PRIVATE & CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Sir Roy:

Re: Proposed Changes in By-laws

I have had Tory's firm going over the By-laws and am enclosing a revised copy suggested by them.

John Tory, Jr., who actually wrote up the original By-laws, did the work on these and the enclosed suggested change has his approval. He also states that this will in no way conflict with the other By-laws.

I have not had an opportunity of discussing them with Ted Emmert as he is away on a business trip until Thursday of next week.

Sincerely,

Sir Roy H. Dobson, C.B.E.,
Managing Director,
Hawker Siddeley Group Limited,
18 St. James's Square,
London S.W.1., England.
