Henry Bush

Birth: 1805 Vermont, USA

Death: 1879 (aged 73–74) California, USA

Burial: Alhambra Cemetery, Martinez, Contra Costa County, California, USA

Plot: Pioneer Section - Plot 348

Memorial #: 76525994

Bio: Henry Bush was the son of Timothy and Lydia (Newcombe) Bush. He was the husband of Abigail (Norton) Bush. Henry and Abigail were executive committee members of the Western New York Anti-Slavery Society - along with Frederick Douglass. After September 24, 1850 Henry left his pregnant wife and five children in Rochester, New York (youngest son George three years of age) and headed west to seek his fortune in the California Gold Rush. Abigail became pregnant six times (two children died in infancy) between 1834 and 1846. He arrived in San Francisco in 1851 via the Isthmus of Panama. Abigail and children later joined him. He served during the Civil War.

The Christian Brothers As Winemakers: oral history transcript/and related material, 1971-1975

Brother Timothy Being Interviewed At Mont La Salle 1975

He speaks of an old newspaper clipping which told of the Christian Brothers in 1879 buying 76 acres of property (12 acres of vineyards on it) from Mr. Bush. Mr. Bush also owned a cherry orchard about a mile and a half or two miles away in Alhambra Valley. They also had other property near by - one mile east of the courthouse in Martinez - it used to be at the end of Pine Street.
