Dear Sir or Madam,

I am a fifteen year old school girl and I would like to express my deepest sympathy on the death of Mrs McAuliffe yesterday.

Although I only saw clips off the television of her, I am sure she was a good teacher, with great dedication to her work. Mrs McAuliffe could have been my teacher anyday.

I would like once again to express my deepest sympathy once again to a lady who must have been loved by many people.

Yours Faithfully

Tracy Smithers.
