

Brescia, 18/2/86

Dear Sir,

Some of my pupils and I have decided to share your sorrow for the death of your teacher, Mrs Christa MacDuliffe. That tragic event has struck us and we feel one with you. We wish we could become Mrs. MacDuliffe's pupils pen friends. I teach English in Brescia and your writings will be part of my students' work for the next examinations.

Yours

Mr. Franco Zappa
