

Programme Order - Oct. 4

- 2.00 p.m. - R.C.A.F. band in position.
- 2.15 - R.C.A.F. band plays background music as audience is being seated, and until speakers' platform is filled.
- 2.30 - ~~Larry Henderson~~ - "Ladies and Gentlemen, The Queen."
- 2.32 - ~~Larry Henderson~~ - "Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen, may I extend
~~this is Larry Henderson speaking and extending~~ a welcome to you on behalf of Avro Aircraft Limited, on the occasion of the unveiling and first public viewing of Canada's first supersonic aircraft, the CF-105, Avro Arrow long-range, all-weather interceptor. As an overture to today's ceremonies, may I introduce the R.C.A.F. band under the direction of Flight Lieutenant Cliff Hunt, playing The Knightsbridge March.
- R.C.A.F. band plays Knightsbridge March.
- 2.36 - "And now, to continue with the ceremonies on this very special day, may I introduce the President of Avro, Mr. Fred T. Smye."
- 2.36 - Mr. Smye introduces speakers and guests on platform. The final speech will be delivered by the Minister of National Defence. At the conclusion of the Minister's remarks, he will pull the cord.

- 3.10 - As the Minister pulls the cord, this is cue for curtain to open slowly and R.C.A.F. band to play a majestic fanfare which will segue to the R.C A.F. March Past.

Band will continue March Past until the aircraft has reached its final position and come to a full stop.
(Tractor exits).

- 3.15 - At this point, the fly past takes place.
- 3.20 - At conclusion of R.C.A.F. March Past played by the band, Mr.Smye will present his closing remarks.
- 3.25 - At conclusion of Mr.Smye's remarks, the R.C A.F. band will strike up a rousing march and will fade down while Larry Henderson closes the day's proceedings.
- 3.35 - Larry Henderson - "Ladies and gentlemen, Avro Aircraft Limited has asked me to make this announcement for your convenience. May we suggest, to overcome the possibility of any traffic problems for our guests, that you take advantage of our exits to the highway. Our Avro attendants are now at your service for this purpose. On behalf of Avro Aircraft Limited, ~~this is Larry Henderson saying~~ good afternoon."

Band plays to 3.40 p.m.

-----