

Appointment of J. L. Plant (above) as executive vice-president and general manager of Avro Aircraft is announced. Mr. Plant held pilot and administrative posts in the RCAF, finally as Air Officer Commanding, Air Material Command, with the rank of A/V/M. Prior to his new appointment he was executive vice-president, Collins Radio Co. of Canada Ltd.

Bristol Aircraft (Western) Ltd., Winnipeg, announces the appointment of W. S. Haggett as president of the company. He was formerly general manager and vice-president. R. J. Reynolds, president of the parent company, the Bristol Aeroplane Co. of Canada (1956) Ltd., has relinquished his position as president of the Winnipeg firm, but remains chairman of the board of directors. W. M. Auld, general manager, is appointed a director of the Winnipeg company.

bonic Canadian Corp. Ltd., by General Dynamics, J. Geoffrey Notman, president of Canadair Ltd., has been elected to the boards of Liquid Carbonic, and its associated company, Imperial Oxygen Ltd.

Cessna Aircraft Co., Wichita, Kansas, has appointed Dwayne K. Jose divisional sales manager for the eastern half of Canada and the U. S.

Elected to the board of directors of Garratt Aircraft Ltd., Malton, Ontario, is Joseph Johnson (above). He is a retired banker, having served with the Dominion Bank, and has been financial consultant to Garratt for the past 18 months.

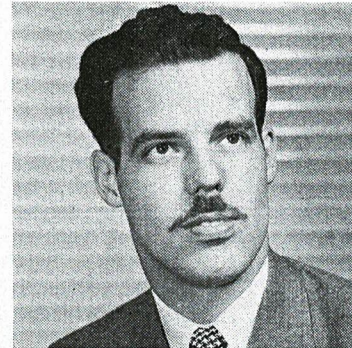

J. R. Bradford is appointed public relations officer of the Bristol Aeroplane Company.

Appointed deputy chairman of de Havilland Holdings Ltd., is A. F. Burke. He is also chairman of the de Havilland Engine Co. Ltd., and managing director of the de Havilland Aircraft Co. Ltd.

quality control of the Canadian Westinghouse Co. Ltd., Hamilton, Ont. He formerly co-ordinated the work of cost improvement teams in the firm's divisions.

Reg Cooper of the sales and service department of Orenda Engines Ltd., Malton, Ont., has been appointed the company's service representative with the Belgian Air Force. He will be stationed near Brussels, and will give technical assistance on the Orenda engines in the CF-100s bought by Belgium from Avro Aircraft.

Newly appointed vice-president, operations, of Thompson Products Ltd., St. Catharines, Ont., is Russell S. Kenerson. He served formerly with Thompson Products Inc., at Willoughby, Ohio.

Appointed vice-president (engineering) of Computing Devices of Canada Ltd., Ottawa, is J. S. Parsons (above). He joined CDC to set up a new analog systems department six years ago, and later became technical director and chief engineer. He was elected a director in 1953.

Doors for the Jet Age

Smoothly, effortlessly, Esavian hangar doors slide open to let the big planes in. Such precision, such deceptive simplicity could only be achieved by superb engineering and design. Closed, they give complete weather protection and will withstand frontal wind pressure exceeding gale force.

The Esavian principle can be applied equally to doors of immense width, and to quite small ones. In conception and advanced design, Esavian doors truly belong to the jet age.

Esavian doors at De Havilland's Hatfield works. Left: Fire Station Annex. Right: The Comet Hangar. Architects: James M. Monro & Son.

SALES:

David McGill & Sons, Ltd., 146 Bates Rd., Montreal, 8.
MANUFACTURING, SERVICE & PARTS:
Hall Engineering, Ltd., 45 des Seigneurs St., Montreal.

ESAVIAN LIMITED, Stevenage, Herts, England.

THE

PRINCIPLE

FOR FOLDING & SLIDING DOORS