

FLYING INTO HISTORY

The history-making maiden flight of the Avro Arrow was one of the most significant developments in the field of modern aviation. The landing gear equipment . . . tires, wheels and brakes . . . of the supersonic Arrow was the result of many months of combined engineering talents of Avro and Goodyear.

For information write:
Aviation Products Department,
Goodyear, New Toronto, Ontario.

MORE AIRCRAFT LAND ON GOODYEAR TIRES, WHEELS AND BRAKES THAN ON ANY OTHER KIND

JUNE, 1958