GULFPORT MUNICIPAL MARINA

4630 29th Avenue South

Many years ago, Gulfport was home to commercial fishing. The fishermen would haul their catches up onto the waterfront along Shore Blvd. As the city grew, more diverse types of business opened up in that area and the population grew. The "aroma" of this industry caused the people to "convince" the fishermen to move on up the bay toward Clam Bayou. Here the men dredged out a small harbor and thus began the Gulfport Marina. The complete operation of the Marina and Ship's Store was taken over by the City of Gulfport in 1983. The city continues to revise and improve all aspects of the Marina. Many world travelers as well as Sunday boaters have enjoyed this pretty little harbor.

STETSON UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF LAW
1401 61st Street South

January 1, 1926, saw the opening of the ROYAL HOTEL, Gulfport, Florida. Jack Taylor's luxurious Spanish-style hotel, played host to the great and near great of the mid-1920's including the New York Yankees, along with Babe Ruth. After the bust of 1927, the building was given new life as the Florida Military Academy which closed in 1952. It was reopened once again in 1954 as Stetson University College of Law. During WWII the tower was manned by people like Ethel White (mother of Nathan), who served her tours of duty as a plane spotter.

GULFPORT PUBLIC LIBRARY
5501 28th Avenue South

From the early days of the 1930's, when Julia Luckey ran a small lending library from the back of a drug store on Beach Blvd, to the beautiful, modern Library we enjoy today, has been a very long trip. One traveled by many hard working dedicated people in Gulfport, but, a trip well worth taking. If you have not stopped by for a visit DO IT TODAY!

PLAY BALL!

It is said that you can play ball in Gulfport from the age of 5 to 105. Beginning at the age of 5, the Little League field on Tangerine Avenue at 55th Street South see its share of action, as young people begin to learn the basics of the game. As they grow and develop, they move on to Hoyt Field. Hoyt Field takes up the entire city block from 23rd Avenue South to 24th and from 56th Street South to 57th. On one corner is a baseball diamond where many teams play through the year, including the Boca Ciega Pirates. On the other corner is a softball field that is home to even more teams. Among these teams are the GULFPORT BOOMERANGS. To be a member of this team you must be at least 50 years of age or older. Now in their 22nd year, the team it still going strong and especially enjoy the games against the Kids and Kubs.

PASADENA YACHT AND COUNTRY CLUB

6300 Pasadena Point Blvd.

The new club house replaced the old building built in 1925, when Jack Taylor developed the golf course, along with the ROYAT HOTEL. The course has had a long and varied past including raising cattle for the war effort in the 1940's. Following the war, a young Recreation Director at the Don CeSar Veteran's Hospital, by the name of Arnold Palmer, thought that golfing would be good therapy for his patients and would bring bus loads to play.

GULFPORT CASINO

5500 Shore Blvd.

The first Casino was built in 1905 with trolley tracks built along the wharf to the casino where passengers boarded boats for Pass-A-Grille. This Casino was beaten down during the hurricane of 1921. The second Casino was built in 1923, but after the storm of 1932 was condemned and torn down. Our present Casino was built in 1935, with the help of the Federal Government, and continues to be known for the "best dance floor in the south".

CLYMER PARK
5500 Gulfport Blvd.

The old trolley right-of-way along Tangerine and down Beach Blvd. was obtained by the City of Gulfport in 1975. On the 4th of July 1976, as part of the Bicentennial Celebration, CLYMER PARK was dedicated in the memory of former Mayor Jay P. Clymer. This beautiful little park is used through-out the year for many groups and has been the site of many weddings.

GULFPORT ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

2414 52nd Street South

Gulfport, in 1926, was the hub of academic activity with its new elementary school opening. There was great excitement as Gulfport Elementary opened Spanish-styled doors to educators, builders, and townspeople. The structure, with its massive arches, two-storied classrooms and balconies overlooking an atrium, was a new, handsome concept for schools. This building, along with St. Petersburg High School may be the only schools left in the area built in the Mediterranean Revival style.

CLAM BAYOU

During the Civil War the bayou was a supply point for the "Key West Avengers" as they scouted the "Yankees" stationed on Egmont Key. Later it became a different kind of supply point. With the purchase of the land, that was to become Twin Brooks Golf Course, by a group of men that included Alphonso Capone, Robert Vanella, John Torrio and Jack Guzik, the quiet, secluded little bayou became an easy entry port for small boats. What these boats carried we will leave to your imagination. For many years the Osgood brothers had their boat building business on the edge of this bayou on the spit of land between the bayou and the marina. Today this entire area has been developed into a nature preserve that you must visit to really appreciate.

GULFPORT HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM

5301 28th Avenue South

Originally built as the Methodist Church in 1910, but by 1956 it had become small for the growing congregation. It was donated to the City of Gulfport and moved across the street to its present location for use by the Scouts. After the Scouts moved next door the building was used by the Red Cross and Civil Air Patrol, until the City of Gulfport started the Gulfport Extended Mini Bus (GEMS) service in 1975. When the GEMS office moved out it was leased to the Gulfport Historical Society to develop a museum. A ribbon cutting ceremony on our third "Nostalgia Day", 1984 saw our official opening.
