

Names in the News

the war he was chief met' man at Gander and Montreal for RAF Transport Command operations over the Atlantic.

•Hunting Associates Ltd. announces the following appointments to the Hunting Group:

M. E. Dedrick, who has assumed the position of treasurer, joins the board of Hunting Associates Ltd.

D. A. MacFadyen, vice president Latin American sales, joins the board of Hunting Associates (International) Ltd.

Dr. N. R. Paterson, chief geophysicist, joins the board of Hunting Survey Corp. Ltd.

•G. (Buster) Sellars has been appointed manager, customer relations, Timmins Aviation Ltd. Mr. Sellars has been associated with the aviation industry in Canada for the past 32 years. He recently retired as Eastern Canadian aviation manager for Shell Oil Co. of Canada Ltd.

•Fernand Jarry, president of Jarry Hydraulics Ltd., Montreal, has been elected to the board of directors of Dominion Brake Shoe Co. Ltd. Mr. Jarry's election to the board increases to four the number of resident Canadian directors on the board of nine. Jarry Hydraulics is an associate company of Dominion Brake Shoe.

•D. G. Kettering has been appointed director, marketing planning, of A. V. Roe Canada Ltd. Since 1959, Mr. Kettering has been director of product planning of North American operations for Massey-Ferguson in Toronto.

•Pat Hyde, district sales manager for Irish International Airlines in Toronto, has been named special sales representative for Western Canada. Mr. Hyde will be succeeded by Shaun Mayne as sales manager in Toronto.

•Aeromotive Engineering Products Ltd., Montreal, announces the appointment of Norman Silberberg as president and F. J. Crombie as secretary. Mr. Silberberg succeeds Arden C. Boland who remains a director of this company and president of Aeromotive's affiliated firm, Central Dynamics Ltd.

•Gordon Lloyd has been appointed CPA district representative in Ottawa. Eighteen years with CPA, Mr. Lloyd has served in regional capacities in Montreal and Vancouver.

•Daniel Treffe, 31, Montreal Flying Club instructor, died in Montreal Maisonneuve Hospital on November

2. Joining the French Air Force at the age of 20, he went on to fly jets. He came to Canada in 1956 and after obtaining his flying instructor rating with the Montreal Flying Club, remained to instruct. His health has been failing since last spring.

•Thomas E. Rowlands has been named president, and J. W. Strath executive vice president, of Canadian Aero Service Ltd., Ottawa.

Mr. Rowlands joined the company in 1951 as chief of the electronics division. In 1959 he became vice president, engineering and operations.

Mr. Strath has been with Canadian Aero since 1954. His early experience with the company was in flight operations. In 1959 he was named vice president sales.

•Three directors of the CNR have been appointed to TCA's nine-man board. They are: J. Louis Levesque, of Montreal; Harry Price, of Toronto; and Robert A. Brown, of Calgary. Legislation governing TCA requires that five directors be appointed by the CNR and four by the Government.

•W. M. Anderson has been elected president of B.C. Air Lines Ltd. Mr. Anderson is a senior partner in the firm of chartered accountants Winspear, Higgins, Stevenson and Doane. He is also a director of Northwest Industries Ltd.

Northern AIRCRAFT RADIO

CONTROL HEAD

TWICE the frequency range at HALF the weight! New, transistorized, 6-channel N414, designed for commercial or private aircraft requiring long-range communication. Completely self contained in compact unit. Also Local Panel Model, Mtd. Both in 12 or 24 Volts. MHF, 2-13 megacycles.

CANADIAN DEALERS

Souder Sales/Serv. Ltd., 683 E. Hastings, Vanc., B.C.
Canadian Aeron. Radio., Montreal Airport, Dorval, Que.
Foothills Aviation Ltd., McCall Field, Calgary, Alb.

NORTHERN RADIO COMPANY
4027 21st West.. Seattle 99, Washington

ROBERT EXPRESS . . . a new way to clean your aircraft with one simple application.

EXPRESS degreaser and cleaner easily removes oil, grease, exhaust stains — just put it on — wipe it off! Equally efficient for metal or fabric surfaces, painted or unpainted.

EXPRESS

- Leaves no film or scum.
- Won't harm paint, fabric surfaces, or skin.
- Is non-toxic and non-flammable.
- Is soluble in fresh water.
- Can be effectively diluted down to 10 to 1 in water.

Used by Timmins, D.O.T., Canadair, Sun Oil, Wabush Iron and many, many others.

EXCLUSIVE CANADIAN DISTRIBUTORS:

Lund Aviation (Canada), Ltd.

MONTREAL AIRPORT, P.Q.

Telephone: MEIrose 1-3519

