

people

AIR/SPACE INSTRUMENT CAPABILITIES

Rich in experience, ASTEK engineers pioneered in the development of many of today's standard air and space instruments and systems. ASTEK is now working on new advanced projects that will significantly contribute to the routine operation of advanced aircraft, missiles and space vehicles.

ASTEK
INSTRUMENT CORP.
ARMONK, NEW YORK

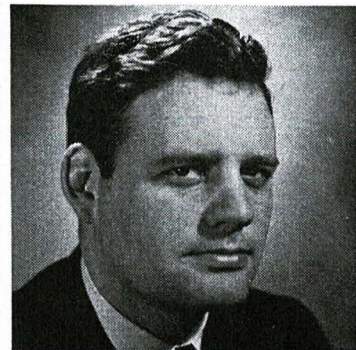

With increased diversification and expansion of the company Field Aviation Co. Ltd. has appointed former general manager Victor Koby (above) as vice-president marketing. The new general manager is A. F. (Al) Soutar.

Okanagan Helicopters Ltd.'s new vice-president in charge of operations is Fred Snell (above). He joined Okanagan in 1951, was appointed chief pilot of the group three years later and became operations manager in 1956. Mr. Snell was commissioned in the RAF in 1936, won the DFC in France in 1940 and a bar to the award in Burma in 1944. From 1941 to 1943 he served as an instructor and examining officer with the Commonwealth Air Training Plan in Canada.

Newly elected president of Houghco Products Ltd., Candiac, Que., is William B. McIlvaine Jr. (above). The company will handle Paymover towing tractors and other products of the Frank G. Hough Co., Libertyville, Ill.

Joining Timmins Aviation Ltd., Montreal, in 1956 and having served as general manager of the company for the past three years, Victor R. Bennett (above) has been appointed vice-president and general manager. He is a graduate of the Faculty of Law, University of British Columbia.

H. M. Humphries (above) is appointed materials manager of Litton Systems (Canada) Ltd. He was formerly manufacturing manager of Dowty Equipment (Canada) Ltd. Other recent appointments at Litton include those of D. Reynolds as plant services manager, and W. P. Tobias as chief accountant. Mr. Reynolds was formerly assistant service manager of Avro Aircraft Ltd., and Mr. Tobias is a graduate of the University of Toronto, and a certified public accountant.

Appointment of W. H. Richardson as stations manager, Canada, is announced by British Overseas Airways Corp. He succeeds Richard Graham, transferred to New York. Mr. Richardson took flying training in Saskatchewan with the RAF during the war and was seconded to BOAC in 1942 as an operations officer.

Newly appointed manager of the Schefferville (Knob Lake) base of Laurentian Air Services Ltd., Ottawa, is R. A. (Reg) Phillips. For the past five years he has been with A. Fecteau Transport in the Chibougamau area and prior to that he flew in northern Ontario, Manitoba and the Northwest Territories.

For further information mark No. 116