"Many hands and big hearts can make a difference!"

Presenting the past

Who doesn't love Gulfport? We all do, or else we wouldn't be here. We may be biased, but we think Gulfport's the best small town in America. We hope this year's calendar helps you understand how our community evolved over the years. Each photo here comes from two photos —one we found in our archives, and one we took of approximately the same spot in 2016. We've composited them to bring the part into the present, hence the calendar title this year.

After much thought, discussion and consideration, the Society has decided this is the last year we will produce a wall calendar — the way we use calendars has changed, and the need in our community for a wall calendar is no longer as strong as it was. However, we will start publishing Gulfport yearbooks — collections of photos and other items that happen throughout the year — so please look for that in 2018. These annual books will preserve history as it happens and allow us to more fully showcase our community every year.

The Gulfport Historical Society preserves and celebrates Gulfport culture and history through exhibits and programs that educate and inspire the community and visiting public. We hope this calendar's lighthearted look at our beloved bay will inspire you to learn more about our environmental history and get involved in its protection and preservation.

To learn more, please visit us at the Gulfport History Museum (5301 28th Avenue South). Admission costs nothing; come by to see our rotating exhibits, sip coffee in our Square Mullet Coffee Shop, or research the history of your home, your family, or Gulfport. Learn more about all we do at GulfportHistoricalSociety.org. Interested in volunteering? Come to one of our events and learn more about how you can help, or email info@gulfporthistoricalsociety.org.

The Gulfport Historical Society is a 501c3. We welcome your tax-deductible donations, all of which go directly to funding historical activities. Special thanks to the city of Gulfport, specifically Jim O'Reilly and Gail Biron, for their overwhelming support of all Gulfport Historical Society programs. We also owe a debt of gratitude to Society member Margarete Tober for her content assistance, logical suggestions, and eagle eye. Volunteer Adrienne Brown took most of the "now" photos. Design donated by Dreams Float, LLC. Please patronize this calendar's advertisers; they make what we do possible.
