

Historic Flight

Telegram
 Scroll held by Mayor McCallum and pilot Don Rogers, inviting New York's Mayor O'Dwyer and businessmen to Trade Fair here May 29-June 9, is centre of attraction of this group before departure of Avro Jetliner from Malton to New York today. It was first flight by jet plane of airmail on this Continent. Representing eight countries participating in the Fair are, left to right: Thelma Brewis, "Miss By-Line" (Canada), Rose Avola (Italy), Mrs. Lydia Englesmith (France), Sylvia Ringg (Sweden), Jean McLeod (Scotland), Conchita Triana (Spain), Lackshmi Rao (India), and Hilda Viens-tra (Netherlands). Flight was made in 59 minutes and 56 seconds, nearly halving regular air time.

A Canadian beauty is admired by officials and well-wishers before start of record-breaking trip.

Mr. King III Sends Regrets To Windsors

Ottawa, April 18—(BUP)—Former Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King still is confined to Laurier House on doctor's orders but his health is progressing steadily.

A spokesman on Mr. King's staff made the comment today after the Duke of Windsor had expressed concern over the one-time prime minister's health. The spokesman said the duke was obviously referring to a letter which he received from Mr. King yesterday.

In the letter Mr. King said he was still confined to Laurier House and