promoted to his new position from that of general manager of the company. He joined Canadian Curtiss-Wright in 1956 as sales manager.

• E. C. Garrard has been appointed special projects manager, The Fairey Aviation Co. of Canada Ltd. In this capacity, Mr. Garrard will deal with the initial stages of projects beyond the normal aircraft overhaul, repair and modification activities of the company. Mr. Garrard joined Fairey Canada in 1950 and has accumulated 25 years continuous service with the Fairey Group of Companies.

• John A. Teeter has been appointed director of the Department of Defence Production's Washington Office. Mr. Teeter succeeds Norman R. Chappell whose appointment as energy counselor in the Canadian Embassy, Washington, was announced recently by the Department of Trade & Commerce.

• Harry Radke was elected president of the Canadian Flying Farmers organization at the annual convention held in October at Yorkton, Sask. Other officers elected included Howard Thomas as vice president and Varno Westersund who was re-elected executive secretary.

RECENT CHANGES at Government top levels included the appointments of Hon. Douglas Harkness (L), formerly Minister of Agriculture, as Minister of National Defence; Hon. Leon Balcer (centre), formerly Solicitor General, as Minister of Transport; Elgin B. Armstrong (R), formerly Assistant Deputy Minister (Finance) National Defence, now Deputy Minister National Defence.

• Two well-known names in aviation in western Canada have recently retired from service with the Dept. of Transport. They are Charles Pickering, head of the climatological section of the Calgary forecast office; and George E. G. Craig, manager of Calgary's McCall Field.

Charlie Pickering came to Canada with his parents in 1910. He served with the Canadian Army in WW I, taking part in three major battles: Ypres, Somme and Vimy Ridge. He established the weather office at the airport at Medicine Hat in 1930 when the first and short-lived Prairie Air-mail Service between Winnipeg and Edmonton was inaugurated. He continued in meteorological work.

George Craig flew with the RFC 1916-1918. Following the war he participated in several engineering ventures and joined the DoT in 1943 as an inspector on airport development. In 1945 he was made manager of McCall Field at Calgary.

• Four senior appointments have been announced by Canadair Ltd.:

F. R. Kearns, formerly vice president and comptroller, has been appointed executive vice president for sales & finance.

John Urwin, formerly secretary and treasurer and legal advisor, has been appointed vice president and secretary.

John B. Hunter, assistant comptroller since 1957, has been appointed comptroller.

Theodore C. Pawlett, also an assistant comptroller, has been appointed treasurer.

Peter H. Redpath, who has been Canadair's vice president sales since 1950, is retiring from the company at the end of the year.