THE SOCIETY: The Gulfport Historical Society was founded in 1981 as a non-profit association dedicated to the gathering, distribution, and preservation of the history of Gulfport. Its first goal was to compile a book on the community "Our Story of Gulfport," a collection of essays and memoirs, was published in 1985 and is now out of print. In 1999 a photo survey of Gulfport became one of Arcadia Publishing's "Images of America" series. Lynne Brown's first volume of "A Definitive History" was published in 2004 and the final volume came out in connection with our Centennial in 2010.

THE MUSEUM: Another early goal was to find a home for the memorabilia donated by residents. This was accomplished in 1984 when the Society leased the former Methodist church building in Chase Park, and began to collect research and exhibit materials. The Museum has been open on a regular basis for the past 28 years, and now is available to the public six days a week, from 2 to 4 on weekday afternoons and 10-12 Saturday mornings.

The Gulfport Historical Museum is located at 5301 28th Avenue South and serves as a free resource for citizens, visitors, and historians. Research your family, the history of your house, or just look through old Gulfport photos on our public computer. The Museum's website, www.gulfporthistoricalsociety.org provides an outline of all the materials available. We also publish a monthly newsletter, and Email inquiries are always welcomed, write us at admin@gulfporthistoricalsociety.org.

Check through the calendar for our 2014 schedule of events, and don't miss the 103rd Birthday Bash (Saturday, October 12, 2013), our annual celebration of Gulfport's incorporation in 1910. All are welcome to enjoy our traditional mullet toss, trolley tours, activities and more.

THEME OF THIS YEAR'S CALENDAR. GAZE BACK.. GLANCE AHEAD

Gulfport has celebrated over 100 years as an Incorporated Full Service City. It encompasses 3 square miles and has approximately 12,500 residents. A welcoming waterfront community surrounded by Boca Ciega Bay, Gulfport had a rich history as a vibrant fishing village. Today, Gulfport is known as a beautiful waterfront city filled with a multitude of artists, restaurants and the friendliest people in southern Pinellas County.

Over the years, Gulfport has seen some rather unique improvements among its facilities and business community. Inside this calendar you will see side by side Gulfport's past and present. The theme, Gaze Back, Glance ahead, represents the many improvements the City of Gulfport has seen over the years. The future is bright! Just imagine where our beautiful city will be in another 100 years.

Notes

Cover image: The first city hall, left, was built in 1913 and moved from Chase Park to 53rd Street in 1927. Auctioned off in 1953, it lasted forty years, as did the second city hall, which was replaced by the current one, right, in 1994.
