

First marriage of an early Orenda engine into a U.S.A.F. Sabre in California (note the droop snoop intake modification on the engine). May 1950. This aircraft was finally flown to Canada breaking some unofficial city-to-city speed records.

Photo courtesy of Ron Page and The Boston Mills Press