Inside Front Cover Photo: The Aircrew Memorial Association's Royal Canadian Air Force (RCAF) World War II bronze statue is located in the Memorial Gardens of the Greenwood Military Aviation Museum. This life-size statue of a generic aircrewman honours the memory of Canadians who have served their country as aircrew of the Armed Forces of Canada and its Allies. More than 25,000 RCAF aircrew served overseas during World War II; 17,000 died. The statue was dedicated by the Right Honourable Adrienne Clarkson, Governor General Of Canada on 21 October 2002.
