MAIDEN FLIGHT OF DISCOVERY OV-103

41-D CREW INSIGNIA — The official mission insignia for the 41-D Space Shuttle flight features the debuting Discovery — NASA's third reusable vehicle. The orbiter heads for new horizons as did its predecessor — the USS Discovery — depicted in the patch. Surnames for the crew members of NASA's eleventh Space Shuttle mission encircle the red, white and blue scene. They are Astronauts Henry W. Hartsfield, Jr., commander; Michael L. Coats, pilot; Judith A. Resnik, Steven A. Hawley and Richard M. (Mike) Mullane, all mission specialists; and Charles D. Walker, payload specialist.
