ASSESSMENTS

In case of emergency local lodges may levy assessments on all members under their jurisdiction. No special assessment can be levied until the same has been approved by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the members of the local lodge attending a summoned meeting, notice of which has been served in writing on each member, by mail or otherwise, at least seven (7) days before the date of the meeting. Every member present at such meeting shall vote unless excused by the president, and those not voting shall be recorded as voting in favor of the assessment.

All assessments and fines shall be due within thirty (30) days after levied. If not paid within that time the financial secretary shall notify those in arrears in writing, and should they fail to make payment within sixty (60) days from the date of such written notice, their membership shall be cancelled regardless of the date to which their dues are paid.
