DEAR SIR,

I really don't know how to console one in the grievous moment like this. I just want to say that Americans are not alone in this tragic moment.

Whether we share or not the happiness of our lives we are together in sorrow.

I am also a teacher and was enthusiastic towards Christa's mission. But fate wasn't with me that time. It doesn't mean that they have failed, but it's a challenge for us to bring their dream true. The tragedy shouldn't dishearten the students of Concord or other Schools.

I apologize, if I did anything wrong or hurt you people in any manner.
