

Gulfport Little League

Program

LITTLE LEAGUE PARENTS TEN COMMANDMENTS

1. I shall not criticize the Umpire unless I am ready to take over his duties.
2. I shall not complain about anyone unless I have worked more for the Little League than he or she has.
3. I shall not be a "Grand Stand Manager".
4. I shall remember that only nine team players can play at one time.
5. I shall set an example of good sportsmanship for my child to follow.
6. I shall not be critical unless I am willing to put forth the effort to correct the problem myself.
7. I shall remember that all Little League personnel must earn a living, and cannot work on Little League full time.
8. I shall remember that Little League workers are volunteers.
9. I shall offer my services to help whenever possible.
10. I shall encourage my child to follow the Little League Pledge

I TRUST IN GOD.
I LOVE MY COUNTRY & WILL RESPECT ITS LAWS.
I WILL ALWAYS PLAY FAIR AND STRIVE TO WIN.
BUT, WIN OR LOSE,
I WILL ALWAYS DO MY BEST.

TEAM SELECTION

The method used to select boys and girls for Little League teams is designed to insure that every eligible child has a fair chance and that all teams are as nearly equal in playing strength as possible.

The Player Agent sees that every child in the chartered area, and of appropriate age, is notified of tryouts. He keeps attendance records at tryouts and checks birth certificates and addresses for eligibility. A child must attend at least two thirds of the scheduled tryouts, unless he is excused for medical or other acceptable reasons. The team managers watch the tryout sessions and keep records of each child's ability at baseball skills, general attitude and reaction to discipline.

Immediately following the final tryouts, the Player Agent furnishes to each team manager a list of all eligible children, and sets the date for the player draft.

At the draft meeting, the manager of the team which finished last in the previous season starts by selecting a player he wants; then the manager of the team which finished next-to-last makes a selection, and so on until the team which won last year names a player. This completes the first round. Selection rounds follow in the same sequence with each manager dropping out when he has named enough players to fill the vacancies on his team. Special provisions are made for sons or daughters of managers trying out, brothers and sisters on a team trying out or two brothers or sisters trying out together. It is League policy to try to keep families on the same team.

When eligible children are not selected for a team, it is because the managers think those children have not yet developed enough skills or the attitude necessary for the competitive situations of Little League baseball. Another year in the Minor League training program will help develop and perfect these skills. All 8-year olds play at least one year in the Minor League.

Once selected for a team, a player is a member of that team through age 12, unless the player resigns, moves away, or is discharged. A player may be discharged only by vote of the Board of Directors, and for good reason. Discharges are usually the result of severe disciplinary problems, persistent tardiness or failure to attend games or practice sessions.

The proceedings at a player draft session are secret. No player or parent is ever told the point at which he was drafted.

Uniforms

Each player on a regular team is issued a full uniform, which must be returned at the end of the season. Hats may be kept. It is the responsibility of each player and his or her parents to have the uniform clean and neat for every game, and to make minor repairs.

Little League uniforms are to be worn only at or on the way to or from Little League activities.

Minor League and T-Ball players are issued T-shirts and hats, which are theirs to keep. Shirts should be clean and mended, if necessary, for every game.

All Little League players provide their own shoes. Most wear sneakers. Shoes with rubber cleats are allowed, but steel spikes are absolutely forbidden.

Uniforms and equipment are the League's largest expense. Parents who keep the uniforms in good condition are truly helping the League financially.

Little League Safety

Little League Baseball is proud of its safety record - the best of any organized sport, and the result of years of research in baseball safety. A strict set of safety rules is enforced at every Little League game and practice.

Parents! Please help to see that these rules are followed:

CATCHERS MUST WEAR SUPPORTERS WITH PLASTIC OR METAL CUPS.

NO WATCHES, RINGS, PINS OR OTHER BRIGHT OR SHARP METAL OBJECTS MAY BE WORN WHILE PLAYING.

CHILDREN WHO WEAR EYEGLASSES SHOULD HAVE THE SAFETY-TYPE GLASS.

In spite of the best precautions, accidents do happen. Parents should see that any injury receives immediate and proper care. The League's insurance will pay any cost not covered by parents' private insurance. Contact the Safety Officer for assistance with insurance problems or claims.
