

William (Bill) Calver

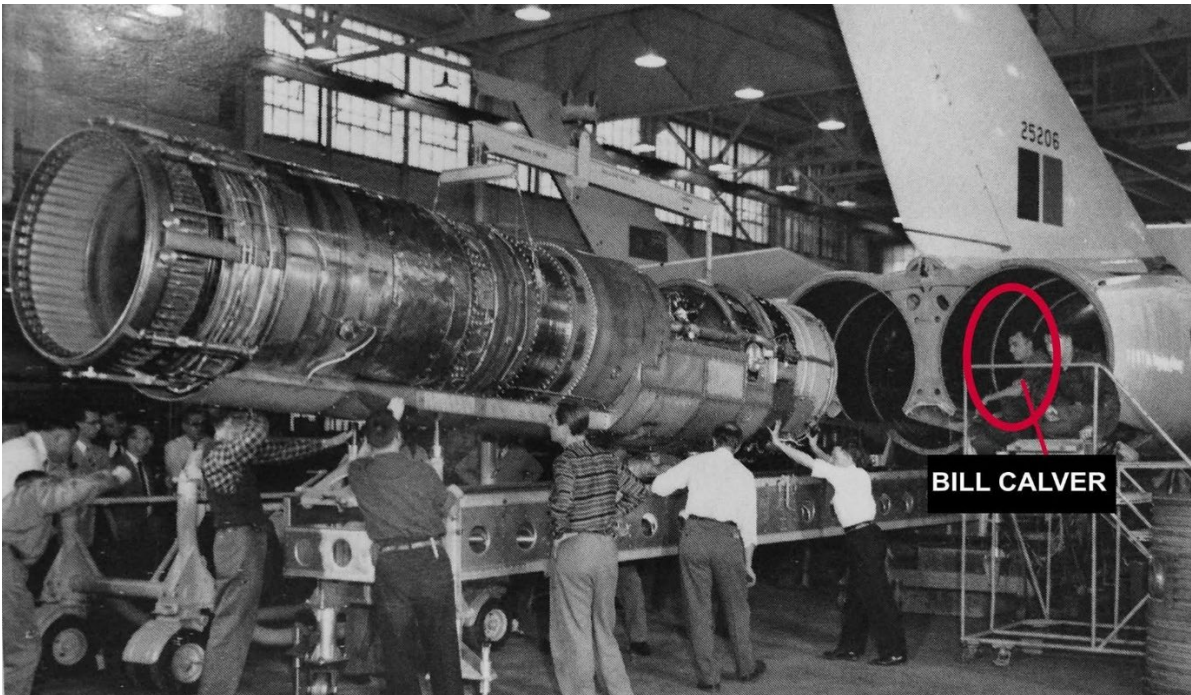

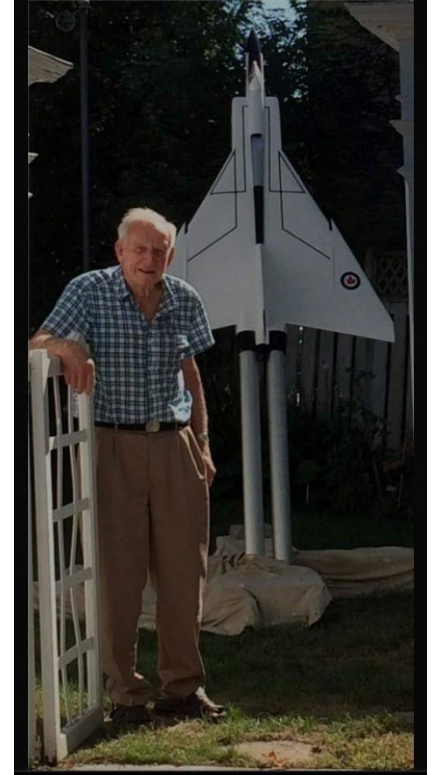

Avro employee #75002, joined in May 1958 and his last work on Black Friday was the parabrake-door modification. Prior to joining Avro he was an Aircraft Rigger (mechanic) with DND with work in Shearwater, NS.

At the 45th Anniversary of the C-102 Jetliner, he was seated with Les Wilkinson (CAHS historian) Don Rogers (C-102 & CF-100 test pilot), Mike Cooper-Slipper (C-102, CF-100 & B-47/CL-52 Iroquois test platform pilot)!

45th Anniversary of C-102 Avro Jetliner First Flight - August 10, 1949, the first Jet Transport to fly in North America. Clockwise from left; Mr & Mrs Les Wilkinson, CAHS Historian; Don & June Rogers, C-102 Jetliner Pilot; Mike Cooper-Slipper, B-47(Iroquois engine) Chief Test Pilot; ? , Robert Wilson, ? Employee; Bill & Ulva Calver, Final Assembler; Sunday, August 7, 1994, Holiday Inn, Toronto Airport.

William Calver
Newcastle, Ont.

BILL CALVER