CAPT. CHARLES N. KUHN

Veteran of the Civil War Dies at Westminster.

Westminster, Md., February 25.—Capt. Chas. N. Kuhn died yesterday afternoon at his home here, aged 68 years, after over a year's confinement to his bed from wounds received during the Civil War.

Captain Kuhn was a gallant soldier, entering the service as second lieutenant of Company A, Sixth Maryland Regiment, August, 12, 1862. He was promoted to first lieutenant of the same company September 8, 1862, after which he served on the staff of Gen. J. Warren Kiefer. He was wounded at Fishers Hill by a solid shot which tore off his hip and threw him 20 feet from his horse, October 19, 1864. He was promoted for bravery to the captaincy of Company C, Sixth Maryland, November 17, 1864, and discharged on account of wounds March 17, 1865. His death leaves John H. Witter the only survivor of 100 men of Company A now living at Westminster.

He leaves a widow, who was Miss Estelle Wampler, daughter of James L. Wampler, of Baltimore. Captain Kuhn was for many years an inspector at the Baltimore Custom-house, was very prominent in the Grand Army of the Republic and was a Mason. His funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

William H. Baer.
 Mr. William H. Baer, aged 75 years, of 303 East Lanvale street, Baltimore, died at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, after a lingering illness, death being due to old age. Mr. Baer was a native of Baltimore, but resided for many years in this city. He served in the United States Navy during the Civil War as paymaster. Although he was not wounded during any of the engagements, he contracted a disease from which he never fully recovered. He was a member of Burns Post, G. A. R., of this city. His widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Baer, is critically ill from the effect of burns accidentally sustained on Christmas day and grief at the death of her husband. Besides his widow, who was Miss Elizabeth A. Cherry, five daughters (Mesdames T. S. Ickes, of Newport, Pa.; W. C. Wickert, J. H. Philbin, Misses Katherine and Helen Baer), a son, (Mr. William H. Baer, Jr.) and four grandchildren survive him.

David O. Brummel died at his home in Baltimore on Sunday evening, after a prolonged illness from Cardiac Asthenia aged about sixty-seven years.

Mr. Brummel resided for some time in Hampstead and Boring, Baltimore County, but for the past few years resided in Baltimore. He was in Company K, last Maryland Regiment in the late Civil war, and was for many years a member of Burns Post No. 13 G. A. R. of Westminster.

He is survived by a widow and five children: Mrs. Ella Newman, Miss Abigail Brummel, Elisha and Upton Brummel, all of Baltimore; and Mrs. Joshua Gill of Boring; also by three sisters, Mrs. Mary Ebaugh of Hanover, Pa., Mrs. Joshua Bosley of Woodensburg, and Mrs. Nelson Stansbury of Reisterstown.

His funeral took place on Wednesday morning from Hampstead M. E. Church, Rev. Milson Thomas officiating. The pallbearers were Alpheus Stansbury, David Brown, Jerome Nolte, J. W. Kelbaugh, J. H. Patterson and Wm. Buchman.

C. V. Tipton & Son were the funeral directors in charge.

Col. S. K. Herr.

Col. Samuel K. Herr, postmaster of this city, died on Monday evening at 6:45 o'clock, after a very brief illness of angina pectoris, in the 68th year of his age. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emily Herr, who is a daughter of the late Nathan I. Gorsuch of this city. He is also survived by two stepchildren, Mrs. Harry McKimmy of Philadelphia and by one, Buckingham of Baltimore; and three sisters, namely, Frank K. Herr, Elizabeth and Sallie Herr, this city and Mrs. Dr. Luther Trump of Manchester, this county.

The funeral services were held at Centenary M. E. Church in this city on Wednesday at 2 P. M. The services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. L. E. Bennett, assisted by the following ministers: Revs. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, Jesse Starr, Harold M. Rider, P. H. Miller, D. L. Greenfield and O. C. Marriott.

Rev. P. H. Miller read a part of the 15th Chapter of St. Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians. The Rev. Jessie Starr, who has been intimately associated with the deceased, offered a very feeling and impressive prayer. The church choir, consisting of Misses Ada Manahan, Laura Nygren, Annie and Grace Yingling, Mrs. Edward O. Diffendal, Mrs. Charles H. Mackley, Messrs. J. Wesley Yingling, U. Grant Heltbride, Claude Kimmy and Paul Shipley, with Mr. Albert C. Mitten as organist, sang "The Rock of Refuge," in a very impressive manner.

Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, President of Western Maryland College, delivered a short sermon upon the life and character of the deceased. Dr. Lewis said a good man's death deals its hardest stroke on the living. That to have lived in the same town with him for 28 years, and never hear any aspersions of his integrity, is something that cannot be said of many men. He said the deceased was modest, brave, gentle in spirit, stiff in resolution, kind hearted and tender. A good clean handed and hearty man with high ideals. A fine type of gentleman, considerate in speech and action, and a man whom a stranger would know in a moment. His home life was an example of domestic virtue and happiness and his memory can only recall tender thoughts. He had been a good soldier of Christ, just as he had been a good soldier for the Union; he had made a good fight.

Rev. Harold M. Rider, a very recent pastor of Centenary M. E. Church, was deeply affected by the death of his friend and he experienced some difficulty in controlling his feelings. He said Westminster will be a different place to him and every one because of the death of the deceased. He had the heart of a lion but withal was a loving tender and kind friend to every one. Utterly unselfish, and a knight of the new chivalry. He was a christian gentleman. He loved his church and said he thought we were all richer because the deceased had lived in Westminster, and prayed God to grant that we may all live better lives. He was one of the straightest men he had ever known.

Rev. L. E. Bennett, pastor, related an incident that occurred just a day or two before Col. Herr was taken ill. He said that Col. Herr had been in Washington on business and had come home very tired. But on being informed by a young man of the town that he would like to have him go with him to the parsonage to talk over his spiritual welfare with the pastor, the deceased immediately complied with the young man's request. While at the parsonage that evening he prayed for the young man, and with him, and after the meeting seemed so much refreshed. That, with the exception of helping to take up the collection on Sunday night, was the last work he did for the church as he was taken seriously ill very shortly after.

Greenfield then offered prayer, after which the remains were carried from the church while the choir sang "Abide With Me."

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a regular meeting of Burns Post No. 13, G. A. R. of Westminster, held March 12th, 1910, a motion was made and unanimously adopted to express the feeling of said Post at the death of one of our highly esteemed and honored comrades, Col. Samuel K. Herr, who, when quite a young man, offered his services to the Government when it needed the same on the field of battle and courageously filled his post wherever and whenever called upon, and thereby earned the title of hero, and who has now answered his last roll call.

We the surviving members of said Post hereby wish to convey to the widow and relatives of said comrade our profound and sincere sympathy in this their hour of sorest affliction and offer to, in case of need, our actual assistance and help, if ever required.

Resolved, That this be published in the SENTINEL and a copy thereof be sent to the bereaved family.

By order of the Post.

JAS. S. BAER, Commander.

Thomas J. Hunt.

Many hearts were made sad by the announcement, on Tuesday morning, that Mr. Thomas J. Hunt, of Hampstead, had expired at the City Hospital, Baltimore, at an early hour of that day. Readers of the SENTINEL have heretofore been informed of the fact that he had had one of his toes amputated and later that it had become necessary to amputate his right leg below the knee, with the hope of saving his life. But blood poisoning had set in, he had become enfeebled by suffering and gradually sank from the causes mentioned until his death. Mr. Hunt was endeared to a large circle of friends by his manly and upright character and genial deportment. His hospitality was unbounded and guests in his home were made to feel that it was a pleasure to him to entertain them. He was a sound and successful business man and his store of general merchandise at Hampstead was liberally patronized, his customers fully realizing that they were always fairly treated in dealing with him. He established the business many years ago, but for several years past his son, Mr. Thomas Andrew Hunt, has been associated with him in conducting it.

Mr. Hunt was a public-spirited citizen and useful member of society. He was a pious, prominent and influential member of the M. E. Church at Hampstead and connected actively with the Sunday School in which he took a deep interest. He was a veteran of the Civil War, having served as sergeant in Co. E, Second Maryland Cavalry Regiment. He was a past commander of Burns Post No. 13, G. A. R., of this city, in which he maintained active membership and interest to the end of his life, and was always interested in promoting the welfare of his comrades. He was also an honored member of Lebanon Lodge, A. F. and A. M., at Manchester.

Mr. Hunt was about 67 years old. He is survived by a widow, one son, Mr. T. Andrew Hunt, of Hampstead, and two daughters, Misses Nettie and Rosa Hunt. His funeral took place this morning at 11 o'clock, both Burns Post and Lebanon Lodge taking part in the services and performing their burial rites at his grave. Many beautiful floral pieces were contributed by the orders named and his sorrowing friends and Grand Army comrades.

Funeral, Jan 24-1908.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of Burns Post No. 13, G. A. R., of Westminster, held on Saturday, Feb. 8th, 1908, the undersigned were appointed to prepare a tribute of respect to the memory of our late Comrade, THOS. J. HUNT, who died in Baltimore, on Jan. 22nd, 1908, and in pursuance of that duty submit the following as truthfully expressive of the high estimation in which Comrade Hunt was held by the members of this Post, and by all who knew his character and worth: Comrade Hunt was a citizen who recognized the duty of patriotism and when the country's life was imperiled did not hesitate to enter the ranks of her defenders and endure all the hardships, tolls, dangers and sacrifices incident to the obligations of an American soldier in time of war. Quiet and unassuming in demeanor and gentle in manner, he was yet, in battle, a brave and sturdy soldier, who did not flinch from the fiery hail of bullets or the shrieking of murderous shells. It can be truly said of him, both in military and civil life, that he knew his duty and performed it faithfully and manfully. When the war was over and its dangers past he returned to the quiet pursuits of private life and took up his duties with a free and willing hand. He lived among his neighbors an upright, manly and worthy life and, dying, has left to his family the heritage of a good name and his comrades a noble and worthy example. We venerate his virtues and will cherish his memory until for us, too, taps shall be sounded and we shall have answered our last roll call.

And now, we, the members of Burns Post No. 13, G. A. R., desire to express to his widow and children in this their hour of sorest affliction, our sincere and heartfelt sorrow and mourning and to offer our most sincere condolence, commending them to Him, who alone can help and comfort in this, their hour of trial, and assuring them of our assistance and support in the future, whenever they so desire or command.

RESOLVED, That this Tribute of Respect be published in the AMERICAN SENTINEL, and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.

Respectfully,

GEORGE C. GRASS,
JOHN M. REESE,
JAS. F. TRACEY.

Committee.

F, Second Maryland Infantry Regiment, in the Federal Army, July 13, 1861, and served continuously until July 17, 1865. He was a brave and faithful soldier and was in every engagement in which the regiment participated during the Civil war, among them Second Bull Run, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Spottsylvania and the assault on Petersburg, besides innumerable less important battles. After his honorable discharge he spent some time with the army as a teamster and was in many fights with the Indians. He was a member of Burns Post No. 13, G. A. R., of this city. He was a worthy man and good citizen, respected by all who knew him. He leaves a widow, but no children. Two sisters, one half sister and one half brother survive him—Mrs. Evelyn Powder, of Owings Mills; Mrs. A. S. R. Danner, of Avondale; Mrs. Isabel Brightner, of New Windsor, and Mr. John Swartzbaugh, near Los Angeles, Cal. Funeral services were held in Thomas Chapel M. E. Church, Tuesday morning, by the pastor, Rev. F. H. Ambrose, after which the remains of the veteran soldier were interred in Westminster Cemetery. The pallbearers were members of Burns Post and he was buried with the rites of the G. A. R. Mr. Arthur Stonesifer sounding taps. Messrs. J. M. Stoner & Son were funeral directors.

JONATHAN MYERS

Mr. Jonathan Myers, a Civil War veteran, member of the 6th. Md., Regiment Vol. Infantry, died at his residence, John street, this city, Tuesday night at 10.30 o'clock, aged 79 years, 10 months and 9 days. He is survived by four sons (Luther, of Winfield; Harry, of Baltimore; John, of Sykesville, and David Myers, of this city) and three daughters (Mrs. Margaret McCarty, of Baltimore; Mrs. Charles Buckingham, of Green Spring Valley, Baltimore county, and Mrs. Lillian Bentz, at home). He is also survived by one brother, Mr. A. Kurtz Myers, former Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court of this county.

The funeral services were held this Friday afternoon, beginning with a short service at the house at two o'clock, with more extended services at Meadow Branch Church of the Brethren. Elder Wm. E. Roop, assisted by Elder Uriah Bixler officiated and the interment was in Meadow Branch Cemetery. Members of Burns Post G. A. R. acted as pallbearers.

Messrs Harvey Bankard, and Son had charge of the funeral.

Mr. Myers was paralyzed Monday about 3.15 P. M. He attempted to load a large stone on a cart at the crossing at Dr. D. L. Shipley's residence, E. Main street. He was removed to his home where he sank rapidly. He was a hard working, honest, upright and loyal citizen and soldier and was respected by all of his neighbors and friends. During the Civil War, in which he served three years, he was often sent on detail duty which required cool judgment and nerve. He received his last U. S. pension check Monday and had he lived a short while longer he would have received the increase pay which has been so generously provided by the government for the Union soldiers who have reached old age.
