

People

The following appointments were announced recently as part of the reorganization program at Avro Aircraft: R. N. Lindley, chief design engineer; Ron Adey, chief administrative engineer; S. E. Harper, chief experimental engineer; J. W. Kenny, experimental manufacturing engineer; E. F. Alderton, personnel manager; D. H. Rogers, chief test pilot; J. Turner, secretary and treasurer; W.

Parish, quality control and inspection manager; J. C. M. Frost, chief design engineer, special projects; H. C. Moody, chief administrative engineer, special projects.

Captain A. H. G. Storrs, D.S.C., C.D., RCN, has taken command of the Canadian Navy's aircraft carrier HMCS Magnificent.

Captain D. G. King, director of naval plans and operations at naval headquarters will assume command of HMCS Shearwater, fleet air arm shore training station.

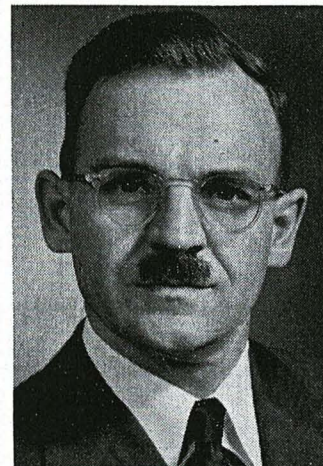

Captain R. B. Leslie, Chief Pilot (Overseas) of Canadian Pacific Airlines, heads the newly formed South Pacific Division, which includes the Vancouver to Sydney route and the new polar flight to Amsterdam.

Captain Harvey H. Johnston now becomes chief pilot for the North Pacific Division, covering the route from Hong Kong to Lima, via Tokyo, Vancouver, and Mexico City. Pending Government permission the route may soon be extended to include Buenos Aires.

Gerald C. Parker has been promoted to supervisor of the Press Bureau at Trans-Canada Air Lines.

Harold Miloff has been transferred from the Edmonton office of Trans-Canada Air Lines, to take up the duties of Press Writer with the Public Relations Bureau.

* * *

J. L. Morisset, Chief of International Relations Division of the Air Transport Board has become a Member of the Board.

Manley F. Haines, production manager of PSC Applied Research, Ltd., has been appointed to the Board of Directors.

D. J. Givens, former test pilot, is the new Washington representative for de Havilland Canada.

W. M. Chamard has been elected vice-president in charge of Finance at Canadian Aviation Electronics Ltd.

J. F. Berrier, of France, has been appointed director of the Bureau of Administration and Services of the International Civil Aviation Organization.

R. J. Conrath has been promoted to aviation manager at Railway and Power Engineering Corporation Limited.

M. M. Fleming, executive assistant to the Director of Air Services, DOT, has been made District Superintendent of Air Regulations at Moncton, N.B.

THREE GREAT NAMES IN AVIATION

WITTEK
Jacobs
Cessna

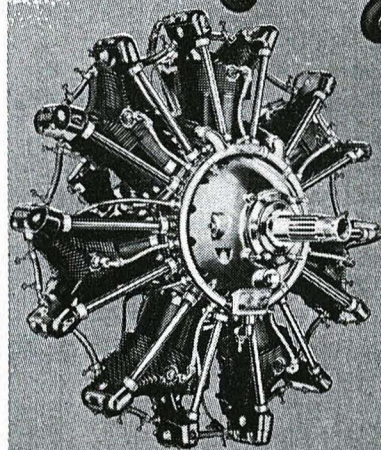

Cessna 195

Jacobs Engine Model R-755 A

both equipped with

WITTEK
Aviation
HOSE CLAMPS

AN737-RM
TYPE FBSS (Radial—with floating bridge)

AN737-TW
TYPE WWD (Tangential—with one-piece housing)

STANDARD OF THE INDUSTRY FOR OVER A QUARTER CENTURY

WITTEK MANUFACTURING COMPANY

4305-15 West 24th Place, Chicago 23, Illinois.