Dear Friends we
haven't met :

Our hearts join yours
as you grieve for the loss of your much-
loved Christa McAliffe.
— 9 for her six
companions of space.

We watched our TV
screens in horror —
but you know all
about that.

We dare to guess that in time the pain will go to you who knew
that happy woman will cherish only warm

remembrances of her: ✓
what a lovely example for us all (even we oldsters!). Equally, we here will remember the pre-lift off film as
The Seven strode out,
smiling, wonderfully
jaunty — now that's something to remember.

All our love:
