

—NAMES IN THE NEWS

Two new appointments have been announced by Canadian Applied Research Ltd.: Paul G. Jeffrey as director of sales & service; and W. D. Russell as secretary. Mr. Jeffrey has a wide background of export sales work, marketing and sales administration with firms such as Massey-Harris-Ferguson, and J. D. Woods & Gordon Ltd. Mr. Russell has had extensive corporation experience. Until recently he was secretary and head of the legal department of Hunting Associates Limited.

Dr. Peter J. Sandiford of Toronto has been appointed as TCA's director of operations research. Dr. Sandiford, a physicist, has been associated with Price Waterhouse as a consultant in operations research.

Group Captain C. H. Cotton, recently retired from the RCAF, has been appointed as special assistant to the president of Aviation Electric Ltd., Montreal. G/C Cotton will be located in Ottawa where he will serve as liaison between the company and customers located in that area.

Three new RCA Victor appointments have been announced: R. J. Good has been appointed manager, defense electronic systems engineering. His experience includes development work on the CF-105 Arrow.

E. W. J. Morris, recently appointed manager, contracts administration. Prior to this appointment, Mr. Morris was responsible for the administration of all RCAF and microwave projects.

D. R. Sherwin, newly appointed manager, operations & engineering. Mr. Sherwin came to RCA Victor four years ago to take the position of manager, engineering design & development.

J. W. Paddon has been appointed manager of the Radar Systems Div.,

Decca Radar (Canada) Ltd. A native of Canada, Mr. Paddon's radar experience began at the Royal Aircraft Establishment in 1939. In WW II he was stationed in Washington by the Dept. of Munitions & Supply. He returned there during the Korean crisis as chief of the electronics division of the Department of Defence Production. Prior to his present appointment, Mr. Paddon was supervisor of administration in Canadair's Special Weapons Division.

Bruce Fleming, a test pilot with Canadair Ltd., and a former RCAF fighter pilot, has been awarded an American Distinguished Flying Cross for "action beyond the call of duty in the skies over Korea on May 13, 1952."

D. W. Richardson has been named as manager of the newly created Defence & Special Products Division of Leland Electric Canada Ltd., Guelph, Ont. Mr. Richardson, who is a graduate in mechanical engineering of the University of Toronto, was formerly branch manager for the Reliance Electrical & Engineering Co., of Dayton, Ohio.

John van Hemert has been appointed to the position of vice president, export division, Canadian Car Co. Ltd. He is also appointed to the same position with Canadian Steel Foundries (1956) Ltd. Mr. Van Hemert served in the Royal Netherlands Navy from 1934 to 1946 and joined Canadian Car in 1949. For the past year he has been sales manager, Budd Licensed Railway Equipment.

At the same time, Can-Car announced the appointment of A. M. Macaskill, CA, to the position of comptroller, Automotive and Aircraft Division. Mr. Macaskill joined Can-Car in 1950, and for the past five years has served as division accountant at the company's Fort William plant.

S. F. D. Sampson of Toronto has been re-elected president of the Canadian Owners & Pilots Association. New vice president of the association is Carl Millard, also of Toronto. Secretary-treasurer is Margaret Carson of Ottawa.

C. M. G. Farrell, of Canadian Pacific Airlines, has been appointed to the post of terminal superintendent at the Vancouver International Airport. His duties will consist of supervising all the terminal's activities pertaining to passengers and cargo on CPA international and domestic flights. Mr. Farrell started his flying career 40 years ago when in WW I he shot down 11 enemy aircraft and won a DFC. After the war, he engaged in bush flying. At the outbreak of WW II, he joined the RCAF and served until 1945, retiring with the rank of group captain. On release from the RCAF, he joined CPA.

A. C. MacDonald has been named executive vice-president, Industrial, A. V. Roe Canada Ltd., and Stephen G. Harwood, his successor as president and managing director, Canadian Car Co. Ltd. Mr. MacDonald will be responsible for the following industrial and commercial companies within the Group: Dominion Steel & Coal Corp.; Canadian Car Co. Ltd.; Canadian Steel Foundries (1956) Ltd.; Canadian Thermo Control Co. Ltd.; Canadian Steel Wheel Ltd., and Canadian General Transit Co. Ltd.

Mr. Harwood was formerly vice-president of Montreal Locomotive Works, Ltd., an associate of ALCO Products Inc.

J. H. Cornell, commercial manager and a director of The Photographic Survey Corp. of Toronto, died suddenly October 1 in Caracas, Venezuela while on a business trip. Mr. Cornell

D. R. SHERWIN

E. W. J. MORRIS

R. J. GOOD

G/C C. H. COTTON

D. W. RICHARDSON

joined PSC's aircraft operating company, Kenting Aviation, as a navigator in 1946. In 1950 he transferred to PSC's sales division as Western representative with headquarters in Calgary. He returned to Toronto in 1951 to become PSC's sales manager, a post later designated as commercial manager.

Top engineering changes at Orenda Engines Ltd. were announced recently: F. Harry Keast, formerly deputy chief engineer, has been appointed chief engineer with full technical responsibility for engineering activities.

ity for engineering activities.

Dr. Alex Muraszew, formerly chief experimental engineer, has been named deputy chief engineer responsible for the development department, experimental shop and the company's test establishment at Nobel, Ont.

Burt A. Avery, formerly chief design engineer, becomes deputy chief engineer responsible for the design, aerodynamics and material departments.

J. R. Robertson, MBE, MD, Superintendent of Airways & Airports for the Department of Transport since 1950, died at his home in Ottawa September 16. Mr. Robertson left university in 1916 to join the Canadian Army. Later he transferred to the RNAS and then to the RAF. He was badly wounded in August, 1918. After the war he resumed his studies at university, graduating in medicine in 1928. He joined the Department of Transport in 1936. During WW II, as Chief Inspector of Airways, he was awarded the MBE for his work during the developing of airfields for the BCATP.

Benoit Ste-Marie, assistant to the president of Quebecair Inc., has been appointed general manager of the company. The appointment was effective October 10, and coincided with Mr. Ste-Marie's departure to Paris, France, where he was to study the operations of Air France.

Two recent appointments by Timmins Aviation Ltd., Montreal, are those of K. A. Houghton, C. A., as comptroller, and Captain Ray Gilmer, as pilot of Timmins' new Super 18 Beech. Mr. Houghton brings to Timmins a vast knowledge of the transport industry as well as extensive experience in the accounting end of management. Mr. Gilmer was formerly with the aviation division of Canadian Breweries Ltd., and with the DoT.

Leavens Bros. announce the addition to their staff of Raymond W. Smith as sales representative. Mr. Smith joined the RAF in 1939 and served in England, throughout the Middle East and Italy with No. 73 Fighter Squadron. Before immigrating to Canada, he was sales manager of Ketay Ltd.

Joseph Johnson has been elected to the board of directors of Garratt Aircraft Ltd., Malton, Ont. Mr. Johnson was previously with the Dominion Bank of Canada, and has been acting as financial consultant for Garratt Aircraft.

K. H. Zinsmaster has been appointed as general manager of Aro Equipment of Canada Ltd. Mr. Zinsmaster brings to his new position some 22 years of experience with the parent company in Bryan, Ohio. The appointment will mean relinquishing his position as manager of procurement and production planning.

C. D. Howe has been elected to the Board of Directors of Atlas Steels Ltd.

CARRIERE and MacFEETERS Limited

AIRCRAFT ACCESSORIES

- Providing Canada's most modern sales and service facilities for the following aircraft instruments and accessories:

Compasses

Aircraft Instruments

Regulators

Relays

Ignition Equipment

Electrical Equipment

Rectifiers

Electrical Generators

Magnetos

Actuators

Compressors

Filters

Electrical Inverters

Electrical Motors

Tachometers

Electrical Dynamotors

&

Rheostats

Solenoids

CARRIERE and MacFEETERS Limited

AIRCRAFT ACCESSORIES

BOX 220, O'CONNOR DR. P.O.

TORONTO 16, ONT. PL. 7-5103