

Arthur T. Sanderson

November 17, 1917 - March 6, 1998

Birth Location:

Chesley, ON

Death Location:

Oshawa, ON

Worked For:

Avro Canada

Position:

supervisor of tool and die work on the Avro Arrow

Work Dates:

Unknown - 1959

Military Service Recognition Book (online):

<https://www.on.legion.ca/msrb/Volume-2/331/>

Other:

SANDERSON, Arthur T.

Arthur was born on November 17, 1917 in Chesley, ON to Stanley Sanderson and Nellie Campbell. He enlisted in the Royal Canadian Navy in April 1943 and trained at HMCS Cornwallis, Port Royal, NS. He was then posted to HMCS Stadacona at the weapons armaments depot in Dartmouth, NS. Sub-Lieutenant Sanderson was discharged in 1946 and went on to become a supervisor of tool and die work on the Avro Arrow and when it was cancelled he was one of the last workers to go. After his time with Avro Arrow, he became Chief Safety Inspector at General Motors of Canada in Oshawa, ON. Arthur passed away on March 6, 1998.

<https://www.chatsworthlegionbranch464.ca/MSRB%20-%20202.pdf>

<https://brucemuseum.pastperfectonline.com/byperson?keyword=Sanderson%2C+Arthur+T.>

Researched by: Barry Copp (2023)

