ONTARIO, Canada.

Thank you for your letter, dated 9th August, which I received on my return to the office today and I was very pleased to hear from you.

As far as your visit is concerned the sooner the better, and as you know Air Marshal Curtis and Harvey Smith are both coming over here on August 24th.

For your guidance, I shall be out of London during the week commencing September 4th when we have the Air Show at Farnborough. I shall also be away in Yorkshire for grouse shooting from Sunday, 10th September, returning to London on September 17th.

However, you will no doubt let me know what you arrange and I shall be delighted to see you.

Please do not hesitate to let me know if you would like my Secretary to arrange hotel accommodation in London, and she will also arrange for a car to meet you on arrival.
