The February Class Bids Farewell to the Institution — Essays Read on Many Topics—List of the Successful Students.

The auditorium of the girls' high school on Nostrand avenue, near Halsey street, was last night filled with graduates and their friends who assembled to take part in and be spectators of the commencement exercises of the February classes for 1891. At 8 o'clock sharp, as the local school committee took their seats on the platform and the graduates, dressed in snowy white, the majority of them richly costumed, walked slowly up the aisles and occupied the seats reserved for
