APRIL GENERAL MEETING & POTLUCK

Plan now to attend the Annual General meeting and Potluck supper to be held under the old oak tree between the Museum and Scout Hall. Mark down the date of April 10th at 6:30 pm. Please bring a covered dish to pass. The Historical Society will provide a ham, cake for desert, drinks and setups. Door prizes will be awarded plus a great dinner and fellowship.

OUR DOCENTS

We would like to give a special thank you to our docents that hold the museum open each week. They are John Milford, Miki Vaughan, Maria Gsell, Priscilla Hoon, Fran Worthington, and Gertrude Smith. Marie has been taken on the task of being the coordinator making sure someone is always there. Without the dedicated service of these volunteers we would not be able to hold the museum open 6 days a week from September through June each year. Once again we will be closed the months of July and August to give them a break.
THANK YOU DOCENTS!

LOOKING FOR A REPAIR PERSON

We want to resurrect one or both of the old treadle Singer sewing machines at the museum and get them in working order. That way we could do actual demonstrations on how they work. Both need work done including new belts. If you have worked on this type Singer or know where to get any parts please contact Judy at 743-9276.

ARE YOUR DUES UP TO DATE?

It has been brought to my attention that I forgot to let everyone know what the dues are so..... dues annually: Single $5; Family $10; Business or Organization $25; Life Time $100 and can be mailed to Gulfport Historical Society, P. O. Box 5152, Gulfport, FL 33737 THANK YOU for your support!

60s DECADE CELEBRATION

Everyone that attended the 60s decade celebration had a great time. We finally had to stop the band to get the last table of dancers off the floor. The Suncoast Band did a super job playing all our favorite hits from the 60s and more. We would like to thank Tom Brobiel, Jackie Brown and Dirk Ryerson for putting their 60s vintage cars on display. Of course the "brownies" were a big hit as well. Next year we are set for Friday, February 29th 2008 (that's right its Leap year) for our return to the 1920s! So better start looking for your flapper dress, coon skin coats and letter sweaters that went with the Shuts Bearcat cars. Not to mention getting into that favorite speakeasy.
