

Diary data

Aviation organizations are invited to send in details of their future events for inclusion. Mail to Diary Data, Canadian Aviation, 481 University Ave., Toronto 2, Ont.

- Sept. 6-12. Farnborough Air Show of the Society of British Aircraft Constructors, Farnborough, Hants., England.
- Sept. 12. Brant-Norfolk Aero Club (1944): Annual fly-in beef barbecue and dance.
- Sept. 14-16. Society of Licensed Aircraft Engineers: First international conference of licensed aircraft engineers, Royal Aeronautical Society, London, England.
- Sept. 14-18. International Air Transport Assn.: Annual meeting, Bogota.
- Sept. 16-17. International Northwest Aviation Council: 29th annual convention, Edmonton, Alta.
- Sept. 17-19. Canadian Business Aircraft Assn. Inc.: Annual convention, Palliser Hotel, Calgary, Alta.
- Sept. 18-20. B.C. Aviation Council: Annual conference, Harrison Hot Springs Hotel, B.C.
- Sept. 24-26. International Northwest Aviation Council: Annual convention, Holiday Inn and Motel, Helena, Montana.
- Sept. 26. Governor General's Cup National Air Rally, sponsored by COPA, at Buttonville Airport. Entries contact: Mrs. Elva Barrett, sec/treas., 43 Heathfield Dr., Scarborough, Ont.
- Oct. 2. IATA: Composite traffic conference, Athens.
- Oct. 4-6. Air Industries Association of Canada: Annual meeting, Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City.
- October 5-7. Air Traffic Control Assn.: 9th annual meeting with theme "ATC tools for tomorrow, Chalfonte-Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, N.J.
- Oct. 16-18. Canadian Owners & Pilots Association: 10th Annual meeting, Gray Rocks Inn, St. Jovite, Que.
- Oct. 27-28. Canadian Aeronautics & Space Institute: AIAA / CASI joint meeting, Chateau Laurier Hotel, Ottawa.
- Nov. 2-4. Air Transport Association of Canada: Annual meeting, Empress Hotel, Victoria, B.C.
- Nov. 3-5. Canadian Air Line Pilots Assn.: 13th biennial convention, Royal York Hotel, Toronto.
- Nov. 5-7. National Business Aircraft Assn. Inc.: Annual convention, Americana Hotel, Miami Beach, Fla., and Opa-Locka Airport.
- Nov. 16-18. Canadian Military Electronic Components Symposium: Chateau Laurier, Ottawa.
- Nov. 16-18. Southwest Research Institute: 3rd International symposium on bio-astronautics and the exploration of space, Granada Hotel, San Antonio, Texas.
- April 22-30, 1965. IATA Technical conference on aircraft navigation, Miami Beach, Fla.
- July 30-Aug. 8, 1965. International Aircraft Show: business and personal flying exposition planned for McCormick Place and Meigs Field, Chicago, by Prestige Expositions Inc., New York 17.

June 25-Oct 3, 1965. International Exhibition of Transport: Munich exhibition area, Germany.

People

Norman C. Terry, Regional Airworthiness Inspector, Department of Transport, Vancouver, has retired following a life-long career in aviation. A pioneer in the maintenance and operation of aircraft his experience dates back to the days of the first World War and the RFC, through a period of service with the RCAF at Camp Borden and Jericho Beach, service with the old Canadian Airways and over twenty-five years of service with the Department of Transport.

N. C. Terry

A. T. Bice

Lt.-Cdr. Alan T. Bice, High River, Alta. and Calgary, has been promoted to the rank of commander and appointed assistant director of naval aircraft requirements, anti-submarine warfare aircraft, at Naval Headquarters, Ottawa. He entered the RCN in April, 1947, following previous service in the RCAF, the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve and the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve.

Appointment of George J. Bury as director of marketing is announced by Collins Radio Co. of Canada Ltd. Mr. Bury retired recently with the rank of Wing Commander, as deputy director of communications at RCAFHQ Ottawa. He will be located at the company head office in Toronto.

G. J. Bury

A. E. Maine

Newly appointed chief engineer of Garrett Manufacturing Ltd., Rexdale, Ont., is Arthur E. Maine, who has been with DFC Systems as a senior systems engineer for the past year. Earlier he was with de Havilland Aircraft in England and in Canada. Frank Halpin, former manager of the aviation division of Walter Kidde of Canada, has been appointed assistant sales manager of Garrett Mfg. He was with Avro Aircraft for 11 years latterly as head of the ground support engineering group.

Appointment of C. R. Grove as secretary of the company is announced by Computing Devices of Canada Ltd., Ottawa. He has been legal counsel for Computing Devices since 1962 and will also continue in that position.

C. R. Grove

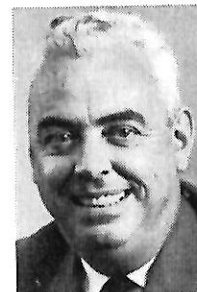

J. N. Leggatt

Jack N. Leggatt, Vancouver, B.C., has been named sales representative in Canada for Universal Aircraft Industries of Denver. His territory will include Alaska, Western Canada, and the Pacific Coast states.

Dr. J. E. Keyston, vice-chairman of the Defence Research Board since June 1, 1957, has been appointed Director of the SHAPE Technical Center in The Hague. Seconded from DRB for a three-year period, he will be succeeded by Dr. G. S. Field, the board's chief scientist since 1954.

J. E. Keyston

W. D. Gordon

William D. Gordon is appointed director, sales development for Canadian Pacific Airlines. Formerly eastern regional sales manager, he will be stationed at the Vancouver headquarters of CPA.

ITT Canada Ltd. announced the appointment of B. H. C. Spicer to the position of ITT area representative in Ottawa. Prior to joining ITT, Mr. Spicer was in the RCAF, Telecommunications Branch, retiring with the rank of Wing Commander. He will operate from the newly opened Ottawa area office, 421 Mansfield Avenue.

H. S. MacDonald an executive of the B. C. Aviation Council, has been elected Canadian vice-president of the International Northwest Aviation Council. Other elections included: Peter J. G. Power and A. M. Parry, directors.