Dear Sir

My husband, myself, and family offer our ~~our~~ sincere condolence first to Mrs McAuliffe's husband, children, and family.

To yourself, and school, for this tragic loss of life.

Our hearts go out to each, and everyone, all so very brave.

Many tears have been shed by the America people.

We too shared your sorrow, many tears we shed. We watched on our TV, as always, what was to be a great event, as we have always done.

What can I say, except: I'm so very sorry for all concerned. I know pupils, and school, will always remember a very brave lady and crew.

I am Sir,

Yours truly

Mrs E. Ware
